Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 6, 2004, Stewart & Stevenson Services, Inc. (the Company) and S&S TUG Service Centers, Inc. (collectively, the Sellers) entered into a definitive agreement to sell substantially all of the assets and business of the Company's Airline Products Division (the Business) to TUG Manufacturing Corp, formerly known as Tug Acquisition Corp. (the Buyer). The Buyer was formed for the purpose of acquiring the Business and is affiliated with Jacobson Partners, a New York private equity firm. The consideration for the acquired assets will be $60 million in cash (plus or minus any working capital adjustment) and the assumption of specified liabilities.

On December 31, 2004, Sellers and the Buyer entered into Amendment No. 1 to Asset Purchase Agreement to, among other things, (i) eliminate the deferred portion of the consideration and modify the terms of the working capital adjustment, (ii) limit the events which could be deemed to be a material adverse change in the operations, assets or financial condition of the Business, and (iii) provide for the execution of certain documentation by the Sellers in connection with the Buyer's financing of the purchase price.

The sale is expected to close in January 2005 subject to receipt of required approvals and other customary conditions to closing.
