INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference.

The Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations allow us to "incorporate by reference" the information that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. This means that we can disclose additional important information to you by referring to those documents. We have filed the following documents with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the information contained in those documents is incorporated by reference into this registration statement:

- (1) Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002;

Please note that all other documents and reports filed under Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, following the date of this Prospectus and prior to the termination of this offering will be deemed to be incorporated by reference into this Prospectus and will be made a part of it from the date of filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Any statement contained in a document incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of the registration statement to the extent that a statement contained herein modifies or replaces such statement. ### Item 4. Description of Securities.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

None.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Sections 204 and 317 of the California Corporations Code (the "Corporations Code") permit indemnification of directors, officers, and employees of corporations under certain conditions subject to certain limitations. Article V of the Registrant's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the "Articles") provides that the liability of the directors for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under California Law. Article V of the Registrant's Articles states that the Registrant may provide indemnification of its agents, including its officers and directors, for breach of duty to the Registrant in excess of the indemnification otherwise permitted by Section 317 of the Corporations Code, subject to the limits set forth in Section 204 of the Corporations Code. Article VI of the Bylaws provides that the Registrant shall, to the maximum extent and in the manner permitted in the Corporations Code, indemnify each of its agents, including its officers and directors, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding arising by reason of the fact any such person is or was an agent of the Registrant.

Pursuant to Section 317 of the Corporations Code, the Registrant is empowered to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the Registrant to procure a judgment in its favor) by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer, director, employee, or other agent of the Registrant or its subsidiaries, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with such proceeding, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Registrant and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, has no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. In addition, the Registrant may indemnify, subject to certain exceptions, any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action by or in the right of the Registrant to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer, director, employee, or other agent of the Registrant or its subsidiaries, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person believed to be in the best interest of the Registrant and its shareholders. The Registrant may advance expenses incurred in defending any proceeding prior to final disposition upon receipt of an undertaking by the agent to repay that amount if it shall be determined that the agent is not entitled to indemnification as authorized by Section 317. In addition, the Registrant is permitted to indemnify its agents in excess of Section 317.

- (iii) Include any additional or changed material information on the plan of distribution.
- (2) For determining any liability under the Securities Act, treat each such post-effective amendment as a new registration statement of securities offered, and the offering of such securities at that time to be the initial bona fide offering.

(e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act") may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than for the payment of expenses by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of the Registrant's counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
