On June 9, 2014, GTX, Inc. (the Company) and James T. Dalton, Ph.D., the Company's Vice President, Chief Scientific Officer, entered into a consulting agreement (the Consulting Agreement) pursuant to which Dr. Dalton will provide certain consulting services to the Company following his resignation from the Company on August 31, 2014. The Consulting Agreement, which will become effective on September 1, 2014, provides for a monthly consulting fee of $4,000 payable to Dr. Dalton and provides that all stock options granted to Dr. Dalton by the Company prior to September 1, 2014 will continue to vest during the term of the Consulting Agreement. Following the termination of the Consulting Agreement, Dr. Dalton will have the ability to exercise all vested stock options during the one-year period following the Consulting Agreement termination date (subject in each case to the earlier expiration of the original term of the applicable stock option), provided that this post-termination exercise period may be reduced to 90 days following the termination of the Consulting Agreement should Dr. Dalton breach certain provisions of the Consulting Agreement, including certain confidentiality and non-competition provisions. The term of the Consulting Agreement will commence on September 1, 2014 and will continue for a period of one year (unless terminated earlier for cause) and will thereafter continue until terminated by either party for any reason. The foregoing is only a brief description of the material terms of the Consulting Agreement, does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Consulting Agreement that will be filed as an exhibit to the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ending June 30, 2014.
