ITEM 9.01

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND EXHIBITS.

(b) Pro forma financial information.

(i) Rockwood Holdings, Inc.

ROCKWOOD HOLDINGS, INC. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA
CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed balance sheet and statements of operations are presented to illustrate the estimated effects of the sale by Rockwood Holdings, Inc. (the Company) of its Groupe Novasep subsidiary to a consortium of buyers comprising Gilde Buyout Partners BV, Banexi Capital and Groupe Novasep management.

The unaudited pro forma condensed financial information presented for the balance sheet as of September 30, 2006 and for the statements of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 and the year ended December 31, 2005, is based upon the historical results of operations, adjusted to reflect the pro forma effect as if the sale of Groupe Novasep had occurred on January 1, 2005 with respect to the statements of operations and on September 30, 2006 with respect to the balance sheet. The historical consolidated financial information presented herein should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto appearing in Rockwood Holdings, Inc. 's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, and the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in Rockwood Holdings, Inc. 's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the nine months ended September 30, 2006.

The unaudited pro forma condensed financial information is for illustrative purposes only. Such information does not purport to be indicative of the financial condition and the results of operations that would have been achieved had the sale of Groupe Novasep for which Rockwood Holdings, Inc. is giving pro forma effect actually occurred on the dates referred to above or the financial condition and the results of operations that may be expected in the future. Such information has been prepared based upon currently available information and assumptions that Rockwood Holdings, Inc. believes are reasonable. Such currently available information and assumptions may prove to be inaccurate over time.

For the purposes of the pro forma financial information, we have elected to assume that we will use a portion of the proceeds to repay our 10 5/8% senior subordinated notes, due in 2011 (2011 Notes), of which there currently exists $273.4 million outstanding. However, management is not obligated or committed to use the proceeds to repay the 2011 Notes and may instead use all or a portion of the proceeds to repay term debt or for general corporate purposes. Under the terms of the Company 's senior secured credit facility, the Company is generally not permitted to repay any subordinated debt unless it repays an equal amount of term loans. Accordingly, if the Company elects to use the proceeds to repay only the 2011 Notes, the Company would be required to seek an amendment of its senior secured credit facility to permit the redemption in May 2007 of its outstanding 2011 Notes without a concurrent term loan repayment. This should not be construed as a notice of redemption or tender offer of the 2011 Notes.

Under the terms of the indenture governing the 2011 Notes, the Company is permitted to redeem the 2011 Notes prior to May 2007 only with the proceeds of an equity offering. Commencing May 2007, the Company is permitted to redeem the 2011 Notes subject to payment of a redemption premium. Redemption premiums and expenses associated with such redemption are estimated to be approximately $22.4 million.

The Company has elected to assume that the remaining cash proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes. In accordance with SEC guidance, we have assumed no interest income on the remaining cash proceeds.

ROCKWOOD SPECIALTIES GROUP, INC. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA
CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed balance sheet and statements of operations are presented to illustrate the estimated effects of the sale by Rockwood Specialties Group, Inc. of its Groupe Novasep subsidiary to a consortium of buyers comprising Gilde Buyout Partners BV, Banexi Capital and Groupe Novasep management for approximately 425 million.

The unaudited pro forma condensed financial information presented for the balance sheet as of September 30, 2006 and for the statements of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 and the year ended December 31, 2005, is based upon the historical results of operations, adjusted to reflect the pro forma effect as if the sale of Groupe Novasep had occurred on January 1, 2005 with respect to the statements of operations and on September 30, 2006 with respect to the balance sheet. The historical consolidated financial information presented herein should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto appearing in Rockwood Specialties Group, Inc.'s annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, and the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in Rockwood Specialties Group, Inc.'s quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the nine months ended September 30, 2006.

The unaudited pro forma condensed financial information is for illustrative purposes only. Such information does not purport to be indicative of the financial condition and the results of operations that would have been achieved had the sale of Groupe Novasep for which Rockwood Specialties Group, Inc. is giving pro forma effect actually occurred on the dates referred to above or the financial condition and the results of operations that may be expected in the future. Such information has been prepared based upon currently available information and assumptions that Rockwood Specialties Group, Inc. believes are reasonable. Such currently available information and assumptions may prove to be inaccurate over time.

For the purposes of the pro forma financial information, we have elected to assume that we will use a portion of the proceeds to repay our 10 5/8% senior subordinated notes, due in 2011 (2011 Notes), of which there currently exists $273.4 million outstanding. However, management is not obligated or committed to use the proceeds to repay the 2011 Notes and may instead use all or a portion of the proceeds to repay term debt or for general corporate purposes. Under the terms of the Company's senior secured credit facility, the Company is generally not permitted to repay any subordinated debt unless it repays an equal amount of term loans. Accordingly, if the Company elects to use the proceeds to repay only the 2011 Notes, the Company would be required to seek an amendment of its senior secured credit facility to permit the redemption in May 2007 of its outstanding 2011 Notes without a concurrent term loan repayment. This should not be construed as a notice of redemption or tender offer of the 2011 Notes.

Under the terms of the indenture governing the 2011 Notes, the Company is permitted to redeem the 2011 Notes prior to May 2007 only with the proceeds of an equity offering. Commencing May 2007, the Company is permitted to redeem the 2011 Notes subject to payment of a redemption premium. Redemption premiums and expenses associated with such redemption are estimated to be approximately $22.4 million.

The Company has elected to assume that the remaining cash proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes. In accordance with SEC guidance, we have assumed no interest income on the remaining cash proceeds.

(2) This represents the remaining balance of indebtedness we assumed as part of the acquisition of Groupe Novasep in December 2004, which will be assumed by the purchaser.

Edgar Filing: Rockwood Holdings, Inc. - Form 8-K

(B) In March 2006, the Company sold all of the capital stock of Rohner AG, a subsidiary in the Groupe Novasep segment, and recorded a pre-tax loss of $12.1 million. For pro forma reporting purposes, we have included the results of operations of Rohner AG as part of the Groupe Novasep pro forma adjustments for all periods presented and accordingly reversed the pre-tax loss.

(C) The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2006 included a tax benefit of $21.8 million related to the favorable treatment on the sale of Rohner AG in March 2006. We expect the tax impact of the transaction to be limited to the foreign tax arising out of use of the proceeds at an effective tax rate of 38.18%.
