On February 29, 2012, Evolution Petroleum Corporation, a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), entered into a Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with Texas Capital Bank, N.A. (the "Bank"). The Credit Agreement currently provides the Company with $5,000,000 of borrowing capacity under a revolving credit facility (the "facility"), expandable up to $50,000,000 as may be requested by the Company, subject to additional credit approval of the Bank. A portion of the facility not in excess of $1,000,000 is available for the issuance of letters of credit.

The facility is unsecured and has a term of four (4) years. Proceeds of any loans may be used for the acquisition and development of Oil and Gas Properties (as defined in the facility), the issuance of letters of credit, and for working capital and general corporate purposes.

No borrowings are currently outstanding or requested under the facility.

The facility contains certain customary covenants, including restrictions on the Company or its subsidiaries from pledging their assets, incurring Indebtedness outside of the facility other than permitted indebtedness (as defined), and restrictions on certain asset sales. The facility also contains financial covenants including a requirement that the Company maintains a current ratio of not less than 1.5 to 1, certain minimum ratios of total funded Indebtedness to EBITDA, and an interest coverage ratio to EBITDA of not less than 3 to 1. As defined, EBITDA is reduced by preferred dividend payments. The Company's subsidiaries guaranteed the Company's obligations under the facility.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated into this Item 1.01 by reference.
