These financial statements are the responsibility of the Plan s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.
We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.
In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of The Manitowoc Company, Inc. Retirement Savings Plan as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.
Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2010, is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The supplemental schedule is the responsibility of the Plan s management. The supplemental schedule has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

New Accounting Pronouncement

During 2010, the Plan adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2010-25, Reporting Loans to Participants by Defined Contribution Pension Plans. ASU 2010-25 requires defined contribution plans to classify loans to participants as notes receivable from participants. The classification of participant loans as notes receivable acknowledges that participant loans are unique from other investments, and measuring participant loans at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest is more meaningful to users of financial statements rather than measuring participant loans at fair value. A reclassification of the 2009 participant loans from investments to notes receivable from participants was made due to the adoption of ASU 2010-25.

Note 4 Fair Value Measurements

Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, provides the framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described as follows:

Level 1 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2	Inputs to the valuation methodology include:
•	Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets.
•	Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets.
•	Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability.
•	Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.
If the asse liability.	t or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or Level 3	Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.
	s or liability s fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to lue measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in methodologies at December 31, 2010 and 2009.

Common/collective trust funds: Valued at the net asset value (NAV) of units held by the Plan at year-end, provided by the administrator of the fund. The NAV is based on the value of the underlying assets of the fund, minus its liabilities, and then divided by the number of units outstanding. The NAV s unit price is quoted on a private market that is not active; however, the unit price is based on the underlying investments which are traded on an active market. The Capital Preservation Fund is a common/collective trust which holds a guaranteed investment contract. The guaranteed investment contract is valued at fair value by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable durations considering the creditworthiness of the issuer.

he preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future air values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.
