ITEM 5.03 AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OR BYLAWS.

On June 15, 2007, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Monsanto Company (the Company) approved amendments to the Company's Bylaws, which changes are effective as of June 15, 2007. The amendments revise Sections 8(a), 11 and 23 of the Company's Bylaws. The principal features of the amendments are as follows:

Voting Requirements for Election of Directors

Previously, the Bylaws provided for election of directors by plurality vote. The amended Bylaws provide that, other than in a contested election (i.e., an election in which the number of candidates exceeds the number of directors to be elected), each director shall be elected by the vote of the majority of the votes cast at any meeting for the election of directors at which a quorum is present.

A majority of the votes cast means that the number of votes cast for a director's election exceeds the number of votes cast against that director's election. Votes cast exclude abstentions and any broker non-votes.

In a contested election, directors will continue to be elected by plurality vote.

Director Resignations

Previously, the Bylaws provided that a director's resignation would be effective upon receipt, or at a later specified time. The amended Bylaws provide that a director's resignation may be made effective at a specified time, or upon the happening of an event or events specified therein, or if the time is not specified and the resignation is not made contingent upon the happening of an event or events, upon receipt.

Before an election, each incumbent director who is nominated for another term must submit an irrevocable resignation, conditioned upon the director's failure to receive a majority vote in an uncontested election, and on the Board's acceptance of such resignation.

If an incumbent director fails to receive a majority of the votes cast in an uncontested election, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the Committee) of the Board will make a recommendation to the Board as to whether to accept or reject the resignation, or to take any other action.

The Board will accept, reject, or otherwise act on the resignation, taking into account the Committee's recommendation, and publicly disclose its decision within 90 days from the date of certification of the election results.

The Committee in making its recommendation, and the Board in making its decision, may each consider any factors or other information that it considers to be appropriate and relevant. The director whose resignation is being considered shall not participate in the recommendation of the Committee or the decision of the Board.

If an incumbent director's resignation is not accepted by the Board, such director shall continue to serve as a member of the class to which such director was nominated for election, until the next succeeding annual meeting and until his or her successor is duly elected, or his or her earlier resignation or removal.

If a director's resignation is accepted by the Board, or if a non-incumbent nominee for director is not elected, then the Board may fill any resulting vacancy or may decrease the size of the Board, in each case pursuant to the provisions of the Bylaws.

Requirements for Director Nominees

Each prospective nominee (including any person being considered to fill a vacancy on the Board), or someone acting on his or her behalf, must deliver (in accordance with applicable time periods) a written questionnaire with respect to the background and qualification of such person and the background of any other person or entity on whose behalf the nomination is being made.

Each prospective nominee (including any person being considered to fill a vacancy on the Board) must:

- (i) agree to abide by the majority voting Bylaw (including the requirement to submit an irrevocable, contingent resignation);
- (ii) confirm that he or she has not agreed, and will not agree, to: (a) any Voting Commitment that has not been disclosed to the Company, or that could limit or interfere with his or her fiduciary duties as a director; or (b) receive any compensation for serving as a director, that has not been disclosed to the Company; and
- (iii) represent and agree that he or she would be in compliance, if elected as a director of the Company, and will comply, with all applicable corporate governance, conflict of interest, confidentiality and stock ownership and trading policies and guidelines of the Company.

The amended Bylaws, and a copy marked to show changes from the prior Bylaws, are included as Exhibits 3.2(i) and 3.2(ii), respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and are incorporated herein by reference.
