each share of Plaza common stock being exchanged for shares of Pacific Premier common stock. Pursuant to Rule 416 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Act, this Registration Statement also covers additional securities that may be issued as a result of stock splits, stock dividends or similar transactions. 5,173,528 of the shares included in this number are also being registered for resale under this Registration Statement. In accordance with Rule 457(f) of the Securities Act, no additional filing fee is payable in respect of such resale.

- (2) Pursuant to Rule 457(f) under the Securities Act, and solely for the purpose of calculating the registration fee, the proposed maximum aggregate offering price is based on $6.515, which is the average high and low prices reported for Plaza's common stock on the OTC Market Group Pink Sheets on September 8, 2017, which was within five business days prior to the date of filing of this Registration Statement, in accordance with Rule 457(f)(1).
- (3) Determined in accordance with Section 6(b) of the Securities Act at a rate of $115.90 per $1,000,000 of the proposed maximum aggregate offering price.
- (4) Previously paid.
- (5) Represents shares of the registrant's common stock being registered for resale under this Registration Statement. Such shares are also included in the number of shares to be issued in connection with the merger described herein. See Note (1) above.
- (6) In accordance with Rule 457(f), no additional filing fee is payable with respect to the resale registration.

The Registrant hereby amends this Registration Statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the Registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this Registration Statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 or until the Registration Statement shall become effective on such date as the Commission, acting pursuant to said Section 8(a), may determine.

NOTICE OF SOLICITATION OF WRITTEN CONSENT

To the shareholders of Plaza Bancorp:

On August 8, 2017, Pacific Premier Bancorp, Inc., which we refer to as Pacific Premier, entered into an agreement and plan of reorganization, which we refer to as the merger agreement, to acquire Plaza Bancorp, which we refer to as Plaza. If the required shareholder and regulatory approvals are obtained, all closing conditions are satisfied or waived and the merger is subsequently completed, Plaza will be merged with and into Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier as the surviving entity, which we refer to as the merger. Immediately thereafter, Plaza's wholly-owned bank subsidiary, Plaza Bank, will be merged with and into Pacific Premier Bank, the wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier Bank as the surviving entity.

If the required Plaza shareholder and regulatory approvals are obtained and the merger is subsequently completed, upon effectiveness of the merger, each outstanding share of common stock of Plaza, which we refer to as Plaza common stock, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive shares of common stock of Pacific Premier, which we refer to as Pacific Premier common stock, at an exchange ratio of 0.2000 shares of Pacific Premier common stock for each share of Plaza common stock, which we refer to as the exchange ratio. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional share interest. We refer to the aggregate consideration to be paid to Plaza shareholders in the merger as the merger consideration.

The implied value of the merger consideration to be paid to Plaza shareholders is based on the exchange ratio of 0.2000 shares of Pacific Premier common stock for each share of Plaza common stock. The implied value per share of Plaza common stock on August 8, 2017 was $7.29, which amount was based on the closing price per share of Pacific Premier common stock on that date. The value of the merger consideration will fluctuate based on the market price of Pacific Premier common stock. Consequently, the value of the merger consideration will not be known at the time you vote on the merger agreement. Based on the current number of shares of Plaza common stock outstanding, Pacific Premier expects to issue approximately 6,038,857 shares of common stock in the aggregate upon completion of the merger. Pacific Premier's common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "PPBI." You should obtain current market quotations for the Pacific Premier common stock. Plaza's common stock is also traded on the OTC Market Group Pink Sheets under the symbol "PLZZ." You should obtain current market quotations for the Plaza common stock.

Pacific Premier may also permit certain entities who receive shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger to use this prospectus/consent solicitation statement to cover resales of up to 5,173,528 shares of Pacific Premier's common stock. If this happens, neither we nor Pacific Premier will receive any proceeds from such sales. See "Selling Security Holders" on page 130 for information relating to the resale of Pacific Premier's securities pursuant to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement.

The enclosed prospectus/consent solicitation statement is being delivered to you on behalf of the board of directors of Plaza, which we refer to as the Plaza board of directors, in connection with a consent solicitation, which we refer to as the Plaza consent solicitation. In connection with the Plaza consent solicitation, the Plaza board of directors requests that holders of Plaza common stock as of the record date of September 26, 2017, execute and return written consents to adopt the merger agreement.

The enclosed prospectus/consent solicitation statement describes the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein, including the Plaza consent solicitation, and provides additional information about the parties involved. We encourage you to read carefully the prospectus/consent solicitation statement, including all its annexes, and the documents incorporated by reference, including the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 29 of the enclosed prospectus/consent solicitation statement.

You will be entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. A summary of the appraisal rights that may be available to you is described in the section entitled "The Merger Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 81 of the enclosed prospectus/consent solicitation statement. Please note that if you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you must not sign or return a written consent adopting the merger agreement, or sign or deliver a consent without indicating a decision on the proposal. However, so long as you do not return a consent form at all, it is not necessary to affirmatively vote against or disapprove the merger in order to preserve your appraisal rights. In addition, you must take all other steps necessary to perfect your appraisal rights.

The Plaza board of directors has carefully considered the merger, the terms thereof and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and has declared that the merger agreement, the terms thereof, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Plaza and its shareholders. Accordingly, the Plaza board of directors recommends that Plaza shareholders adopt the merger agreement by returning your written consent form.

Please complete, date and sign the written consent furnished with this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and return it promptly to Plaza by the means described in the section entitled "Plaza Solicitation of Written Consents Submission of Consents" beginning on page 35 of the enclosed prospectus/consent solicitation statement.

Thank you for your prompt attention to these matters.

Sincerely,

/s/ GENE GALLOWAY

Gene Galloway
Chief Executive Officer

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the shares of Pacific Premier common stock to be issued in the merger or determined if this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is accurate or adequate. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE PLAZA CONSENT SOLICITATION

The following are some questions that Plaza shareholders may have regarding the merger and the Plaza consent solicitation, and brief answers to those questions. Plaza advises its shareholders to read carefully the remainder of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement because the information in this section does not provide all of the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger and the Plaza consent solicitation. Additional important information about Pacific Premier is also contained in the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 152.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: Pacific Premier and Plaza have entered into the merger agreement, pursuant to which Pacific Premier would acquire Plaza. If the required Plaza shareholder and regulatory approvals are obtained and the merger is subsequently completed, Plaza will be merged with and into Pacific Premier with Pacific Premier as the surviving entity. Immediately thereafter, Plaza's wholly-owned bank subsidiary, Plaza Bank, will be merged with and into Pacific Premier Bank, the wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier Bank as the surviving entity.

As a Plaza shareholder, you are being asked to vote to approve the merger agreement through the Plaza consent solicitation. As a result of the merger, Plaza will cease to exist and Plaza shareholders will exchange each of their shares of Plaza common stock for 0.2000 shares of Pacific Premier common stock, which we refer to as the exchange ratio, as further described in "The Merger The Merger Consideration" beginning on page 55.

The merger cannot be completed unless Plaza shareholders approve the merger agreement. Plaza is conducting the Plaza consent solicitation in order to obtain the shareholder approval necessary to adopt the merger agreement, which we refer to as Plaza shareholder approval.

We will be unable to complete the merger unless Plaza shareholder approval is obtained.

We have included in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement important information about the merger, the merger agreement, a copy of which is included as Appendix A to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, and the Plaza consent solicitation. You should read this information carefully and in its entirety. The enclosed voting materials allow you to provide your written consent to the Plaza consent solicitation. We encourage you to submit your written consent as soon as possible.

This document constitutes both a consent solicitation statement of Plaza and a prospectus of Pacific Premier. It is a consent solicitation statement of Plaza because the Plaza board of directors is soliciting consents using this document for its shareholders. It is a prospectus because Pacific Premier, in connection with the merger, is offering shares of Pacific Premier common stock in exchange for outstanding shares of Plaza common stock in the merger.

Q: Will Plaza shareholders be able to trade the Pacific Premier common stock that they receive in the merger?

A: Yes. The Pacific Premier common stock to be issued in the merger to Plaza shareholders will be listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "PPBI." Unless you are deemed an "affiliate" of Pacific Premier after the merger is completed, you may sell the shares of Pacific Premier common stock you receive in the merger without restriction.

Table of Contents

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: The merger agreement must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock. The merger cannot be completed unless Plaza shareholders approve the merger agreement. Plaza shareholders will vote on the merger agreement through the Plaza consent solicitation. If you are a Plaza shareholder and you do not vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement.

Certain funds affiliated with Carpenter Fund Manager GP, LLC, which we refer to as Carpenter, collectively own approximately 86.0% of the outstanding Plaza common stock and are a party to a support agreement with Pacific Premier, which we refer to as the Carpenter support agreement, and Plaza's directors and certain executive officers, who collectively own approximately 2.4% of the Plaza common stock, are parties to shareholder agreements with Pacific Premier, which we refer to as the Plaza shareholder agreements. Pursuant to the Carpenter support agreement and the Plaza shareholder agreements, such shareholders have agreed to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement by written consent. Pacific Premier has the right to terminate the merger agreement to the extent that within three business days following the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part, being declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission, which we refer to as the Commission, Pacific Premier has not received a sufficient number of written consents to satisfy the majority approval requirement described above. See "Plaza Solicitation of Written Consents Carpenter Support Agreement; Voting by Plaza's Directors and Certain Executive Officers" on page 35 of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. The Carpenter support agreement and the form of Plaza shareholder agreements are included in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement as Annexes A and B, respectively, to the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A and incorporated by reference into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement.

Q: What does the Plaza board of directors recommend?

The Plaza board of directors, which we refer to as the Plaza board, determined that the terms of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated therein, including the merger, are fair to and in the best interest of Plaza and its shareholders and accordingly approved and declared advisable the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and recommended that Plaza shareholders adopt the merger agreement in connection with the Plaza consent solicitation.

Accordingly, the Plaza board recommends that Plaza shareholders provide their written consent to adopt the merger agreement.

See the sections entitled "The Merger Plaza's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Plaza Board of Directors" beginning on page 41 for a more detailed discussion of the Plaza board's recommendations and reasons therefor. In addition, certain of Plaza's officers and directors have financial interests in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Plaza's shareholders. These interests are described in more detail in the section titled "The Merger Interests of Certain Plaza Officers and Directors in the Merger" beginning on page 71.

Q: Will I have appraisal rights in connection with the merger?

A: Yes. If you are a Plaza shareholder who does not approve the merger by delivering a written consent approving the merger agreement, you will, by strictly complying with Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, which we refer to as the DGCL, be entitled to appraisal rights. Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement as

Appendix C. Failure to follow precisely any of the statutory procedures set forth in Appendix C may result in the loss or waiver of appraisal rights under Delaware law. Following Plaza's receipt of sufficient written consents to adopt the merger agreement, we will send all non-consenting Plaza shareholders who satisfy the other statutory conditions the notice regarding the adoption of the merger agreement and the availability of appraisal rights. A Plaza shareholder wishing to exercise his, her or its appraisal rights will need to take action at that time, in response to that notice, but this description is being provided to all Plaza shareholders now so they can determine whether they wish to preserve their ability to demand appraisal rights in the future in response to that notice. If you elect to exercise appraisal rights with respect to your shares of Plaza common stock, you must deliver to Plaza or to Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger), as applicable, at the specific address which will be included in the notice, a written demand for appraisal of your shares of Plaza common stock within 20 days after the date of the mailing of the subsequent notice that will be sent to non-consenting Plaza shareholders. Do not submit a demand before the date of that subsequent notice because, under Delaware case law, a demand that is made before the notice is mailed may not be effective to perfect your appraisal rights.

Q: Are there any risks I should consider in deciding whether to vote for the merger recommended by the Plaza board?

A: Yes. Set forth under the heading of "Risk Factors," beginning on page 29, are a number of risk factors that the shareholders of Plaza should consider carefully.

Q: When do Pacific Premier and Plaza expect to complete the merger?

A: The parties expect to complete the merger either by the end of the fourth quarter of 2017 or early in the first quarter of 2018. However, there is no assurance when or if the merger will occur. Prior to the consummation of the merger, Plaza shareholders must approve the merger agreement pursuant to the Plaza consent solicitation and all requisite bank regulatory approvals must be obtained and other conditions to the consummation of the merger must be satisfied.

Q: If the merger is completed, when can Plaza shareholders expect to receive the merger consideration?

A: Promptly following the completion of the merger, Pacific Premier will mail to each former Plaza shareholder of record written instructions detailing how its shareholders of record can exchange their shares of Plaza common stock for shares of Pacific Premier common stock.

Q: Will the value of the merger consideration change between the date of the prospectus/consent solicitation statement and the time the merger is completed?

A: Yes. Because Pacific Premier will issue a fixed fraction of a share of Pacific Premier common stock at the closing in exchange for each share of Plaza common stock, the value of the merger consideration that Plaza shareholders will receive in the merger will depend on the market price of shares of Pacific Premier common stock at the time the merger is completed. The market price of shares of Pacific Premier common stock when Plaza shareholders receive such shares after the merger is completed could be greater than, less than or the same as the market price of shares of Pacific Premier common stock on the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement.

Q: Who is soliciting my written consent?

A: The Plaza board is providing these Plaza consent solicitation materials to you to request that holders of Plaza common stock execute and return written consents to adopt the merger agreement. These materials also constitute a prospectus with respect to the Pacific Premier common stock issuable to Plaza shareholders in connection with the consummation of the merger.

Q: Who is entitled to give a written consent in the Plaza consent solicitation?

A: The Plaza board has set September 26, 2017, as the record date, which we refer to as the Plaza record date, for determining holders of shares of Plaza common stock entitled to execute and deliver written consents with respect to the Plaza consent solicitation. Holders of Plaza common stock on the Plaza record date will be entitled to give or withhold consent using the written consent furnished with this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. If you are a Plaza shareholder on the Plaza record date and you are entitled to vote on the proposal, you will be able to give or withhold consent with respect to the adoption of the merger agreement.

As of September 26, 2017, funds controlled by Carpenter beneficially owned approximately 86% of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock entitled to provide consents in the Plaza consent solicitation. In addition, Plaza's directors and certain executive officers beneficially owned approximately 2.4% of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock entitled to provide consents in the Plaza consent solicitation. Pursuant to the Carpenter support agreement and the Plaza shareholder agreements, such shareholders have agreed to deliver written consents in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: How many votes do I have?

A: Plaza shareholders are entitled to one vote in the Plaza consent solicitation for each share of Plaza common stock held as of the Plaza record date. As of the close of business on the Plaza record date, there were 30,152,586 outstanding shares of Plaza common stock.

Q: What if I am a record holder and I do not indicate a decision with respect to the proposal to adopt the merger agreement?

A: If you are a record holder and you return a signed written consent without indicating your decision on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, you will have given your consent to adopt the merger agreement, as described in the enclosed form of consent.

Q: What is the deadline for returning my written consent?

A: The Plaza board of directors has set October 30, 2017, as the targeted final date for receipt of written consents. Plaza reserves the right to extend the final date for receipt of written consents beyond October 30, 2017. Any such extension may be made without notice to Plaza shareholders.

Q: How do Plaza shareholders provide their written consent?

A: If you hold shares of Plaza common stock as of the Plaza record date for granting written consent and you wish to submit your consent, you must fill out the enclosed written consent, date and sign it, and promptly return it to Plaza. Once you have completed, dated and signed your written consent, you should deliver it to Plaza by faxing your written consent to John Shindler, Corporate Secretary, at (949) 502-4399, by emailing a .pdf copy of your written consent to jshindler@plazabank.com or by mailing your written consent to Plaza, Attention Corporate Secretary, 18200 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 500, Irvine, California 92612.

Pacific Premier has the right to terminate the merger agreement to the extent that within three business days following the registration statement on Form S-4, of which prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part, being declared effective by the Commission, Pacific Premier has not received a sufficient number of written consents required to adopt the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Consequently, Plaza expects to receive Plaza shareholder approval within three business days of the Commission declaring the registration statement on Form S-4 effective. As a result, Plaza will not be holding a shareholders' meeting to consider the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, and therefore you will be unable to vote in person by attending a shareholders' meeting.

Q:
Can I change or revoke my written consent?

A:
Yes. If you are a record holder of Plaza common stock on the Plaza record date, you may change or revoke your consent to the proposal to adopt the merger agreement at any time before the consents of a sufficient number of shares to adopt the merger agreement have been delivered to Plaza. If you wish to change or revoke your consent before that time, you may do so by delivering a notice of revocation or by sending in a new written consent with a later date, in each case, by one of the means described in the section entitled "Plaza Solicitation of Written Consents Submission of Consents" beginning on page 35.

Q:
Whom may I contact if I cannot locate my Plaza stock certificate(s)?

A:
If you cannot locate your certificates representing shares of Plaza common stock and believe them to be lost, stolen or destroyed, please follow the instructions in the letter of transmittal you will receive from the exchange agent dealing with lost, stolen or destroyed certificates. You will then be provided with an affidavit of lost stock certificates to complete and return to Plaza, or if you provide such affidavit after the merger occurs, to the exchange agent.

Q:
What do I need to do now?

A:
Read and consider the information contained in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, including the appendices, as well as the Pacific Premier documents that have been incorporated by reference into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, carefully and then please submit your written consent for your Plaza common stock as soon as possible.

Q:
Whom should I call if I have questions about the consent solicitation?

A:
If you have questions about the merger agreement, the merger or the process for returning your written consent, or if you need additional copies of this document or a replacement written consent, please contact: John Shindler, Plaza's Corporate Secretary, at Plaza Bancorp, 18200 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 500, Irvine, California 92612, or at (949) 502-4313.

Q:
How do I deliver a written consent with respect to shares held in street name?

A:
Plaza shareholders whose shares of Plaza common stock are held in "street name" in the name of their bank, broker or other nominee should refer to their written consent card or the information forwarded by their nominee to confirm how to tender their written consent.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and may not contain all of the information that is important to the shareholders of Plaza. To more fully understand the merger and for a more complete description of the legal terms of the merger, you should read carefully this entire prospectus/consent solicitation statement, including the merger agreement and the other documents included with or incorporated by reference into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 152. Page references are included in this summary to direct the reader to a more complete description of the topics.

Throughout this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, "Pacific Premier" refers to Pacific Premier Bancorp, Inc. and "Plaza" refers to Plaza Bancorp. Also, throughout this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated as of August 8, 2017, by and between Pacific Premier and Plaza, is referred to as the "merger agreement." The merger of Plaza with and into Pacific Premier is referred to as the "merger" and the Pacific Premier common stock to be issued to Plaza shareholders in consideration for their Plaza common stock, as well as any cash issued in lieu of fractional shares, is referred to as the "merger consideration."

Parties to the Proposed Merger (Page 36)

Pacific Premier Bancorp, Inc. Pacific Premier is a Delaware-chartered bank holding company for Pacific Premier Bank, a California-chartered commercial bank. Pacific Premier's principal asset is all of the capital stock of Pacific Premier Bank. Pacific Premier Bank provides banking services to businesses, professionals, real estate investors, non-profit organizations and consumers in its primary market area of Southern California currently through 26 locations in the counties of Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara, California. Through Pacific Premier Bank's branches and its Internet website at www.ppbi.com, Pacific Premier Bank offers a broad array of deposit products and services for both businesses and consumer customers, including checking, money market and savings accounts, cash management services, electronic banking services, and on-line bill payment. Pacific Premier Bank also offers a wide array of loan products, such as commercial business loans, lines of credit, U.S. Small Business Administration loans, commercial real estate loans, residential home loans, construction loans and consumer loans. Pacific Premier also offers specialty banking products for homeowners associations and franchise lending nationwide.

As of June 30, 2017, Pacific Premier had, on a consolidated basis, total assets of $6.4 billion, total stockholders' equity of $959.7 million and total deposits of $4.9 billion. At June 30, 2017, Pacific Premier had gross loans held for investment of $4.9 billion, with real estate loans and business loans collateralized by real estate totaling 69% of its gross loan portfolio.

Pacific Premier's principal executive offices are located at 17901 Von Karman Ave., Suite 1200, Irvine, California 92614 and its telephone number is (949) 864-8000.

Plaza Bancorp. Plaza is a Delaware-chartered bank holding company for Plaza Bank, a California-chartered commercial bank. Plaza's principal asset is all of the capital stock of Plaza Bank. Plaza Bank is a community-oriented financial services firm which provides banking products and services to small and medium sized businesses and consumers. Products and services are offered primarily through seven retail branches located in Irvine, Manhattan Beach, El Segundo, Pasadena, Montebello and San Diego, California, and Las Vegas, Nevada. The Merger (Page 36)

The merger agreement is attached to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement as Appendix A, which is incorporated by reference into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. Please read the entire merger agreement. It is the legal document that governs the merger. Pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Plaza will be acquired by Pacific Premier in a transaction in which Plaza will merge with and into Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier as the surviving institution. Immediately following the consummation of the merger, Plaza Bank will be merged with and into Pacific Premier Bank, with Pacific Premier Bank as the surviving institution. The parties expect to complete the mergers either by the end of the fourth quarter of 2017 or early in the first quarter of 2018.

Pacific Premier's Reasons for Merger and Factors Considered by Pacific Premier's Board of Directors (Page 40)

As part of its business strategy, Pacific Premier evaluates opportunities to acquire bank holding companies, banks and other financial institutions, which is an important element of its strategic plan. The acquisition of Plaza is consistent with this strategy. Among other things, the acquisition of Plaza will (i) extend Pacific Premier's geographic footprint into Los Angeles County and (ii) create opportunities for Pacific Premier Bank to provide additional products and services to the Plaza customers.

Based on Pacific Premier's reasons for the merger described in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, the Pacific Premier board of directors believes that the merger is fair to Pacific Premier's shareholders and in their best interests. For a discussion of the circumstances surrounding the merger and the factors considered by Pacific Premier's board of directors in approving the merger agreement, see "The Merger Pacific Premier's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 40.

Plaza's Reasons for Merger and Factors Considered by Plaza's Board of Directors (Page 41)

Based on Plaza's reasons for the merger described in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, the Plaza board of directors believes that the merger is in the Plaza shareholders' best interests, and unanimously recommends that Plaza shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement through the Plaza consent solicitation. For a discussion of the circumstances surrounding the merger and the factors considered by Plaza's board of directors in approving the merger agreement, see "The Merger Plaza's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 41.

Opinion of Plaza's Financial Advisor (Page 43)

In connection with the merger, Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., whom we refer to as Sandler O'Neill, delivered its oral opinion to Plaza's board of directors, which was subsequently confirmed in writing on August 8, 2017, to the effect that, as of August 8, 2017, and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualification on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in providing its opinion, the exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Plaza common stock.

The full text of the written opinion of Sandler O'Neill, dated August 8, 2017, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill is attached as Appendix B to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. Plaza's shareholders should read the opinion in its entirety. The opinion of Sandler O'Neill has not been updated prior to the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and does not reflect any change in circumstance after August 8, 2017. Sandler O'Neill provided its opinion for the information and assistance of Plaza's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the transaction. The Sandler O'Neill opinion does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and is not a recommendation as to how any holder of Plaza common stock should vote on matters to be considered in the Plaza consent solicitation.

Plaza Shareholders Will Receive Shares of Pacific Premier Common Stock for Each Share of Plaza Common Stock Exchanged in the Merger (Page 55)

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of Plaza common stock will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of an Plaza shareholder, be converted into the right to receive 0.2000 shares of Pacific Premier common stock, which is referred to as the exchange ratio. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional share interest.

Aggregate Merger Consideration.

The total consideration to be paid by Pacific Premier to the Plaza shareholders in connection with the merger is referred to in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement as the aggregate merger consideration. The term aggregate merger consideration does not include the consideration, if any, payable to holders of (i) options to purchase shares of Plaza common stock, or (ii) warrants to purchase shares of Plaza common stock. In this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, we refer to stock options to purchase shares of Plaza's common stock as Plaza options and warrants to purchase Plaza common stock as Plaza warrants.

Upon completion of the merger and based on a $36.45 closing price of Pacific Premier's common stock on August 8, 2017, approximately $220.1 million of aggregate merger consideration will be payable to the Plaza shareholders. The foregoing sentence does not include the payment of cash (or shares of Pacific Premier common stock in the event any such Plaza options or Plaza warrants are exercised prior to the effective date of the merger) to the holders of Plaza options and Plaza warrants, each of which will accelerate in connection with the closing of the merger, and assumes that (i) there are 30,194,288 shares of Plaza common stock outstanding at the closing (which includes 60,995 shares of Plaza restricted stock that will vest in connection with the merger), (ii) the Plaza shareholders will receive an aggregate of approximately 6,038,857 shares of Pacific Premier common stock after applying the exchange ratio of 0.2000, which gives effect to the acceleration of vesting of 60,995 shares of Plaza restricted stock in connection with the closing of the merger that will result in such shares of Plaza restricted stock being converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in the merger. If all Plaza options and Plaza warrants were exercised prior to the closing, a maximum of an additional 139,771 shares of Pacific Premier common stock could be issued as merger consideration, though it is impossible to predict how many Plaza options and Plaza warrants will actually be exercised prior to the closing, if any.

Fractional Shares.

No fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock will be issued, and in lieu thereof, each holder of Plaza common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share interest will receive an amount in cash, without interest, determined by multiplying such fractional interest by the average closing price per share of Pacific Premier common stock, as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, for the twenty (20) trading days ending on and including the fifth trading day prior to the closing date of the merger, which we refer to as the Pacific Premier average share price, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

Table of Contents

What Will Happen to Outstanding Plaza Options, Plaza Warrants and Plaza Restricted Stock (Page 56)

The Plaza board of directors has approved acceleration of the vesting of Plaza stock options, Plaza warrants and Plaza restricted stock held by directors, officers and employees of Plaza or its subsidiaries following the closing of the merger.

Plaza Options.

At the effective time of the merger, each Plaza option which is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Plaza common stock subject to such Plaza option immediately prior to the effective time, and (ii) the excess, if any, of (A) the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio over (B) the exercise price per share of such Plaza option, less any applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. If the exercise price per share of any such Plaza option is equal to or greater than the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio, the Plaza option will be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. For Plaza options that are exercised before the closing, the underlying shares of Plaza common stock received upon exercise will be exchanged for the merger consideration in accordance with the exchange ratio.

Plaza Warrants.

At the effective time of the merger, each Plaza warrant which is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Plaza common stock subject to such Plaza warrant immediately prior to the effective time, and (ii) the excess, if any, of (A) the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio over (B) the exercise price per share of such Plaza warrant, less any applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. If the exercise price per share of any such Plaza warrant is equal to or greater than the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio, such Plaza warrant will be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. For Plaza warrants that are exercised before the closing, the underlying shares of Plaza common stock received upon exercise will be exchanged for the merger consideration in accordance with the exchange ratio.

Plaza Restricted Stock.

Immediately prior to the effective time, any vesting conditions applicable to each award of Plaza restricted stock will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof and consistent with the terms of the applicable Plaza stock-based plan, accelerate in full, and such Plaza restricted stock will become free of any restrictions and any repurchase right will lapse, and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive shares of Pacific Premier common stock in accordance with the exchange ratio (provided that cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock in the same manner as described above under "Plaza Shareholders Will Receive Shares of Pacific Premier Common Stock for Each Share of Plaza Common Stock Exchangeable in the Merger Fractional Shares"), less any applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such vesting.

Transmittal Materials (Page 57)

After the transmittal materials have been received and processed following the closing of the merger, Plaza shareholders will be sent the Pacific Premier common stock and any cash in lieu of fractional shares to which they are entitled. If a Plaza shareholder holds shares in street name, he or she will receive information from his or her bank, broker or other nominee advising such Plaza shareholder of the process for receiving the Pacific Premier common stock and any cash in lieu of fractional shares to which he or she is entitled.

Each Plaza shareholder will need to surrender his or her Plaza common stock certificates or follow instructions for the transfer of shares of Plaza common stock held in book-entry form, to receive the appropriate merger consideration. Plaza shareholders should not send any certificates now. Each Plaza shareholder will receive detailed instructions on how to exchange his or her share certificates or book-entry shares along with transmittal materials promptly following the closing of the merger.

Per Share Market Price and Dividend Information (Page 87)

Shares of Pacific Premier common stock currently trade on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "PPBI." Shares of Plaza common stock are quoted on the OTC Market Group Pink Sheets, under the symbol "PLZZ."

The following table sets forth the closing sale prices of (i) Pacific Premier common stock as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, and (ii) Plaza common stock as quoted on the OTC Market Group Pink Sheets, on August 8, 2017, the last trading-day before Pacific Premier announced the merger, and on September 25, 2017, the last practicable trading-day before the distribution of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. To help illustrate the market value of the per share merger consideration to be received by Plaza's shareholders, the following table also presents the equivalent market value per share of Plaza common stock as of August 8 2017 and September 25, 2017, which were determined by multiplying the closing price for the Pacific Premier common stock on those dates by the exchange ratio of 0.2000 of a share of Pacific Premier common stock for each share of Plaza common stock. See "The Merger The Merger Consideration" beginning on page 55 for additional information about the merger consideration to be received by holders of Plaza common stock.

	Pacific Premier Common Stock	Plaza Common Stock	Equivalent Market Value Per Share of Plaza
At August 8, 2017	$ 36.45	$ 6.50	$ 7.29
At September 25, 2017	$ 35.70	$ 7.05	$ 7.14

The market price of Pacific Premier common stock and Plaza common stock will fluctuate prior to the date of the start of the Plaza consent solicitation and the date such Plaza shareholder receives the merger consideration. Plaza shareholders should obtain a current price quotation for the shares of Pacific Premier common stock to update the implied value for a share of Plaza common stock.

Pacific Premier has never declared or paid dividends on its common stock and does not anticipate declaring or paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future. It is Pacific Premier's current policy to retain earnings to provide funds for use in its business.

Except for a $10.2 million dividend paid in a combination of cash and stock to certain funds affiliated with Carpenter in connection with Plaza's acquisition of Manhattan Bancorp and its subsidiary Manhattan Bank in 2015, Plaza has never declared or paid dividends on its common stock. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Plaza may not pay any dividends to its shareholders pending the closing of the merger. See "The Merger Business Pending the Merger" beginning on page 61.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Page 76)

The merger is intended to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, and it is a condition to completion of the merger that Pacific Premier and Plaza receive a legal opinion to that effect. If the merger is completed, the merger consideration that will be paid to the holders of Plaza common stock will consist of shares of Pacific Premier common stock and cash for any fractional shares.

Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization, subject to the limitations and more detailed discussion set forth in "The Merger Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 76, a Plaza shareholder that is a U.S. holder generally will not recognize gain or loss on such exchange, other than with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock.

Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to a particular Plaza shareholder will depend in part on such shareholder's individual circumstances. Accordingly, each Plaza shareholder is urged to consult his or her own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to such shareholder, including the applicability and effect of federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax laws.

The Plaza board is providing these consent solicitation materials to Plaza shareholders. Plaza shareholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement by executing and delivering the written consent furnished with this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. See "Plaza Solicitation of Written Consents" beginning on page 34.

Record Date and Voting Rights for the Plaza Consent Solicitation (Page 35)

Each Plaza shareholder is entitled to vote in the Plaza consent solicitation if he or she owned shares of Plaza common stock as of the close of business on September 26, 2017, which we refer to as the Plaza record date. Each Plaza shareholder will have one vote in the Plaza consent solicitation for each share of Plaza common stock that he or she owned on that date. Holders of Plaza common stock on the Plaza record date will be entitled to give or withhold consent using the written consent furnished with this consent prospectus/consent solicitation statement. If you are a Plaza shareholder on the record date and you are entitled to vote on the proposal, you will be able to give or withhold consent with respect to the approval of the merger agreement.

If you hold shares of Plaza common stock as of the Plaza record date for granting written consent and you wish to submit your consent, you must fill out the enclosed written consent, date and sign it, and promptly return it to Plaza. Once you have completed, dated and signed your written consent, you should deliver it to Plaza by faxing your written consent to John Shindler, Corporate Secretary, at (949) 502-4399, by emailing a .pdf copy of your written consent to jshindler@plazabank.com or by mailing your written consent to Plaza, Attention Corporate Secretary, 18200 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 500, Irvine, California 92612.

Approval of the Merger Agreement Requires the Affirmative Vote of Holders of a Majority of the Issued and Outstanding Shares of Plaza Common Stock (Page 35)

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Plaza common stock is necessary to approve the merger agreement on behalf of Plaza. At the close of business on the Plaza record date, there were 30,152,586 shares of Plaza common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, held by 196 holders of record. Each holder of record of Plaza common stock on the Plaza record date is entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters to be voted upon in the Plaza consent solicitation. If a Plaza shareholder does not vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement.

As of September 26, 2017, funds controlled by Carpenter beneficially owned approximately 86% of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock entitled to provide consents in the Plaza consent solicitation. In addition, Plaza's directors and certain executive officers beneficially owned approximately 2.4% of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock entitled to provide consents in the Plaza consent solicitation. Pursuant to the Carpenter support agreement and the Plaza shareholder agreements, such shareholders have agreed to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that Pacific Premier may terminate the merger agreement if consents representing greater than a majority of the outstanding Plaza common stock, voting in favor of the merger agreement, shall not have been delivered to Pacific Premier by 6:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the third business day after the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part, has been declared effective by the Commission. Consequently, Plaza expects to receive Plaza shareholder approval within three business days of the Commission declaring the registration statement on Form S-4 effective. As a result, Plaza will not be holding a shareholders' meeting to consider the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Appraisal Rights (Page 81)

Pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL, a copy which is attached as Appendix C to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, holders of Plaza common stock who comply with the applicable requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL and do not otherwise withdraw or lose the right to appraisal under Delaware law have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares of Plaza common stock, as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, if the merger is completed. The "fair value" of your shares of Plaza common as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery may be more or less than, or the same as, the value of the merger consideration per share that you are otherwise entitled to receive under the terms of the merger agreement. Holders of Plaza common stock who do not consent to the adoption of the merger agreement and who wish to preserve their appraisal rights must so advise Plaza by submitting a demand for appraisal within the period prescribed by Section 262 of the DGCL after receiving a notice from Plaza or from Pacific Premier, as the surviving corporation, that appraisal rights are available to them, and must otherwise precisely follow the procedures prescribed by Section 262 of the DGCL. Failure to follow any of the statutory procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL will result in the loss or waiver of appraisal rights under Delaware law. A person having a beneficial interest in shares of Plaza common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and in a timely manner to perfect appraisal rights. In view of the complexity of Section 262 of the DGCL, Plaza shareholders who may wish to pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal and financial advisors. See "The Merger Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 81.

Plaza is Prohibited from Soliciting Other Offers (Page 65)

Plaza has agreed that, while the merger is pending, it will not solicit, initiate, encourage or, subject to some limited exceptions, engage in discussions with any third party other than Pacific Premier regarding extraordinary transactions such as a merger, business combination or sale of a material amount of its assets or capital stock.

Pacific Premier and Plaza Must Meet Several Conditions to Complete the Merger (Page 58)

Completion of the merger depends on meeting a number of conditions, including the following:

shareholders of Plaza must approve the merger agreement pursuant to the Plaza consent solicitation;

Pacific Premier and Plaza must receive all required regulatory approvals for the merger, and any waiting periods required by law must have passed and no such approval may contain any condition (other than conditions or requirements related to remedial actions) that Pacific

Table of Contents

Premier's board of directors reasonably determines in good faith would materially reduce the economic benefits of the merger to such a degree that, had such condition been known, Pacific Premier, in its reasonable discretion, would not have entered into the merger agreement;

there must be no law, injunction or order enacted or issued preventing completion of the merger;

the Pacific Premier common stock to be issued in the merger must have been approved for trading on the NASDAQ Global Select Market;

the representations and warranties of each of Pacific Premier and Plaza in the merger agreement must be true and correct, subject to the materiality standards provided in the merger agreement;

Pacific Premier and Plaza must have complied in all material respects with their respective obligations in the merger agreement;

Pacific Premier and Plaza must have received a written opinion that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

as of the month end prior to the closing date, the aggregate outstanding balance of Plaza's non-maturity deposits must not be less than $700.0 million;

as of the closing date, Plaza's tangible common equity (as defined and subject to certain specified adjustments set forth in the merger agreement) must not be less than $120.0 million;

dissenting shares of Plaza common stock must not represent 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock;

all required regulatory approvals for the merger of Plaza Bank with and into Pacific Premier Bank must be received, any waiting periods required by law must have passed and there must be no law, injunction or order enacted or issued preventing completion of the merger of Plaza Bank and Pacific Premier Bank;

Pacific Premier and Carpenter are required to have executed (and have executed) the Investor Rights Agreement, which is set forth as Annex E to the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement; and

Pacific Premier shall have received a copy of a certification dated as of the closing date and directed to the U.S. Department of Justice, or the DOJ, addressing certain matters set forth in a consent decree, dated March 30, 2015, between the DOJ and Plaza Bank.

Unless prohibited by law, either Pacific Premier or Plaza could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger. The parties cannot be certain whether or when any of the conditions to the merger will be satisfied, or waived where permissible, or that the merger will be completed.

Pacific Premier and Plaza Have Filed Regulatory Applications to Seek Regulatory Approvals to Complete the Merger (Page 60)

Edgar Filing: PACIFIC PREMIER BANCORP INC - Form S-4/A

To complete the merger, the parties need the prior approval from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, which we refer to as the Federal Reserve, and the California Department of Business Oversight, which we refer to as CA DBO. The DOJ is also able to provide input into the approval process of federal banking agencies and will have between fifteen (15) and thirty (30) days following any approval of a federal banking agency to challenge the approval on antitrust grounds. Pacific Premier and Plaza have filed all necessary applications with the Federal Reserve and the CA DBO. Pacific Premier and Plaza cannot predict whether the required regulatory approvals will be obtained or whether any such approvals will have conditions which would be detrimental to Pacific Premier following completion of the merger.

Pacific Premier and Plaza May Terminate the Merger Agreement (Page 67)

Pacific Premier and Plaza can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even if Plaza shareholders have already voted to approve it pursuant to with the Plaza consent solicitation.

Pacific Premier or Plaza can also terminate the merger agreement:

if the other party breaches any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements under the merger agreement that (i) cannot be or has not been cured within thirty (30) days of the giving of written notice to the breaching party or parties and (ii) would entitle the non-breaching party or parties not to consummate the merger;

if the merger is not consummated by May 31, 2018, except to the extent that the failure to consummate by that date is due to (i) the terminating party's failure to perform or observe its covenants and agreements in the merger agreement, or (ii) the failure of any of the Plaza shareholders (if Plaza is the party seeking to terminate) to perform or observe their respective covenants under the relevant shareholder agreement; or if any required governmental approval of the merger has been denied by final non-appealable action or an application for approval of the merger has been permanently withdrawn at the request of a governmental authority, provided that no party has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the denial is due to the terminating party's failure to perform or observe its covenants in the merger agreement.

In addition, Pacific Premier may terminate the merger agreement if the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock have not approved of the merger agreement prior to 6:00 pm, Pacific Time, on the third business day following the date of declaration of effectiveness by the Commission of the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part. Plaza may also terminate the merger agreement if the Plaza board of directors has effected a permissible change in recommendation to its shareholders with respect to the merger agreement, provided that Plaza is not then in breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, and provided that any such termination shall not be effective until Plaza has paid Pacific Premier the termination fee required by the merger agreement.

Plaza may also terminate the merger agreement if, prior to receipt of approval of the merger agreement by Plaza shareholders, (i) the Plaza board of directors authorizes Plaza to enter into a binding written agreement with respect to a superior proposal, as defined in the merger agreement, and (ii) Plaza pays to Pacific Premier the termination fee described below, in each case, substantially concurrent with the termination of the merger agreement.

Termination Fee and Expenses (Page 68)

Plaza must pay Pacific Premier a termination fee of $8.0 million if the merger agreement is terminated under specified circumstances.

In addition, in the event of certain termination events set forth in the merger agreement, Plaza is required to pay Pacific Premier or its designees up to $1.5 million of all reasonably documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by Pacific Premier and its affiliates in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Pacific Premier and Plaza May Amend the Merger Agreement (Page 67)

The parties may amend or supplement the merger agreement by written agreement at any time before the merger actually takes place; provided, however, no amendment or supplement that by law requires further approval by the Plaza shareholders may be made after the receipt of approval of the merger agreement by the requisite vote of the Plaza shareholders through the Plaza consent solicitation without first obtaining such approval.

Plaza's Directors and Officers Have Some Interests in the Merger that Are in Addition to or Different than the Interests of Plaza Shareholders (Page 71)

Plaza directors and officers have interests in the merger as individuals that are in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of Plaza, which are:

upon consummation of the merger, directors and officers of Plaza and its subsidiaries will have the vesting of their Plaza stock options, Plaza warrants and Plaza restricted stock accelerated, and (i) the Plaza restricted stock shall be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration and (ii) unexercised Plaza options and Plaza warrants shall be converted into the right to receive cash;

the agreement of Pacific Premier to honor indemnification obligations of Plaza for a period of six (6) years, as well as to purchase liability insurance for Plaza's directors and officers for six (6) years following the merger, subject to the terms of the merger agreement;

cash payments to certain officers of Plaza in the aggregate amount of approximately $2.1 million, on a pre-tax basis, pursuant to the terms of their respective employment or change in control severance agreements with Plaza;

success bonuses that may be paid to certain officers of Plaza in recognition of their efforts in connection with the merger, which are not expected to exceed $600,000 in the aggregate; and pursuant to the investor rights agreement, so long as funds controlled by Carpenter continue to own at least 9.90% of Pacific Premier's issued and outstanding common stock, Carpenter may, but is not required to, designate one member to serve on the Pacific Premier board of directors and the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors.

The board of directors of Pacific Premier and Plaza were aware of the foregoing interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (Page 78)

The merger will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, or GAAP.

Assumption of Plaza Subordinated Notes Obligations (Page 70)

Pacific Premier has agreed to assume the 7.125% subordinated notes due 2025 in the aggregate principal amount of $25.0 million issued by Plaza pursuant to a Subordinated Note Purchase Agreement dated January 14, 2015, which are referred to as the subordinated notes.

Shareholders of Pacific Premier and Plaza Have Different Rights (Page 142)

Each of Pacific Premier and Plaza are incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. The rights of holders of Pacific Premier common stock are governed by the DGCL as well as its amended and restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws. The rights of holders of Plaza common stock are also governed by the DGCL, as well as by its certificate of incorporation, as amended, and its amended and restated bylaws, as amended. Following the closing of the merger, shareholders of Plaza will receive shares of Pacific Premier common stock in exchange for their shares of Plaza common stock and become shareholders of Pacific Premier, and their rights as shareholders of Pacific Premier will be governed by Pacific Premier's amended and restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws and the DGCL.

Selected Consolidated Historical Financial Data of Plaza

Set forth below is certain consolidated financial data of Plaza derived from Plaza's audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014, Plaza's unaudited consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, and Plaza's unaudited interim consolidated financial statements as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016. The results of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for the full year or any other interim period. Plaza's management prepared the unaudited consolidated information as of and for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012 and the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 on the same basis as it prepared Plaza's audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014. In the opinion of Plaza's management, this information reflects all adjustments, consisting of only normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of this data for those dates. You should read the information set forth below, together with Plaza's consolidated financial statements and related notes for the years ended December 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014, and Plaza's unaudited consolidated financial statements and related notes for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, which are included in this document and from which this information is derived. See "Index to Plaza Consolidated Financial Statements" beginning on page F-1.

On June 26, 2015, Plaza adopted a plan of reorganization, which is referred to as the Reorganization, pursuant to which all shares of Plaza Bank's capital stock were exchanged for shares of Plaza and Plaza Bank became a wholly owned subsidiary of Plaza. Prior to the Reorganization, Plaza Bank was owned 89.5% by Plaza and 10.5% by non-controlling shareholders. Plaza, in turn, was 100 percent owned by three limited partnerships: Carpenter Community Banc Fund, L.P., Carpenter Community Banc Fund-A, L.P., and Carpenter Community Banc Fund-CA, L.P., which are referred to collectively as the Carpenter Funds. Immediately after the Reorganization, a merger plan was adopted whereby Manhattan Bancorp merged into Plaza, with Plaza surviving, which is referred to as the Reorganization Merger. Concurrently, Bank of Manhattan, a wholly owned subsidiary of Manhattan Bancorp, was merged into Plaza Bank, with Plaza Bank surviving. As both Manhattan Bancorp and Plaza were held under common control, the Reorganization Merger was accounted for similar to a pooling of interests whereby the balance sheets, statements of income and statements of cash flows for Manhattan Bancorp and Plaza have been combined for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA

The following Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition as of June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 combine the historical Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition of Pacific Premier and the historical Consolidated Balance Sheet of Plaza as of such respective dates (i) on an actual historical basis and (ii) assuming the completion of the merger at such respective dates, using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the related pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition as of December 31, 2016 gives effect to the completion of Pacific Premier's acquisition of Plaza, as well as its acquisition of Heritage Oaks Bancorp, or HEOP, which was completed on April 1, 2017.

The following Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations for both the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016 combine the historical Consolidated Statements of Operations of Pacific Premier and the historical Consolidated Statements of Income of Plaza for such respective periods, giving effect to the merger as if the merger had become effective at the beginning of the periods presented, using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statement of Operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016 also gives effect to Pacific Premier's acquisition of HEOP, giving effect to the merger as if the merger had become effective at the beginning of such respective period, using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Although pro forma financial information is not a measurement of performance calculated in accordance with GAAP, Pacific Premier and Plaza believe that pro forma financial information is important because it gives effect to the merger and the transactions referenced above. The manner in which Pacific Premier and Plaza calculate pro forma financial information may differ from similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information included in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement are presented for informational purposes only. This information includes various estimates and may not necessarily be indicative of the financial condition or results of operations that would have occurred if the merger or the other transactions referenced above had been completed on the dates or at the beginning of the periods indicated or which may be obtained in the future. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the respective period's historical consolidated financial statements and the related notes of Pacific Premier, Plaza and HEOP. The historical consolidated financial statements of Pacific Premier are filed with the Commission and incorporated by reference into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. The historical consolidated financial statements of Plaza are included elsewhere in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. See "Where You Can Find More Information" and "Index to Plaza Consolidated Financial Statements." The historical consolidated financial statement of HEOP are included elsewhere in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. See "Index to HEOP Consolidated Financial Statements."

The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the opportunities to earn additional revenue and does not include certain assumptions as to cost savings and, accordingly, does not attempt

Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

Note A Basis of Presentation

The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition and explanatory notes as of June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 combines the historical Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition of Pacific Premier and the historical Consolidated Balance Sheet of Plaza as of such respective dates (i) on an actual historical basis and (ii) assuming the completion of the merger at such respective dates, using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the related pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition as of December 31, 2016 gives effect to the completion of Pacific Premier's acquisition of Plaza, as well as its acquisition of HEOP, which was completed on April 1, 2017.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and explanatory notes for both the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016 combine the historical Consolidated Statements of Operations of Pacific Premier and the historical Consolidated Statements of Income of Plaza for such respective periods, giving effect to the merger as if the merger had become effective at the beginning of the periods presented, using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016 also gives effect to Pacific Premier's acquisition of HEOP, giving effect to the merger as if the merger had become effective at the beginning of such respective period using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Since the merger is recorded using the acquisition method of accounting, all loans are recorded at fair value, including adjustments for credit quality, and no allowance for credit losses is carried over to Pacific Premier's balance sheet. In addition, certain anticipated costs associated with the merger such as professional fees, legal fees and conversion-related expenditures are not reflected in the pro forma statements of operations.

While the recording of the acquired loans at their fair value will impact the prospective determination of the provision for credit losses and the allowance for credit losses, for purposes of the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016, Pacific Premier assumed no adjustments to the historical amounts of Plaza's and HEOP's provisions for credit losses. If such adjustments were estimated, there could be an increase or a reduction to the historical amounts of Plaza's and HEOP's provisions for credit losses presented. In addition, the fair value of the loan portfolio is not necessarily reflective of the allowance for loan losses calculated under the probable incurred loss model, as the fair value also takes into account an interest and liquidity component.

Note B Accounting Policies and Financial Statement Classifications

The accounting policies of Plaza are in the process of being reviewed in detail by Pacific Premier. Upon completion of such review, conforming adjustments or financial statement reclassifications may be determined.

Note C Merger and Acquisition Integration Costs

In connection with the merger, the plan to integrate Pacific Premier's and Plaza's operations is still being developed. The specific details of this plan will continue to be refined over the next several months, and will include assessing personnel, benefit plans, premises, equipment, and service contracts to determine where they may take advantage of redundancies. Certain decisions arising from these assessments may involve involuntary termination of employees, vacating leased premises, changing information systems, canceling contracts with certain service providers, and selling or otherwise disposing of certain furniture and equipment. Pacific Premier also expects to incur merger-related costs including professional fees, legal fees, system conversion costs and costs related to communications with customers and others. To the extent there are costs associated with these actions, the costs will be recorded based on the nature of the cost and in the period incurred.

Note D Estimated Annual Cost Savings

Pacific Premier expects to realize cost savings following the merger. These cost savings are not reflected in the pro forma financial information and there can be no assurance they will be achieved in the amount or manner currently contemplated.

Note E Pro Forma Adjustments

The following pro forma adjustments have been reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information. All adjustments are based on current assumptions and valuations, which are subject to change.

- (1) The pro forma data in this column presents the unaudited financial data for Pacific Premier on a pro forma combined basis reflecting the consummation of the merger with Plaza and HEOP, as if the merger had taken place as of the date indicated, or at the beginning the period indicated, after giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the other footnotes to this table.
- (2) Adjustment includes: (a) $14.3 million for estimated transactions costs and (b) $6.1 million to holders of Plaza options and Plaza warrants.
- (3) Adjustment made to reflect the preliminary estimated market value of loans, which includes an estimate of lifetime credit losses, as well as an interest rate and liquidity component. Loans include net deferred costs and unearned discounts.
- (4) Purchase accounting reversal of allowance for loan losses, which is not carried over.
- (5) Estimated fair market value adjustment for property and leases.
- (6) Represents the recognition of goodwill resulting from the difference between the consideration paid to Plaza and HEOP shareholders less the net fair value of the acquired assets and

- (14) Adjustment includes amortization of core deposit intangibles over a 10 accelerated year life, fixed asset accretion over 36 months and adjustments for acquisition related costs. Acquisition costs for professional, legal and conversion related expenditures are not reflected as they are nonrecurring expenses. Acquisition costs incurred in the historical financial results are included in the pro-forma adjustments. These costs will be expensed by Pacific Premier as required by GAAP.
- (15) Adjustment reflects the elimination of the acquired entity's weighted average shares outstanding, offset by the issuance of common stock by acquirer for each outstanding share of acquired entity's common stock to be issued in connection with the merger.
- (16) The amortization/accretion of fair value adjustments related to deposits and debt are recognized over 60 and 96 months, respectively, based on sum of year digits accelerated method.
- (17) Adjustment includes amortization of core deposit intangibles over a 10-year life, based on sum of year digits accelerated method, and fixed asset accretion straight lined over 24 months.
- (18) Fair market value adjustment for investment securities.

UNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table sets forth certain historical, pro forma and pro forma equivalent per share financial information for the Pacific Premier common stock and the Plaza common stock. The pro forma and pro forma equivalent per share information for the six month period ended June 30, 2017 gives effect to the merger as if the transaction had been effective on the last date of the period, in the case of book value data, and as if the transaction had been effective on the first day of the period, in the case of the income and dividend data. The pro forma and pro forma equivalent per share information for the year ended December 31, 2016 gives effect to (i) the completion of Pacific Premier's acquisition of HEOP, which was completed on April 1, 2017 and (ii) the merger as if the transaction had been effective on the last date of the period, in the case of book value data, and as if the transaction had been effective on the first day of the period, in the case of the income and dividend data. The pro forma information in the below table assumes that the merger is accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting. The information in the following table is based on, and should be read together with, (i) the historical consolidated financial information that Pacific Premier has presented in its prior filings with the Commission and which are incorporated into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and (ii) the historical consolidated financial statements of Plaza that are

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included and incorporated by reference into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, including the matters addressed in the section entitled "Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 33, you should be aware of and carefully consider the following risks and uncertainties that are applicable to the merger agreement, the merger, Pacific Premier and Plaza before deciding whether to deliver a written consent with respect to the approval of the merger agreement. You should also consider the risks relating to the businesses of Pacific Premier and ownership of Pacific Premier common stock contained in Part I, Item 1A of Pacific Premier's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 that has been filed with the Commission, as well as any subsequent documents filed by Pacific Premier with the Commission, which are incorporated into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement by reference. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 152.

Because the market price of Pacific Premier common stock will fluctuate, the Plaza shareholders cannot be sure of the exact value of the merger consideration they will receive.

Upon the effective time of the merger, each share of Plaza common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, consisting of 0.2000 shares of Pacific Premier common stock for each share of Plaza common stock. Because the price of Pacific Premier common stock will fluctuate during the period of time between the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and the time the Plaza shareholders actually receive their shares of Pacific Premier common stock as merger consideration, the Plaza shareholders will be subject to the risk of a decline in the price of Pacific Premier common stock during this period. Plaza does not have the right to terminate the merger agreement or to resolicit written consents from its shareholders solely because of changes in the market prices of Pacific Premier's common stock. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in geopolitical conditions, changes in the values and perceptions of financial services stocks generally and Pacific Premier in particular, changes in Pacific Premier's business, operations and prospects and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond Pacific Premier's control. Accordingly, at the time that the Plaza consent solicitation is initiated and conducted, Plaza shareholders will not know or be able to calculate the exact value of the shares of Pacific Premier common stock they will receive upon completion of the merger.

Directors and officers of Plaza have interests in the merger that are in addition to or different than the interests of Plaza shareholders.

Plaza directors and officers have interests in the merger as individuals that are in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of Plaza, which are:

Upon consummation of the merger, directors and officers of Plaza and its subsidiaries will have the vesting of their Plaza stock options, Plaza warrants and Plaza restricted stock accelerated and (i) their Plaza restricted stock shall be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration and (ii) their Plaza options and Plaza warrants shall be converted into the right to receive cash;

the agreement of Pacific Premier to honor indemnification obligations of Plaza for a period of six (6) years, as well as to purchase liability insurance for Plaza's directors and officers for six (6) years following the merger, subject to the terms of the merger agreement;

cash payments to certain officers of Plaza in the aggregate amount of approximately $2.1 million, on a pre-tax basis, pursuant to the terms of their respective employment and change-in control severance agreements with Plaza;

success bonuses that may be paid to certain officers of Plaza in recognition of their efforts in connection with the merger, which are not expected to exceed $600,000 in the aggregate; and pursuant to the investor rights agreement, so long as funds controlled by Carpenter continue to own at least 9.90% of Pacific Premier's issued and outstanding common stock, Carpenter may, but is not required to, designate one member to serve on the Pacific Premier board of directors and the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors.

These arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. These interests of Plaza's directors and officers may cause some of these persons to view the proposed transaction differently than how other Plaza shareholders view it. The Plaza and Pacific Premier boards of directors were aware of these interests and considered them, among other things, in their approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Plaza shareholders should consider these interests in conjunction with the recommendation of the Plaza board of directors with respect to approval of the merger. See "The Merger Interests of Certain Plaza Officers and Directors in the Merger" beginning on page 71.

The termination fee and expense reimbursement requirement, as well as the restrictions on solicitation contained in the merger agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Plaza.

Until the completion of the merger, with some limited exceptions, Plaza is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or participating in any discussion of or otherwise considering any inquiries or proposals that may lead to an acquisition proposal, such as a merger or other business combination transaction, with any person other than Pacific Premier. In addition, Plaza has agreed to pay a termination fee to Pacific Premier as well as to reimburse Pacific Premier for certain expenses incurred in specified circumstances. See "The Merger Termination Fee and Expenses" beginning on page 68. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Plaza even though those other companies might be willing to offer greater value to Plaza shareholders than Pacific Premier has offered in the merger. The payment of the termination fee could also have a material adverse effect on Plaza's financial condition.

Pacific Premier may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The success of the merger will depend on, among other things, Pacific Premier's ability to realize the anticipated revenue enhancements and efficiencies and to combine the businesses of Pacific Premier and Plaza in a manner that does not materially disrupt the existing customer relationships of Plaza or result in decreased revenues resulting from any loss of customers and that permits growth opportunities to occur. If Pacific Premier is not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

Pacific Premier and Plaza have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect Pacific Premier's ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. Integration efforts between the two companies could also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of Pacific Premier and Plaza during the transition period and on the combined company following completion of the merger.

The market price of Pacific Premier common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Plaza or Pacific Premier currently.

Upon completion of the merger, holders of Plaza common stock will become holders of Pacific Premier common stock. Pacific Premier's business differs from that of Plaza, and, accordingly, the financial condition and results of operations of the combined company and the market price of Pacific Premier common stock after the completion of the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the financial condition and results of operations of Plaza or Pacific Premier on a standalone basis.

Sales of substantial amounts of Pacific Premier's common stock in the open market by former Plaza shareholders could depress Pacific Premier's stock price.

Shares of Pacific Premier common stock that are issued to Plaza shareholders in the merger will be freely tradable without restrictions under the Securities Act, or registered for resale under the Securities Act. As of the close of business on September 22, 2017, Pacific Premier had approximately 40,160,325 shares of common stock outstanding. Based on the number of Plaza shares of common stock outstanding as of the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and 60,995 shares of Plaza restricted stock which will vest in connection with the merger and convert into the right to receive the merger consideration, Pacific Premier anticipates issuing approximately 6,038,857 shares of its common stock in connection with the merger. Approximately 86% of the shares of common stock being issued by Pacific Premier as merger consideration will be owned by funds managed by Carpenter, and these shares will be registered for re-sale under the Securities Act.

Because of the significantly enhanced liquidity of Pacific Premier common stock as compared to Plaza common shares on account of trading on NASDAQ and the greater public float and trading volume of shares of Pacific Premier common stock relative to shares of Plaza common stock, if the merger is completed, Plaza's former shareholders may sell substantial amounts of Pacific Premier common stock in the public market following completion of the merger. Any such sales may cause the market price of Pacific Premier common stock to decrease.

Pacific Premier expects to incur expenses related to the merger that may have a negative impact on Pacific Premier's results of operations.

Pacific Premier will incur certain expenses in connection with consummation of the merger and integrating Plaza's business, operations, systems, technologies and procedures. Although Pacific Premier has assumed that a certain level of transaction and integration expenses would be incurred, there are a number of factors beyond Pacific Premier's control that could affect the total amount or the timing of these expenses. Many of the expenses that will be incurred, by their nature, are difficult to estimate accurately at the present time. These expenses may have a negative impact on its results of operation, although the timing and magnitude of any such impact is uncertain at present.

The fairness opinion received by Plaza's board of directors from Plaza's financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill, will not be updated to reflect any changes since the date of such opinion.

Changes in the operations and prospects of Pacific Premier or Plaza, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Pacific Premier and Plaza may alter the value of Pacific Premier or Plaza or the market price for shares of Pacific Premier common stock or Plaza common stock by the time the merger is completed. The fairness opinion delivered by Sandler O'Neill to the Plaza board of directors does not speak of any date other than the date of such opinion, which was August 8, 2017. The merger agreement does not require that Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion be updated as a condition to the completion of the merger, and Plaza does not intend to request that fairness opinion be updated. Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion is attached as Appendix B to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. For a description of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, see "The Merger Opinion of Plaza's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 43. For a description of the other factors considered by Plaza's board of directors in determining to approve the merger, see "The Merger Plaza's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Plaza Board of Directors" beginning on page 41.

The merger is subject to the receipt of approvals or waivers from regulatory authorities that may be denied or may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on Pacific Premier.

Before the merger can be completed, various approvals or waivers must be obtained from bank regulatory authorities. Regulatory approval or waivers are not guaranteed and even if granted, the bank regulatory authorities may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Although Pacific Premier and Plaza do not currently expect that any such application or waiver request will be denied, or that any such conditions or changes will be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such denials, conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger, imposing additional costs on, or limiting the revenues of Pacific Premier following the merger or causing the merger transaction between Pacific Premier and Plaza to terminate. See "The Merger Bank Regulatory Approvals" beginning on page 60 and "The Merger Conditions to the Merger" beginning on page 58.

The merger cannot be completed unless the Plaza shareholders approve the merger agreement.

In order for the merger to be completed, the Plaza shareholders must approve the merger agreement. The approval of the merger agreement by the Plaza shareholders requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock. If this required vote is not obtained from the shareholders of Plaza through the Plaza consent solicitation, the merger may not be consummated. Pacific Premier may terminate the merger agreement if the holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding shares of Plaza Common Stock have not approved of the merger agreement prior to 6:00 pm, Pacific Time, on the third business day following the date of declaration of effectiveness by the Commission of the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part.

The merger is subject to certain closing conditions that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the merger not being completed, which may cause the prices of Pacific Premier common stock and Plaza common stock to decline.

Consummation of the merger is subject to customary conditions to closing in addition to the receipt of the required regulatory approvals and approval of the Plaza shareholders of the merger agreement. If any condition to the merger is not satisfied or waived, to the extent permitted by law, the merger will not be completed. In addition, Pacific Premier and Plaza may terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances even if the merger agreement is approved by Plaza shareholders, including if the merger has not been completed on or before May 31, 2018. If the merger is not completed, the respective trading prices of Pacific Premier common stock on the NASDAQ Global Stock Market or quotations of Plaza common stock on the OTC Market Group Pink Sheets may decline to the extent that the current prices reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed. In addition, neither company would realize any of the expected benefits of having completed the merger. For more information on closing conditions to the merger agreement, see "The Merger Conditions to the Merger" beginning on page 58.

The unaudited condensed pro forma combined financial data contained in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement are presented for illustrative purposes only, are based on various adjustments, assumptions and preliminary estimates and may not be an indication of the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the merger for several reasons. The actual financial condition and results of operations of the combined company following the merger may not be consistent with, or evident from, these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data. addition, the assumptions used in preparing the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial data may not prove to be accurate, and other factors may affect the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the merger. Any potential decline in the combined company's financial condition or results of operations may cause significant variations in the stock price of the combined company.

The shares of Pacific Premier common stock to be received by Plaza shareholders as a result of the merger will have different rights than shares of Plaza common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, Plaza shareholders will become Pacific Premier shareholders and their rights as shareholders will be governed by the Pacific Premier amended and restated certificate of incorporation, the Pacific Premier amended and restated bylaws and the DGCL. The rights associated with Plaza common stock are different from the rights associated with Pacific Premier common stock. See "Comparison of the Rights of Shareholders" beginning on page 142.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus/consent solicitation statement contains or incorporates by reference a number of forward-looking statements regarding the financial condition, results of operations, earnings outlook and business prospects of Pacific Premier, Pacific Premier Bank, Plaza and Plaza Bank and the potential combined company and may include statements for the periods following the completion of the merger. Shareholders of either Pacific Premier or Plaza can find many of these statements by looking for words such as "expects," "projects," "anticipates," "believes," "intends," "estimates," "strategy," "plan," "potential," "possible" and other similar expressions. Statements about the expected timing, completion and effects of the merger and all other statements in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement or in the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement other than historical facts constitute forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties that are subject to change based on factors which are, in many instances, beyond Pacific Premier's or Plaza's control. The ability of either Pacific Premier or Plaza to predict results or actual effects of its plans and strategies, or those of the combined company, is inherently uncertain. Accordingly, actual results may differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, the forward-looking statements. Some of the factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those discussed under "Risk Factors" and those discussed in the filings of Pacific Premier that are incorporated into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement by reference, as well as the following:

estimated revenue enhancements, costs savings and financial benefits from the merger may not be fully realized within the expected time frames or at all;

deposit attrition, customer loss or revenue loss following the merger may occur or be greater than expected; required regulatory, shareholder or other approvals may not be obtained or other closing conditions may not be satisfied in a timely manner or at all;

reputational risks and the reaction of the companies' customers to the merger; diversion of management time on merger-related issues; competitive pressure among depository and other financial institutions may increase significantly;

costs or difficulties related to the integration of the businesses of Pacific Premier and Plaza may be greater than expected;

changes in the interest rate environment may affect interest margins;

Table of Contents

the effects of, and changes in, trade, monetary and fiscal policies and laws, including interest rate policies of the Federal Reserve;

general economic or business conditions, either nationally or in the states or regions in which Pacific Premier and Plaza do business, may be less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality or a reduced demand for credit; legislation or changes in regulatory requirements may adversely affect the businesses in which Pacific Premier and Plaza are engaged; adverse changes may occur in the securities markets; and competitors of Pacific Premier may have greater financial resources and develop products and technology that enable those competitors to compete more successfully than Pacific Premier.

Because these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, Pacific Premier's and Plaza's actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are predicated on the beliefs and assumptions of the management of each of Pacific Premier and Plaza based on information known to them as of the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. Plaza and Pacific Premier shareholders are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement or the date of any document incorporated by reference in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and attributable to Pacific Premier or Plaza or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. Pacific Premier and Plaza undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, unless obligated to do so under the federal securities laws.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This consent solicitation statement/prospectus serves as both (i) a consent solicitation statement of Plaza shareholders, pursuant to which Plaza shareholders are being asked to provide written consents for the approval of the merger agreement, and (ii) a prospectus for Pacific Premier common stock that Plaza shareholders will be entitled to receive as a result of the merger.

Pacific Premier has supplied all of the information contained or incorporated by reference herein relating to Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank, and Plaza has supplied all of the information contained herein relating to Plaza and Plaza Bank.

PLAZA SOLICITATION OF WRITTEN CONSENTS

This section contains information for Plaza shareholders regarding the solicitation of written consents to approve the merger agreement by executing and delivering the written consent furnished with this prospectus/consent solicitation statement.

Plaza Shareholder Action by Written Consent

The Plaza board is providing these consent solicitation materials to Plaza shareholders. Plaza shareholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement by executing and delivering the written consent furnished with this prospectus/consent solicitation statement.

Shares Entitled to Consent and Consent Required

Only Plaza shareholders of record at the close of business on the Plaza record date of September 26, 2017, will be notified of and be entitled to execute and deliver a written consent. On the Plaza record date, the outstanding Plaza common stock eligible to consent with respect to the approval of the merger agreement consisted of 30,152,586 shares of Plaza common stock. Under the Plaza certificate of incorporation, as amended, and the DGCL, each holder of Plaza common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Plaza common stock held of record.

Adoption of the merger agreement requires approval by written consent by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock entitled to vote.

Plaza shareholders whose shares of Plaza common stock are held in "street name" in the name of their bank, broker or other nominee should refer to their written consent card or the information forwarded by their nominee to confirm how to tender their written consent.

Carpenter Support Agreement; Voting by Plaza's Directors and Certain Executive Officers

Certain funds affiliated with Carpenter, which collectively own approximately 86.0% of the outstanding Plaza common stock, are a party to a support agreement with Pacific Premier, referred to as the Carpenter support agreement, and Plaza's directors and certain executive officers, who collectively own approximately 2.4% of the Plaza common stock, are each parties to a shareholder agreement with Pacific Premier, referred to as the Plaza shareholder agreements, whereby such shareholders agreed to vote by written consent in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that Pacific Premier may terminate the merger agreement if consents representing greater than a majority of the outstanding Plaza common stock, voting in favor of the merger agreement, shall not have been delivered to Pacific Premier by 6:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the third business day after the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part, has been declared effective by the Commission. The Carpenter support agreement and the form of Plaza shareholder agreements are included in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement as Annexes A and B, respectively, to the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement.

Submission of Consents

You may consent to the proposal with respect to your shares of Plaza common stock by completing, dating and signing the written consent furnished with this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and returning it to Plaza.

If you hold shares of Plaza common stock as of the Plaza record date and you wish to give your written consent, you must fill out the enclosed written consent, date and sign it, and promptly return it to Plaza. Once you have completed, dated and signed the written consent, you may deliver it to Plaza by faxing it to John Shindler, Corporate Secretary, at (949) 502-4399, by emailing a .pdf copy of your written consent to jshindler@plazabank.com or by mailing your written consent to Plaza, Attention: Corporate Secretary, 18200 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 500, Irvine, California 92612.

The Plaza board of directors has set October 30, 2017, as the targeted final date for receipt of written consents. Plaza reserves the right to extend the final date for receipt of written consents beyond October 30, 2017. Any such extension may be made without notice to Plaza shareholders. Once a sufficient number of consents to adopt the merger agreement have been received, the consent solicitation will conclude. As noted in the section entitled "The Merger Appraisal Rights" beginning on page 81, the delivery of a signed and dated consent adopting the merger agreement, or delivery of a signed and dated consent without indicating a decision on the proposal, will result in a loss of appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL.

Table of Contents

The Plaza board of directors has carefully considered the merger and the terms thereof and has determined that the merger and the terms thereof are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of Plaza and its shareholders. Accordingly, the Plaza board recommends that Plaza shareholders approve the merger agreement pursuant to the Plaza consent solicitation.

Executing Consents; Revocation of Consents

You may execute a written consent to approve the merger agreement (which is equivalent to a vote "FOR" the proposal), or disapprove the proposal (which is equivalent to a vote "AGAINST" the proposal). Under Delaware law, your consent must bear the date of your signature. If you do not return your written consent, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. If you are a record holder and you return a signed and dated written consent without indicating your decision on the proposal, you will have given your consent to adopt the merger agreement as described in the enclosed form of written consent.

Your written consent to the proposal may be changed or revoked at any time before the written consents of a sufficient number of shares to adopt the merger agreement have been delivered to Plaza. If you wish to change or revoke a previously given written consent before that time, you may do so by delivering a new written consent with a later date or by delivering or faxing a notice of revocation to Plaza.

Solicitation of Consents

Officers of Plaza may solicit consents by telephone and personally, in addition to solicitation by mail. These persons will receive their regular salaries but no special compensation for soliciting consents.

THE MERGER

The following information describes the material aspects of the merger agreement and the merger. This description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the appendices to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, including the merger agreement which is attached as Appendix A and incorporated by reference into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. Shareholders of Plaza should carefully read the appendices in their entirety.

Structure of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Plaza will be acquired by Pacific Premier, in a transaction in which Plaza will merge with and into Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier as the surviving corporation, which is referred to as the merger. Immediately following the consummation of the merger, Plaza Bank will be merged with and into Pacific Premier Bank, with Pacific Premier Bank as the surviving institution, which is referred to as the bank merger. Following consummation of the bank merger, Pacific Premier Bank intends to continue to operate all of the branches acquired from Plaza Bank.

Table of Contents

Following the consummation of the merger, Pacific Premier's amended and restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws as in effect immediately prior to the merger will continue as the governing corporate documents of Pacific Premier. The directors and executive officers of Pacific Premier immediately prior to the merger will continue as the directors and executive officers of Pacific Premier after the merger, in each case, until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified. In addition, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement and an investor rights agreement, which is referred to as the investor rights agreement, entered into between Pacific Premier and Carpenter, which manages funds that own approximately 86.0% of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock, so long as funds controlled by Carpenter continue to own at least 9.90% of Pacific Premier's issued and outstanding common stock, Carpenter may, but is not required to, designate one member to serve on the Pacific Premier board of directors and the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors.

Background of the Merger

Plaza's board of directors, which also is referred to as the Plaza board, and management regularly review Plaza's business strategies, opportunities and challenges as part of their consideration and evaluation of Plaza's long-term prospects, with the goal of enhancing value for Plaza's shareholders. These strategic considerations have focused on, among other things, the challenging operating environment for Plaza and other banking companies, the ongoing consolidation in the financial services industry, the inactive trading market for Plaza due to an approximate 86% aggregate ownership position by funds managed by Carpenter, the lack of liquidity for Plaza's shareholder base and the lack of dividends paid to date to Plaza shareholders. These reviews have also included periodic discussion with respect to potential transactions that would further its strategic objections, and the potential benefits and risk of those transactions.

At its November 17, 2016 meeting, the Plaza board discussed the overall positive stock market reaction to the recent U.S. Presidential election, the positive stock price reaction specific to publicly traded commercial banks since the election and the potential positive impact that the increase in stock price valuation could have on the merger and acquisition market for banks in 2017. The Plaza board decided at this meeting to invite Sandler O'Neill to present a discussion to the board regarding these subjects at its December meeting.

The Plaza board met on December 14, 2017 for the purpose of meeting with representatives of Sandler O'Neill to discuss the overall landscape of merger and acquisition activity in the banking industry, to provide an overview of the merger and acquisition opportunities potentially available to Plaza, to review a possible initial public offering, or IPO, transaction for Plaza and to consider the engagement of Sandler O'Neill for investment banking services. After reviewing and discussing the information with Sandler O'Neill, the Plaza board determined that it was in the best interests of Plaza and its shareholders to engage Sandler O'Neill for investment banking services.

On January 31, 2017, Plaza executed an engagement letter with Sandler O'Neill with respect to the potential sale of Plaza.

At the direction of the Plaza board, in February 2017, Sandler O'Neill contacted four banking institutions, including Pacific Premier, to determine whether they would be interested in discussions regarding the potential acquisition of Plaza. Pacific Premier and two of the other institutions, Company A and Company B, executed non-disclosure agreements with Plaza and received certain non-public information regarding Plaza. In March 2017, the Plaza board authorized Sandler O'Neill to contact a fifth banking institution, Company C, which had previously indicated interest in the potential acquisition of Plaza. Company C subsequently executed a non-disclosure agreement with Plaza and received certain non-public information regarding Plaza.

Table of Contents

In March 2017, Company A verbally indicated that it could be interested in potentially pricing the acquisition of Plaza at a level equal to approximately 175% of Plaza's tangible book value. Based upon Plaza's March 31, 2017 tangible book value, this implied a pricing level of approximately $6.51 per share of Plaza common stock.

On March 7, 2017, members of Plaza senior management met with the senior management of Company A to discuss a possible combination.

On March 29, 2017, Plaza's CEO met with the CEO of Company B to discuss a possible combination. Subsequent to that meeting, Company B elected not to pursue a potential transaction.

On April 26, 2017, members of Plaza senior management met with the management team of Pacific Premier to discuss a possible transaction, including corporate alignment and fit, current performance, potential synergies, forecasts and factors for pricing.

On May 11, 2017, members of Plaza senior management met with the senior management of Company C to discuss a possible combination.

On May 25, 2017, Plaza received from Pacific Premier a non-binding letter of interest which outlined the principal terms for the potential acquisition of Plaza. The letter of interest outlined a fixed exchange ratio of 0.1881 shares of Pacific Premier common stock for every share of Plaza common stock. As of the date of the letter, this exchange ratio from Pacific Premier implied a price per share of Plaza common stock of $6.50.

On May 26, 2017, Plaza received from Company C a non-binding letter of interest which outlined the principal terms for the potential acquisition of Plaza. The letter of interest outlined a fixed exchange ratio stock consideration of Company C common stock for each share of Plaza common stock. As of the date of the letter, this exchange ratio from Company C implied a price per share of Plaza common stock of $6.83.

On June 7, 2017, the Plaza board met to discuss the non-binding letters of interest from Pacific Premier and Company C, as well as the verbal indication from Company A. It was noted that the stock price of Company A had declined approximately 20% since the verbal indication, and in multiple discussions since the verbal indication Company A had not been prepared to improve their view on pricing. Sandler reviewed with the Plaza board the respective merits and features of the Pacific Premier and Company C non-binding letters of interest, their financial position, geographic footprint, acquisition history, and stock fundamentals such as stock pricing multiples and stock trading liquidity. The Plaza board also considered the strategy to remain independent and pursue an IPO in order to provide stock trading liquidity to Plaza shareholders. After discussion, the Plaza board instructed Sandler O'Neill to contact Pacific Premier to seek an increase in the proposed exchange ratio to 0.2000 and to seek several additional adjustments to the terms of the letter of interest, including the right for Carpenter to designate a board representative at Pacific Premier on behalf of Plaza shareholders.

Over the next two weeks, Plaza, Pacific Premier and their respective advisors continued discussions regarding various topics including their respective financial position and prospects for future earnings. On June 21, 2017, Pacific Premier provided Plaza with an updated non-binding letter of interest which increased the offered exchange ratio to 0.2000 shares of Pacific Premier common stock for every share of Plaza common stock. As of the date of the letter, this exchange ratio from Pacific Premier implied a price per share of Plaza common stock of $7.00. Plaza and Pacific Premier continued to discuss the non-binding letter of interest and negotiated additional adjustments including Carpenter's right to designate a board representative at Pacific Premier.

Plaza also investigated the possible strategic combination with Company D, a company of similar asset size to Plaza. As discussed, the transaction would be structured as 100% stock consideration and result in a potential ownership balance in which Plaza shareholders would own approximately 55% of the pro forma organization. The Plaza board and management noted the significant execution risk related to a transaction with Company D and that it would not provide a significant increase in stock trading liquidity for Plaza shareholders.

On June 22, 2017, Company C provided Plaza with an updated non-binding letter of interest which increased the offered exchange ratio. As of the date of the letter, this exchange ratio from Company C implied a price per share of Plaza common stock of $7.19.

On June 22, 2017, the Plaza board met with Sandler O'Neill and discussed the potential transactions with Pacific Premier, Company C and Company D. After significant discussion regarding the merits of each potential combination, as well as the strategy to remain independent and pursue an IPO in order to provide stock trading liquidity to Plaza shareholders, the Plaza board directed Sandler O'Neill and Plaza's management to pursue a transaction with Pacific Premier. The Plaza board also formed a committee comprised of Messrs. Rogers, Jones, Galloway and Smaldino, which is referred to as the Plaza executive committee, to oversee the negotiations with Pacific Premier, and resolved to retain Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton, LLP, or Sheppard Mullin, to serve as counsel to Plaza in any transaction with Pacific Premier.

On June 26, 2017, Plaza executed the non-binding letter of interest with Pacific Premier.

Over the course of the next several weeks during July and early August 2017, extensive due diligence was completed by Pacific Premier on Plaza, including onsite loan file review and several management meetings. Similarly, due diligence was conducted by Plaza on Pacific Premier. Based on their respective due diligence reviews, the parties began negotiations of a definitive merger agreement. The Plaza executive committee met or held several conference call sessions with Sandler O'Neill and Sheppard Mullin. The Plaza executive committee met on June 29 and July 11, the date the first draft of the merger agreement was received from Pacific Premier. The Plaza executive committee met again on July 17 and July 19, the Plaza board met on July 20, and the Plaza executive committee met again on July 21, July 25, July 27, August 1 and August 2, in each case to discuss the draft merger agreement. During this period of time, Mr. Galloway spoke several times to Steve Gardner, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Pacific Premier, to resolve or clarify issues in the draft merger agreement and its disclosure schedules.

On August 7, 2017, the Plaza board held a special meeting for purposes of considering the merger agreement. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Sheppard Mullin were in attendance. At that meeting, the Plaza board thoroughly discussed and considered the terms and conditions of the merger and the merger agreement with its legal and financial advisors, and was advised of its duties in connection with the transaction.

The Plaza board met again on August 8, 2017. At that meeting, Sandler O'Neill delivered orally its opinion that the exchange ratio was fair to Plaza shareholders from a financial point of view. The Plaza board discussed some of the mechanics of the closing and issues relating to the closing documents to be signed by Carpenter, members of the Plaza board and members of Plaza senior management. Following that discussion, the Plaza board voted unanimously to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and authorized Plaza management to execute the merger agreement.

On August 8, 2017, the board of directors of Pacific Premier held a special board meeting for purposes of considering the merger agreement. At that meeting, the Pacific Premier board of directors thoroughly discussed and considered the terms and conditions of the merger and the merger agreement. Holland & Knight LLP advised the Pacific Premier board of directors respecting its duties in connection with the transaction and the terms of the merger agreement. D.A. Davidson & Co., or Davidson, reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger. After deliberation, the Pacific Premier board of directors voted unanimously to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and authorized Pacific Premier management to execute the merger agreement.

Later in the evening of August 8, 2017, Pacific Premier and Plaza issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement and the terms of the proposed merger.

Pacific Premier's Reasons for the Merger and Factors Considered by Pacific Premier's Board of Directors

As part of Pacific Premier's business strategy, it evaluates opportunities to acquire bank holding companies, banks and other financial institutions. The acquisition of Plaza and Plaza Bank is consistent with this strategy. In reaching its conclusion to approve the merger, Pacific Premier's board of directors consulted with Davidson, its financial advisor, with respect to the financial aspects of the proposed acquisition and with its legal counsel, Holland & Knight LLP, as to its legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement and related agreements. Pacific Premier entered into the merger agreement with Plaza because, among other things, Pacific Premier believes that the acquisition of Plaza and Plaza Bank will:

expand Pacific Premier's geographic footprint into Los Angeles County, a strategically key market, and establish a presence in Las Vegas, Nevada; create opportunities for Pacific Premier Bank to provide additional products and services to the Plaza customers; improve and strengthen Pacific Premier Bank's existing deposit base by acquiring a commercial banking franchise with an attractive non-maturity deposit base, which was comprised of 77% non-certificates of deposit and 27% non-interest bearing demand deposits at June 30, 2017;

offer estimated costs savings of approximately 35% of Plaza's non-interest expense, with 75% of the cost savings phased-in during 2018 and the remainder during 2019;

based on the projected cost savings, be immediately accretive to Pacific Premier's earnings per share in 2018, excluding merger-related expenses, and result in an anticipated earnings per share accretion of approximately 3.9% in fiscal year 2019;

based on the projected cost savings, be immediately accretive to tangible book value per share; offer an internal rate of return anticipated to be greater than 15% based on the projected cost savings;

further diversify Pacific Premier Bank's loan mix; enable Pacific Premier to offer its broader range of products and services to Plaza Bank customers; result in a broader market presence providing greater opportunities for future in-market acquisitions; and allow Pacific Premier to deploy a portion of its capital into what its board of directors believes is a compelling investment.

The Pacific Premier board of directors also considered the potential adverse consequences of the proposed merger, including:

the possible disruption to Pacific Premier's or Plaza's business that may result from the announcement of the merger;

the risk that the cost savings, operational synergies and other benefits expected result from the merger might not be fully realized or not realized at all;

the possibility that the merger may not be completed or may be unduly delayed because conditions to closing may not be satisfied, including:

the condition that Plaza's shareholders approve the merger, and other conditions which are outside of Pacific Premier's control;

the risk that the merger might not be completed and the effect of the resulting public announcement of termination of the merger agreement on:

the market price of Pacific Premier's common stock, and Pacific Premier's operating results, particularly in light of the costs incurred in connection with the merger; and the potential risk of diverting management focus and resources from operational matters and other strategic opportunities while working to implement the merger.

Based on the reasons stated above, Pacific Premier's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interest of Pacific Premier and its shareholders.

Plaza's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Plaza's Board of Directors

After carefully considering all of its options, and cognizant of its fiduciary duty to shareholders, the current competitive and regulatory environment, general uncertain economic environment, and a number of other factors discussed in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, Plaza's board unanimously recommended approval of the merger agreement, determining that the merger, on the terms provided in the merger agreement, is Plaza's best option to realize reasonable value for its shareholders in today's challenging and uncertain banking market.

In reaching its conclusion to approve the merger and recommend adoption of the merger agreement to the Plaza shareholders, Plaza's board consulted with its financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill, with respect to the financial aspects of the proposed sale, and consulted with its legal counsel, Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP, as to its legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement and related agreements. All material factors considered by the Plaza board have been disclosed in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. In approving the merger agreement, the Plaza board considered a number of factors, including the following, without assigning any specific or relative weights to the factors:

the belief that the terms of the merger and the merger agreement are fair to and in the best interests of all Plaza shareholders;

the financial terms of the merger, including the relationship of the merger consideration to the book value of Plaza common stock and the earnings of Plaza;

the belief, as of the date of the merger agreement, that the aggregate merger consideration represents a fair price to Plaza shareholders;

the structure of the value of the aggregate merger consideration payable in shares of Pacific Premier common stock, which will allow Plaza shareholders to participate in the future performance of the combined company's business and synergies resulting from the merger, including an expanded geographic footprint and complementary business lines;

the need for greater liquidity for Plaza shareholders, and the fact that Pacific Premier's common stock is registered under the Exchange Act, and publicly traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market;

the advantages of being part of a larger financial institution, such as Pacific Premier, including the potential for operating efficiencies, the effect of a higher lending limit with respect to Plaza's customers, and the generally higher trading multiples of larger financial institutions;

the ability of a larger financial institution, such as Pacific Premier, to compete in the banking environment and to leverage overhead costs;

the anticipated impact on the communities served by Plaza, and the increased ability to serve the communities and its customer base through a larger branch network;

the ability of Pacific Premier's management team to successfully integrate and operate the business of the combined company after the merger, as evidenced by the success of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank in completing and integrating previous mergers of community banks;

the merger agreement does not include any unrealistic closing conditions based on the financial performance of Plaza between signing and closing of the transaction;

the likelihood that the merger will be completed on a timely basis, including the likelihood that the merger will receive all necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner;

the current and prospective economic, regulatory and competitive environment facing the financial services industry generally, and Plaza in particular, including the continued rapid consolidation in the financial services industry and the competitive effects of increased consolidation on relatively smaller financial institutions such as Plaza;

the tax-free nature of the shares of Pacific Premier common stock being offered as merger consideration; the prices paid and the terms of other recent comparable combinations of banks and bank holding companies;

results that could be expected to be obtained by Plaza if it continued to operate independently, and the likely value to be realized by Plaza shareholders if such course were followed, as compared with the value of the aggregate merger consideration being offered by Pacific Premier;

the financial presentation, dated August 8, 2017, of Sandler O'Neill to the Plaza board and the opinion, dated August 8, 2017, of Sandler O'Neill to the Plaza board, to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations described in Sandler O'Neill's opinion, the exchange ratio in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Plaza common stock, as more fully described below under " Opinion of Plaza's Financial Advisor;"

Plaza's employees having more opportunities for advancement at a larger financial institution such as Pacific Premier; and the lack of opportunities, in part due to Plaza's lack of stock trading liquidity and concentrated ownership, to expand by acquisition of other financial institutions, or through a merger of equals, on terms similarly advantageous to Plaza's shareholders as the proposed merger with Pacific Premier.

The Plaza board also considered the potential adverse consequences of the proposed merger, including:

the possible downside risk of Pacific Premier's stock performance and the risk of price volatility given that Plaza does not have a right to terminate the merger that is directly tied to the price performance of Pacific Premier common stock;

the risk that Plaza may not be able to meet one or more of the financial, or other, closing conditions that operate in favor of Pacific Premier, and therefore the merger may not close;

the possible effects on Plaza should the parties fail to complete the merger, including the possible effects on the price of Plaza common stock, and the associated business and opportunity costs;

the possibility that the merger and the related integration process could disrupt Plaza's on-going business and result in the loss of customers and the fact that Plaza's officers and employees will have to focus extensively on actions required to complete the merger, which will divert their attention from Plaza's business, and that Plaza will incur substantial transaction costs even if the merger is not consummated;

the merger agreement's restrictions on Plaza's ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with third parties, and the effect of a termination fee and expense reimbursement obligation in favor of Pacific Premier, including the risk that the termination fee and expense reimbursement obligation might discourage third parties from proposing an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to Plaza's shareholders;

the potential reaction of Plaza's customers to the proposed merger with Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank; employee attrition and the potential effect on business and customer relationships;

the interests of Plaza's and Plaza Bank's officers and directors with respect to the merger apart from their interests as holders of Plaza common stock, and the risk that these interests might influence their decision with respect to the merger; and that while the merger is pending, Plaza will be subject to certain limited restrictions on how it conducts business that could delay or prevent Plaza from pursuing business opportunities or preclude it from taking actions that would be advisable if it was to remain independent.

Based on the reasons stated, Plaza's board believes that the merger is in the best interest of Plaza and the Plaza shareholders and unanimously recommends that the Plaza shareholders provide their written consents voting "FOR" approval of the merger agreement in the Plaza consent solicitation.

Opinion of Plaza's Financial Advisor

Plaza retained Sandler O'Neill to act as an independent financial advisor to Plaza's board in connection with Plaza's consideration of a possible business combination. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as an independent financial advisor in connection with the proposed transaction and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the August 8, 2017 meeting at which Plaza's board considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, Sandler O'Neill delivered to Plaza's board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of August 8, 2017, the exchange ratio provided for in the merger agreement was fair to the holders of Plaza common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix B to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of Plaza common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Plaza's board in connection with its consideration of the merger agreement and the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Plaza as to how any such shareholder should vote in connection with the Plaza consent solicitation to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the exchange ratio to the holders of Plaza common stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Plaza to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger or any other transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Plaza or the effect of any other transaction in which Plaza might engage. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by any officer, director or employee of Plaza or Pacific Premier, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the merger by any other shareholder, including the exchange ratio to be received by the holders of Plaza common stock. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee.

In connection with its opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

a draft of the merger agreement, dated August 7, 2017;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Plaza and its banking subsidiary that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Pacific Premier and its banking subsidiary that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

internal financial projections for Plaza for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018 as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Plaza; publicly available mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Pacific Premier for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as adjusted by the senior management of Pacific Premier, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Pacific Premier;

the pro forma financial impact of the merger on Pacific Premier based on certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings, as provided by the senior management of Pacific Premier, as well as financial projections for Plaza for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Plaza and adjusted by the senior management of Pacific Premier;

the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Plaza common stock and Pacific Premier common stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for Plaza common stock and Pacific Premier common stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded;

a comparison of certain financial information for Plaza and Pacific Premier with similar institutions for which information is publicly available;

the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry (on a nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available;

the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O'Neill also discussed with certain members of senior management of Plaza the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Plaza and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of Pacific Premier and its representatives regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Pacific Premier.

In performing its review, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by Sandler O'Neill from public sources, that was provided to Sandler O'Neill by Plaza or Pacific Premier or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O'Neill and Sandler O'Neill assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion without any independent verification or investigation. Sandler O'Neill further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Plaza and Pacific Premier that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information and Sandler O'Neill did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Plaza or Pacific Premier, or any of their subsidiaries, nor was Sandler O'Neill furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O'Neill rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Plaza or Pacific Premier. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Plaza or Pacific Premier, or the combined entity after the merger and Sandler O'Neill did not review any individual credit files relating to Plaza or Pacific Premier. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with Plaza's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Plaza and Pacific Premier were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for Plaza for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018 as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Plaza. In addition, in preparing its analyses Sandler O'Neill used publicly available mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Pacific Premier for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as adjusted by the senior management of Pacific Premier, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Pacific Premier. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings, as provided by the senior management of Pacific Premier, as well as financial projections for Plaza for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Plaza and adjusted by the senior management of Pacific Premier. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective managements of Plaza and Pacific Premier confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, as adjusted, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements of the future financial performance of Plaza and Pacific Premier, respectively, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that such performance would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such projections, estimates or judgments, or the assumptions on which they were based. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there had been no material change in Plaza's or Pacific Premier's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Plaza and Pacific Premier will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Plaza's consent, that (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Plaza, Pacific Premier or the merger or any related transaction, (iii) the merger and any related transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, and (iv) the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with Plaza's consent, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the advice that Plaza received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to any such matters.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date thereof. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect Sandler O'Neill's opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date thereof. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading values of Plaza common stock or Pacific Premier common stock at any time or what the value of Pacific Premier common stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Plaza common stock.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill to Plaza's board, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O'Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Plaza or Pacific Premier and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Plaza and Pacific Premier and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O'Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion, rather, Sandler O'Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the exchange ratio on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

Table of Contents

In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Plaza, Pacific Premier and Sandler O'Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to Plaza's board at its August 8, 2017 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Plaza common stock or the prices at which Plaza common stock or Pacific Premier common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Plaza's board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and should not be viewed as determinative of the exchange ratio or the decision of Plaza's board or management with respect to the fairness of the merger. The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiation between Plaza and Pacific Premier.

Summary of Implied Exchange Ratio and Implied Transaction Metrics. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger. As set forth in the merger agreement, at closing, each issued and outstanding share of Plaza common stock immediately prior to the effective time, except for certain shares of Plaza common stock as specified in the merger agreement, shall be converted into the right to receive 0.2000 shares of the common stock of Pacific Premier. Based on the closing price of Pacific Premier common stock on August 7, 2017 of $36.00, Sandler O'Neill calculated an implied transaction price per share of Plaza common stock of $7.20 and an aggregate implied transaction value of approximately $223 million in exchange for all shares of Plaza common stock and common stock equivalents outstanding as of August 7, 2017. Based upon historical financial information for Plaza as of or for the last twelve months, referred to as LTM, ended June 30, 2017, as provided by Plaza senior management, Sandler O'Neill calculated the following implied transaction metrics.

Transaction Price / LTM Earnings Per Share of Plaza:	16.7x
Transaction Price / Book Value Per Share of Plaza:	172%
Transaction Price / Tangible Book Value Per Share of Plaza:	184
Tangible Book Premium / Core Deposits(1):	12.2
Tangible Book Premium / Core Deposits(2):	10.6
One Day Market Premium to Plaza Closing Stock Price(3):	11

Notes:

- (1) Core deposits calculated as total deposits less CD's greater than $100,000
- (2) Core deposits calculated as total deposits less CD's greater than $250,000
- (3) Based on Pacific Premier closing price of $36.00 and Plaza closing price of $6.50 as of August 7, 2017

Plaza Comparable Company Analyses. Sandler O'Neill used publicly available information to compare selected financial information for Plaza with a group of financial institutions selected by Sandler O'Neill, referred to as the "Plaza Western Region Peer Group". The Plaza Western Region Peer Group consisted of major exchange-traded banks headquartered in the western region with assets Plaza Net Present Value Analyses. Sandler O'Neill performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Plaza common stock assuming Plaza performed in accordance with internal forecasts for Plaza for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as provided by the senior management of Plaza, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Plaza. To approximate the terminal value of a share of Plaza common stock at December 31, 2021, Sandler O'Neill applied price to 2021 earnings per share multiples ranging from 13.0x to 18.0x and price to December 31, 2021 tangible book value per share multiples ranging from 120% to 195%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 16.0% which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Plaza common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of Plaza common stock of $4.85 to $8.53 when applying multiples of earnings per share and $4.15 to $8.56 when applying multiples of tangible book value per share.

Sandler O'Neill also considered and discussed with the Plaza board how this analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. To illustrate this impact, Sandler O'Neill performed a similar analysis assuming Plaza's net income varied from 15% above projections to 15% below projections. This analysis resulted in the following range of Pacific Premier Net Present Value Analyses. Sandler O'Neill performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Pacific Premier common stock assuming that Pacific Premier performed in accordance with earnings per share projections for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as provided by the senior management of Pacific Premier, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for Pacific Premier for the years ending December 31, 2019 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Pacific Premier. To approximate the terminal value of Pacific Premier common stock at December 31, 2021, Sandler O'Neill applied price to 2021 earnings per share multiples ranging from 17.0x to 22.0x and price to December 31, 2021 tangible book value per share multiples ranging from 170% to 270%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 7.0% to 13.0% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Pacific Premier common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of Pacific Premier common stock of $29.89 to $49.44 when applying multiples of earnings per share and $25.61 to $52.00 when applying multiples of tangible book value per share.

Sandler O'Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger. In performing this analysis, Sandler O'Neill utilized the following information and assumptions: (i) the merger closes on December 31, 2017; (ii) certain internal financial projections for Plaza for the years ending December 31, 2017 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Plaza and adjusted by the senior management of Pacific Premier; (iii) earnings per share projections for Pacific Premier for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018, as provided by the senior management of Pacific Premier, as well as an estimated long-term annual earnings per share growth rate for Pacific Premier for the years ending December 31, 2019 through December 31, 2021, as provided by the senior management of Pacific Premier; and (iv) certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, and cost savings, as provided by the senior management of Pacific Premier. The analysis indicated that the merger could be accretive to Pacific Premier's earnings per share (excluding one-time transaction costs and expenses) in the years December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2021, and accretive to Pacific Premier's estimated tangible book at close through the year end of 2021.

In connection with this analysis, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Plaza board how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship. Sandler O'Neill acted as Plaza's financial advisor in connection with the merger and will receive a fee for its services in an amount equal to 1.20% of the aggregate purchase price, which fee at the time of announcement was approximately $3 million. Sandler O'Neill's transaction fee is contingent upon consummation of the merger. Sandler O'Neill also received a fee for rendering its opinion, which fairness opinion fee will be credited in full towards the fee becoming due and payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the merger. Plaza has also agreed to indemnify Sandler O'Neill against certain claims and liabilities arising out of Sandler O'Neill's engagement and to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with Sandler O'Neill's engagement. In the two years preceding the date of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not provide any other investment banking services to Plaza, nor did Sandler O'Neill provide any investment banking services to Pacific Premier in the two years preceding the date thereof. In the ordinary course of Sandler O'Neill's business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Pacific Premier and its affiliates. Sandler O'Neill may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Plaza, Pacific Premier or their respective affiliates for Sandler O'Neill's own account and for the accounts of Sandler O'Neill's customers.

The Merger Consideration

General.

At the effective time of the merger, each share of Plaza common stock outstanding immediately before the effective time of the merger, will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of a Plaza shareholder, be converted into the right to receive whole shares of common stock of Pacific Premier. Cash will be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock. Since the federal income tax consequences will be dependent on the form of consideration received, you are urged to read carefully the information set forth below under " Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 76.

Merger Consideration.

Upon consummation of the merger, each share of Plaza common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled and converted into the right to receive 0.2000 shares of Pacific Premier common stock, which is referred to as the exchange ratio. Upon completion of the merger, and based on 30,133,293 shares of Plaza common stock outstanding as of the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and 60,995 shares of Plaza restricted stock which will vest in connection with the merger and convert into the right to receive the merger consideration, Plaza shareholders are expected to receive an aggregate of 6,038,857 shares of Pacific Premier common stock, which does not include any shares of Pacific Premier common stock that may be issuable to holders of Plaza options and Plaza warrants that are exercised prior to the merger. Following the completion of the merger, and based on 40,160,325 shares of Pacific Premier common stock outstanding as of September 22, 2017, the former Plaza shareholders will own approximately 13.1% of the outstanding shares of Pacific Premier common stock and the current shareholders of Pacific Premier will own the remaining approximately 86.9% of the outstanding shares of Pacific Premier common stock.

Aggregate Merger Consideration.

The total consideration to be paid by Pacific Premier to the Plaza shareholders in connection with the merger is referred to in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement as the aggregate merger consideration. The term aggregate merger consideration does not include the consideration, if any, payable to holders of (i) options to purchase shares of Plaza common stock, or (ii) warrants to purchase shares of Plaza common stock. In this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, we refer to stock options to purchase shares of Plaza's common stock as Plaza options and warrants to purchase Plaza common stock as Plaza warrants.

Upon completion of the merger and based on a $36.45 closing price of Pacific Premier's common stock on August 8, 2017, approximately $220.1 million of aggregate merger consideration will be payable to the Plaza shareholders. The foregoing sentence does not include the payment of cash (or shares of Pacific Premier common stock in the event any such Plaza options or Plaza warrants are exercised prior to the effective date of the merger) to the holders of Plaza options and Plaza warrants, each of which will accelerate in connection with the closing of the merger, and assumes (i) there are 30,194,288 shares of Plaza common stock outstanding at the closing (which includes 60,995 shares of Plaza restrictive stock that will vest in connection with the merger), (ii) the Plaza shareholders will receive an aggregate of approximately 6,038,857 shares of Pacific Premier common stock after applying the exchange ratio of 0.2000, which gives effect to the acceleration of vesting of 60,995 shares of Plaza restricted stock in connection with the closing of the merger that would result in such shares of Plaza restricted stock being converted into the right to receive the merger consideration in the merger. If all Plaza options and Plaza warrants were exercised prior to the closing, a maximum of an additional 139,771 shares of Pacific Premier common stock could be issued as merger consideration, though it is impossible to predict how many Plaza options and Plaza warrants will actually be exercised prior to the closing, if any.

Fractional Shares.

No fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock will be issued, and in lieu thereof, each holder of Plaza common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share interest will receive an amount in cash, without interest, determined by multiplying such fractional interest by the Pacific Premier average share price, rounded to the nearest whole cent. No such holder shall be entitled to dividends, voting rights or any other rights in respect of any fractional share of Pacific Premier common stock.

Plaza Options, Plaza Warrants and Plaza Restricted Stock

The board of directors of Plaza has approved acceleration of the vesting of Plaza options, Plaza warrants and Plaza restricted stock in connection with the closing of the merger.

Plaza Options.

At the effective time of the merger, each Plaza option which is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Plaza common stock subject to such Plaza option immediately prior to the effective time, and (ii) the excess, if any, of (A) the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio over (B) the exercise price per share of such Plaza option, less any applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. If the exercise price per share of any such Plaza option is equal to or greater than the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio, the Plaza option will be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. For Plaza options that are exercised before the closing, the underlying shares of Plaza common stock received upon exercise will be exchanged for the merger consideration in accordance with the exchange ratio.

Plaza Warrants.

At the effective time of the merger, each Plaza warrant which is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Plaza common stock subject to such Plaza warrant immediately prior to the effective time, and (ii) the excess, if any, of (A) the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio over (B) the exercise price per share of such Plaza warrant, less any applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. If the exercise price per share of any such Plaza warrant is equal to or greater than the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio, such Plaza warrant will be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. For Plaza warrants that are exercised before the closing, the underlying shares of Plaza common stock received upon exercise will be exchanged for the merger consideration in accordance with the exchange ratio.

Plaza Restricted Stock.

Immediately prior to the effective time, any vesting conditions applicable to each award of Plaza restricted stock will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof and consistent with the terms of the applicable Plaza stock-based plan, accelerate in full, and such Plaza restricted stock will become free of any restrictions and any repurchase right will lapse, and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive shares of Pacific Premier common stock in accordance with the exchange ratio (provided that cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock, without interest, determined by multiplying such fractional interest by the Pacific Premier average share price, rounded to the nearest whole cent), less any applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such vesting.

Procedures for Exchanging Plaza Common Stock Certificates

Promptly following the closing of the merger, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the exchange agent, will mail to each holder of record of Plaza common stock a notice and form of transmittal letter advising such holder of the effectiveness of the merger and the procedure for surrendering to the exchange agent certificates representing shares or book-entry shares of Plaza common stock in exchange for the merger consideration allocated to them. Upon surrender of a stock certificate or book-entry shares of Plaza common stock for exchange and cancellation to the exchange agent, together with a duly executed transmittal letter, the holder of such certificate or book-entry shares will be entitled to receive the merger consideration allocated to him or her and the certificate or book-entry shares for Plaza common stock so surrendered will be canceled. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash paid in lieu of fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock.

Plaza shareholders who surrender their stock certificates or book-entry shares and complete the transmittal materials, or who have taken other steps to surrender the evidence of their stock interest in Plaza in accordance with the instructions accompanying the transmittal letter, will, upon the exchange agent's acceptance of such stock certificates or book-entry shares and transmittal materials or stock interest, be entitled to evidence of issuance in book entry form, or upon written request of such holder, a certificate or certificates representing, the number of whole shares of Pacific Premier common stock in to which the aggregate number of shares of Plaza common stock surrendered have been converted pursuant to the merger agreement.

Any Plaza shareholder who receives shares of Pacific Premier common stock in the merger will receive dividends on Pacific Premier common stock or other distributions declared after the completion of the merger only if he or she has surrendered his or her Plaza stock certificates. Only then will the Plaza shareholder be entitled to receive all previously withheld dividends and distributions, without interest. Pacific Premier has never declared or paid dividends on its common stock and does not anticipate declaring or paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

After completion of the merger, no transfers of Plaza common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger will be allowed. Plaza stock certificates that are presented for transfer after the completion of the merger will be canceled and exchanged for the appropriate merger consideration.

Pacific Premier will only issue a Pacific Premier stock certificate in a name other than the name in which a surrendered Plaza stock certificate is registered if a Plaza shareholder presents the exchange agent with all documents required to show and effect the unrecorded transfer of ownership of the shares of Plaza common stock formerly represented by such Plaza stock certificate, and that the Plaza shareholder has paid any applicable stock transfer taxes.

If a Plaza shareholder has lost his or her Plaza stock certificate, or the Plaza stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Plaza shareholder may be required to deliver an affidavit and a lost certificate bond as a condition to receiving any merger consideration to which he or she may be entitled.

Conditions to the Merger

Completion of the merger is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions set forth in the merger agreement, or the waiver of such conditions by the party entitled to do so, at or before the closing date of the merger. Each of the parties' obligation to consummate the merger under the merger agreement is subject to the following conditions:

the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock must have approved the merger agreement pursuant to the Plaza consent solicitation;

all regulatory approvals required to consummate the merger by any governmental authority must have been obtained and must remain in full force and effect, all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof must have expired, and no required approval may contain any condition, restriction or requirement (other than a condition or requirement related to remedial actions) which Pacific Premier's board of directors reasonably determines in good faith would, individually or in the aggregate, materially reduce the economic benefits of the merger to such a degree that Pacific Premier, in its reasonable discretion, would not have entered into the merger agreement had such conditions, restrictions or requirements been known at the date of the merger agreement;

no statute, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order shall have been enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered which prohibits the consummation of the merger;

the registration statement of Pacific Premier, of which this document is a part, must have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Act, and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated by the Commission and not withdrawn;

the shares of Pacific Premier common stock to be issued in connection with the merger must have been approved for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (or on any securities exchange on which the Pacific Premier common stock may then be listed); and each of Pacific Premier and Plaza must have received an opinion of Holland & Knight LLP to the effect that the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

In addition to the foregoing conditions, the obligation of Pacific Premier to consummate the merger under the merger agreement is subject to the following conditions, which may be waived by Pacific Premier:

the representations and warranties of Plaza in the merger agreement must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger, except as to any representation or warranty which specifically relates to an earlier date and other than, in most cases, those failures to be true and correct that have not had or are reasonably likely not to have a material adverse effect (as defined below) on Plaza, and Pacific Premier shall have received a certificate signed by the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of Plaza to that effect;

Plaza must have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it at or prior to consummation of the merger, and Pacific Premier shall have received a certificate signed by the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of Plaza to that effect;

as of the month-end prior to the closing date, Plaza Bank must have an aggregate outstanding balance of non-maturity deposits equal to at least $700.0 million;

as of the closing date, Plaza's tangible common equity (as defined and subject to certain specified adjustments set forth in the merger agreement) must not be less than $120.0 million;

all regulatory approvals required to consummate the bank merger by any governmental authority must have been obtained and must remain in full force and effect, all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof must have expired; no statute, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order shall have been enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered which prohibits the consummation of the bank merger;

dissenting shares of Plaza commons stock must not represent 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock;

Pacific Premier shall have received a copy of a certification dated as of the closing date and directed to the DOJ addressing certain matters set forth in a consent decree, dated March 30, 2015, between the DOJ and Plaza Bank; and Pacific Premier must have received such certificates of Plaza's officers or others and such other documents to evidence fulfillment of the conditions to its obligations as Pacific Premier may reasonably request.

In addition to the other conditions set forth above, the obligation of Plaza to consummate the merger under the merger agreement is subject to the following conditions, which may be waived by Plaza:

the representations and warranties of Pacific Premier in the merger agreement must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger, except as to any representation or warranty which specifically relates to an earlier date and other than those failures to be true and correct that have not had or are reasonably likely not to have a material adverse effect (as defined below) on Pacific Premier, and Plaza shall have received a certificate signed by the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of Pacific Premier to that effect;

Pacific Premier must have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it at or prior to consummation of the merger, and Plaza shall have received a certificate signed by the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of Pacific Premier to that effect;

Pacific Premier and Carpenter are required to have executed (and have executed) the investor rights agreement, which is set forth as Annex E to the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement; and

Plaza must have received such certificates of Pacific Premier's officers or others and such other documents to evidence fulfillment of the conditions to its obligations as Plaza may reasonably request.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, a material adverse effect on either Pacific Premier or Plaza is defined to mean any effect that (i) is material and adverse to the financial condition, results of operations or business of Pacific Premier and its subsidiaries taken as a whole or Plaza and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, as the case may be, or (ii) would materially impair the ability of Pacific Premier and its subsidiaries taken as a whole or Plaza and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, as the case may be, to perform their respective obligations under the merger agreement or otherwise materially impede the consummation of the merger. However, under the terms of the merger agreement, none of the following would be deemed to constitute a material adverse effect under subclause (i) above:

changes after August 8, 2017 in laws or regulations of general applicability to banks, savings institutions and their holding companies generally or interpretations of them by governmental authorities; changes after August 8, 2017 in generally accepted accounting principles, or GAAP, or regulatory accounting requirements applicable to banks, savings institutions or their holding companies generally; any outbreak or escalation of hostilities, declared or undeclared acts of war or terrorism; changes resulting from conditions affecting the banking and financial services industry or changes in global, national or regional political conditions or market conditions (including changes in prevailing interest rates or exchange rates) affecting banks, savings institutions and their holding companies generally;

the public announcement or pendency of the merger, including the impact of the merger on relationships with customers or employees;

any modifications or changes to valuation policies and practices in connection with the merger or restructuring charges taken in connection with the merger, in each case in accordance with GAAP;

the failure to meet earnings projections or internal financial forecasts, but not including the underlying causes unless otherwise excluded, or changes in the trading price or volume of Pacific Premier's or Plaza's common stock, but not including the underlying causes unless otherwise excluded; and with respect to Plaza, the effects of any action or omission taken with the prior consent of Pacific Premier or as otherwise contemplated by the merger agreement, provided that the effect of the changes described in the first, second, third and fourth bullet points above will not be excluded as a material adverse effect to the extent of a materially disproportionate impact, if any, that they have on Pacific Premier and its subsidiaries as a whole on the one hand, or Plaza and its subsidiaries on the other hand, as measured relative to similarly situated companies in the banking industry.

Bank Regulatory Approvals

The merger cannot be completed unless the parties receive prior approvals from the CA DBO and the Federal Reserve.

California Department of Business Oversight Division of Financial Institutions; Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

In order to consummate the merger, the prior approval of the CA DBO will be required under the California Financial Code, which is referred to as the CFC, and the prior approval of the Federal Reserve will be required under the Bank Merger Act as well as the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, which is referred to as the BHC Act. In reviewing the merger, the CA DBO and the Federal Reserve will take competitive considerations into account, as well as capital adequacy, quality of management and earnings prospects. The regulators will also take into account the record of performance of Pacific Premier Bank in meeting the credit needs of the communities that it serves and Pacific Premier Bank's regulatory rating under the Community Reinvestment Act, or CRA. Pacific Premier Bank and Plaza Bank both received a "satisfactory" performance rating in their most recent CRA evaluations. In considering the merger, the CFC also requires the CA DBO to consider whether the proposed transaction will be fair, just, and equitable to the bank being acquired and the surviving depository institution.

Any transaction approved by the Federal Reserve under the Bank Merger Act and BHC Act may not be completed until thirty (30) days after the Federal Reserve's approval, during which time the DOJ may challenge such transaction on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the Federal Reserve and the DOJ, the waiting period may be reduced to fifteen (15) days. While Pacific Premier and Plaza do not know of any reason that the DOJ would challenge regulatory approval by the Federal Reserve and believe that the likelihood of such action is remote, there can be no assurance that the DOJ will not initiate such a proceeding, or if such a proceeding is initiated, the result of any such challenge.

Other Regulatory Approvals.

Neither Pacific Premier nor Plaza is aware of any other regulatory approvals that would be required for completion of the merger except as described above. Should any other approvals be required, it is presently contemplated that such approvals would be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any other approvals, if required, will be obtained.

Status of Applications.

Pacific Premier has filed all required applications with the CA DBO and the Federal Reserve. There can be no assurance that all requisite approvals will be obtained, that such approvals will be received on a timely basis or that such approvals will not impose conditions, restrictions or requirements (other than conditions or requirements related to remedial actions) which, individually or in the aggregate, would so materially reduce the economic benefits of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to Pacific Premier that had such condition, restriction or requirement been known or could reasonably have been known, Pacific Premier, in its reasonable, good faith judgment, would not have entered into the merger agreement. If any such condition or requirement is imposed, Pacific Premier, in its reasonable discretion, may elect not to consummate the merger. See " Conditions to the Merger" beginning on page 58. The approval of any application or notice merely implies satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, and does not include review of the merger from the standpoint of the adequacy of the merger consideration to be received by, or fairness to, Plaza shareholders. Regulatory approval does not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the proposed merger.

Business Pending the Merger

The merger agreement contains certain covenants of the parties regarding the conduct of their respective businesses pending consummation of the merger. These covenants, which are contained in Article IV of the merger agreement included as Appendix A to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, are briefly described below.

Pending consummation of the merger, Plaza may not, and will cause each of its subsidiaries not to, among other things, take the following actions without the prior written consent of Pacific Premier:

conduct its business other than in the ordinary and usual course consistent with past practice or fail to use commercially reasonable best efforts to preserve its business organization, keep available the present services of its employees (except in the case of terminations of employees for cause) and preserve for itself and Pacific Premier the goodwill of the customers of Plaza, its subsidiaries and others with whom business relations exist;

except for the issuances of shares of Plaza common stock pursuant to previously issued Plaza options, Plaza warrants or Plaza restricted stock, issue, sell or otherwise permit to become outstanding, or authorize the creation of, any additional shares of capital stock or rights to acquire stock, or permit any additional shares of stock to become subject to grants of employee or director stock options or other rights; make, declare, pay or set aside for payment any dividend on or in respect of, or declare or make any distribution on any shares on its capital stock, or directly or indirectly adjust, split, combine, redeem, reclassify, purchase or otherwise acquire any shares of its capital stock;

enter into or amend or renew any employment, consulting, severance, change in control, bonus, salary continuation or similar agreement or arrangement with any director or executive officer of Plaza or its subsidiaries or grant or announce any salary or wage increase, grant or announce any severance or termination pay (other than pursuant to a previously disclosed severance arrangement or policy) or increase any employee benefit (including incentive or bonus payments), except for changes that are required by applicable law or as previously disclosed to Pacific Premier;

hire any person as a senior officer of Plaza or any of its subsidiaries or promote any employee to a senior officer position, except (i) to satisfy contractual obligations existing as of the date of the merger agreement and previously disclosed to Pacific Premier, and (ii) persons hired to fill a vacancy existing as of, or arising after, the date of the merger agreement, provided that the person's employment is terminable at the will of Plaza or a subsidiary of Plaza and that the person is not subject to or eligible for any severance, change in control, bonus or similar benefits or payments that would become payable as a result of the merger or its consummation;

except as previously described to Pacific Premier, enter into, establish, adopt, amend, or terminate or make any contributions to (except (i) as may be required by applicable law or (ii) as required under the terms of a contract, plan, arrangement or agreement existing as of the date of the merger agreement and previously disclosed to Pacific Premier) any employee benefit plan with respect to any current or former director, officer, or employee of Plaza or any of its subsidiaries, or take any action to accelerate the vesting or exercisability of stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock units or other compensation or benefits payable thereunder; sell, transfer, mortgage, encumber or otherwise dispose of or discontinue any of its material assets, deposits, business or properties, except for sales, transfers and dispositions in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practices and not material to Plaza and its subsidiaries taken as a whole;

acquire (other than by way of foreclosures or acquisitions of control in a bona fide fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in good faith, in each case in the ordinary and usual course of business consistent with past practice), including without limitation, by merger or consolidation or by investment in a partnership or joint venture, all or any portion of the assets, business, securities, deposits or properties of any other entity;

except as previously disclosed to Pacific Premier, make any capital expenditures, other than capital expenditures in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice not exceeding $50,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate;

amend the Plaza certificate of incorporation, as amended, or the amended and restated bylaws of Plaza, as amended, or the articles of incorporation or bylaws of any subsidiary of Plaza or enter into a plan of consolidation, merger, share exchange or reorganization with any person, or a letter of intent or agreement in principle with respect thereto;

implement or adopt any change in its accounting principles, practices or methods other than as may be required by changes in laws or regulations or GAAP;

except as otherwise permitted under the merger agreement, enter into, cancel, fail to renew, terminate, amend, or modify any material contract or amend or modify in any material respect any of its existing material contracts;

except as previously disclosed to Pacific Premier, enter into any settlement or similar agreement with respect to any claims if the settlement, agreement, or action involves payment by Plaza or any of its subsidiaries of an amount that exceeds $50,000 and/or would impose any material restriction on the business of Plaza or any of its subsidiaries or create precedent for claims that reasonably are likely to be material to Plaza and its subsidiaries taken as a whole;

except as previously disclosed to Pacific Premier, enter into any new material line of business; introduce any material new products or services; change its material banking and operating policies, except as required by applicable law, regulation or policy, or the manner in which its investment securities or loan portfolio is classified or reported; or invest in any mortgage-backed or mortgage-related security that would be risk-weighted over 100% according to regulatory capital guidelines; or file any application or enter into any contract with respect to the opening, relocation or closing of, or open, relocate or close, any branch, office, service center or other facility; except as previously disclosed to Pacific Premier, introduce any material marketing campaigns or any material sales compensation or incentive programs or arrangements (except if the material terms have been fully disclosed in writing to Pacific Premier prior to the date of the merger agreement);

enter into any derivatives contract;

except as previously disclosed to Pacific Premier, incur any indebtedness for borrowed money (other than deposits and certain short-term borrowings in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice) or assume, guarantee, endorse or otherwise as an accommodation become responsible for the obligations of any other person, other than with respect to the collection of checks and other negotiable instruments in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;

acquire (other than by way of foreclosures or acquisitions in a bona fide fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in good faith, in each case in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice) any debt security or equity investment or dispose of any debt security or equity investment;

(i) except as previously disclosed to Pacific Premier, make, renew or modify any loan, loan commitment, letter of credit or other extension of credit, which are collectively referred to as the loans, other than loans made in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice that are not in excess of $5.0 million individually; (ii) take any action that would result in any discretionary release of collateral or guarantees, or otherwise restructure the respective amounts of any loan in clause (i) above; (iii) enter into any loan securitization or create any special purpose funding entity; or (iv) enter into any loan participation agreement or arrangement, except for loan participations entered into in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice where the total exposure does not exceed $1.0 million; Plaza and its subsidiaries may make, renew or modify loans or loan participations that exceed the foregoing dollar limitations to the extent Plaza provides to Pacific Premier in writing a complete loan package for such loan or loan participation and Pacific Premier does not object to such proposed loan or loan participation within three business days of receipt of such written notice;

make any investment or commitment to invest in real estate or in any real estate development project (other than by way of foreclosure or acquisitions in a bona fide fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted in good faith, in each case in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice); make or change any tax election, settle or compromise any tax liability of Plaza or any of its subsidiaries, agree to an extension or waiver of the statute of limitations with respect to the assessment or determination of an amount of taxes of Plaza or any of its subsidiaries, enter into any closing agreement with respect to any amount of taxes or surrender any right to claim a tax refund, adopt or change any method of accounting with respect to taxes or any of its subsidiaries or file any amended tax return;

take any action that would cause the merger agreement or the merger to be subject to the provisions of any state antitakeover law or state law that purports to limit or restrict business combinations or the ability to acquire or vote shares, or to exempt or make not subject to the provisions of any state antitakeover law or state law that purports to limit or restrict business combinations or the ability to acquire or vote shares, any person (other than Pacific Premier or its subsidiaries) or any action taken thereby, if that person or action would otherwise have been subject to the restrictive provisions of that law;

make or propose to make any loan to or enter into any transaction with Plaza or any of its subsidiaries or any of their respective officers, directors or affiliates;

take any action that would or is reasonably likely to result in (i) the merger not qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, (ii) any of the representations and warranties of Plaza set forth in the merger agreement being or becoming untrue in any material respect at or prior to the effective time of the merger, (iii) any of the conditions to the merger set forth in the merger agreement not being satisfied, (iv) a material violation of any provision of the merger agreement, except as may be required by applicable law and regulation, (v) a material delay in the ability of Pacific Premier or Plaza to perform any of their obligations under the merger agreement on a timely basis, or (vi) a material delay in the ability of Pacific Premier to obtain any required regulatory approvals; or enter into any contract with respect to, or otherwise agree or commit to do, any of the foregoing.

The merger agreement also provides that pending consummation of the merger, Pacific Premier may not, and will cause each of its subsidiaries not to, take the following actions without the prior written consent of Plaza:

conduct its business other than in the ordinary and usual course consistent with past practice or fail to use commercially reasonable best efforts to preserve its business organization and preserve for itself and Plaza the goodwill of the customers of Pacific Premier and its subsidiaries and others with whom business relations exist;

take any action that is intended or is reasonably likely to result in (i) the merger not qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, (ii) any of the representations and warranties of Pacific Premier set forth in the merger agreement being or becoming untrue in any material respect at or prior to the effective time of the merger, (iii) any of the conditions to the merger set forth in the merger agreement not being satisfied, (iv) a material violation of any provision of the merger agreement, except as may be required by applicable law and regulation, (v) a material delay in the ability of Pacific Premier or Plaza to perform any of their obligations under the merger agreement on a timely basis, or (vi) a material delay in the ability of Pacific Premier to obtain any required regulatory approvals; or enter into any contract with respect to, or otherwise agree or commit to do, any of the foregoing.

Plaza Board of Directors' Covenant to Recommend the Merger Agreement

Pursuant to the merger agreement, the Plaza board of directors is required to include a form of written consent to accompany this prospectus/consent solicitation statement that solicits Plaza shareholders to approve the merger agreement and the transactions provided for therein. The Plaza board of directors may not withdraw, modify or qualify in any manner adverse to Pacific Premier such recommendation or take any other action or make any other public statement in connection with the solicitation of Plaza shareholder consents inconsistent with such recommendation, except as described below.

The Plaza board of directors is permitted to change its recommendation if Plaza has complied with the merger agreement and the Plaza board of directors, based on the advice of its outside counsel and financial advisor, has determined in good faith that failure to do so would be inconsistent with such board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law. If the Plaza board of directors intends to change its recommendation following an acquisition proposal, as described in " No Solicitation" below, it must have first concluded in good faith, after giving effect to all of the adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement that may be offered by Pacific Premier, that another acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal, as defined in " No Solicitation" below. Plaza also must notify Pacific Premier at least three (3) business days in advance of its intention to change its recommendation in response to the superior proposal, including the identity of the party making the acquisition proposal, and furnish to Pacific Premier all of the material terms and conditions of such superior proposal. Prior to changing its recommendation, Plaza must, and must cause its financial and legal advisors to, during the period following its delivery of the required notice, negotiate in good faith with Pacific Premier for a period of up to three (3) business days to the extent Pacific Premier desires to negotiate to make adjustments in the terms and conditions of the merger agreement so that the other acquisition proposal ceases to constitute a superior proposal.

No Solicitation

The merger agreement provides that Plaza will, and will direct and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives to, immediately cease any discussions or negotiations with any other parties that have been ongoing with respect to the possibility or consideration of any acquisition proposal and will use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to any acquisition proposal. For purposes of the merger agreement, "acquisition proposal" is defined to mean any inquiry, proposal or offer, filing of any regulatory application or notice, whether in draft or final form, or disclosure of an intention to do any of the foregoing from any person relating to any (i) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business that constitutes 10% or more of the total revenues, net income, assets, or deposits of Plaza and its subsidiaries taken as a whole; (ii) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of any class of equity securities representing 10% or more of the voting power of Plaza or Plaza Bank; (iii) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 10% or more of any class of equity securities of Plaza or Plaza Bank; or (iv) merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Plaza or Plaza Bank, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

From the date of the merger agreement through the effective time of the merger, Plaza will not, and will use reasonable efforts to cause its directors, officers or employees or any other representative retained by it not to, directly or indirectly through another person (i) solicit, initiate, or encourage, including by way of furnishing information or assistance, or take any other action designed to facilitate or that is likely to result in, any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, any acquisition proposal, (ii) provide any confidential information or data to any person relating to any acquisition proposal, (iii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal, (iv) waive, terminate, modify, or fail to enforce any provision of any contractual "standstill" or similar obligations of any person other than Pacific Premier or its affiliates, (v) approve or recommend, propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase agreement or share exchange agreement, option agreement or similar agreement related to any acquisition proposal or propose to take any of these actions, or (vi) make or authorize any statement, recommendation, or solicitation in support of any acquisition proposal.

However, prior to the time that Plaza receives the requisite approval by the Plaza shareholders to approve the merger under the DGCL, if the Plaza board of directors determines in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal and financial advisors, that the failure to do so would breach, or would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of, its fiduciary duties under applicable law, Plaza may, in response to a bona fide, written acquisition proposal not solicited in violation of the merger agreement that the Plaza board of directors determines in good faith constitutes a superior proposal:

furnish information with respect to itself and its subsidiaries to any person making the superior proposal pursuant to a confidentiality agreement, as determined by Plaza after consultation with its outside counsel, on terms no less restrictive to the person than the terms contained in the confidentiality agreement between Plaza and Pacific Premier are to Pacific Premier; and participate in discussions or negotiations regarding the superior proposal.

For purposes of the merger agreement, "superior proposal" is defined to mean any bona fide written proposal made by a third party to acquire, directly or indirectly, including pursuant to a tender offer, exchange offer, merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction, for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities, more than 50% of the combined voting power of the shares of Plaza common stock then outstanding or all or substantially all of Plaza's consolidated assets, that the Plaza board of directors determines in good faith, after taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory, and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions, and conditions to consummation, and after taking into account the advice of Plaza's financial advisor, which will be a recognized investment banking firm, and outside counsel, (1) is more favorable from a financial point of view to its shareholders than the merger, (2) is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms set forth, and (3) for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or which, in the good faith judgment of the Plaza board of directors, is reasonably likely to be obtained by the third party.

In addition to these obligations, Plaza will promptly, within 24 hours, advise Pacific Premier orally and in writing of its receipt of any acquisition proposal.

Plaza has agreed that any violations of the restrictions set forth in the merger agreement by any representative of Plaza or its subsidiaries will be deemed a breach of the merger agreement by Plaza.

Pacific Premier and Plaza have agreed that irreparable damage would occur in the event Plaza, its subsidiaries or any of their respective representatives violated any of the restrictions described above regarding discussions and negotiations with other parties with respect to the possibility or consideration of any acquisition proposal. As such, under the merger agreement, Pacific Premier is entitled to injunctive relief to prevent breaches of these restrictions and to enforce specifically the terms of these restrictions.

Representations and Warranties of the Parties

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Pacific Premier and Plaza made certain customary representations and warranties relating to their respective companies, subsidiaries, businesses and matters related to the merger. For detailed information concerning these representations and warranties, reference is made to Article V of the merger agreement included as Appendix A to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. Such representations and warranties generally must remain accurate through the completion of the merger, unless the fact or facts that caused a breach of a representation and warranty has not had or is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the party making the representation and warranty. See " Conditions to the Merger" beginning on page 58.

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties that Pacific Premier and Plaza made to and solely for the benefit of each other. These representations and warranties are subject to materiality standards which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors and shareholders, and, in certain cases, were used for the purpose of allocating risk among the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties also are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the merger agreement. Although neither Pacific Premier nor Plaza believes that the disclosure schedules contain information that the federal securities laws require to be publicly disclosed, the disclosure schedules do contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement.

Accordingly, neither shareholders of either Plaza or Pacific Premier should rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they were only made as of the date of the merger agreement and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Pacific Premier's or Plaza's public disclosures.

Effective Time of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Plaza will be acquired by Pacific Premier in a transaction in which Plaza will merge with and into Pacific Premier, with Pacific Premier as the surviving institution. The merger will become effective upon the acceptance of a certificate of merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the provisions of applicable Delaware law.

Amendment of the Merger Agreement

To the extent permitted under applicable law, the merger agreement may be amended or supplemented at any time by written agreement of the parties whether before or after the approval of the shareholders of Plaza, except that after shareholders of Plaza have approved the principal terms of the merger agreement, except as described in the next sentence, no amendment or supplement that by law requires further approval by the shareholders of Plaza may be made without first obtaining such approval. The merger agreement provides that, by approving the principal terms of the merger agreement, Plaza shareholders will be deemed to have approved any amendment to the May 31, 2018 termination date described below.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated:

by the mutual written consent of Pacific Premier and Plaza;

if the terminating party is not in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement contained in the merger agreement, by Pacific Premier or Plaza, in the event of a breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement contained in the merger agreement that (i) cannot be or has not been cured within thirty (30) days of the giving of written notice to the breaching party or parties and (ii) would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the merger;

by Pacific Premier or Plaza, in the event that the merger is not consummated by May 31, 2018, except to the extent that the failure to consummate the merger by May 31, 2018 is due to (i) the failure of the party seeking to terminate to perform or observe its covenants and agreements set forth in the merger agreement, or (ii) the failure of any of the Plaza shareholders (if Plaza is the party seeking to terminate) to perform or observe their respective covenants under their respective shareholder agreements with Pacific Premier;

by Pacific Premier or Plaza, in the event the approval of any governmental authority required for consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement have been denied by final non-appealable action of the governmental authority, or any governmental authority shall have issued a final, non-appealable injunction prohibiting the consummations of the merger, or an application for approval has been permanently withdrawn at the request of a governmental authority, provided that no party has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the denial is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe its covenants;

by Pacific Premier, if Plaza shareholder consents representing greater than a majority of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock, referred to as Plaza shareholder approval, shall not have been delivered to Pacific Premier prior to 6:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the third business day immediately following the date that the Commission declared effective the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part;

prior to receipt of Plaza shareholder approval, by Pacific Premier, if the Plaza board of directors withdraws, modifies or changes its recommendation in a manner that is adverse to Pacific Premier;

prior to receipt of Plaza shareholder approval, by Plaza, if the Plaza board of directors (i) authorizes Plaza to enter into a binding written agreement with respect to a superior proposal and (ii) Plaza has paid the termination fee referenced below under " Termination Fee and Expenses" to Pacific Premier.

Termination Fee and Expenses

The merger agreement provides that Plaza must pay Pacific Premier an $8.0 million termination fee under the circumstances and in the manner described below:

if the merger agreement is terminated by Plaza for the reason described in the seventh bullet point under " Termination of the Merger Agreement" above, Plaza must pay the termination fee to Pacific Premier no later than the time of such termination;

if the merger agreement is terminated by Pacific Premier for the reason described in the sixth bullet point under " Termination of the Merger Agreement" above, Plaza must pay the termination fee to Pacific Premier within two business days after such termination; or if the merger agreement is terminated by Pacific Premier pursuant to the second or fifth bullet points under " Termination of the Merger Agreement" above, and prior to the time of the termination, an "acquisition proposal" (as defined under " No Solicitation" above, except that all references to 10% shall be deemed references to 50%) shall have been publicly announced and communicated or made known to Plaza or the executive officers of Plaza (or any person shall have publicly announced an intention, whether or not conditional and whether or not withdrawn, to make an acquisition proposal), and (1) within twelve (12) months after the termination, Plaza or a Plaza subsidiary enters into an agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal or an acquisition proposal is consummated, then Plaza shall pay to Pacific Premier an amount equal to $8.0 million on the earlier of the date of execution of such agreement or upon consummation of any such acquisition proposal.

Table of Contents

In the event a termination fee is payable to Pacific Premier or because Pacific Premier terminated the merger agreement due to the failure of Plaza to deliver Plaza shareholder approval, then Plaza shall pay Pacific Premier or its designees by wire transfer of same day funds, as promptly as possible (but in any event within two business days) following the delivery by Pacific Premier of an invoice therefor, all reasonably documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by Pacific Premier and its affiliates in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; provided that Plaza shall not be required to pay more than an aggregate of $1.5 million in such fees and expenses.

Any termination fee or expenses that becomes payable pursuant to the merger agreement shall be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Pacific Premier.

If Plaza fails to timely pay the termination fee and/or expenses to Pacific Premier, Plaza will be obligated to pay the costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) incurred by Pacific Premier to collect such payment, provided Pacific Premier prevails on the merits, together with interest.

Certain Employee Matters

The merger agreement contains certain agreements of the parties with respect to various employee matters, which are described below.

Within sixty days from the date of the merger agreement, Pacific Premier is required to identify those Plaza employees for whom Pacific Premier agrees to continue employment following the closing of the merger, provided they are employed by, and in good standing with, Plaza immediately prior to the closing of the merger, whom we refer to as the "transferred employees." As soon as administratively practicable after the effective time of the merger, Pacific Premier shall transition transferred employees of Plaza and its subsidiaries from the benefit plans of Plaza and its subsidiaries to the corresponding Pacific Premier benefit plans and take all reasonable action so that transferred employees of Plaza and its subsidiaries shall be entitled to participate in each Pacific Premier benefit plan of general applicability to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of Pacific Premier and its subsidiaries (it being understood by the parties that inclusion of the transferred employees of Plaza and its subsidiaries in the Pacific Premier benefit plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans), provided that coverage shall be continued under the corresponding benefit plans of Plaza and its subsidiaries until such transferred employees are permitted to participate in the Pacific Premier benefit plans and provided further, however, that nothing contained in the merger agreement shall require Pacific Premier or any of its subsidiaries to make any grants to any former employee of Plaza and its subsidiaries under any discretionary equity compensation plan of Pacific Premier. Pacific Premier shall cause each Pacific Premier benefit plan in which employees of Plaza and its subsidiaries are eligible to participate to recognize, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate in, the vesting of benefits and for all other purposes (but not for accrual of pension benefits) under the Pacific Premier benefit plans, the service of such transferred employees with Plaza and its subsidiaries to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by Plaza and its subsidiaries, provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits or to the extent not otherwise permissible under the terms of a Pacific Premier benefit plan. Nothing in the merger agreement is intended to limit the ability of Pacific Premier to amend or terminate any of the Pacific Premier benefit plans or the Plaza benefit plans in accordance with their terms at any time.

In the event Pacific Premier transitions transferred employees of Plaza and its subsidiaries from the group medical, dental, health, life or disability plan of Plaza and its subsidiaries to the corresponding Pacific Premier benefit plan at any time prior to the end of the applicable plan year of the group medical, dental, health, life or disability plan of Plaza and its subsidiaries, at such time as transferred employees of Plaza and its subsidiaries become eligible to participate in a medical, dental, health, life or disability plan of Pacific Premier or its subsidiaries at any time prior to the end of the applicable plan year of the group medical, dental, health, life or disability plan of Plaza and its subsidiaries, Pacific Premier will cause each such plan to:

waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable medical, health or dental plans of Pacific Premier;

provide full credit under such medical, health or dental plans for any deductibles, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their beneficiaries during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation; and waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employee on or after the effective time of the merger to the extent such employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under a corresponding Plaza plan prior to the effective time of the merger.

At and following the effective time of the merger, Pacific Premier shall honor and shall continue to be obligated to perform, in accordance with their terms, certain benefit obligations to, and contractual rights of, current and former employees of Plaza and its subsidiaries and current and former directors of Plaza and its subsidiaries existing as of the effective date of the merger, as well as, under certain circumstances, bonus and deferred compensation plans and policies of Plaza and its subsidiaries that were agreed upon by Plaza and Pacific Premier.

On or before the closing date of the merger, Plaza shall terminate the employment of those employees who are not transferred employees and shall pay any severance, retention, change in control, accrued and unused paid time off, amounts payable pursuant to the merger agreement with respect to Plaza options, or other similar payments, in each case, which have been previously disclosed to Pacific Premier, obtain an executed general release of claims that has not been revoked, and pay to the proper taxing authorities any income and employment tax withholding as well as the employer portions of any applicable employment taxes. Pacific Premier shall remain responsible for payment to any transferred employee of any severance or similar compensation and benefits payable following a termination of employment. Those employees of Plaza and its subsidiaries who do not continue their employment with Pacific Premier or its subsidiaries following the effective time of the merger, who are not a party to an employment agreement or otherwise entitled to an existing severance package and who sign and deliver a termination and release agreement (which will be negotiated between Pacific Premier and Plaza) within 30 days of the effective time, shall be entitled to receive a single lump sum payment of severance in an amount and in accordance with the terms of the Plaza severance policy, which provides for two (2) weeks of salary for each year of service up to a maximum of 12 weeks of salary.

Prior to the closing of the merger, Plaza and its subsidiaries are required to have paid into Plaza Bank's 401(k) Plan, which we refer to as the Plaza retirement plan, all employer contributions, including any employer matching contributions, profit sharing contributions or other non-elective contributions. Prior to the closing of the merger, Plaza shall (i) adopt written resolutions (or take such other necessary or appropriate action), in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Pacific Premier, to terminate the Plaza retirement plan in compliance with its terms and requirements of applicable law, effective no later than the business day preceding the closing date and (ii) provide for full vesting of all non-elective contributions under the Plaza retirement plan for all participants who currently maintain an account under the Plaza retirement plan, such termination and vesting to be effective no later than the business day preceding the closing date.

Assumption of Plaza Subordinated Notes Obligations

Plaza and Pacific Premier have agreed that as of the effective time of the merger, Pacific Premier shall have assumed or caused one of its subsidiaries to assume the 7.125% subordinated notes due 2025 in the aggregate principal amount of $25.0 million issued by Plaza pursuant to a Subordinated Notes Agreement dated January 14, 2015. Plaza and Pacific Premier are required to execute and deliver any supplemental documents reasonably requested to make such assumptions effective.

Interests of Certain Plaza Officers and Directors in the Merger

When Plaza shareholders are considering the recommendation of Plaza's board of directors with respect to approving the merger agreement in the Plaza consent solicitation, Plaza shareholders should be aware that Plaza directors and officers have interests in the merger as individuals that are in addition to, or different from, their interests as shareholders of Plaza. The Plaza board of directors was aware of these factors and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger. These interests are described below.

Stock Ownership.

Funds controlled by Carpenter beneficially owned and had the power to vote as of September 26, 2017, a total of 25,867,644 shares of Plaza common stock, representing approximately 86.0% of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock as of that date. The directors and executive officers of Plaza, as a group, beneficially owned and had the power to vote as of September 26, 2017, a total of 921,814 shares of Plaza common stock, representing approximately 2.4% of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock as of that date. All of the shares beneficially owned by the funds controlled by Carpenter and substantially all of the shares beneficially owned by the directors and executive officers of Plaza are expected to be voted by written consent in favor of the merger agreement pursuant to the Carpenter support agreement entered into by Pacific Premier and Carpenter and the Plaza shareholder agreements entered into by Pacific Premier and each of the directors and certain of the executive officers of Plaza who own shares of Plaza common stock. See "Carpenter Support Agreement and Plaza Shareholder Agreement" beginning on page 79. Each of these entities and persons will receive the same merger consideration for their shares of Plaza common stock as the other Plaza shareholders.

Plaza Options, Plaza Warrants and Plaza Restricted Stock.

The board of directors of Plaza has approved acceleration of the vesting of Plaza stock options, Plaza warrants and Plaza restricted stock held by directors, officers and employees of Plaza or its subsidiaries and other persons.

Plaza Options.

At the effective time of the merger, each Plaza option which is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Plaza common stock subject to such Plaza option immediately prior to the effective time, and (ii) the excess, if any, of (A) the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio over (B) the exercise price per share of such Plaza option, less any applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. If the exercise price per share of any such Plaza option is equal to or greater than the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio, the Plaza option will be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. For Plaza options that are exercised before the closing, the underlying shares of Plaza common stock received upon exercise will be exchanged for the merger consideration in accordance with the exchange ratio.

Table of Contents*Plaza Warrants*

At the effective time of the merger, each Plaza warrant which is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time will be cancelled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Plaza common stock subject to such Plaza warrant immediately prior to the effective time, and (ii) the excess, if any, of (A) the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio over (B) the exercise price per share of such Plaza warrant, less any applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. If the exercise price per share of any such Plaza warrant is equal to or greater than the Pacific Premier average share price multiplied by the exchange ratio, such Plaza warrant will be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. For Plaza warrants that are exercised before the closing, the underlying shares of Plaza common stock received upon exercise will be exchanged for the merger consideration in accordance with the exchange ratio.

Plaza Restricted Stock

Immediately prior to the effective time, any vesting conditions applicable to each award of Plaza restricted stock will, automatically and without any action on the part of the holder thereof and consistent with the terms of the applicable Plaza stock-based plan, accelerate in full, and such Plaza restricted stock will become free of any restrictions and any repurchase right will lapse, and the holder thereof will be entitled to receive shares of Pacific Premier common stock in accordance with the exchange ratio (provided that cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional shares of Pacific Premier common stock, without interest, determined by multiplying such fractional interest by the Pacific Premier average share price, rounded to the nearest whole cent), less any applicable taxes required to be withheld with respect to such vesting.

The following table discloses the shares and dollar value of the various types of equity awards held by each of Plaza's officers and directors that will accelerate and vest in connection with, and as a result of, the consummation of the merger.

Appointment of Carpenter Nominee to the Boards of Directors of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank.

Pursuant to the merger agreement and investor rights agreement, Carpenter has the right to designate one member to serve on the Pacific Premier board of directors and the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors and to continue to serve in such capacity for so long as Carpenter's beneficial ownership is at least 9.90%. Pursuant to the merger agreement and the investor rights agreement, the appointment of the Carpenter nominee to the Pacific Premier board of directors and to the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors will be subject to: (a) such Carpenter nominee being qualified to serve as a member of the Pacific Premier board of directors and the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors under all applicable corporate governance policies or guidelines of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank, and applicable legal, regulatory and stock market requirements, (b) the reasonable approval of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of the Pacific Premier board of directors (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and (c) the receipt of any necessary regulatory approvals.

From and after the merger, and for so long as Carpenter's beneficial ownership is equal to 9.90% or more, Pacific Premier will take all lawful action to, if requested by Carpenter, (i) elect the Carpenter nominee to the Pacific Premier board of directors and (ii) nominate and recommend to its shareholders the Carpenter nominee for election to the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors at Pacific Premier's annual meeting of shareholders. At such time as Carpenters' beneficial ownership is less than 9.90%, Carpenter will have no further rights under the investor rights agreement, and at the written request of the Pacific Premier board of directors, Carpenter is required to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Carpenter nominee to resign from the Pacific Premier board of directors as promptly as possible thereafter, and at the written request of the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors, Carpenter is required to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Carpenter nominee to resign from the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors as promptly as possible thereafter.

As a director of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank, the Carpenter nominee, if any, will be entitled to receive the same compensation as the current non-employee directors of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank. During 2017, non-employee directors receive cash annual retainer fees in the amount of $59,000, additional cash annual retainers for board committee service in amounts ranging between $1,000 and $15,000, depending on the committee and whether the non-employee director serves as committee chair, restricted stock grants and $4,000 in annual cash contributions towards certain health insurance premiums. Non-employee directors may elect to defer their cash compensation into Pacific Premier's deferred compensation plan.

Merger Related Payments Under Employment Agreements and Change in Control Severance Agreements; Other Merger Related Payments

Employment Agreements. Plaza is party to employment agreements with each of Harry Galloway, Richard Sowers, Kathryn Gonzales, Robert Llorens, Sally Myers, John Shindler and Michael Vantrease. Each of these agreements provide for severance benefits in the event of certain qualifying terminations of employment, including a termination by the executive due to a change in control.

Pursuant to each of the employment agreements, the merger will constitute a "change in control" entitling the executive to severance benefits if either the executive's employment is terminated (other than for cause) by Plaza within sixty (60) days prior to the consummation of the merger or by Pacific

Premier within six months of the consummation of the merger, or the executive terminates his or her employment as a result of (i) an assignment of the executive to duties of substantially lesser responsibility than his current position, (ii) a material adverse change in the executive's position, including title, lines of reporting, authority or responsibilities, (iii) adverse changes in the executive's current level of annual base salary, or (iv) a relocation of the executive's principal business office to a location which is more than 50 miles from the executive's current principal business office, within a period of sixty (60) days prior to or six months following the consummation of the merger.

Upon such a termination, Harry Galloway, the chief executive officer of Plaza Bank, will be entitled to a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to six months of his then base salary, the remaining balance of a $212,500 signing bonus, which has been paid monthly since January 2017, a $300,000 bonus that was to be paid on either December 31, 2018 or on the effective date of a change in control, accrued but unused vacation, and incurred but unreimbursed business expenses, payable within thirty (30) days of the termination date.

Upon such a termination, Richard Sowers, the president of Plaza Bank, will be entitled to a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to eighteen (18) months of his then base salary, payable within thirty (30) days of the termination date.

Upon such a termination, Kathryn Gonzales, the executive vice president and director of branch banking of Plaza Bank, will be entitled to a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to twelve (12) months of her then base salary, payable within thirty (30) days of the termination date.

Upon such a termination, Robert Llorens, the executive vice president and chief credit officer of Plaza Bank, will be entitled to a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to eighteen (18) months of his then base salary, payable within thirty (30) days of the termination date.

Upon such a termination, Sally Myers, the executive vice president and chief risk officer of Plaza Bank, will be entitled to a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to fifteen (15) months of her then base salary, payable within thirty (30) days of the termination date.

Upon such a termination, John Shindler, the executive vice president and chief financial officer of Plaza Bank, will be entitled to a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to eighteen (18) months of his then base salary, payable within thirty (30) days of the termination date.

Upon such a termination, Michael Vantrease, the executive vice president and chief administrative officer of Plaza Bank, will be entitled to a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to twelve (12) months of his then base salary, payable within thirty (30) days of the termination date.

Change of Control Severance Agreements. Plaza is a party to change of control severance agreements with certain senior vice presidents. Each of these agreements provide for severance benefits in the event of a termination of employment in connection with a change of control. Pursuant to each of the change of control severance agreements, the merger will constitute a "change of control," entitling the executive to severance benefits if either the executive's employment is terminated (other than for cause) by Plaza within sixty (60) days prior to the consummation of the merger or by Pacific Premier within six months of the consummation of the merger. Upon such a termination, each such executive will be entitled to a lump sum severance payment in an amount equal to nine (9) months of the executive's then base salary, payable within thirty (30) days of the termination date.

Executive Success Bonuses. Plaza intends to award each of Harry Galloway, Richard Sowers, Kathryn Gonzales, Robert Llorens, Sally Myers, John Shindler and Michael Vantrease a cash bonus for their efforts in connection with the merger. Such bonuses are discretionary and will be made upon approval by the Plaza board and paid immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. The aggregate amount of all such success bonuses will not exceed $600,000.

- (1) Amounts indicated are based on $6.95, which is the average high and low prices reported for Plaza's common stock on the OTC Market Group Pink Sheets on September 22, 2017, and are comprised of the accelerated vesting and cashing out of Plaza options after giving effect to the deduction of the aggregate exercise price of the relevant Plaza options.

Indemnification.

Plaza's directors, officers and employees are entitled to continuing indemnification against certain liabilities by virtue of provisions contained in the Plaza certificate of incorporation, as amended, and amended and restated bylaws, as amended, indemnity agreements between Plaza and the directors and officers of Plaza and the merger agreement. Plaza's certificate of incorporation, as amended, is referred to as the Plaza certificate of incorporation, and Plaza's amended and restated bylaws, as amended, is referred to as the Plaza bylaws. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Pacific Premier agreed for a period of six (6) years from the closing of the merger, to indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director, officer and employee of Plaza or a subsidiary of Plaza, as applicable, determined as of the effective time of the merger, against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time of the merger, arising in whole or in part out of or pertaining to the fact that he or she was a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of Plaza or its subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of Plaza or its subsidiaries as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise including, without limitation, matters related to the negotiation, execution and performance of the merger agreement or the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, to the fullest extent to which such indemnified parties would be entitled under the Plaza certificate of incorporation and Plaza bylaws, or any agreement, arrangement or understanding previously disclosed by Plaza to Pacific Premier pursuant to the merger agreement, in each case as in effect on the date of the merger agreement.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Pacific Premier has agreed to maintain Plaza's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy for Plaza's directors and officers or a substitute policy which shall provide such directors and officers with coverage following the effective time of the merger for an additional six (6) years, provided that if the cost of such insurance exceeds 250% of the annual premiums paid by Plaza for its existing directors' and officers' liability insurance, which is referred to as the maximum insurance amount, Pacific Premier will obtain the most advantageous coverage as is available for the maximum insurance amount.

Other than as set forth above, no director or officer of Plaza has any direct or indirect material interest in the merger, except insofar as ownership of Plaza common stock might be deemed such an interest.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a general description of the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. This discussion is based upon the Code, Treasury regulations, judicial authorities and published positions of the Internal Revenue Service, or IRS, all as currently in effect and all of which are subject to change. Accordingly, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to the holders of Plaza common stock could differ from those described below.

Except as specifically stated herein, this discussion is limited to U.S. holders (as defined below) that hold shares of Plaza common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes. This discussion does not address the tax consequences applicable to Plaza shareholders that are not U.S. holders, nor does it address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to particular U.S. holders that are subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws, including, without limitation, financial institutions, insurance companies, partnerships and other pass-through entities, tax-exempt organizations, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, dealers in securities or currencies, U.S. persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting, persons that hold Plaza common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction, and U.S. holders that acquired their shares of Plaza common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option, vesting of restricted shares or otherwise as compensation.

If a partnership or other entity taxed as a partnership holds Plaza common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships holding Plaza common stock and partners in such partnerships should consult with their tax advisors about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

This discussion does not address the tax consequences of the merger under state, local or foreign tax laws. This discussion also does not address the tax consequences of any transaction other than the merger.

For purposes of this section, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of Plaza common stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation, or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or a political subdivision thereof, (iii) an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source, or (iv) a trust, the substantial decisions of which are controlled by one or more U.S. persons and which is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court, or that has validly elected under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Tax Consequences of the Merger.

The merger has been structured to qualify as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As a condition to the completion of the merger, Holland & Knight LLP is required to deliver an opinion, dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will be treated as a "reorganization" for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The opinion will assume that the merger will be completed

according to the terms of the merger agreement and that the parties will report the merger in a manner consistent with the opinion. The opinion will rely on the facts as stated in the merger agreement, the registration statement on Form S-4 filed by Pacific Premier in connection with the merger (of which this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part) and certain other documents. In rendering the opinion, counsel will rely on the representations of Pacific Premier and Plaza, to be delivered at the time of closing (and counsel will assume that any representation that is qualified by belief, knowledge or materiality is true, correct and complete without such qualification). If any assumption or representation is or becomes inaccurate, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected. The opinion will be based on statutory, regulatory and judicial authority existing as of the date of the opinion.

An opinion of counsel represents such counsel's best legal judgment but is not binding on the IRS or on any court. Neither Pacific Premier nor Plaza intends to request any ruling from the IRS as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below or any of the tax consequences described in the opinion.

Based on representations to be contained in representation letters of officers of Pacific Premier and Plaza, all of which must continue to be true and accurate in all material respects as of the effective time of the merger, and subject to the other matters set forth above, it is the opinion of Holland & Knight LLP that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. Based upon the foregoing, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger will be as described below.

No gain or loss will be recognized by Pacific Premier or Plaza as a result of the merger.

Tax Consequences of the Merger for U.S. Holders of Plaza Common Stock.

Except as described below under "Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of Pacific Premier Common Stock," a U.S. holder that exchanges all of its shares of Plaza common stock for shares of Pacific Premier common stock pursuant to the merger will not recognize gain or loss in connection with such exchange.

A U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the Pacific Premier common stock received in the merger, including any fractional shares deemed received by the U.S. holder under the treatment discussed below under "Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of Pacific Premier Common Stock," will equal such U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the Plaza common stock surrendered by such U.S. holder in the merger. The holding period for the shares of Pacific Premier common stock received by such U.S. holder in the merger, including any fractional shares deemed received by the U.S. holder under the treatment discussed below under "Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of Pacific Premier Common Stock," will include the holding period for the shares of Plaza common stock exchanged therefor.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of Pacific Premier Common Stock.

A U.S. holder that receives cash instead of a fractional share of Pacific Premier common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share of Pacific Premier common stock pursuant to the merger and then having exchanged the fractional share of Pacific Premier common stock for cash in a redemption by Pacific Premier. This deemed redemption will be treated as a sale or exchange and a U.S. holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the amount of cash received by such U.S. holder and (ii) the portion of the basis of the shares of Plaza common stock allocable to such fractional interest. Such gain or loss will constitute capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period for the Plaza common stock exchanged by such

U.S. holder is greater than one year as of the effective time of the merger. Long-term capital gains of non-corporate U.S. holders are generally subject to reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Capital gains recognized by individuals, trusts and estates also may be subject to a 3.8% federal Medicare contribution tax on "net investment income" as provided in Section 1411 of the Code.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, if the receipt of the cash is deemed to be essentially equivalent to the distribution of a dividend to the U.S. holder, the cash would be treated as dividend income. While a dividend from Pacific Premier would generally be treated as a "qualified dividend" and taxed at the same rates applicable to long-term capital gains, a U.S. holder would not be able to apply any portion of its basis to reduce the amount of such dividend and such basis would instead be reallocated to such U.S. holder's other Pacific Premier shares.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding.

Cash payments received in the merger by a U.S. holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding at a current rate of 28% of the cash payable to the U.S. holder, unless the U.S. holder provides proof of an applicable exemption, furnishes its taxpayer identification number (in the case of individuals, their social security number) and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements.

A U.S. holder that receives shares of Pacific Premier common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger. Each U.S. holder that is required to file a U.S. tax return and that is a "significant holder" that receives Pacific Premier common stock in the merger will be required to file a statement with the significant holder's U.S. federal income tax return setting forth such significant holder's basis (determined immediately before the exchange) in the Plaza common stock surrendered and the fair market value (determined immediately before the exchange) of the Plaza common stock that is exchanged by such significant holder. A "significant holder" is a U.S. holder that receives shares of Pacific Premier common stock in the merger and that, immediately before the merger, owned at least 5% of the outstanding stock of Plaza (by vote or value) or securities of Plaza with a tax basis of $1 million or more.

THE FOREGOING IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO PLAZA SHAREHOLDERS. PLAZA SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER IN THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF U.S. FEDERAL (INCLUDING THE ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX), STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX LAWS AND OF CHANGES IN THOSE LAWS.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The merger will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting under GAAP. Under this method, Plaza's assets and liabilities as of the date of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of Pacific Premier. Any excess between the purchase price for Plaza and the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired (including core deposit intangibles) will be recorded as goodwill. In accordance with FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 350, "Intangibles Goodwill and Other," the goodwill resulting from the merger will not be amortized to expense, but instead will be reviewed for impairment at least annually and to the extent goodwill is impaired, its carrying value will be written down to its implied fair value and a charge will be made to earnings. Core deposit and other intangibles with definite useful lives recorded by Pacific Premier in connection with the merger will be amortized to expense. The financial statements of Pacific Premier issued after the merger will reflect the results attributable to the acquired operations of Plaza beginning on the date of completion of the merger.

Expenses of the Merger

Except as set forth under "The Merger Termination Fees and Expenses," the merger agreement provides that each of Plaza and Pacific Premier will bear and pay all costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including fees and expenses of its own financial consultants, accountants and counsel.

Listing of the Pacific Premier Common Stock

Pacific Premier has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Pacific Premier common stock to be issued to (i) Plaza shareholders as the merger consideration, and (ii) in connection with the conversion of the unvested shares of Plaza restricted stock into shares of Pacific Premier common stock in connection with the merger, to be approved for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Resale of Pacific Premier Common Stock

The shares of common stock that Plaza shareholders receive as a result of the merger will be registered under the Securities Act. Plaza shareholders may freely trade these shares of Pacific Premier common stock if such Plaza shareholder is not considered an "affiliate" of Pacific Premier, as that term is defined in the federal securities laws. Generally, "affiliates" include directors, certain executive officers and holders of 10% or more of the outstanding Pacific Premier common stock.

Pacific Premier's affiliates may not sell their shares of Pacific Premier common stock acquired in the merger, unless those shares are registered under an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, or by complying with an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Pacific Premier may also place restrictive legends on certificates representing shares of Pacific Premier common stock issued to all persons who will be considered "affiliates" of Pacific Premier. Pursuant to the terms of the investor rights agreement which Pacific Premier entered into with Carpenter, Pacific Premier agreed to register for resale the shares of Pacific Premier common stock to be issued to the funds managed by Carpenter to allow them to freely trade their shares of Pacific Premier common stock acquired in connection with the merger. The registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part, registers for resale the shares of Pacific Premier common stock to be issued to the funds managed by Carpenter in connection with the merger. See "Selling Security Holders."

Carpenter Support Agreement and Plaza Shareholder Agreements

As an inducement for Pacific Premier to enter into the merger agreement, Carpenter, which manages funds that own approximately 86.0% of the outstanding shares of Plaza common stock as of the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, entered into a Support Agreement with Pacific Premier, which is referred to as the Carpenter support agreement, the form of which is set forth as Annex A to the merger agreement, which is attached to this prospectus consent solicitation statement as Appendix A, pursuant to which Carpenter agreed, among other things, to deliver a written consent with respect to all shares of Plaza common stock beneficially owned by Carpenter in favor of adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the merger in connection with the Plaza consent solicitation. Carpenter also has agreed to certain restrictions on its ability to transfer its shares of Plaza common stock, discussed below.

In addition, each director and certain executive officers of Plaza who own shares of Plaza common stock, reflecting an aggregate of approximately 4.2% of the outstanding Plaza common stock as of the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, entered into a shareholder agreement with Pacific Premier, the form of which is set forth as Annex B to the merger agreement, which is attached to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement as Appendix A, pursuant to which he or she agreed, among other things, to deliver a written consent with respect to all shares of Plaza common stock beneficially owned by him in favor of adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the merger in connection with the Plaza consent solicitation. Each director and such executive officers of Plaza also agreed to certain restrictions on their ability to transfer their shares of Plaza Common Stock, discussed below.

Pacific Premier has the right to terminate the merger agreement if written consents in an amount sufficient to constitute Plaza shareholder approval are not received by Pacific Premier prior to 6:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the third business day immediately following the date that Pacific Premier's registration statement on Form S-4, of which this prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part, is declared effective by the Commission.

Pursuant to each of the Carpenter support agreement and the Plaza shareholder agreements, which we refer to in this section as the agreements, Carpenter, each director and those Plaza executive officers who entered into a shareholder agreement also agreed, while such agreements are in effect, not to, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer, pledge, encumber (except for pledges or encumbrances existing as of the date of such agreements), distribute by gift, or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of Plaza common stock whether by actual disposition, physical settlement, or effective economic disposition through hedging transactions, except for charitable gifts or donations where the recipient enters into a voting agreement binding the recipient to vote its shares of Plaza common stock in the same manner as described herein; nor to enter into any agreement with any person that violates such person's representations, warranties, covenants, and obligations under such agreements; nor to take any other action that reasonably could be expected to adversely effect, in any material respect, such person's or entity's power, authority, and ability to comply with and perform his, her, or its covenants and obligations under such agreements. Each person and entity who entered into such agreement also agreed not to deposit any shares in a voting trust, grant any proxy, or enter into any voting agreement or similar agreement or arrangement with respect to any shares of Plaza common stock.

In addition, as of the closing and for a period of two (2) years thereafter, Carpenter, pursuant to the terms of the investor rights agreement, and each director and executive officer of Plaza who signed a shareholder agreement has agreed not to:

- (i) solicit any employees of Plaza or its Subsidiaries prior to the closing of the merger, other than general solicitations through newspapers or other media of general circulation not targeted at such employees, provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any employee of Plaza or its subsidiaries (1) who does not become an employee of Pacific Premier or any of its subsidiaries or is terminated by Pacific Premier or any of its subsidiaries without cause on or after the closing date of the merger; or (2) whose employment terminated more than six months prior to the time that such employee of Plaza or its subsidiaries is first solicited for employment following the closing date of the merger;
- (ii) knowingly induce, persuade, encourage or influence or attempt to induce, persuade, encourage or influence any person having a business relationship with Plaza or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates prior to the closing date, to discontinue, reduce or restrict such relationship with Pacific Premier or its subsidiaries after the closing date of the merger;
or

(iii)

knowingly solicit depositors, borrowers or customers of Plaza on the date of the merger agreement and/or as of the day of the closing of the merger, except for general solicitations that are directed to the general public and not directed specifically to persons who were depositors, borrowers or customers of Plaza on the date of the merger agreement or as of the day of the closing of the proposed transaction.

The foregoing restrictions do not apply to any affiliate, representative, client or portfolio company of Carpenter.

Except for the non-solicitation provisions referenced in the paragraph above with respect to the Plaza shareholder agreements, which will survive for a period of two (2) years following the consummation of the merger, the Carpenter support agreement and the Plaza shareholder agreements shall remain in effect until the earlier to occur of the date, if any, of termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms, or the effective time of the merger.

Investor Rights Agreement

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, Pacific Premier and Carpenter entered into an investor rights agreement, dated as of August 8, 2017, a copy of which is set forth as Annex E to the merger agreement, which is attached to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement as Appendix A and is referred to as the investor rights agreement, which provides, among other things, (i) Carpenter's right to designate one member to serve on the Pacific Premier board of directors and the Pacific Premier Bank board of directors and to continue to serve in such capacity for so long as Carpenter beneficially owns at least 9.90% of Pacific Premier common stock with the Commission, (ii) Pacific Premier's agreement to file a registration statement to enable the funds managed by Carpenter to freely sell their shares of Pacific Premier common stock acquired in connection with the merger (which Pacific Premier is satisfying through the filing of the registration statement on form S-4, of which the prospectus/consent solicitation statement is a part), and (iii) Carpenter's agreement not to solicit the customers or employees of Plaza. See "The Merger Interests of Certain Plaza Officers and Directors in the Merger Appointment of Carpenter Nominee to the Boards of Directors of Pacific Premier and Pacific Premier Bank," " Resale of Pacific Premier Common Stock; and " Carpenter Support Agreement and Plaza Shareholder Agreements." As of the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, the funds managed by Carpenter collectively owned 25,867,644 shares of Plaza common stock, representing approximately 86.0% of the issued and outstanding Plaza common stock. Following consummation of the merger, the funds managed by Carpenter are expected to own approximately 5,173,528 shares of Pacific Premier common stock, representing approximately 11.2% of the outstanding Pacific Premier common stock as of June 30, 2017 on a pro forma basis.

Appraisal Rights

Plaza shareholders are entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL in connection with the merger. Under the DGCL, as more fully described below, if you are a Plaza shareholder and you do not wish to accept the merger consideration provided for in the merger agreement and the merger is consummated, you have the right to seek appraisal of your shares of Plaza common stock and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of your Plaza common stock, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, as determined by the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, which we refer to as the Delaware Court of Chancery, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be fair value. The "fair value" of your shares of Plaza common stock as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery may be more or less than, or the same as, the per share merger consideration that you are otherwise entitled to receive under the terms of the merger agreement. We refer to these rights as appraisal rights. Plaza shareholders who elect to exercise appraisal rights must not vote in favor of or consent in writing to the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and must comply with the provisions of Section 262 of the

DGCL, which we refer to as Section 262, to perfect their rights. A holder of Plaza common stock who wishes to exercise appraisal rights, or preserve the ability to do so, must not sign and deliver a written consent adopting the merger agreement, or sign and deliver a consent without indicating a decision on the proposal. Any written consent returned without indicating a decision on the proposal will be counted as approving the proposal as described in the enclosed form of written consent, which will also effectively waive any appraisal rights.

This section is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures that a shareholder must follow to seek and perfect appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements, and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262, the full text of which appears in Appendix C to this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. The following summary does not constitute any legal or other advice, nor does it constitute a recommendation that shareholders exercise their appraisal rights under Section 262.

A HOLDER OF PLAZA COMMON STOCK WHO WISHES TO EXERCISE APPRAISAL RIGHTS OR WHO WISHES TO PRESERVE THE RIGHT TO DO SO SHOULD REVIEW THE FOLLOWING DISCUSSIONS AND APPENDIX C CAREFULLY. FAILURE TO COMPLY PRECISELY WITH THE PROCEDURES CONTAINED IN SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL IN A TIMELY AND PROPER MANNER WILL RESULT IN THE LOSS OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS. BECAUSE OF THE COMPLEXITY OF THE PROCEDURES FOR EXERCISING APPRAISAL RIGHTS, IF YOU WISH TO EXERCISE YOUR APPRAISAL RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH YOUR OWN LEGAL AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS IN CONNECTION WITH COMPLIANCE UNDER SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL. A PLAZA SHAREHOLDER WHO LOSES HIS, HER OR ITS APPRAISAL RIGHTS WILL BE ENTITLED TO RECEIVE THE MERGER CONSIDERATION.

Section 262 requires that, where a merger agreement is adopted by written consent of stockholders in lieu of a meeting, certain stockholders must be given notice that appraisal rights are available. A copy of Section 262 must be included with such notice. The notice must be provided either before the effective date of the merger or within ten (10) days after the merger agreement is approved by the company's shareholders. Only those Plaza shareholders who did not submit a consent in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and who have otherwise complied with Section 262 are entitled to receive such notice. The notice may be given by Plaza, if sent prior to effectiveness of the merger, or Pacific Premier, if given after effectiveness. If given on or after the effective date, the notice must also specify the effective date of the merger; otherwise, a supplementary notice will provide this information.

Following Plaza's receipt of sufficient written consents to adopt the merger agreement, we will send all non-consenting Plaza shareholders who satisfy the other statutory conditions the notice regarding the adoption of the merger agreement and the availability of appraisal rights. A Plaza shareholder wishing to exercise his, her or its appraisal rights will need to take action at that time, in response to that notice, but this description is being provided to all Plaza shareholders now so they can determine whether they wish to preserve their ability to demand appraisal rights in the future in response to that notice.

In order to preserve your right to receive notice and demand appraisal rights, you must not deliver a written consent in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement or deliver a consent without indicating a decision on the proposal. Consents that are signed and delivered without indicating a decision on the proposal will be counted as approving the proposal, which will also effectively waive appraisal rights. As described below, you must also continue to hold your shares through the effective time of the merger.

If you elect to exercise appraisal rights with respect to your shares of Plaza common stock, you must deliver to Plaza or to Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger), as applicable, at the specific address which will be included in the notice, a written demand for appraisal of your shares of Plaza common stock within 20 days after the date of the mailing of the subsequent notice that will be sent to non-consenting Plaza shareholders. Do not submit a demand before the date of that subsequent notice because, under Delaware case law, a demand that is made before the notice is mailed may not be effective to perfect your appraisal rights.

A holder of shares of Plaza common stock wishing to exercise appraisal rights must hold of record the shares of Plaza common stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made and must continue to hold the shares of Plaza common stock of record through the effective date of the merger, because appraisal rights will be lost if the shares of Plaza common stock are transferred prior to the effective time. If you are not the shareholder of record, you will need to follow special procedures as discussed further below.

If you and/or the record holder of your shares fail to comply with all of the conditions required by Section 262 to perfect your rights, and the merger is completed, you (assuming that you hold your shares through the effective time of the merger) will be entitled to receive the merger consideration for your shares of Plaza common stock as provided for in the merger agreement, but you will lose your appraisal rights with respect to your shares of Plaza common stock.

In order to satisfy Section 262, a demand for appraisal in respect of shares of Plaza common stock must reasonably inform Plaza or Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger), as applicable, of the identity of the shareholder of record and the shareholder's intent to seek appraisal rights. The demand should be executed by or on behalf of the holder of record, fully and correctly, as the holder's name appears on the holder's stock certificates, should specify the holder's name and mailing address and the number of shares registered in the holder's name and must state that the person intends thereby to demand appraisal of the holder's shares in connection with the merger. The demand cannot be made by the beneficial owner if he or she does not also hold the shares of Plaza common stock of record. The beneficial holder must, in such cases, have the registered owner, such as a bank, broker or other nominee, submit the required demand in respect of those shares of common stock.

IF YOU HOLD YOUR SHARES IN BANK OR BROKERAGE ACCOUNTS OR OTHER NOMINEE OR INTERMEDIARY FORMS, AND YOU WISH TO EXERCISE APPRAISAL RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH YOUR NOMINEE OR INTERMEDIARY TO DETERMINE THE APPROPRIATE PROCEDURES FOR THE BANK, BROKERAGE FIRM OR OTHER NOMINEE OR INTERMEDIARY TO MAKE A DEMAND FOR APPRAISAL OF THOSE SHARES. IF YOU HAVE A BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN SHARES HELD OF RECORD IN THE NAME OF ANOTHER PERSON, SUCH AS A NOMINEE OR INTERMEDIARY, YOU MUST ACT PROMPTLY TO CAUSE THE HOLDER OF RECORD TO FOLLOW PROPERLY AND IN A TIMELY MANNER THE STEPS NECESSARY TO PERFECT YOUR APPRAISAL RIGHTS. IF YOU HOLD YOUR SHARES THROUGH A BANK OR BROKERAGE WHO IN TURN HOLDS THE SHARES THROUGH A CENTRAL SECURITIES DEPOSITORY NOMINEE, SUCH AS THE DEPOSITORY TRUST COMPANY, A DEMAND FOR APPRAISAL OF SUCH SHARES MUST BE MADE BY OR ON BEHALF OF THE DEPOSITORY NOMINEE AND MUST IDENTIFY THE DEPOSITORY NOMINEE AS THE HOLDER OF RECORD.

If shares of Plaza common stock are owned of record by a person other than the beneficial owner, including a broker, fiduciary (such as a trustee, guardian or custodian) or other nominee, a demand for appraisal must be executed by or for such record holder. If the shares of Plaza common stock are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an authorized agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record holder or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, he or she is acting as agent for the record holder. A record holder, such as a broker, who holds shares of Plaza common stock as a nominee for others, may exercise his or her right of appraisal with respect to the shares of Plaza common stock held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising this right for other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should state the number of shares of Plaza common stock as to which appraisal is sought. Where no number of shares of Plaza common stock is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares of Plaza common stock held in the name of the record holder.

At any time within 60 days after the effective time of the merger, any shareholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined a proceeding as a named party may withdraw the demand and accept the merger consideration for that stockholder's shares of Plaza common stock by delivering to Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger) a written withdrawal of the demand for appraisal. However, any such attempt to withdraw the demand made more than 60 days after the effective time of the merger will require written approval by Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger). Unless the demand is properly withdrawn by the stockholder within 60 days after the effective date of the merger, no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery will be dismissed as to any shareholder without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just. If Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger) does not approve a request to withdraw a demand for appraisal when that approval is required, or if the Delaware Court of Chancery does not approve the dismissal of an appraisal proceeding, the shareholder will be entitled to receive only the appraised value determined in any such appraisal proceeding, which value could be less than, equal to or more than the value of the consideration offered pursuant to the merger agreement.

Within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, but not thereafter, either Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger) or any shareholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 and is entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of Plaza common stock held by all stockholders entitled to appraisal. Upon the filing of such a petition by a shareholder, service of a copy of such petition shall be made upon Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger). Pacific Premier has no present intent, as the combined company, to file such a petition and has no obligation to cause such a petition to be filed, and holders should not assume that Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger) will file a petition. Accordingly, the failure of a shareholder to file such a petition within the period specified could result in no appraisal rights being available for any shareholder notwithstanding prior written demands for appraisal having been delivered to Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger). In addition, within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, any shareholder who has properly filed a written demand for appraisal and who did not submit a consent in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, upon written request, will be entitled to receive from Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger) a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares of Plaza common stock not voted in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. The statement must be mailed within 10 days after such written request has been received by Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger) or within 10 days after the expiration of the period for delivery of demands, whichever is later. A person who is the beneficial owner of shares of Plaza common stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition for appraisal or request from Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger) such statement.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by a shareholder and a copy of the petition is delivered to Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger), then Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger) will be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to file with the Delaware Register in Chancery a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all shareholders who have demanded payment for their shares of Plaza common stock and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares of Plaza common stock have not been reached. After notice to shareholders who have demanded appraisal, if such notice is ordered by the Delaware Court of Chancery, the Delaware Court of Chancery is empowered to conduct a hearing upon the petition and to determine those shareholders who have complied with Section 262 and who have become entitled to the appraisal rights provided by Section 262. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require shareholders who have demanded payment for their shares of Plaza common stock and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any shareholder fails to comply with that direction, the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to that shareholder.

After determination of the shareholders entitled to appraisal of their shares of Plaza common stock, the Delaware Court of Chancery will appraise the shares of Plaza common stock, determining their fair value as of the effective time after taking into account all relevant factors exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. When the value is determined, the Delaware Court of Chancery will direct the payment of such value upon surrender by those shareholders of the certificates representing their shares of Plaza common stock. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment will be compounded quarterly and will accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective time and the date of payment of the judgment.

No representation is made as to the outcome of the appraisal of fair value as determined by the Court and stockholders should recognize that such an appraisal could result in a determination of a value higher or lower than, or the same as, the value of the merger consideration. Moreover, we do not anticipate offering more than the merger consideration to any shareholder exercising appraisal rights and reserve the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding, that, for purposes of Section 262, the "fair value" of a share of Plaza common stock is less than the value of the merger consideration.

Costs of the appraisal proceeding (which do not include attorneys' fees or the fees and expenses of experts) may be determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and imposed upon Pacific Premier (as the surviving corporation in the merger) and the shareholders participating in the appraisal proceeding by the Delaware Court of Chancery, as it deems equitable in the circumstances. Each shareholder seeking appraisal is responsible for his or her attorneys' fees and expert witness expenses, although, upon the application of a shareholder, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any shareholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts used in the appraisal proceeding, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares of Plaza common stock entitled to appraisal. Any shareholder who duly demanded appraisal in compliance with Section 262 will not, after the effective time of the merger, be entitled to vote shares of Plaza common stock subject to that demand for any purpose or to receive payments of dividends or any other distribution with respect to those shares of Plaza common stock, other than with respect to payment as of a record date prior to the effective time. However, if no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the effective time, or if the shareholder otherwise fails to perfect his, her or its appraisal rights, successfully withdraws his, her or its demand for appraisal or loses his, her or its right to appraisal, then the right of that shareholder to appraisal will cease and that shareholder will be entitled to receive the per share merger consideration for his, her or its shares of Plaza common stock pursuant to the merger agreement.

THE PROCESS OF DEMANDING AND EXERCISING APPRAISAL RIGHTS REQUIRES STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE TECHNICAL PREREQUISITES OF SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL. FAILING TO FOLLOW PROPER STATUTORY PROCEDURES WILL RESULT IN LOSS OF YOUR

APPRAISAL RIGHTS. IF YOU INTEND TO EXERCISE YOUR APPRAISAL RIGHTS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH YOUR OWN LEGAL AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS IN CONNECTION WITH COMPLIANCE UNDER SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL. TO THE EXTENT THERE ARE ANY INCONSISTENCIES BETWEEN THE FOREGOING SUMMARY AND SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL, THE DGCL WILL GOVERN.

THIS IS NOT THE NOTICE OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS PURSUANT TO SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL. YOU WILL RECEIVE A LATER NOTICE OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS. The last reported trade of Plaza's common stock prior to the filing of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement was on September 25, 2017, at $7.10. The last reported trade of Plaza's common stock on the date prior to the announcement of the merger was on August 8, 2017, at $6.50.

Dividends.

During the periods presented in the table above, except for a $10.2 million dividend paid in a combination of cash and stock to certain funds affiliated with Carpenter in connection with Plaza's acquisition of Manhattan Bancorp and its subsidiary Manhattan Bank in 2015, Plaza did not declare or pay dividends on its common stock. It is Plaza's current policy to retain earnings to provide for use in its business. Plaza does not anticipate declaring or paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

Plaza Securities Authorized for Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans

Plaza administers six equity compensation plans, with awards being granted beginning in 2015 exclusively from the Plaza Bancorp 2015 Equity Incentive Plan, or the 2015 Plan, approved by Plaza's shareholders in June 2015. Under the terms of the 2015 Plan, employees and directors may be granted nonqualified stock options, incentive stock options, restricted stock, stock appreciation rights or stock grants. The 2015 Plan provides for a maximum number of shares that may be awarded to eligible employees and directors, not to exceed 1,300,000 shares. Stock options are granted at a price not less than 100 percent of the fair market value of the stock on the date of grant and expire 10 years from the date of grant. Plaza has no equity compensation plans not previously approved by shareholders.

The following table provides information at September 22, 2017, with respect to shares of Plaza common stock that may be issued under Plaza's existing equity compensation plans:

INFORMATION ABOUT PLAZA

Business

Plaza (previously known as PB Holdings) is a Delaware corporation based in California and is the holding company for Plaza Bank. Plaza's principal asset is all of the capital stock of Plaza Bank. Plaza Bank is a California-chartered banking corporation headquartered in Irvine, California. Plaza Bank received its California bank charter and commenced banking operations in 2005. Plaza Bank operates as a community business bank serving local small and medium size businesses and consumers through its seven full-service banking offices located in the cities of El Segundo, Irvine, Manhattan Beach, Montebello, Pasadena and San Diego, California, and Las Vegas, Nevada. Plaza Bank offers varied banking products, including a complete range of commercial products and personal deposit banking products.

Plaza Bank is licensed to operate as a commercial bank under the CFC and is subject to supervision by the CA DBO and the FDIC. In accordance with the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, the FDIC insures the deposits of Plaza Bank up to the maximum legal limit. Plaza Bank's primary source of revenue is providing loans to customers, who are predominately small and medium businesses, selling the Small Business Administration, referred to as SBA, guarantee portion of 7a loans, loan servicing fees and bank fees from deposit products.

Table of Contents

As of June 30, 2017, Plaza, on a consolidated basis, had total assets of $1.3 billion, total deposits of $1.1 billion and total shareholders' equity of $126.3 million.

Plaza's principal executive offices are located at 18200 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 500, Irvine, California 92612 and its telephone number is (949) 502-4300.

Competition

The banking business in California and Southern Nevada, generally, and in Plaza Bank's service areas, specifically, is highly competitive with respect to both loans and deposits and is dominated by a number of major banks that have many offices operating over wide geographic areas. Plaza Bank competes for deposits and loans principally with these commercial banks, savings associations, credit unions, consumer finance companies, pension trusts, mutual funds, insurance companies, mortgage bankers and brokers, brokerage and investment banking firms, asset-based non-bank lenders, government agencies and certain other non-financial institutions, including retail stores, that may offer more favorable financing alternatives than Plaza Bank. Plaza Bank also competes with companies located outside of its market that provide financial services to persons within its market. Some of Plaza Bank's current and potential competitors have larger customer bases, greater brand recognition, and significantly greater financial, marketing and other resources than Plaza Bank, and some of them are not subject to the same degree of regulation as Plaza Bank.

Legal Proceedings

Plaza is from time to time involved in legal proceedings arising in the normal course of business. Other than proceedings incidental to Plaza's business, it is not a party to, nor is any of its property the subject of, any material pending legal or administrative proceedings.

Effect of Existing or Probable Governmental Regulations on the Business of Plaza and Plaza Bank

Bank holding companies and banks are extensively regulated under both federal and state law. The following discussion summarizes certain significant laws, rules and regulations affecting Plaza and Plaza Bank.

Bank Holding Company Regulation

As a registered bank holding company, Plaza is subject to regulation under the BHC Act which subjects it to Federal Reserve reporting and examination requirements. Under the Federal Reserve's regulations, a bank holding company is required to serve as a source of financial and managerial strength to its subsidiary banks.

The BHC Act regulates the activities of holding companies including acquisitions, mergers and consolidations and, together with the Gramm-Leach Bliley Act of 1999, referred to as the GLBA, the scope of allowable banking activities. Plaza is also a bank holding company within the meaning of the CFC. As such, it and its subsidiaries are subject to examination by, and may be required to file reports with, the CA DBO.

Bank Regulation

Banking regulations are primarily intended to protect consumers, depositors' funds, federal deposit insurance funds and the banking system as a whole. These regulations affect Plaza Bank's lending practices, consumer protections, capital structure, investment practices and dividend policy.

As a state chartered bank, Plaza Bank is subject to regulation and examination by the CA DBO. It also is subject to regulation, supervision and periodic examination by the FDIC. If, as a result of an examination of Plaza Bank, the FDIC or the CA DBO should determine that the financial condition, capital resources, asset quality, earnings prospects, management, liquidity, or other aspects of Plaza Bank's operations are unsatisfactory, or that it has violated any law or regulation, various remedies are available to those regulators including issuing a "cease and desist" order, monetary penalties, restitution, restricting Plaza Bank's growth or removing officers and directors.

The following discussion summarizes certain significant laws, rules and regulations affecting both Plaza and Plaza Bank. Plaza Bank addresses the many state and federal regulations it is subject to through a comprehensive compliance program that addresses the various risks associated with these issues.

Dividends

The payment of cash dividends by the Plaza Bank to Plaza is subject to restrictions set forth in CFC. Prior to any distribution from Plaza Bank to Plaza, a calculation is made to ensure compliance with the provisions of the CFC and to ensure that Plaza Bank remains within capital guidelines set forth by the CA DBO and the FDIC. Management anticipates that there will be sufficient earnings at the Plaza Bank level to provide dividends to Plaza to meet its cash requirements for 2017.

Source of Strength

Federal Reserve policy and federal law require bank holding companies to act as a source of financial and managerial strength to their subsidiary banks. Under this requirement, Plaza is expected to commit resources to support its subsidiary bank, including at times when Plaza may not be in a financial position to provide such resources, and it may not be in Plaza's, or its stockholders' or creditors', best interests to do so. In addition, any capital loans made to Plaza Bank are subordinate in right of payment to depositors and to certain other indebtedness of Plaza Bank. In the event of Plaza's bankruptcy, any commitment by it to a federal bank regulatory agency to maintain the capital of Plaza Bank will be assumed by the bankruptcy trustee and entitled to priority of payment.

FDIC Insurance Assessments

Plaza Bank's deposits are insured by the FDIC to the maximum amount permitted by law, which is currently $250,000 per depositor. The 2010 enacted Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, referred to as the Dodd-Frank Act, made the deposit insurance coverage permanent at the $250,000 level retroactive to January 1, 2008.

On February 7, 2011, as required by the Dodd-Frank Act, the FDIC approved a rule that changed the FDIC insurance assessment base from adjusted domestic deposits to average consolidated total assets minus average tangible equity, defined as Tier 1 capital. The new rule lowered assessment rates to between 2.5 and 9 basis points on the broader base for banks in the lowest risk category, and 30 to 45 basis points for banks in the highest risk category. The change was effective beginning with the second quarter of 2011.

Community Reinvestment Act

Plaza Bank is subject to the provisions of the CRA, under which all banks and thrifts have a continuing and affirmative obligation, consistent with safe and sound operations, to help meet the credit needs of their entire communities, including low and moderate income neighborhoods. The act requires a depository institution's primary federal regulator, in connection with its examination of the institution, to assess the institution's record in meeting the requirements of CRA. The regulatory agency's assessment of the institution's record is made available to the public. The record is taken into consideration when the institution establishes a new branch that accepts deposits, relocates an office, applies to merge or consolidate, or expands into other activities. The FDIC's last CRA performance examination was completed on March 27, 2017 with a rating of "Satisfactory".

Anti Money-Laundering Regulations

A series of banking laws and regulations beginning with the Bank Secrecy Act in 1970 requires banks to prevent, detect, and report illicit or illegal financial activities to the federal government to prevent money laundering, international drug trafficking, and terrorism. Under the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001, financial institutions are subject to prohibitions against specified financial transactions and account relationships, requirements regarding the Customer Identification Program, as well as enhanced due diligence and "know your customer" standards in their dealings with high risk customers, foreign financial institutions, and foreign individuals and entities. Plaza Bank has extensive controls in place to comply with these requirements.

Privacy and Data Security

The GLBA imposes requirements on financial institutions with respect to consumer privacy. The GLBA generally prohibits disclosure of consumer information to non-affiliated third parties unless the consumer has been given the opportunity to object and has not objected to such disclosure. Financial institutions are further required to disclose their privacy policies to consumers annually. The GLBA also directs federal regulators, including the FDIC, to prescribe standards for the security of consumer information. Plaza Bank is subject to such standards, as well as standards for notifying consumers in the event of a security breach. Plaza Bank must disclose its privacy policy to consumers and permit consumers to "opt out" of having non-public customer information disclosed to third parties. Plaza Bank is required to have an information security program to safeguard the confidentiality and security of customer information and to ensure proper disposal of information that is no longer needed. Customers must be notified when unauthorized disclosure involves sensitive customer information that may be misused.

Consumer Protection Regulations

Plaza Bank's lending activities are subject to a variety of statutes and regulations designed to protect consumers, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act, Equal Credit Opportunity Act, the Fair Housing Act, Truth-in-Lending Act, the Unfair, Deceptive or Abusive Acts and Practices, and the Dodd-Frank Act. Deposit operations are also subject to laws and regulations that protect consumer rights including Funds Availability, Truth in Savings, and Electronic Funds Transfers. Additional rules govern check writing ability on certain interest earning accounts and prescribe procedures for complying with administrative subpoenas of financial records. Additionally, amendments to Regulation E to accommodate remittance transfers rule requirements of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform Act concern consumer international wires. The rule focuses primarily on consumer protection including mandatory disclosures of wire transfer fees, error resolution procedures, and cancellation rights.

Restriction on Transactions between Bank's Affiliates

Transactions between Plaza and Plaza Bank are quantitatively and qualitatively restricted under Sections 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act and Federal Reserve Regulation W. Section 23A places restrictions on Plaza Bank's "covered transactions" with Plaza, including loans and other extensions of credit, investments in the securities of, and purchases of assets from Plaza. Section 23B requires that certain transactions, including all covered transactions, be on market terms and conditions. Federal Reserve Regulation W combines statutory restrictions on transactions between Plaza Bank and Plaza with Federal Reserve interpretations in an effort to simplify compliance with Sections 23A and 23B.

Capital Requirements

The Federal Reserve and the FDIC have adopted risk-based capital guidelines for bank holding companies and banks. Plaza Bank's ratios exceed the required minimum ratios for capital adequacy purposes and Plaza Bank meets the definition for well capitalized. Undercapitalized depository institutions may be subject to significant restrictions. Payment of dividends could be restricted or prohibited, with some exceptions, if Plaza Bank was categorized as "critically undercapitalized" under applicable FDIC regulations.

In December 2010, the Basel Committee on Bank Supervision finalized a set of international guidelines for determining regulatory capital known as "Basel III." These guidelines were developed to address many of the weaknesses in the banking industry that contributed to the past financial crisis, including excessive leverage, inadequate and low-quality capital and insufficient liquidity buffers.

In July 2013, the federal banking agencies published final rules, or the Basel III Capital Rules, that revised their risk-based and leverage capital requirements and their method for calculating risk-weighted assets to implement, in part, agreements reached by the Basel Committee and certain provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act. While some provisions are tailored to larger institutions, the Basel III Capital Rules generally apply to all banking organizations, including Plaza and Plaza Bank.

Among other things, the Basel III Capital Rules: (i) introduce a new capital measure entitled "Common Equity Tier 1," referred to as CET1; (ii) specify that tier 1 capital consist of CET1 and additional financial instruments satisfying specified requirements that permit inclusion in tier 1 capital; (iii) define CET1 narrowly by requiring that most deductions or adjustments to regulatory capital measures be made to CET1 and not to the other components of capital and (iv) expand the scope of the deductions or adjustments from capital as compared to the existing regulations.

The Basel III Capital Rules also provide a permanent exemption from the proposed phase out of existing trust preferred securities and cumulative perpetual preferred stock from regulatory capital for banking organizations with less than $15 billion in total assets, while also implementing stricter eligibility requirements for regulatory capital instruments that should serve to disallow the inclusion of all non-exempt issuances of trust preferred securities and cumulative perpetual preferred stock from tier 1 capital. The Basel III Capital Rules also provide additional constraints on the inclusion of minority interests, mortgage servicing assets, deferred tax assets and certain investments in the capital of unconsolidated financial institutions in tier 1 capital, as well as providing stricter risk weighting rules to these assets.

The Basel III Capital Rules provide for the following minimum capital to risk-weighted assets ratios:

4.5% based upon CET1;

6.0% based upon tier 1 capital; and

8.0% based upon total regulatory capital.

A minimum leverage ratio (tier 1 capital as a percentage of total assets) of 4.0% is also required under the Basel III Capital Rules. The Basel III Capital Rules additionally require institutions to retain a capital conservation buffer of 2.5% above these required minimum capital ratio levels. The transition period for this requirement began on January 1, 2016. Banking organizations that fail to maintain the minimum 2.5% capital conservation buffer could face restrictions on capital distributions or discretionary bonus payments to executive officers, with distributions and discretionary bonus payments being completely prohibited if no capital conservation buffer exists, or in the event of the following: (i) the banking organization's capital conservation buffer was below 2.5% at the beginning of a quarter and (ii) its cumulative net income for the most recent quarterly period plus the preceding four calendar quarters is less than its cumulative capital distributions (as well as associated tax effects not already reflected in net income) during the same measurement period.

The Basel III Capital Rules also provide stricter rules related to the risk weighting of past due and certain commercial real estate loans, as well as on some equity investment exposures, and replaces the existing credit rating approach for determining the risk weighting of securitization exposures with an alternative approach.

The enactment of the Basel III Capital Rules will increase the required capital levels that Plaza Bank and Plaza must maintain. The Basel III Capital Rules became effective as applied to Plaza Bank on January 1, 2017, with a phase in period from January 1, 2017 through January 1, 2019.

Plaza Bank has modeled its ratios under the finalized rules and does not expect that it will be required to raise additional capital as a result of their implementation.

The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act

On July 21, 2010, President Obama signed into law the Dodd-Frank Act, a landmark financial reform bill comprised of voluminous new rules and restrictions that will impact banks going forward. It includes key provisions aimed at preventing a repeat of the 2008 financial crisis and a new process for winding down failing, systemically important institutions in a manner as close to a controlled bankruptcy as possible. The Dodd-Frank Act includes other key provisions as follows:

(1) Establishes a new Financial Stability Oversight Council to monitor systemic financial risks. The Federal Reserve is given extensive new authorities to impose strict controls on large bank holding companies with total consolidated assets equal to or in excess of $50 billion and systemically significant non-bank financial companies to limit the risk they might pose to the economy and other large interconnected companies. The Federal Reserve can also take direct control of troubled financial companies that are considered systemically significant.

(2) Restricts the amount of trust preferred securities, referred to as TruPS, that may be considered as Tier 1 Capital. For bank holding companies below $15 billion in total assets, TruPS issued before May 19, 2010 are grandfathered, so their status as Tier 1 capital does not change.

Beginning January 1, 2013, bank holding companies above $15 billion in assets began a three-year phase-in period to fill the capital gap caused by the disallowance of the TruPS issued before May 19, 2010. However, going forward, TruPS will be disallowed as Tier 1 capital.

(3) Creates a new process to liquidate failed financial firms in an orderly manner, including giving the FDIC broader authority to operate or liquidate a failing financial company.

(4) Establishes a new independent Federal regulatory body for consumer protection within the Federal Reserve System known as the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, referred to as the CFPB, which assumes responsibility for most consumer protection laws (except the Community Reinvestment Act). It is also in charge of setting appropriate consumer banking fees and caps. The Office of Comptroller of the Currency continues to have authority to preempt state banking and consumer protection laws if these laws "prevent or significantly" interfere with the business of banking.

(5) Affects changes in the FDIC assessment as discussed under "FDIC Insurance Assessments" above.

(6) Places certain limitations on investment and other activities by depository institutions, holding companies and their affiliates, including comprehensive regulation of all over-the-counter derivatives.

Table of Contents

(7) Authorizes the Federal Reserve to regulate interchange fees on debit card and certain general-use prepaid card transactions paid to issuing banks with assets in excess of $10 billion to ensure that they are "reasonable and proportional" to the cost of processing individual transactions and to prohibit networks and issuers from requiring transactions to be processed on a single payment network. The Federal Reserve issued its final rule in June 2011.

Notice and Approval Requirements Related to Control

Banking laws impose notice, approval and ongoing regulatory requirements on any stockholder or other party that seeks to acquire direct or indirect "control" of an FDIC-insured depository institution. These laws include the BHC Act and the Change in Bank Control Act. Among other things, these laws require regulatory filings by a stockholder or other party that seeks to acquire direct or indirect "control" of an FDIC-insured depository institution or bank holding company. The determination whether an investor "controls" a depository institution is based on all of the facts and circumstances surrounding the investment. As a general matter, a party is deemed to control a depository institution or other company if the party owns or controls 25% or more of any class of voting stock. Subject to rebuttal, a party may be presumed to control a depository institution or other company if the investor owns or controls 10% or more of any class of voting stock. Ownership by family members, affiliated parties, or parties acting in concert, is typically aggregated for these purposes. If a party's ownership of Plaza were to exceed certain thresholds, the investor could be deemed to "control" Plaza for regulatory purposes. This could subject the investor to regulatory filings or other regulatory consequences. Carpenter is deemed to control Plaza.

In addition, except under limited circumstances, bank holding companies are prohibited from acquiring, without prior approval:

control of any other bank or bank holding companies or all or substantially all the assets thereof; or more than 5% of the voting shares of a bank or bank holding companies which is not already a subsidiary.

Future Legislation and Regulation

Congress may enact legislation from time to time that affects the regulation of the financial services industry, and state legislatures may enact legislation from time to time affecting the regulation of financial institutions chartered by or operating in those states. Federal and state regulatory agencies also periodically propose and adopt changes to their regulations or change the manner in which existing regulations are applied. The substance or impact of pending or future legislation or regulation, or the application thereof, cannot be predicted, although enactment of the proposed legislation could impact the regulatory structure under which Plaza and Plaza Bank operate and may significantly increase their costs, impede the efficiency of their internal business processes, require them to increase regulatory capital and modify their business strategy, and limit their ability to pursue business opportunities in an efficient manner. Their business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects may be adversely affected, perhaps materially, as a result.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OF PLAZA AND SUBSIDIARIES

This discussion presents Plaza's and its subsidiaries' management's analysis of the financial condition of Plaza as of the years in the two year period ended December 31, 2016, and as of the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the results of operations of Plaza for the three year period ended December 31, 2016, and for each of the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016. This discussion is designed to provide a more comprehensive review of the financial position and operating results of Plaza than could be obtained from an examination of the consolidated financial statements alone. The discussion should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements of Plaza and the notes thereto which appear elsewhere in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. See "Index to Plaza Bancorp and Subsidiaries on page F-1.

Statements contained in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Exchange Act, including Plaza's expectations, intentions, beliefs or strategies regarding the future. All forward-looking statements included in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement are based on information available to Plaza as of the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, and Plaza assumes no obligation to update any such forward-looking statements. It is important to note that Plaza's actual results could materially differ from those in such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause results to differ materially from those in such forward-looking statements are fluctuations in interest rates, inflation, government regulations, economic conditions and competitive product and pricing pressures in the geographic and business areas in which Plaza conducts its operations. General Plaza Bancorp (previously known as PB Holdings, Inc.) is a Delaware corporation and is the holding company for Plaza Bank, which is incorporated under the laws of the State of California. Plaza Bank provides a full range of banking services to commercial and consumer customers in Southern California and Southern Nevada.

Plaza Bank was formed in 2005, was incorporated on June 14, 2005, and commenced operations on December 30, 2005. Plaza Bank operates as a commercial bank offering loans and depository services to small and medium businesses and customers. Plaza Bank has full service branches in the cities of El Segundo, Irvine, Manhattan Beach, Montebello, Pasadena and San Diego, California and Las Vegas, Nevada. Irvine is also the location of Plaza's corporate office. The services offered by Plaza Bank are traditional banking products and services, including checking accounts, negotiable order of withdrawal accounts, interest-bearing certificates of deposits, savings accounts, money market deposit accounts, commercial loans, commercial real estate loans, asset based loans, and other loans. Plaza Bank derives its income from four principal sources: (i) net interest income, which is the difference between total interest income Plaza Bank earns on its interest earning assets, consisting of loans, available-for-sale securities and interest bearing deposits with other financial institutions, and total interest expense, which is the amount Plaza Bank incurs on its interest bearing liabilities; (ii) fee income, which includes fees earned on loans, deposit services and other banking services; (iii) gains on sales of SBA loans and SBA-related servicing fees and (iv) other income, which consist of loan referral fees, gain on purchased assets, gains from sale of available-for-sale securities, and dividend income from investment in shares of correspondent banks.

At June 30, 2017, Plaza had $1.3 billion in total assets, $168.9 million in cash and cash equivalents, $10.2 million in securities available-for-sale, $1.0 billion in net loans, $1.1 billion in total deposits and $126.3 million in total shareholders' equity.

On June 26, 2015, Plaza adopted a plan of reorganization, which is referred to as the Reorganization, pursuant to which all shares of Plaza Bank's capital stock were exchanged for shares of Plaza and Plaza Bank became a wholly owned subsidiary of Plaza. Prior to the Reorganization, Plaza Bank was owned 89.5% by Plaza and 10.5% by non-controlling shareholders Plaza, in turn, was 100 percent owned by three limited partnerships: Carpenter Community Banc Fund, L.P., Carpenter Community Banc Fund-A, L.P., and Carpenter Community Banc Fund-CA, L.P., which are referred to collectively as the Carpenter Funds. Immediately after the Reorganization, a merger plan was adopted whereby Manhattan Bancorp merged into Plaza, with Plaza surviving, which is referred to as the Reorganization Merger. Concurrently, Bank of Manhattan, a wholly owned subsidiary of Manhattan Bancorp, was merged into Plaza Bank, with Plaza Bank surviving. As both Manhattan Bancorp and Plaza were held under common control, the Reorganization Merger was accounted for similar to a pooling of interests whereby the balance sheets, statements of income and statements of cash flows for Manhattan Bancorp and Plaza have been combined for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014.

For the six months ended June 30, 2017, Plaza's net income totaled $7.2 million, compared to net income of $5.3 million for the same period ended June 30, 2016. The $1.9 million increase in net income for the six months ended June 30, 2017 was primary due to a $3.4 million increase in net interest income and a $902,000 decrease in other or non-interest expenses, reduced by a $1.4 million decrease in non-interest income.

Plaza's return on average total assets was 1.28% and 0.99% for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and June 30, 2016, respectively. Its return on average total shareholders' equity was 11.74% and 9.57% for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and June 30, 2016, respectively.

Critical Accounting Policies

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Plaza and Plaza Bank. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

Plaza's consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and prevailing practices in the banking industry. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The financial information contained within these statements is, to a significant extent, is based on approximate measures of the financial effects of transactions and events that have already occurred.

Plaza's management has identified as one of the most critical accounting policies to be that related to the allowance for loan and lease losses, which is referred to as the ALLL. Plaza's methodology to determine its ALLL incorporates a variety of risk considerations, both quantitative and qualitative, in establishing an ALLL that management believes is appropriate at each reporting date taking into account the characteristics of the loan portfolio, current economic conditions and historical credit loss experience. Although management believes that the level of ALLL as of the date of the consolidated financial statement is adequate to absorb losses inherent in Plaza's loan portfolio, a decline in the local economy or other adverse factors may result in increasing losses that cannot be reasonably predicted at this time.

Table of ContentsFinancial Condition at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016*Assets

Plaza reported total assets of $1.3 billion as of June 30, 2017, compared to $1.2 billion as of December 31, 2016. The change of $48.6 million was primarily driven by increases in cash and cash equivalents and net loans that were funded by the organic growth in deposits.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and due from banks and interest bearing deposits with other financial institutions and Federal funds sold. As of June 30, 2017, cash and cash equivalents was $168.9 million, an increase of $31.8 million compared to $137.1 million as of December 31, 2016. The increase was primarily due to the organic growth in total deposits of $69.5 million.

Investment Securities Available-for-Sale

Securities available-for-sale was $10.2 million at June 30, 2017, compared to $23.1 million at December 31, 2016. The decrease was driven by the principal cash flows from amortizing type securities and the proceeds from seven maturing securities, of which none of the proceeds were reinvested.

The following table presents the book values and fair values of Plaza's available-for-sale investment securities portfolio as of the dates presented.

Loan, net of deferred fees and costs

Loans were $1.0 billion as of June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016. The increase of $29.3 million during the six months ended June 30, 2017 was primarily due to organic growth in the loan portfolio, predominantly in the commercial and industrial and commercial real estate product-type classifications.

Table of Contents*Premises and Equipment, Net*

Premises and equipment consists of the net book value of the building, land, leasehold improvements, furniture, fixtures, equipment, computer hardware and software, all of which amounted to $7.6 million as of June 30, 2017, compared to $7.8 million as of December 31, 2016. The decrease of $200,000 was largely attributable to scheduled amortization and depreciation expense.

Goodwill

Plaza recorded as goodwill the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired in accordance with applicable guidance. At June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, Plaza's goodwill was $8.3 million.

Other Assets

This group of assets is primarily composed of accrued interest receivable from loans and available-for-sale securities, deferred tax asset, income taxes receivable, SBA-related servicing rights, restricted stock and other prepaid expenses. These assets totaled $27.1 million as of June 30, 2017 compared to $26.5 million as of December 31, 2016. The increase of $600,000 is largely due to an increase in restricted stock.

Liabilities*Deposits*

Plaza's total deposits were $1.1 billion at June 30, 2017, compared to $1.0 billion at December 31, 2016. The increase of $69.5 million during the six months ended June 30, 2017 primarily was attributable to organic growth in deposits.

Non-interest bearing deposits were $286.9 million or 27% of the total deposits as of June 30, 2017 and $311.0 million or 31% of the total deposits as of December 31, 2016.

The following table sets forth the distribution of Plaza's deposit accounts at the date indicated and the weighted average interest rates on each category of deposits presented:

Subordinated Notes

Plaza issued three subordinated notes totaling $25 million in June 2015 at a fixed interest rate of 7.125% payable in arrears on a quarterly basis. The notes have a maturity date of June 26, 2025 and are also redeemable in whole or in part from time to time beginning in June 26, 2020 at an amount equal to 103.0% of principal plus accrued unpaid interest. The redemption price decreases 50 basis points each subsequent year. The subordinated notes contain a covenant limiting dividends or distribution of capital stock or other equity securities of any kind of Plaza, except for dividends payable solely in shares of common stock, if the total risk-based capital ratio, tier 1 risk-based capital ratio or leverage ratio of Plaza or Plaza Bank becomes less than 10%, 6% percent or 5%, respectively.

Shareholders' Equity

Shareholders' equity was $126.3 million as of June 30, 2017, compared to $118.7 million as of December 31, 2016. The increase of $7.6 million during the six months ended June 30, 2017 was primarily attributable to net income.

Financial Condition at December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015Assets

Total assets of Plaza were $1.2 billion as of December 31, 2016, compared to $1.1 billion as of December 31, 2015. The increase of $166.5 million was primarily attributable to organic loan growth and an increase in cash and cash equivalents.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $137.1 million at December 31, 2016, compared to $97.6 million at December 31, 2015. The increase of $39.5 million was in interest bearing deposits with the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and other financial institutions.

Investment Securities Available-for-Sale

Securities available-for-sale was $23.1 million at December 31, 2016, compared to $28.2 million at December 31, 2015. During 2016, the security portfolio was reduced by the principal cash flows from amortizing securities and the proceeds from two maturing securities, of which none of the proceeds were reinvested.

Loans, net of deferred fees and costs

Loans as of December 31, 2016 were $1.0 billion, compared to $886.7 million as of December 31, 2015. The net increase is attributable to organic growth in Plaza's owner occupied commercial real estate, commercial and industrial and indirect auto portfolios, partially offset by the decline in Plaza's home equity lines and single family mortgage loans.

Premises and Equipment, Net

The total net book value of premises and equipment, net, was $7.8 million of December 31, 2016, compared to $7.6 million as of December 31, 2015. The net increase was due to the difference between the cost of the total fixed assets additions of $991,000, offset by the depreciation and amortization of $724,000, in 2016.

Table of Contents*Goodwill*

Plaza recorded as goodwill the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired in accordance with applicable guidance. At December 31, 2016 and 2015, Plaza's goodwill was $8.3 million.

Other Assets

Accrued interest receivable and other assets is primarily composed of accrued interest receivable from loans and available-for-sale securities, deferred tax assets, SBA-related servicing rights, restricted stock and other prepaid expenses. As of December 31, 2016, these assets amounted to $26.35 million compared to $33.8 million as of December 31, 2015. The decrease of $7.3 million is largely due to changes in the deferred tax asset as a result of the utilization of net operating losses in 2016.

Liabilities*Deposits*

Plaza's total deposits were $1.0 billion at December 31, 2016, compared to $884.0 million as of December 31, 2015. The increase of $120.5 million was primarily due to organic growth in all deposit product types except for non-interest bearing deposits. Non-interest bearing deposits were $311.0 million or 31% of the total deposits as of December 31, 2016 and $316.5 million or 36% of the total deposits as of December 31, 2015.

Total Interest Income

Interest income is the primary source of income for Plaza that consists of interest income and fees on loans, interest income on investment securities and on deposits with other financial institutions. Total interest income was $31.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017, compared to $26.9 million for the same period in 2016. The increase of $4.1 million was primarily due to a $3.2 million directly related to higher average loan balances due to organic growth in the loan portfolio and $746,000 due to the effect of rising interest rate environment on the loan portfolio.

Total Interest Expense

Interest expense represents interest incurred on interest bearing deposits and interest on other borrowings that is primarily interest expense on the subordinated debentures and advances from the FHLB. Total interest expense incurred was $3.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017, compared to $3.1 million for the same period in 2016. The increase in interest expense was primarily due to $108 million in higher average interest-bearing deposit balances attributable mostly to organic growth, and a slight increase in the yield paid on the deposits.

Net Interest Income

Net interest income is the difference between Plaza's total interest income and total interest expense. Net interest income was $27.2 million for the six months period ended June 30, 2017, compared to $23.8 million for the same period in 2016. The increase in net interest income was due to increases in average balance of earning assets and in the average yield on those earning assets, which was partially offset by an increase in interest expense due to higher average deposit balances and higher average cost of funds.

Table of Contents

Net Interest Spread

Net interest spread is the difference between the yield on average total interest-earning assets and the cost of average total interest-bearing liabilities. Plaza's net interest spread was 4.47% for the six month period ended June 30, 2017, compared to 4.37% for the six month period ended June 30, 2016. The increase of 0.10% in net interest spread was the result of a combination of a 0.17% higher average yield on interest earning assets, due to higher over-all yields on interest earning cash balances and Plaza's loan portfolio, partially offset by a 0.08% higher average cost on interest paying liabilities because of higher average interest rates on interest bearing deposits.

ALLL

The ALLL reflects management's judgment of the level of allowance adequate to provide for probable incurred losses in Plaza's loan portfolio. On a quarterly basis, management assesses the overall adequacy of the ALLL utilizing a methodology which includes an individual analysis of specific categories of loans, specific categories of classified loans and individual classified loans. Evaluation of the adequacy of ALLL is based upon relevant information about the ability of borrowers to service their debt, such as current financial information, historical payment experience, collateral adequacy and credit documentation, as well as certain other factors that, in management's judgment, deserve recognition in estimating loan losses. These factors include, but are not limited to, historical charge-offs, estimated future losses on all significant loans, credit concentrations, certain classes or composition of loans, trends in the loan portfolio, delinquencies and nonaccruals, economic factors and the experience of management.

One of the components of the ALLL is the provision for loan losses, referred to as the PLLL, that increases the level of ALLL, and is a debit or charge to expense. Loans that are written-off because management believes that the collectability of principal is unlikely are charged to ALLL. Subsequent recoveries of written off loan amounts are credited to the ALLL.

The ALLL decreased by $29,000 to $12.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017. The reduction in the ALLL was the result of a net charge-offs totaling $110,000, partially offset by the PLLL of $81,000. This compared to an increase in the ALLL of $897,000 as a result of an $889,000 PLLL and net recoveries of $8,000 for the same period in 2016.

Total Other Income or Non-interest Income

Plaza's other or non-interest income consists primarily of gains from sales of SBA loans, and related fees, service charges on deposit accounts, gain on sale of investment securities, gain on FDIC-share loss related assets and other income (including dividends earned from investment in equity shares of correspondent banks).

Other or non-interest income was $3.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017, compared to $4.8 million for the same period in 2016. The net decrease of $1.4 million resulted primarily from lower gains on the sale of SBA loans of $500 thousand and lower earnings from sublease rental income

Total Interest income was $56.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2016, compared to $51.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2015. The $5.5 million increase was a result of higher year-to-date average earning asset balance, augmented by slightly higher average yield on interest-earning assets during the year.

Total Interest Expense

Total interest expense was $6.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2016, compared to $5.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2015. The $1.6 million increase was primarily due to higher average interest bearing deposits and other borrowings.

Net Interest Income

Net interest income was $50.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2016, compared to $46.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2015. The $3.9 million increase in net interest income in 2016 was primarily driven by the higher average loan balances.

Net Interest Spread

Plaza's net interest spread was 4.37% for the year ended December 31, 2016, compared to 4.33% for the year ended December 31, 2015. The 0.92% year-over-year increase in net interest spread resulted from a combination of higher yield on average total interest-earning assets, partially offset by an increase in cost of average total interest-bearing liabilities.

PLLL

The PLLL was $1.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2016, compared to $2.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2015. The $733,000 decrease in PLLL from 2015 to 2016 reflected the continued improvement and stability in the over-all creditworthiness of the loan portfolio. Plaza's ALLL in 2016 reflected a gross charge-off of $224,000 compared to $341,000 in 2015. Recoveries that were credited to ALLL in 2016 were $50,000 compared to $53,000 in 2015.

Non-interest Income

Plaza's total other or non-interest income was $8.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2016, compared to $9.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2015. Below are the components of the non-interest income for the periods indicated:

Total Non-interest Expense

Total non-interest expense was $38.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2016, compared to $41.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2015. The $3.3 million decrease in 2016 was primarily related to a decrease of $4.1 in million merger related expenses, partially offset by a $1.6 million increase in salaries and benefits as a result of increased employee head count in 2016 from 147 employees as of December 31, 2015 to 157 as of December 31, 2016.

Below are the components of non-interest expense for the periods shown.

Asset Quality*General*

As a part of Plaza's goals and objectives to maintain satisfactory level of asset quality, the loan portfolio is reviewed monthly by the Board designated loan committee, and loan accounts that are classified as special attention credit, or SAC, are reviewed by management on a quarterly basis. In addition, a third party company is engaged to perform loan reviews on a semi-annual basis. The most important critical asset quality criteria in all of the related reviews are the update of the risk rating of all loan accounts, and the identification of loan accounts that need impairment evaluation under ASC 310, which affect significantly the level of the estimated ALLL.

Loans are placed on non-accrual status when, in the judgment of management, the probability of collection of principal and interest is deemed to be doubtful or when the account becomes 90 days past due. Once an account is placed on non-accrual, interest stops accruing and any outstanding accrued interest receivable is reversed and interest income is debited. Past due status is based on the contractual terms of the loan.

At June 30, 2017, Plaza had $4.7 million in loans on non-accrual status, compared to $2.6 million in loans in non-accrual status at December 31, 2016 and $1.2 million at December 31, 2015. The increase in non-accrual loans from one previous period to another through June 30, 2017 reflects the growth and aging of the loan portfolio. The potential losses on the non-accrual loans is limited as most of the loans are either well collateralized or have government guarantees or both.

Classified and Criticized Loans

Federal regulations require that each federally insured institution categorize by grade its assets on a regular basis. Furthermore, in connection with examinations of federally insured institutions, federal examiners have authority to identify problem assets and, if appropriate, classify them and to the extent the examiners deem it necessary, reduce the carrying value thereof. Plaza categorizes its loans into risk categories based on relevant information about the ability of borrowers to service their debt including, among others, factors such as current financial information, historical payment experience, credit documentation, public information, and current economic trends, among other factors. Plaza analyzes loans individually by classifying the loans as to credit risk. This analysis includes all loans and is performed at origination and updated at renewal or whenever the loan is contractually past due or out of compliance with any loan terms.

Plaza assigns a risk rating to all loans, and periodically performs detailed reviews of all such loans over a certain threshold to identify credit risks and to assess the overall collectability of the portfolio. The reviews are prepared on an on-going basis throughout the year. These risk ratings are also subject to examination by independent specialists engaged by Plaza and Plaza's regulators. During these internal reviews, management monitors and analyzes the financial condition of borrowers and guarantors, trends in the industries in which borrowers operate and the fair values of collateral securing these loans. These credit quality indicators are used to assign a risk rating to each individual loan. The risk ratings can be grouped into five major categories, defined as follows: Pass, Special Mention, Substandard, Doubtful, and Loss.

The general reserve component of the allowance for loan and lease losses also consists of reserve factors that are based on management's assessment of the following for each portfolio segment: (1) inherent credit risk, (2) historical losses and (3) other qualitative factors. Inherent credit risk and qualitative reserve factors are inherently subjective and are driven by the repayment risk associated with each class of loans described below.

Commercial Real Estate Commercial real estate loans are made to entities to facilitate the purchase or refinance of improved commercial real estate for business activities. Loans in this category are both owner-occupied and investor real estate, however, are primarily owner-occupied real estate loans and are made within regulatory loan-to-value guidelines. Included in this category are construction and land loans.

Commercial and Industrial Commercial and industrial loans are made to businesses and individuals to facilitate the growth and expansion and ongoing business operations. Commercial and industrial loans are used for the purposes of working capital, equipment purchase and inventory financing. Loans in this category are extended on a secured and unsecured basis. Plaza Bank underwrites the existing cash flows of both the operating businesses and guarantors. Substantially all commercial loans are secured and backed by the personal guarantees of the owners of the businesses

Consumer These loans include loans to individuals for consumer purposes and may include residential real estate, secured loans, unsecured loans, loans to facilitate the purchase of vehicles, indirect auto loans and other consumer purpose loans. Typically, these loans are fully amortizing term loans. The Plaza's consumer portfolio is concentrated in indirect auto loans, residential real estate and home equity line of credits (HELOC).

ALLL

The ALLL is a valuation allowance for probable incurred credit losses. Loan accounts balances that are partially or fully written off after management determines that the collectability of the loan balance is certain or confirmed are charged against ALLL. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the ALLL. Management estimates the required ALLL based on the approved Board ALLL methodology, utilizing past loan loss experience of both Plaza Bank and its peers, the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, information about specific borrower situations and estimated collateral values, economic conditions, and other factors. Allocations of the ALLL may be made for specific loans, but the entire ALLL is available for any loan that, in management's judgment, should be charged or written off.

The ALLL consists of specific and general components. The specific component relates to loans that are individually classified as impaired. A loan is impaired when, based on current information and events, it is probable that Plaza will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the loan agreement. Loans for which the terms have been modified resulting in a concession, and for which the borrower is experiencing financial difficulties, are considered troubled debt restructurings and classified as impaired.

Plaza has identified the following loan portfolio classifications: commercial, real estate, and consumer. Plaza's portfolio segments are also the class at which management monitors and assesses credit risk. Commercial loans are primarily underwritten based on the cash flows of the business operations and secured by assets being financed, such as accounts receivable, inventory, and equipment. Real estate loans are primarily underwritten based on cash flow of the borrower and their business and further secured by real estate, and collateral values may fluctuate based on the impact of economic conditions. All types of commercial loans may also come with personal guarantees of the borrowers and business owners. Consumer loans are generally dependent on personal income of the customer, and repayment is dependent on the borrowers' personal cash flow and employment status which can also be affected by general economic conditions. Additionally, collateral values may fluctuate based on the impact of economic conditions on residential real estate values and other consumer type assets such as automobiles.

For all classes, loans or portions of loans are charged off when there is a distinct probability of loss identified and management believes the uncollectability of a loan balance is confirmed. A distinct probability of loss exists when it has been determined that any remaining sources of repayment are insufficient to cover all outstanding principal. The probable loss is immediately calculated based on the value of the remaining sources of repayment and charged to the ALLL.

Factors considered by management in determining impairment include payment status, collateral value, and the probability of collecting scheduled principal and interest payments when due. Loans that experience insignificant payment delays and payment shortfalls generally are not classified as impaired.

Management determines the significance of payment delays and payment shortfalls on case-by-case basis, taking into consideration all of the circumstances surrounding the loan and the borrower, including the length of the delay, the reasons for the delay, the borrower's prior payment record, and the amount of the shortfall in relation to the principal and interest owed.

If a loan is impaired under ASC 310, the loan is appropriately classified as an impaired loan and separate valuation allowance is determined based on the present value of estimated future cash flows using the loan's existing rate, or at the fair value of collateral if repayment is expected solely from the collateral. Troubled debt restructurings are separately identified for impairment disclosures and are measured at the present value of estimated future cash flows using the loan's effective rate at inception. If a troubled debt restructuring is considered to be a collateral dependent loan, the loan is reported, net, at the fair value of the collateral. For troubled debt restructurings that subsequently default, Plaza determines the amount of reserve in accordance with the accounting policy for the ALLL.

The general component covers non-impaired loans and is based on Plaza's or its peer's historical loss experience, whichever is greater, adjusted for current factors. The historical loss experience is based on the actual loss history experienced by Plaza or its peers' as reported in their FDIC Call Reports, supplemented with other economic factors based on the risks present. These economic factors include consideration of the following: levels of and trends in delinquencies and impaired loans; levels of and trends in charge-offs and recoveries; trends in volume and terms of loans; effects of any changes in risk selection and underwriting standards; other changes in lending policies, procedures, and practices; experience, ability, and depth of lending management and other relevant staff; national and local economic trends and conditions; industry conditions; and effects of changes in credit concentrations.

As of June 30, 2017, Plaza had $4.0 million in total impaired loans under ASC 310, or 0.38% of total loans, compared to $1.7 million or 0.16% of total loans as of December 31, 2016 and $161,000 in total impaired loans, or 0.02% of its total loans as of December 31, 2015. Of these total impaired loans, all were classified as non-performing or non-accrual loans for each of the above periods.

The increase in impaired loans and non-performing or non-accrual loans from December 31, 2015 through the end of June 30, 2017 primarily was attributable to the aging and growth in the loan portfolio. No significant loss to Plaza is expected on these loans, as the impaired loans are either well collateralized or have a government guarantee.

Plaza categorizes loans that are 30 days to 89 days as past due and have not yet been placed on non-accrual status as delinquent loans. As of June 30, 2017, Plaza has reported $454,000 as delinquent loans and as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, Plaza reported $3.0 million for both periods.

The management of Plaza continuously monitors and modifies the ALLL as conditions dictate. While management believes, based on information currently available, that Plaza's ALLL is sufficient to cover losses inherent in its loan portfolio at this time, no assurance can be given that Plaza's level of ALLL will be sufficient to absorb future loan losses incurred by Plaza, or that future adjustments to the ALLL will not be necessary if economic and other conditions negatively differ significantly from those conditions used by management to determine the current level of the ALLL.

Investment Securities Available-For-Sale Activities

As of June 30, 2017 Plaza's market value of Plaza's investment securities available-for-sale were $10.2 million or 1% of total assets compared to $23.1 million or 2% of its total assets, as of December 31, 2016. The $12.9 million decrease in the investment securities available-for-sale is primarily attributable to the maturing of a total of seven agencies and corporate securities totaling $11.3 million. The reduction in investment conforms to the current investment strategy, which is driven by the goal and objective to lower the over-all market risk in the investment securities available-for-sale portfolio.

As of December 31, 2016, Plaza held investment securities totaling $23.1 million or 2% of total assets, compared to $28.2 million, or 3% of total assets as of December 31, 2015.

Plaza's securities investment policy, which has been established by the board of directors, is designed, among other things, to assist in its asset/liability management policies. The investment policy emphasizes preserving principal, obtaining favorable returns on investments, maintaining liquidity within designated guidelines, minimizing credit risk and maintaining flexibility. The current securities investment policies permit investments in various types of assets, including obligations of the U.S. Treasury and federal agencies, investment grade corporate obligations, various types of mortgage-backed and mortgage-related securities, certificates of deposit, and federal funds sold to financial institutions approved by the board of directors.

All investment securities are and have been classified as available-for-sale at December 31, 2015 through June 30, 2017. Such classification provides Plaza with the flexibility to sell securities if deemed appropriate in response to changes in interest rates, among other things. Unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities affect the value of the unamortized cost of the securities on a before tax basis; as a result the investment securities available-for-sale are reported on the balance sheet at fair or market value. The unrealized gains or losses are not reported as part of the income statements but are recognized as direct increases or decreases to shareholders' equity, net of applicable income taxes.

Asset and Liability Management

One of the primary goals of Plaza's interest rate risk management is to minimize the potential of adverse effects of material changes in interest rates on its results of operations. Plaza evaluates the inherent interest rate risk in certain balance sheet accounts to determine the acceptable level of interest rate risk exposure based on its business plan, operating environment, capital, liquidity requirements and performance objectives. Plaza's board of directors sets limits for earnings and equity at risk in order to reduce the potential vulnerability of Plaza's operations to changes in interest rates. Members of senior management coordinate asset and liability management consistent with Plaza strategic business plan and board approved policies and limits. Senior management establishes and monitors the volume and mix of assets and funding sources, taking into account relative costs and spreads, interest rate sensitivity and liquidity needs. The objectives are to manage assets and funding sources and to produce results that are consistent with liquidity, capital adequacy, growth, interest rate risk, and profitability goals. Senior management periodically reports results to the Asset Liability Management Committee of Plaza's board of directors.

Market Risk

One of Plaza's primary market risks is interest rate volatility due to the potential impact on net interest income and the market value of all interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities. Another material market risk is potential deterioration of the California commercial real estate markets, which would adversely affect the security collateralizing underlying commercial and construction loans made by Plaza.

Interest Rate Sensitivity

Interest rate sensitivity is a measure of the difference between amounts of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities that either reprice or mature within a given period of time. The difference, or the interest rate repricing "gap," provides an additional indication of the extent by which an institution's interest rate spread will be affected by changes in interest rates. A gap is considered positive when the amount of interest-rate sensitive assets exceeds the amount of interest-rate sensitive liabilities and is considered negative when the amount of interest-rate sensitive liabilities exceeds the amount of interest-rate sensitive assets. Generally, during a period of rising interest rates, a negative gap within shorter maturities would adversely affect net interest income, while a positive gap within shorter maturities would result in an increase in net interest income. During a period of falling interest rates, a negative gap within shorter maturities would result in an increase in net interest income while a positive gap within shorter maturities would have the opposite effect. To moderate its interest rate risk, Plaza seeks to maintain a neutral gap. As of June 30, 2017 the ratio of Plaza's one-year interest rate gap to total earning assets was 26.5%, compared to 29.8% at December 31, 2016 and 19.5% at December 31, 2015. Although it is not a total neutral position, this reflects stability in Plaza's gap position more being on an asset sensitive side, which would benefit Plaza on a rising interest rate environment.

To measure earnings at risk, Plaza makes extensive use of a financial model in the formation of its interest rate risk management strategies. The model uses management assumptions concerning the repricing of assets and liabilities, as well as business volumes projected under a variety of interest rate scenarios.

Management's assumptions for the loan portfolio and pricing of Plaza's deposit products are based on management's review of past behavior of Plaza's depositors and borrowers in response to changes in the general market.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Liquidity management is both a daily and long-term function of business management. Plaza's liquidity is a product of its operating, investing, and financing activities. Plaza relies on its deposits as its source of funds. Plaza's other primary sources of funds include, repayments and maturities of outstanding loans and investment securities and other short-term investments, as well as funds provided from operations. While scheduled payments from the repayment of loans, maturing investment securities and short-term investments are relatively predictable sources of funds, deposit flows and loan prepayments are greatly influenced by general interest rates, economic conditions and competition.

Table of Contents

Plaza uses its funds primarily to fund loan commitments and to meet its ongoing commitments to pay maturing certificates of deposit and savings withdrawals. Plaza places excess funds with the Federal Reserve Bank, where excess deposits earn the current fed funds rate.

As of June 30, 2017, Plaza had unfunded loan commitments of $177.7 million and standby or outstanding letters of credit of $4.5 million. As of December 31, 2016, Plaza had unfunded loan commitments of $166.0 million and standby or outstanding letters of credit of $4.1 million. At December 31, 2015, the total outstanding unfunded loan commitments were $184.2 million and standby letters of credit were $4.0 million.

Certificates of deposit scheduled to mature in one year or less at June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, totaled $174.0 million and $148.1 million, respectively. Certificates of deposit scheduled to mature in one year or less at December 31, 2015 totaled $151.0 million. Based on historical experience, Plaza's current pricing strategy and its strong core deposit base, management believes that Plaza has the ability to retain deposits needed to support its loan and investment portfolios.

Plaza had three available federal fund lines of credit totaling $55.0 million at each of June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016. At December 31, 2015, Plaza had four federal fund lines of credit totaling $63.0 million available. Interest rates on these borrowings are based on rates in effect at the time funds are requested. Borrowings under these agreements are unsecured. There were no borrowings outstanding at any of dates specified above.

Plaza, through Plaza Bank has collateralized borrowing arrangements with the FHLB of San Francisco and the Federal Reserve Bank.

Under its agreement with the FHLB, Plaza Bank had $31.0 million outstanding borrowings at June 30, 2017 plus $31.1 million letters of credits that are securing deposits from California public funds, with a remaining borrowing capacity of $307.7 million, collateralized by loans of approximately $613.8 million. The FHLB has underwritten Plaza Bank to allow for a maximum borrowing limit of 30 percent of total assets with terms to 84 months, subject to certain terms and conditions and require sufficient collateral be pledged. Collateral pledged can be in the form of qualified loans or qualified investment securities. At December 31, 2016, Plaza Bank's borrowing limit from the FHLB was $346.1 million, of which $60.0 million was outstanding with $30.0 million of the outstanding advances being term advances and the other $30.0 million being overnight borrowings plus $15.8 million of letter of credits. In 2016, the average advance balance outstanding was $34.8 million; the average rate paid was 0.97%; and the highest balance of short-term advances at any month-end was $85.0 million. At December 31, 2015, Plaza Bank's borrowing limit from the FHLB was $332.4 million, of which there was term advances of $24.0 million outstanding at December 31, 2015.

Under the Federal Reserve Bank agreement, Plaza must pledge qualified securities as collateral to be able to borrow. At this time, Plaza has not pledge any securities. Plaza Bank has not borrowed any funds under this program as of June 30, 2017, December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015.

The credit facilities above presently provide Plaza with adequate liquidity to meet its loan funding requirements.

Capital Ratios

Plaza and Plaza Bank are subject to regulatory capital requirements administered by federal banking agencies. Capital adequacy guidelines and prompt corrective action regulations involve quantitative measures of assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance-sheet items calculated under regulatory accounting practices. Capital amounts and classifications are also subject to qualitative judgments by regulators. Failure to meet capital requirements can result in regulatory action against Plaza Bank.

Prompt corrective action regulations provide five classifications: well capitalized, adequately capitalized, undercapitalized, significantly undercapitalized, and critically undercapitalized, although these terms are not used to represent overall financial condition. If adequately capitalized, regulatory approval is required to accept brokered deposits. If undercapitalized, capital distributions to stockholders and others are limited, as is asset growth and expansion, and capital restoration plans are required. Notwithstanding Plaza Bank's well capitalized classification, state and federal regulatory agencies may require increased levels of capital based on their assessment of Plaza Bank's loan

Table of ContentsQuantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Plaza manages market risk, which for Plaza is primarily interest rate risk related to the operations of its subsidiary bank, through the Asset-Liability Committee of Plaza Bank. This committee is composed of certain members of the Plaza Bank board in accordance with asset liability and funds management policies approved by the full board of Plaza Bank.

Plaza Bank uses an interest rate risk simulation model and shock analysis to test the interest rate sensitivity of net interest income and fair value of equity, and the impact of changes in interest rates on other financial metrics. See the section of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations of Plaza and Subsidiaries Interest Rate Sensitivity".

Table of ContentsCERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF PLAZA COMMON STOCK

The following tables set forth information as of September 22, 2017 pertaining to the beneficial ownership of Plaza common stock by: (i) each person who is known to Plaza to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent of Plaza common stock; (ii) each director of Plaza; (iii) each executive officer of Plaza; and (iv) all directors and executive officers of Plaza as a group. As used throughout this section, the term "executive officers" means Plaza's chief executive officer, its president and its chief financial officer/secretary. The information contained herein has been obtained from Plaza's records and from information furnished directly to Plaza by each individual or entity. Applicable percentage ownership in the table is based on 30,133,293 shares of Plaza common stock outstanding as of September 22, 2017. Except as otherwise indicated in the footnotes to the table, the beneficial owners listed have sole voting and investment power as to all of the shares beneficially owned by them. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act. In computing the number of shares beneficially owned by a person or group and the percentage ownership of that person or group, shares of Plaza common stock subject to options and warrants currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days after the above referenced date are deemed outstanding, but are not deemed outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage ownership of any other person. The address for each of the stockholders below is Plaza Bancorp, 18200 Von Karman Avenue, Suite 500, Irvine, CA 92612.

Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statement of Operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016 also gives effect to Pacific Premier's acquisition of HEOP, giving effect to the merger as if the merger had become effective at the beginning of such respective period, using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Although pro forma financial information is not a measurement of performance calculated in accordance with GAAP, Pacific Premier and Plaza believe that pro forma financial information is important because it gives effect to the merger and the transactions referenced above. The manner in which Pacific Premier and Plaza calculate pro forma financial information may differ from similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information included in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement are presented for informational purposes only. This information includes various estimates and may not necessarily be indicative of the financial condition or results of operations that would have occurred if the merger or the other transactions referenced above had been completed on the dates or at the beginning of the periods indicated or which may be obtained in the future. The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the respective period's historical consolidated financial statements and the related notes of Pacific Premier, Plaza and HEOP. The historical consolidated financial statements of Pacific Premier are filed with the Commission and incorporated by reference into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. The historical consolidated financial statements of Plaza are included elsewhere in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. See "Where You Can Find More Information" and "Index to Plaza Consolidated Financial Statements." The historical consolidated financial statement of HEOP are included elsewhere in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. See "Index to HEOP Consolidated Financial Statements."

The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect the opportunities to earn additional revenue and does not include certain assumptions as to cost savings and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had the companies been combined during the periods presented.

The unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated stockholders' equity and net income are qualified by the statements set forth under this caption and should not be considered indicative of the market value of Pacific Premier's common stock or the actual or future results of operations of

The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition as of December 31, 2016 gives effect to the completion of Pacific Premier's acquisition of Plaza, as well as its acquisition of HEOP, which was completed on April 1, 2017.

The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and explanatory notes for both the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016 combine the historical Consolidated Statements of Operations of Pacific Premier and the historical Consolidated Statements of Income of Plaza for such respective periods, giving effect to the merger as if the merger had become effective at the beginning of the periods presented, using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements. The Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016 also gives effect to Pacific Premier's acquisition of HEOP, giving effect to the merger as if the merger had become effective at the beginning of such respective period using the acquisition method of accounting and giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the accompanying Notes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Since the merger is recorded using the acquisition method of accounting, all loans are recorded at fair value, including adjustments for credit quality, and no allowance for credit losses is carried over to Pacific Premier's balance sheet. In addition, certain anticipated costs associated with the merger such as professional fees, legal fees and conversion-related expenditures are not reflected in the pro forma statements of operations.

While the recording of the acquired loans at their fair value will impact the prospective determination of the provision for credit losses and the allowance for credit losses, for purposes of the Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016, Pacific Premier assumed no adjustments to the historical amounts of Plaza's and HEOP's provisions for credit losses. If such adjustments were estimated, there could be an increase or a reduction to the historical amounts of Plaza's and HEOP's provisions for credit losses presented. In addition, the fair value of the loan portfolio is not necessarily reflective of the allowance for loan losses calculated under the probable incurred loss model, as the fair value also takes into account an interest and liquidity component.

Note B Accounting Policies and Financial Statement Classifications

The accounting policies of Plaza are in the process of being reviewed in detail by Pacific Premier. Upon completion of such review, conforming adjustments or financial statement reclassifications may be determined.

Note C Merger and Acquisition Integration Costs

In connection with the merger, the plan to integrate Pacific Premier's and Plaza's operations is still being developed. The specific details of this plan will continue to be refined over the next several months, and will include assessing personnel, benefit plans, premises, equipment, and service contracts to determine where they may take advantage of redundancies. Certain decisions arising from these assessments may involve involuntary termination of employees, vacating leased premises, changing information systems, canceling contracts with certain service providers, and selling or otherwise disposing of certain furniture and equipment. Pacific Premier also expects to incur merger-related costs including professional fees, legal fees, system conversion costs and costs related to communications with customers and others. To the extent there are costs associated with these actions, the costs will be recorded based on the nature of the cost and in the period incurred.

Note D Estimated Annual Cost Savings

Pacific Premier expects to realize cost savings following the merger. These cost savings are not reflected in the pro forma financial information and there can be no assurance they will be achieved in the amount or manner currently contemplated.

Note E Pro Forma Adjustments

The following pro forma adjustments have been reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined condensed consolidated financial information. All adjustments are based on current assumptions and valuations, which are subject to change.

- (1) The pro forma data in this column presents the unaudited financial data for Pacific Premier on a pro forma combined basis reflecting the consummation of the merger with Plaza and HEOP, as if the merger had taken place as of the date indicated, or at the beginning the period indicated, after giving effect to the pro forma adjustments described in the other footnotes to this table.
- (2) Adjustment includes: (a) $14.3 million for estimated transactions costs and (b) $6.1 million to holders of Plaza options and Plaza warrants.
- (3) Adjustment made to reflect the preliminary estimated market value of loans, which includes an estimate of lifetime credit losses, as well as an interest rate and liquidity component. Loans include net deferred costs and unearned discounts.
- (4) Purchase accounting reversal of allowance for loan losses, which is not carried over.
- (5) Estimated fair market value adjustment for property and leases.
- (6) Represents the recognition of goodwill resulting from the difference between the consideration paid to Plaza and HEOP shareholders less the net fair value of the acquired assets and

Table of ContentsUNAUDITED COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following table sets forth certain historical, pro forma and pro forma equivalent per share financial information for the Pacific Premier common stock and the Plaza common stock. The pro forma and pro forma equivalent per share information for the six month period ended June 30, 2017 gives effect to the merger as if the transaction had been effective on the last date of the period, in the case of book value data, and as if the transaction had been effective on the first day of the period, in the case of the income and dividend data. The pro forma and pro forma equivalent per share information for the year ended December 31, 2016 gives effect to (i) the completion of Pacific Premier's acquisition of HEOP, which was completed on April 1, 2017 and (ii) the merger as if the transaction had been effective on the last date of the period, in the case of book value data, and as if the transaction had been effective on the first day of the period, in the case of the income and dividend data. The pro forma information in the below table assumes that the merger is accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting. The information in the following table is based on, and should be read together with, (i) the historical consolidated financial information that Pacific Premier has presented in its prior filings with the Commission and which are incorporated into this prospectus/consent solicitation statement and (ii) the historical consolidated financial statements of Plaza that are included elsewhere in this prospectus/consent solicitation statement. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 152 and "Index to Consolidated Plaza Financial Statements."

DESCRIPTION OF PACIFIC PREMIER CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary of the current terms of the capital stock of Pacific Premier and the terms of capital stock of Pacific Premier to be in effect after completion of the merger is not meant to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the DGCL, federal law, the Pacific Premier amended and restated certificate of incorporation, or Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation, and the Pacific Premier amended and restated bylaws, or the Pacific Premier bylaws, copies of which have been filed with the Commission and are also available upon request from Pacific Premier. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 152.

Common Stock

The Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation authorizes 100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share. At September 22, 2017, there were 40,160,325 shares of Pacific Premier common stock issued and outstanding, held of record by approximately 827 shareholders. The Pacific Premier common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "PPBI." The transfer agent and registrar for Pacific Premier common stock is American Stock Transfer & Trust Company.

Each holder of Pacific Premier common stock is entitled to:

one vote for each share held on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders; receive ratably such dividends as may be declared by the Pacific Premier board of directors out of funds legally available for dividends, subject to preferences that may be applicable to outstanding shares of preferred stock, if any, or limitations and restrictions under applicable bank holding company regulations; and share ratably in Pacific Premier's net assets, legally available to holders of Pacific Premier common stock in the event of Pacific Premier's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, after payment in full of all amounts required to be paid to any holders of shares of preferred stock and to creditors (unless provision for such payment has been made).

Holders of Pacific Premier common stock are not entitled to preemptive rights and have no subscription, redemption or conversion privileges.

The outstanding shares of Pacific Premier common stock are validly issued, fully-paid and nonassessable.

Preferred Stock

The Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation authorizes 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. As of the date of this prospectus/consent solicitation statement, there were no issued and outstanding shares of Pacific Premier preferred stock.

Under the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation, Pacific Premier may issue shares of preferred stock in one or more series, as may be determined by the Pacific Premier board of directors. The Pacific Premier board of directors may also establish, from time to time, the number of shares to be included in each series and may fix the designation, powers, preferences and rights of the shares of each such series and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, and may increase or decrease the number of shares of any series without any further vote or action by the shareholders. Any preferred stock that Pacific Premier may issue will rank senior to Pacific Premier common stock with respect to the payment of dividends or amounts paid upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Pacific Premier, or both. In addition, any shares of Pacific Premier preferred stock may have class or series voting rights. Under certain circumstances, the issuance of shares of Pacific Premier preferred stock, or merely the existing authorization of the Pacific Premier board of directors to issue shares of Pacific Premier preferred stock, may tend to discourage or impede a merger or other change in control of Pacific Premier. No shares of preferred stock are currently outstanding. Each series of preferred stock, to the extent issued, will be issued under a separate certificate of designation.

Anti-takeover Provisions

Delaware Anti-Takeover Law.

As a Delaware corporation, Pacific Premier is subject to Section 203 of the DGCL, which generally prevents an interested shareholder, defined generally as a person owning 15% or more of a corporation's outstanding voting stock, from engaging in a business combination with Pacific Premier for three (3) years following the date that person became an interested shareholder, unless certain specified conditions are satisfied. The existence of this provision may have an anti-takeover effect with respect to transactions not approved in advance by the Pacific Premier board of directors, including discouraging attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares of Pacific Premier common stock held by shareholders.

Possible Future Issuance of Preferred Stock.

The Pacific Premier board of directors can at any time issue one or more new series of preferred stock pursuant to the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation and without shareholder approval. In some cases, the issuance of preferred stock could discourage or make more difficult attempts to take control of Pacific Premier through a merger, tender offer, proxy context or otherwise. Shares of Pacific Premier preferred stock with special voting rights or other features issued to persons favoring Pacific Premier's management could stop a takeover by preventing the person trying to take control of Pacific Premier from acquiring enough voting shares to take control.

Removal and Vacancies on the Board of Directors.

Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Pacific Premier preferred stock then outstanding, directors may be removed by Pacific Premier's shareholders, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of at least 66²/₃% of the voting power of all of the then-outstanding shares of capital stock of Pacific Premier entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class. Further, any newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors or any vacancies on the board resulting from death, resignation, retirement, removal or other cause may be filled only by a majority vote of the directors then in office, whether or not a quorum is present. These provisions may deter a shareholder from removing incumbent directors and from simultaneously gaining control of the board of directors by filling the resulting vacancies with its own nominees. Consequently, the existence of these provisions may have the effect of deterring hostile takeovers, which could depress the market price of Pacific Premier common stock.

Advance Notice Requirements for Shareholder Proposals and Director Nominations.

The Pacific Premier bylaws provide that shareholders seeking to nominate candidates for election as directors or to bring business before an annual meeting of shareholders must provide timely notice of their proposal in writing to the corporate secretary. Generally, to be timely, a shareholder's notice must be received at Pacific Premier's principal executive offices not less than ninety (90) days nor more than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the first anniversary date of the previous year's annual meeting. The Pacific Premier bylaws also specify requirements as to the form and content of a shareholder's notice. The Pacific Premier bylaws also provide that notice may be provided by shareholders to Pacific Premier in accordance with the Commission's rules. These provisions may impede shareholders' ability to bring matters before an annual meeting of shareholders or make nominations for directors at an annual meeting of shareholders.

Additional Provisions in the Pacific Premier Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.

The Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation and the Pacific Premier bylaws contain additional provisions that may be deemed to have the effect of discouraging or delaying attempts to gain control of Pacific Premier, including provisions that provide: (i) the board of directors with the exclusive power to fix from time to time the size of the board; (ii) for any action required or permitted to be taken by Pacific Premier shareholders to be taken only at an annual or special meeting and prohibit shareholder action by written consent in lieu of a meeting; (iii) for special meetings of shareholders to be called only by the board of directors; and (iv) for certain of the foregoing provisions to be amended only by the affirmative vote of at least 66²/₃% of the voting power of all of the then-outstanding shares of capital stock of Pacific Premier entitled to vote generally in an election of directors, voting together as a single class.

Restrictions on Ownership

The BHC Act generally prohibits any company that is not engaged in banking activities and activities that are permissible for a bank holding company or a financial holding company from acquiring control of a bank holding company, such as Pacific Premier. "Control" is generally defined as ownership of 25% or more of the voting stock or other exercise of a controlling influence. Any existing bank holding company would need the prior approval of the Federal Reserve before acquiring 5% or more of the voting stock of Pacific Premier. In addition, the Change in Bank Control Act of 1978, as amended, prohibits a person or group of persons from acquiring control of a bank holding company unless the Federal Reserve has been notified and has not objected to the transaction. Under a rebuttable presumption established by the Federal Reserve, the acquisition of 10% or more of a class of voting stock of a bank holding company with a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as Pacific Premier, could constitute acquisition of control of the bank holding company.

COMPARISON OF THE RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

When the merger becomes effective, shareholders of Plaza who receive shares of Pacific Premier common stock in exchange for their shares of Plaza common stock will become shareholders of Pacific Premier. Pacific Premier is a Delaware corporation and the rights of Pacific Premier shareholders are governed by the DGCL, as well as the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation and the Pacific Premier bylaws. Plaza is a Delaware corporation, and its shareholders' rights are governed by the DGCL and the Plaza certificate of incorporation and Plaza bylaws.

After the merger, as Pacific Premier shareholders, the rights of former Plaza shareholders will be governed by the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation, the Pacific Premier bylaws and the DGCL. The following is a summary of material differences between the rights of holders of Pacific Premier common stock and holders of Plaza common stock. The summary does not purport to be a complete statement of the provisions affecting, and differences between, the rights of holders of Pacific Premier common stock and holders of Plaza common stock. Rather, the summary is intended to provide a general overview of the differences in shareholders' rights under the governing corporate instruments of Pacific Premier and Plaza, and other known material differences. For more detailed information with respect to Pacific Premier, see "Description of Pacific Premier Capital Stock" beginning on page 140.

Authorized Capital Stock

Pacific Premier.

Pacific Premier's authorized capital stock consists of 100,000,000 shares of Pacific Premier common stock, par value $.01 per share, and 1,000,000 shares of Pacific Premier preferred stock, par value $.01 per share. The Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation authorizes Pacific Premier's board of directors to issue shares of Pacific Premier preferred stock in one or more series and to fix the designation, powers, preferences, and rights of the shares of Pacific Premier preferred stock in each series. As of September 22, 2017, there were 40,160,325 shares of Pacific Premier common stock issued and outstanding and no shares of Pacific Premier preferred stock were issued and outstanding as of such date.

Plaza.

Plaza's authorized capital stock consists of 50,000,000 shares of Plaza common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock with no par value. The Plaza certificate of incorporation authorizes the board of directors to issue preferred stock and to determine or alter the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions of Plaza preferred stock in each series. As of September 26, 2017, there were 30,152,586 shares of Plaza common stock issued and outstanding and no shares of Plaza preferred stock outstanding.

Issuance of Capital Stock

Pacific Premier.

Under the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation and the DGCL, Pacific Premier may issue shares of Pacific Premier capital stock and rights or options for the purchase of shares of capital stock of Pacific Premier on such terms and for such consideration as may be determined by the Pacific Premier board of directors. None of the DGCL, the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation or the Pacific Premier bylaws require shareholder approval of any such actions. Pacific Premier may, however, elect to seek shareholder approval of stock-related compensation plans in certain instances in order to qualify such plans for favorable federal income tax treatment and to comply with the continued listing rules of the NASDAQ Global Select Market and securities laws treatment under current laws and regulations. Holders of Pacific Premier common stock do not have preemptive rights with respect to any shares of Pacific Premier capital stock which may be issued.

Plaza.

Under the DGCL, Plaza may issue shares of Plaza stock for such consideration as may be determined by the Plaza board of directors in accordance with the DGCL. None of the DGCL or the Plaza certificate of incorporation or Plaza bylaws require shareholder approval of any such actions. The Plaza certificate of incorporation does not grant the holders of Plaza stock preemptive rights with respect to any shares of Plaza stock that may be issued.

Voting Rights

Pacific Premier.

Each holder of Pacific Premier common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held of record. All director elections are determined by a plurality of the votes cast and, except as otherwise required by law or the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation, all other matters are determined by a majority of the votes cast. Holders of Pacific Premier common stock do not have cumulative voting rights with respect to the election of directors.

Plaza.

Under the Plaza bylaws, all director elections are determined by a plurality of the votes cast and, except as otherwise required by law, all other matters are determined by a majority of the votes cast affirmatively or negatively.

Table of Contents

Plaza is registered to do business as a foreign corporation in California. Under the Plaza bylaws, as long as Plaza is subject to Section 2115 of the CGCL, which governs foreign corporations, then at every election of directors, shareholders may cumulate votes and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected, multiplied by the number of votes to which the shares are entitled, or distribute the shareholder's votes on the same principle among as many candidates as the shareholder thinks fit. No shareholder is entitled to cumulate votes for any candidate unless such candidate's name has been placed in nomination before the voting and at least one shareholder has given notice at the meeting before the voting of such shareholder's intention to cumulate votes.

Number and Election of Directors

Pacific Premier.

The Pacific Premier bylaws provide that the number of directors who constitute the board of directors is such number as the board of directors from time to time has designated, except that in the absence of such designation, such number is seven (7). The directors are elected by the shareholders each year at the annual meeting of shareholders and hold office until the next annual meeting and until each director's successor has been duly elected and qualified or until a director's earlier resignation or removal. Currently, Pacific Premier's board of directors consists of ten (10) directors.

Plaza.

The Plaza bylaws provide that the authorized number of directors who constitute the board of directors shall be fixed by majority approval of the board of directors from time to time, provided that except for any reduction that will take effect as of the next election of directors by the shareholders, the board may not reduce the authorized number of directors to less than the number of directors in office.

There are currently nine (9) members of the Plaza board of directors. The directors are elected by the shareholders each year at the annual meeting of shareholders and hold office until the next annual meeting and until each director's successor has been duly elected and qualified or until a director's earlier resignation or removal.

Removal of Directors

Pacific Premier.

Under the DGCL, directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, unless a greater vote is required by the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws. Under the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation, subject to the rights of holders of any series of preferred stock then outstanding, any director, or the entire board of directors, may be removed from office at any time with or without cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66²/₃% of the voting power of all of the then-outstanding shares of capital stock of Pacific Premier entitled to vote generally in an election of directors, voting together as a single class.

Plaza.

The Plaza certificate of incorporation does not specify any required vote for removal of directors. Under the Plaza bylaws, unless otherwise restricted by statute or by the Plaza certificate of incorporation, any director or the entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors.

Plaza is registered to do business as a foreign corporation in California. The Plaza bylaws further provide that as long as Plaza is subject to Section 2115(b) of the CGCL, which governs foreign corporations, no director may be removed (unless the entire board is removed) if the votes cast against removal, or not consenting in writing to the removal, would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast (or, if the action is taken by written ballot, all shares entitled to vote were voted) and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

Vacancies of Directors

Pacific Premier.

The DGCL provides that, unless the certificate of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, a majority of the directors then in office (although less than a quorum) or the sole remaining director may fill any vacancy on a board of directors, including newly created directorships resulting from an increase in the number of directors. Under the Pacific Premier bylaws, subject to the rights of holders of any series of preferred stock outstanding, any vacancy occurring on its board of directors may be filled by a majority vote of the directors then in office, whether or not a quorum is present. Each director so chosen will hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders.

Plaza.

The Plaza bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock then outstanding, newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors or any vacancies in the board of directors resulting from death, resignation, retirement, removal from office or other cause shall, unless otherwise required by law or by resolution of the board of directors, be filled only by a majority vote of the directors then in office. Vacancies and newly created directorships of any class or series of which the holders are entitled to elect one or more directors may be filled by a majority of the directors elected by such class or series then in office.

The Plaza bylaws provide that if, at the time of filling any vacancy or any newly created directorship, the directors then in office constitute less than a majority of the board of directors (as constituted immediately before any such increase), then the Court of Chancery may, upon application of any shareholder or shareholders holding at least 10% of the total number of the shares at the time outstanding having the right to vote for such directors, order an election to fill any such vacancies or newly created directorships, or to replace the directors chosen by the directors then in office, pursuant to Section 211 of the DGCL. If at any time, by reason of death or resignation or other cause, Plaza should have no directors in office, then any officer or any shareholder, or his or her executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other similar fiduciary may call a special meeting of shareholders in accordance with the provisions of the certificate of incorporation and the bylaws, or may apply to the Delaware Court of Chancery for a decree ordering an election as provided in Section 211 of the DGCL.

The term of office of a director elected to fill a vacancy runs until the next annual meeting of the shareholders, and such a director holds office until a successor is elected and qualified or until his or her earlier resignation or removal. The shareholders may elect a director at any time to fill a vacancy not filled by the board of directors.

Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

Pacific Premier.

The DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. A similar standard is applicable in the case of derivative actions, except that indemnification extends only to expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, and the statute requires court approval before there can be any indemnification where the person seeking indemnification has been found liable to the corporation.

The DGCL provides that any indemnification must be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct. Such determination must be made, with respect to a person who is a director or officer at the time of such determination, (i) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to the action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (ii) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, or (iii) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iv) by the shareholders.

The DGCL provides that it is not exclusive of other indemnification that may be granted by a corporation's bylaws, disinterested director vote, shareholder vote, agreement or otherwise.

The Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation provides for the indemnification of directors, officers and certain of its authorized representatives to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, except that indemnification in an action, suit or proceeding initiated by a director, officer or authorized representative is permitted only if the board of directors authorized the initiation of that action, suit or proceeding. In addition, as permitted by the DGCL, the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation provides that the directors shall have no personal liability to Pacific Premier or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Pacific Premier or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, (iii) the unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful stock purchase or redemption, or (iv) for any transaction in which the director derived improper personal benefit.

Plaza.

Plaza is subject to the provisions of the DGCL governing indemnification by a corporation as set forth above.

The Plaza certificate of incorporation authorizes it to provide indemnification of, and advancement of expenses to, such directors and officers (and any other persons to which Delaware or other applicable state law permits Plaza to provide indemnification) through bylaw provisions, agreements with such agents or other persons, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, in excess of the indemnification and advancement otherwise permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL or other applicable state law, subject only to limits created by applicable Delaware or other state law (statutory or non-statutory), with respect to actions for breach of duty to a corporation, its shareholders, and others.

The Plaza bylaws provide that it may, to the maximum extent permitted by the DGCL, indemnify each officer, director, employee, and agent of Plaza against all expense, liability and loss reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any actual, pending, or threatened proceeding arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer, director, employee, or agent, to which such person is a party, witness, or participant, and in the case of an officer or director, whether the basis of the proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer. Plaza will not indemnify any officer, director, employee, or agent in connection with a proceeding (i) initiated by such person against Plaza or any director or officer of Plaza unless Plaza has joined in or consented to the initiation of such proceeding or (ii) made on account of such person's conduct which constitutes a breach of such person's duty of loyalty to Plaza or its shareholders, or is an act or omission not in good faith or which involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law. Plaza may, upon approval by the board of directors, advance expenses to any person subject to these indemnification provisions, provided that the indemnified person agrees to repay the amount advanced if it is determined by final, unappealable judicial decision that the person is not entitled to be indemnified as provided in the Plaza bylaws.

The Plaza certificate of incorporation eliminates the liability of the directors of Plaza for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director to the fullest extent permissible under Delaware law.

Amendments to Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

Pacific Premier.

The DGCL provides that an amendment to a Delaware corporation's certificate of incorporation requires a board resolution stating the advisability of the amendment and approval by a majority of the holders of outstanding capital stock of each class entitled to vote thereon. The Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation provides that amendments to the Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation may be effected in the manner prescribed by the DGCL; provided, however, that the amendment of Sections C or D of Article Fifth, Article Sixth, Article Seventh, Article Ninth and Article Eleventh requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66²/₃% of the voting power of all of the then-outstanding shares of the capital stock of Pacific Premier entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

The Pacific Premier bylaws authorize Pacific Premier's board of directors to amend its bylaws by vote of a majority of the board of directors at a meeting. The Pacific Premier bylaws may also be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66²/₃% of the voting power of all of the then-outstanding shares of the capital stock of Pacific Premier entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

Plaza.

The Plaza certificate of incorporation may be amended in any manner allowed under Delaware law.

The Plaza certificate of incorporation provides that the Plaza bylaws may be amended or repealed, and new bylaws may be adopted, by the board of directors. The Plaza bylaws provide that the Plaza bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, in whole or in part, or new bylaws may be adopted by the shareholders or by the board of directors, provided that the required notice of the amendment is provided to the shareholders or directors, as applicable. The Plaza bylaws require that any amendment to the Plaza bylaws must be approved by either the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote thereon or by a majority of the entire board of directors then in office.

Notice of Shareholder Meetings

Pacific Premier.

In accordance with the DGCL, the Pacific Premier bylaws provide that a written notice of the time, date, and place of all shareholder meetings must be given to each shareholder entitled to vote at the meeting not less than ten (10) days nor more than sixty (60) days prior to the meeting.

Plaza.

In accordance with the DGCL, the Plaza bylaws provide that a written notice of the place, the date and the hour of all shareholder meetings must be mailed, postage prepaid, or given by electronic mail or other electronic transmission, in the manner provided in Section 232 of the DGCL, to each shareholder entitled to vote at the meeting at least ten (10) and no more than sixty (60) days prior to the meeting.

Special Meetings of Shareholders

Pacific Premier.

Pursuant to the DGCL, a special meeting of shareholders may be called by a corporation's board of directors or by the persons authorized to do so in the corporation's certificate of incorporation or bylaws. The Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation provides that a special meeting of shareholders may be called only by the board of directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by the majority of the total number of authorized directorships or as otherwise provided in the bylaws. The Pacific Premier bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of the holders of preferred stock, special meetings of shareholders may be called only by the board of directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of directors which the corporation would have if there were no vacancies on the board of directors.

Plaza.

Under the Plaza bylaws, a special meeting of the shareholders may be called at any time by the board of directors by resolution of a majority of the board of directors, or by the chairman of the board, or by the chief executive officer, or by one or more shareholders holding shares in the aggregate entitled to cast not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the votes at that meeting. Shareholders requesting a special meeting must do so by submitting their request, in writing, to Plaza's corporate secretary, specifying the time of the meeting and the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted.

Pursuant to the Plaza bylaws, every special meeting of Plaza shareholders, unless otherwise required by law, must be called by must be mailed, postage prepaid, or given by electronic mail or other electronic transmission, in the manner provided in Section 232 of the DGCL, to each shareholder entitled to vote at the meeting at least thirty-five (35) and no more than sixty (60) days after the receipt of the request.

Shareholder Nominations and Shareholder Proposals

Pacific Premier.

The Pacific Premier bylaws provide that shareholders of Pacific Premier may nominate one or more persons for election as director only if such nominations are delivered to the secretary of Pacific Premier at the principal executive offices of the corporation not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth (120th) day and not later than the close of business on the ninetieth (90th) day prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than thirty (30) days before or more than sixty (60) days after such anniversary date, notice by the shareholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the close of business on the one hundred twentieth (120th) day prior to the date of such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth (90th) day prior to the date of such annual meeting or, if the first public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is less than one hundred (100) days prior to the date of such annual meeting, the tenth (10th) day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the corporation. Each such notice must set forth information concerning the nominee, the nominating shareholder and the other information specified in the Pacific Premier bylaws. The Pacific Premier bylaws provide that a proposal by shareholders for submission to a vote of shareholders at an annual meeting must be delivered to the secretary of Pacific Premier within the same time frame as shareholder nominations for directors described above. Each such notice must set forth information concerning the proposal, the proposing shareholder and the information specified in the Pacific Premier bylaws.

Plaza.

The Plaza bylaws provide that nominations of persons for election to the board of directors and the proposal of business to be transacted by shareholders may be made at an annual meeting of shareholders by any shareholder of record for such meeting who is entitled to vote for the election of directors or such other business at the meeting. For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting, the shareholder must have given timely notice in writing to Plaza's corporate secretary, and if the proposal is for other business, such other business must be a proper matter for shareholder action under the DGCL.

To be timely, a shareholder's notice shall be delivered to the Secretary at the principal executive offices of Plaza not less than ninety (90) days nor more than one hundred twenty (120) days before the anniversary date of the prior year's meeting; provided, however, that if the date of the annual meeting is advanced more than thirty (30) days before or delayed more than thirty (30) days after such anniversary date, notice must be received not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth (90th) day before the meeting or the tenth (10th) day following the day on which a public announcement of the meeting is first made.

The shareholder's notice must state (i) as to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director, the name, age, business address and residence address of such person; the principal occupation or employment of such person and the class and number of shares of Plaza which are beneficially owned by such person; (ii) as to any other business that the shareholder proposes to bring forward in the meeting, a brief description of such business, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such shareholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (iii) as to the shareholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made, the name and address of such shareholder and of such beneficial owner and the class and number of shares of Plaza which are owned of record by such shareholder and beneficially by such beneficial owner.

Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of shareholders at which directors are to be elected by any shareholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. Nominations must be made by notice to Plaza's corporate secretary no later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth (90th) day before the special meeting or the tenth (10th) day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Board of Directors to be elected at the meeting.

Shareholder Action by Written Consent

Pacific Premier.

The Pacific Premier bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of the holders of any class or series of preferred stock, any action required or permitted to be taken by the shareholders of Pacific Premier must be effected at an annual or special meeting of shareholders and may not be effected by any consent in writing by such shareholders.

Plaza.

Under the Plaza bylaws, any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting and without prior notice, if a consent in writing is signed and dated by each of the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take that action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on that action were present and voted, and the written consent is delivered to Plaza in accordance with Section 228(a) of the DGCL. An electronic mail or other electronic transmission constitutes a valid written consent if delivered in accordance with Section 228(d)(1) of the DGCL by a shareholder or proxyholder, or by a person or persons authorized to act for a shareholder or proxyholder. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent must be given to those shareholders who have not consented in writing. Any certificate filed under the DGCL on the basis of a vote by written consent must state that written notice and consent have been given as provided in Section 228 of the DGCL.

Transactions with Interested Persons

Pacific Premier.

The DGCL prohibits a corporation from engaging in any business combination with an interested shareholder (defined as a 15% shareholder) for a period of three (3) years after the date that shareholder became an interested shareholder, unless (i) before that date, the board of directors of the corporation approved the business combination or the transaction in which the shareholder became an interested shareholder, (ii) upon completion of the transaction that resulted in the shareholder becoming an interested shareholder, the shareholder owned at least 85% of the outstanding voting stock (excluding shares owned by directors, officers and certain employee stock ownership plans) or (iii) on or after the date the shareholder became an interested shareholder, the business combination received the approval of both the corporation's directors and holders of two-thirds of the outstanding voting shares not owned by the interested shareholder voted at a meeting and not by written consent. A Delaware corporation may opt out of this provision through an amendment to its certificate of incorporation or bylaws adopted by a majority of the outstanding voting shares. The Pacific Premier certificate of incorporation expressly provides that it is bound by this provision of the DGCL concerning transactions with interested shareholders.

Plaza.

Plaza is subject to the provisions of the DGCL described above with respect to transactions with interested persons. Neither the Plaza certificate of incorporation nor the Plaza bylaws contains any provision addressing transactions with interested persons and as such, Plaza is bound by the applicable provisions of the DGCL.

Dividends

Pacific Premier.

The DGCL permits a Delaware corporation to declare and pay dividends out of surplus or, if there is no surplus, out of net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or for the preceding fiscal year as long as the amount of capital of the corporation following the declaration and payment of the dividend is not less than the aggregate amount of the capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. Further, it is the policy of the Federal Reserve that bank holding companies, such as Pacific Premier, should generally pay dividends on common stock only out of income available over the past year, and only if prospective earnings retention is consistent with the organization's expected future needs and financial condition. It is also the Federal Reserve's policy that bank holding companies should not maintain dividend levels that undermine their ability to be a source of strength to their banking subsidiaries. The Pacific Premier bylaws permit its board of directors to declare dividends, but it is Pacific Premier's policy to retain earnings to provide funds for use in its business. Pacific Premier has never declared or paid dividends on its common stock and does not anticipate declaring or paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

Plaza.

Plaza is subject to the provisions of the DGCL and the policies of the Federal Reserve governing declaration and payment of dividends, as described above. The Plaza bylaws do not address the declaration and payment of dividends.

Except for a $10.2 million dividend paid in a combination of cash and stock to certain funds affiliated with Carpenter in connection with Plaza's acquisition of Manhattan Bancorp and its subsidiary Manhattan Bank in 2015, Plaza has not historically declared or paid dividends on its common stock. From the date of the merger agreement until the effective time of the merger, Plaza and its subsidiaries are not permitted by the merger agreement to make, declare, pay or set aside for payment any dividend on or in respect of, or declare or make any distribution on, any shares of Plaza common stock.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the Pacific Premier common stock to be issued in the merger has been passed upon for Pacific Premier by Holland & Knight LLP, Washington, D.C. As of September 25, 2017, attorneys employed by that law firm beneficially owned approximately 71,455 shares of Pacific Premier common stock.

HOUSEHOLDING

The Commission has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries, such as brokers, to satisfy delivery requirements for consent solicitation statements with respect to two or more shareholders sharing the same address by delivering a single consent solicitation statement addressed to those shareholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as "householding," potentially provides extra convenience for shareholders and cost savings for companies. Plaza will mail only one copy of the prospectus/consent solicitation statement to multiple shareholders sharing the same address. Once you have received notice from your broker or Plaza that they will be householding materials to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate prospectus/consent solicitation statement, please notify your broker or nominee if your shares are held in a brokerage account or other account or Computershare, Inc. if you hold registered shares. You can notify Computershare by sending a written request to: P.O. Box 505000, Louisville, KY 40233-5000 or by calling (800) 962-4284.
