Item 6.

Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Teijin purchased 667,000 shares of the Southwall Common Stock pursuant to a Basic Agreement Regarding Stock Purchase Between Southwall/Teijin dated April 9, 1997 (the Basic Agreement). The Basic Agreement also sets forth a general framework for areas in which Teijin and Southwall may collaborate in the future. Detailed descriptions of the terms of the Basic Agreement and a copy of the Basic Agreement are contained in Teijin's Schedule 13D dated April 9, 1997.

Teijin agreed to guarantee a Japanese bank loan to Southwall. In consideration of the guarantee, Teijin received warrants in 1997 to purchase 158,000 shares of the Southwall Common Stock at $9.00 per share. These warrants were not exercised and expired on May 30, 2000. The Teijin guarantee was collateralized by certain inventory and equipment located in Southwall's Tempe manufacturing facility, to the extent necessary to provide 120% net book value coverage of the outstanding loan balance (the Southwall Collateral). The interest rate on the loan is re-set semi-annually at LIBOR plus 1.0% (5.25% on September 30, 2001, and 3.14% on September 29, 2002).

Southwall is also subject to certain financial covenants under the guarantee. Southwall pays Teijin semi-annually a loan guarantee service fee equal to 0.5625% of the outstanding balance. The loan requires semi-annual payments of interest only during the first four years, followed by semi-annual installments plus interest, beginning in May 2001, for the remaining three-and-one-half year term. On December 31, 2001, Southwall was not in compliance with certain of the financial covenants to Teijin pertaining to this loan. Southwall received a waiver from Teijin and the Japanese bank of any defaults that may exist through and including September 30, 2003 arising out of Southwall's failure to comply with the financial covenants of the guarantee agreement relating to minimum quick ratio, tangible net worth and maximum debt/tangible net worth. The waiver was conditioned on Southwall's agreement to prepay $2.5 million of the debt from the proceeds of its public offering.

On July 8, 2002, Southwall completed a follow-on public offering of 3,500,000 shares of its common stock at a price of $4.50 per share. On August 5, 2002, Southwall sold an additional 307,300 shares at a price of $4.50 per share, when its underwriters exercised part of their overall allotment option. The net proceeds to Southwall from the offering and the over allotment option after deducting underwriting discounts and commission and offering expenses were approximately $15.1 million. On November 6, 2002, Southwall used the net proceeds to prepay $2.5 million of the Japanese bank loan, in addition to the scheduled principal payment of $1.25 million, leaving an outstanding balance of $2.5 million. Upon such prepayment, Teijin released its security interest in the Southwall Collateral except for certain machines located at Southwall's Tempe plant.

Teijin and Mr. Hideo Nakamori entered into the Compensation Agreement on or about July 1, 1999. As a result of the Compensation Agreement, the Reporting Persons share dispositive and voting power with respect to 696 shares of the Southwall Common Stock owned of record by Mr. Hideo Nakamori.

On January 29, 2003, the board of directors of Teijin approved a reorganization plan for Teijin. Pursuant to the reorganization plan, a new subsidiary corporation, Teijin Films, was formed in Japan. Effective as of April 1, 2003, Teijin transferred certain assets to Teijin Films in exchange for all the shares of Teijin Films. The transferred assets included Teijin's entire interest in 667,000 shares of the Southwall Common Stock.

As a result of the Reporting Persons' beneficial ownership of 667,696 shares of the Southwall Common Stock, the Reporting Persons currently have the right to nominate one of the six directors on Southwall's board of directors each year. At the time of this filing, Mr. Noriyuki Nakamura, President of Teijin Holdings USA Inc., serves as the Reporting Persons representative on Southwall's board of directors, and his tenure will continue until April 1, 2004.
