Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On June 1, 2005, Metro One Telecommunications, Inc. announced that it, for itself and its subsidiary Infone LLC (collectively, the Company), entered into a Product Enhancement and Promotional Agreement (the Agreement) with MBNA America Bank, N.A. (MBNA). Under the Agreement, the Company and MBNA will offer to MBNA credit cardholders the opportunity to activate the Company's Infone® personal assistant and telephone services. Such services will be marketed through various channels pursuant to an agreed upon marketing plan extending through 2007, with both the Company and MBNA undertaking certain obligations with respect to the promotion and marketing of Infone services. The Company will share a portion of the call revenues generated from the MBNA creditcard holders, and MBNA will provide its cardholders with a rebate on their calls to Infone. The term of the Agreement is for three years, although either party may terminate it upon thirty days written notice, with the right of MBNA to require that the services be continued for up to 180 days. Reference is made to the press release filed as Exhibit 99.1.
