No other votes are required or necessary. See the caption "Vote Required for Approval" below. The existing Florida corporation will have total authorized preferred stock as currently authorized by the Nevada corporation, with the same rights and designations as currently exists and the total number of authorized common stock shall also remain the same as currently authorized. GRANT AUTHORITY TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO MOVE THE CORPORATIONS' STATE OF REGISTRY FROM NEVADA TO FLORIDA.

Seamless' board had determined that it would be in the Company's best interest in the near future to move the domicile and state of registry of the Company from Nevada to Florida and has received the consent of holders of a majority of the voting rights of the Company' securities to authorize the board to conduct such a move, with the timing and process to be made at the Board's discretion.

The board believes that the move to Florida would provide for a better business environment for the Company and the Company will benefit from the lower tax and operational costs.

The primary purposes of the move are to accomplish the following:

- a) Decrease the maintenance costs of the Company, including fess and registration charges imposed by the State of Nevada, maintenance of a registered agent, and
- b) Has a greater employment base from which to expand operations from.

For the above reasons, the board believes that the move is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. There can be no assurance, however, that the move will have the desired benefits over the future as changes in Florida fees and charges may alter any perceived savings or economies.

PROCESS TO REDOMICILE.

The Nevada corporation, Seamless Corporation, will enter into an agreement of merger with GDT TEK, Inc., that will allow for all debts, assets, obligations, shares and the current officers to continue after the merger is completed. Filings to formalize those actions will be filed with the appropriate officials in the States of Nevada and Florida. Upon the filing with the respective states being accepted the actions described will then become final and effectively move the domicile of the Company from Nevada to Florida.

Seamless is currently authorized to issue 20,000,000,000 shares of its common stock of which 10,394,580,963 shares are currently issued and outstanding, 2,000,000 shares of Preferred A Stock, which converts into 10,000 shares of common stock per share, 1,000,000 shares of Preferred B Stock, which have no voting rights and converts into 1,000 shares of common stock, shares of Preferred C Stock which converts into $1.00 worth of common stock and 4,000,000 shares of Preferred D Stock, which has no conversion rights and holds voting rights equal to 10,000 shares of common stock. Currently, shareholders holding votes equal to not less than 13,868,480,000 of the voting rights have consented in writing to the proposal, this constitutes approval of not less than 59% of the voting rights entitled to vote in any shareholder action. The stated voting rights of the preferred shares outlined above will constitute a majority of all votes on any matter presented to the shareholders.

The effect of the move upon existing shareholders of the common stock are expected to be minimal, the change in state law governing the Company and the rights of shareholders are not expected to change in any significant fashion.

Shareholders rights are not materially impacted by the change as explained in the Aug 10, 2009 ENCYCLOPEDIA OF EVERYDAY LAW | SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS:

"Laws governing CORPORATIONS and hence stockholders in the United States are fairly standard from one state to the next. The commissioners on uniform state laws drafted the Uniform Business Corporations Act in 1928, though only three states adopted this act. The American BAR ASSOCIATION in 1950 drafted the Model Business Corporation Act, which subsequently has been modified numerous times. The last major redrafting occurred in 1984. Thirty-one states have adopted all or a significant portion of the Model Act. Other states have modified their own state corporation statutes to contain sections similar to the Model Act."

Both Nevada and Florida have adopted all or a significant portion of the Model Business Corporation Act.

FLORIDA: adopted statute 607 which is based on the Model Business Corporation Act.

Of which Section 607.0101 Short title.--This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Business Corporation Act."

The Florida Statutes 607.0630 through 607.07401 is specific to shareholders rights.

NEVADA: NRS Chapter 78 (Nevada Revised Statute) which also has adopted significant sections of the Model Business Corporation of which NRS 78.191 through NRS.78.444 is specific to shareholders rights.

Since both Nevada and Florida Statutes are based upon the Model Business Corporation Act, there are only minor or no change in the shareholders rights between the two states statutes, thereby the change of domicile will have little or no impact on the Company's shareholders rights.

The Charter documents for the Florida corporation will mirror those of the Nevada corporation and there are thus no changes of any material nature in the charter documents.

Edgar Filing: SEAMLESS Corp - Form PRER14C

For the above reasons, the board believes that the move is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. There can be no assurance, however, that the move will have the desired benefits over the future as changes in Florida fees and charges may alter any perceived savings or economies.

If acted upon by the Company's board of directors, the consent by the majority of the common stock voting rights reported herein would result in approval of the move from Nevada to Florida. The rights and privileges of the holders of shares of common stock will be substantially unaffected by the move. All issued and outstanding options, warrants, and convertible securities would be appropriately adjusted for the move and all shares outstanding on the effective date of the move would convert into shares of the new Florida corporation with the same rights, options, voting powers and entitlements as previously held through the Nevada corporation. All shares, options, warrants or convertible securities that the Company has agreed to issue (or agrees to issue prior to the effective date of the move) also will be appropriately adjusted to reflect the new Florida Corporation.

After the move is authorized and completed administratively there will not be a requirement that shareholders obtain new or replacement share certificates. Each holder of record of shares of the Company's common stock that is outstanding on the effective date of the move may contact the Company's transfer agent to exchange the old Nevada certificates for new Florida certificates representing the number of shares of common shares into which the existing shares have been converted as a result of the move.

EXISTING CERTIFICATES SHOULD NOT BE SENT TO THE COMPANY OR THE TRANSFER AGENT BEFORE THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE FILING OF THE PROPOSED MOVE.

Until the shareholder forwards a completed letter of transmittal, together with certificates representing such shareholder's shares of Nevada common stock to the transfer agent and receives in return a new certificate representing shares of Florida common stock, such shareholder's existing common stock shall be deemed equal to the number of shares of Florida common shares to which such shareholder is entitled as a result of the move.

CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following discussion describes certain material federal income tax considerations relating to the proposed move. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code, existing and proposed regulations thereunder, legislative history, judicial decisions, and current administrative rulings and practices, all as amended and in effect on the date hereof. Any of these authorities could be repealed, overruled, or modified at any time. Any such change could be retroactive and, accordingly, could cause the tax consequences to vary substantially from the consequences described herein. No ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to the matters discussed herein has been requested, and there is no assurance that the IRS would agree with the conclusions set forth in this discussion.

This discussion may not address federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular shareholders in light of their personal circumstances or to shareholders who may be subject to special treatment under the federal income tax laws. This discussion also does not address any tax consequences under state, local or foreign laws.

Edgar Filing: SEAMLESS Corp - Form PRER14C

SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCE OF THE MOVE FOR THEM, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAX LAWS, CHANGES IN APPLICABLE TAX LAWS AND ANY PENDING OR PROPOSED LEGISLATION.

The move is intended to be a tax-free recapitalization to the Company and its shareholders. Shareholders will not recognize any gain or loss for federal income tax purposes as a result of the move. The holding period for shares of common stock after the move will include the holding period of shares of common stock before the move, provided, that such shares of common stock are held as a capital asset at the effective date of the amendment. The adjusted basis of the shares of common stock after the move will be the same as the adjusted basis of the shares of common stock before the move.
