Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On February 9, 2016, Adaptimmune Therapeutics plc (the Company) appointed Dr. Gwendolyn Binder-Scholl, as Chief Technology Officer of the Company. Prior to assuming this position, Dr. Binder Scholl was Executive Vice-President of Adaptimmune LLC and Head of Translational Sciences. She has also previously served in senior clinical, regulatory and operational roles in the Company since 2011.

As Chief Technology Officer, Dr. Binder-Scholl leads the Company's manufacturing development and translational science operations and oversees the UK Research team. Her strategic focus is on optimizing the therapeutic potential of the Company's products through directed translational research across correlative clinical and manufacturing development. As well as her leadership of manufacturing operations, she oversees process development and the co-ordination of research operations more broadly, integrating pipeline and second generation T-cell research with clinical outcomes.

Dr. Binder-Scholl has 14 years of industry and academic experience in cellular and gene therapy translational research and development, with prior roles including Director of Translational Research Operations at the University of Pennsylvania from 2006 to 2011 and Director of Scientific Affairs at Virxsys Corporation. She is a biochemistry and molecular biology graduate of Wells College with a Ph.D. in cellular and molecular medicine from Johns Hopkins University.
