Item 5. Other Events

Although the Registrant is a party to certain legal proceedings that have occurred in the ordinary course of business, the Company does not believe such proceedings to be of a material nature with the exception of the following item which the Registrant became aware subsequent to the April 14, 2004 filing of its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 and which is therefore reported herein.

On or about April 20, 2004, the Registrant became aware of a press release issued by DataWorld Solutions, Inc. (OTC: DWLD) and its subsidiary DWS Defense Systems, Inc., that a "preliminary letter of intent" had been entered into by which Georal International, Inc. had granted as yet undisclosed distribution and integration rights to DWS Defense Systems, Inc.

Inasmuch as the Registrant currently holds exclusive distribution rights to Georal's security products by virtue of an Exclusive Distribution Agreement dated September 13, 1999 (as amended), the Registrant has requested from Georal a copy of the purported agreement in order to determine whether the Registrant's contractual rights are being infringed.

The Registrant has notified Georal and DWS that it will take any and all actions necessary to protect its rights under the Exclusive Distribution Agreement, including but not limited to injunctive relief and damages.

However, due to uncertainties in the legal process, it is at least reasonably possible that the Registrant will face significant legal expenses in defending its contract, and that Registrant's current opinion of the outcome of the dispute might change in the future and there exists the possibility that there could be a material adverse impact on the operations of the Registrant.
