CUSIP No. 87927W10

S.p.A. ( Intesa Sanpaolo ), Mediobanca S.p.A. ( Mediobanca and, together with Generali, Sintonia S.A. and Intesa Sanpaolo, the Italian Investors ) and Telefónica S.A., the Spanish based telecommunications operator ( Telefónica and, together with the Italian Investors, the Investors ), entered into a co-investment agreement (as subsequently amended by an amendment agreement on October 25, 2007 (the Amendment ), the Co-Investment Agreement ) to establish the terms and conditions for their participation in Centotrenta 4/6 S.r.l., an Italian company with registered office at Galleria del Corso 2, Milan, Italy, fiscal code n. 05277610969 subsequently transformed into an Italian joint stock company and renamed as Telco S.p.A. ( Telco ), an Italian corporation through which they have purchased the entire share capital of Olimpia S.p.A. ( Olimpia ), which currently holds approximately 18% of the ordinary share capital of Telecom Italia S.p.A. ( Telecom Italia ), from Pirelli & C. S.p.A. ( Pirelli ) and Sintonia S.p.A. and Sintonia S.A. (together, Sintonia ) prior to the purchase (the Transaction ). The Co-Investment Agreement also covers the capitalization and funding of Telco in connection with the acquisition of Olimpia and the general framework of the investment obligations of each of the Investors. Among other things, pursuant to the Amendment, the AG group companies became Investors for purposes of the Co-Investment Agreement and the Shareholders Agreement (as hereinafter defined). In addition to Telco's participation in Telecom Italia's ordinary share capital through its interest in Olimpia, pursuant to the Co-Investment Agreement, on October 25, 2007 Generali and Mediobanca contributed to Telco ordinary shares of Telecom Italia they held on that date. These shares amount to 5.6% of Telecom Italia's ordinary share capital, with the individual contributions of Generali and Mediobanca amounting to 4.06% and 1.54%, respectively, of Telecom Italia's ordinary share capital, bringing Telco's direct and indirect participation in Telecom Italia's ordinary share capital to approximately 23.6%. A copy of the Co-Investment Agreement is filed as Exhibit 1 and a copy of the Amendment is filed as Exhibit 2.

On April 28, 2007, the Investors also entered into a shareholders agreement (as subsequently amended by the Amendment, the Shareholders Agreement ), pursuant to which the Investors set out, among other things, the principles of corporate governance of Telco and Olimpia, respectively, the transfer of Telco's shares and any Olimpia Shares or Telecom Shares (each as defined below) directly or indirectly owned by Telco and the principles of designation, among the Investors, of candidates to be included in a common list for the appointment of directors of Telecom Italia under the voting list mechanism provided for by Telecom Italia's by-laws. A copy of the Shareholders Agreement is filed as Exhibit 3 and an unofficial English translation of the By-laws of Olimpia S.p.A. is filed as Exhibit 4.

On May 4, 2007, the Investors entered into a sale and purchase agreement with Pirelli and Sintonia (the Share Purchase Agreement ) to purchase the entire share capital of Olimpia of euro 4.6 billion divided into 4,630,233,510 ordinary shares (the Olimpia Shares ). Olimpia in turn owns 2,407,345,359 ordinary voting shares of Telecom Italia ( Telecom Shares ), or approximately 18% of the ordinary share capital of Telecom Italia. A copy of the Share Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 5.

The closing of the Olimpia Shares pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement occurred on October 25, 2007, following the receipt of the announcement of forthcoming applicable governmental approvals from, among others, the Board of Commissioners of the Brazilian National Telecommunications Agency ("Anatel"), in accordance with the information published on Anatel's website on October 23, 2007 (the Announcement ), an unofficial English translation of which is attached here as Exhibit 6. Pursuant to the Amendment, the Investors acknowledged the content thereof through appropriate legal instruments and actions, within the time set forth therein. Therefore appropriate amendments to the agreements discussed below will be further agreed among the parties.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The closing of the purchase of the Olimpia Shares pursuant to the Share Purchase Agreement occurred on October 25, 2007, following the receipt of the Announcement on October 23, 2007. At the closing of the Share Purchase Agreement, Telco paid total consideration of euro 2.82 per Telecom Share held by Olimpia multiplied by 2,407,345,359 Telecom Shares, less Olimpia s total net debt (as defined under the Share Purchase Agreement) as of the closing date. The purchase price for 100% of Olimpia s share capital was euro 4,161 million. Telco paid 80% of the consideration to Pirelli and 20% of the consideration to Sintonia. Pursuant to the Co-Investment Agreement, Telco has been capitalized with euro 5,145 million, in the following manner:

Classes of Shares

The share capital of Telco is divided into Class A and the Class B shares. Telefónica holds and will acquire (through share capital increases or exercise of the pre-emption right set forth in the Telco's by-laws and as described below) only Class B shares or Class A shares to be converted into Class B shares, while the Italian Investors hold Class A shares, save for the possibility to acquire Class B shares in case of exercise of the pre-emption right to be converted into Class A shares, which is described more fully below. Class B shares have exactly the same economic and administrative rights as the Class A shares, save as provided for in the Shareholders Agreement and in the Telco by-laws.

In the event of an increase of capital of Telco, the shareholders who hold Class A shares shall have the right to receive and subscribe Class A shares and the shareholders of Telco who hold Class B shares shall have the right to receive and subscribe for Class B shares.

In the event that any holders of Class A shares have not fully exercised their pre-emption right, the other holders of Class A shares shall have the preferred right to exercise the pre-emption of the Class A shares that have not been opted for by the other shareholders. Similarly, in the event that any holders of Class B shares have not fully exercised their pre-emption right, the other holders of Class B shares shall have the preferred right to exercise the pre-emption of Class B shares that have not been opted for by the other shareholders. In the event that after the offer of such Class A shares has been made to the holders of Class A shares (whether or not such pre-emption rights have been exercised), there remain Class A shares not purchased by the other Class A shareholders, such shares will be offered to the holders of Class B shares in proportion to their shareholding of the total number of Class B shares issued by Telco, subject to the automatic conversion of the aforesaid Class A shares at the rate of one newly issued Class B share (having the same characteristics as the Class B shares in circulation) for each Class A share purchased. In the event that after the offer of such Class B shares has been made to the holders Class B shares (whether or not such pre-emption rights have been exercised), there remain Class B shares not purchased by the other Class B shareholders, such shares will be offered to holders of Class A shares in proportion to their shareholding of the total number of Class A shares issued by Telco, subject to the automatic conversion of the aforesaid Class B shares at the rate of one newly issued Class A share (having the same characteristics as the Class A shares in circulation) for each Class B share purchased.

The Investors agreed not to execute or take part, directly or indirectly, in any agreement whatsoever concerning Telecom Shares that may cause the holding by the Investors, Telco and their respective affiliates, taken as a whole, of a number of Telecom Italia voting shares exceeding 30% of the total voting share capital of Telecom Italia.

Term of the Shareholders Agreement

The Shareholders Agreement will last three years, at the end of which, without prejudice to renewal, each shareholder, provided that each has submitted such request no later than 6 months prior to the expiry date, may obtain the de-merger of its stake in Telco and the pro quota assignment of Telco assets and liabilities.
