ARCADIS OPTIMIZES ITS FINANCE STRUCTURE

ARNHEM, THE NETHERLANDS April 10, 2006 ARCADIS (NASDAQ: ARCAF, Euronext: ARCAD), an international consulting and engineering company, announced today that it has reached agreement with a number of banks on new financing facilities. This involves a refinancing and centralization of nearly all group debt and bonding facilities. To date, the ARCADIS Group is financed locally and cash management is decentralized. This situation was suboptimal. By arranging financing centrally, the Company can create the ability to reduce financing charges, while creating greater financial flexibility when pursuing acquisitions.

The new centralized finance structure consists of three components, all of which have been closed at market rates.

A term loan of USD 90 million

This loan has been used to retire the bridge loan that was taken in relation to the acquisition of Blasland, Bouck & Lee (BBL) at the end of September 2005. Half of this loan matures after five years, the other half after seven years. ABN AMRO Bank NV, ING Wholesale Banking and Rabobank participate in the term loan for equal parts.

Uncommitted multicurrency facilities of 100 million

These facilities have been provided by four banks: ABN AMRO Bank NV, BNP Paribas, ING Wholesale Banking and Rabobank. It will be used for financing of working capital.

An uncommitted bonding facility of 50 million

This uncommitted bonding facility has been awarded to ABN AMRO Bank NV.
