ITEM 5.02(a)(1) AND (b)

On May 17, 2005, Corinne Bertrand resigned as the Chief Financial Officer of Island Pacific, Inc. (the "Company") and on May 18, 2005, Michael Tomczak resigned as a director of the Company. Both Ms. Bertrand and Mr. Tomczak have asserted that their resignations are the result of disagreements with the Company's board of directors (the "Board") regarding the scope and manner of the Board's current internal review and investigation of revenue recognition for certain transactions during its 2003, 2004 and 2005 fiscal years, which review and investigation were previously disclosed in the Company's Form 8-K filed on April 20, 2005. Mr. Tomczak's resignation letter is attached as exhibit 17.1. The Board disagrees with Ms. Bertrand's and Mr. Tomczak's position and characterization of the Board's continuing review and investigation. The Company has retained independent counsel and a forensic accountant selected by Mr. Tomczak and Ms. Bertrand to conduct the review. The Board believes that such review is, and will be, thorough, extensive and complete. Once the review is complete, which the Company currently anticipates should be within 30 days, the Company's Board will make a determination regarding whether any of the Company's filings relating to the fiscal years ended 2003, 2004 and 2005 need to be restated. Mr. Tomczak previously stated that his resignation was due to a conflict of interest arising from the Company's continuing negotiations with Multi-Channel Holdings, Inc.
