Item 8.01 Other Events.

This Current Report on Form 8-K discloses certain additional information relating to the proposed acquisition of FCB Financial Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) by Synovus Financial Corp. (“Synovus”). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of July 23, 2018, by and among the Company, Synovus and Azalea Merger Sub Corp., a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Synovus (“Merger Sub”), Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the “Merger”), with the Company continuing as the surviving entity, immediately after which the Company will merge with and into Synovus, with Synovus continuing as the surviving entity.

As previously disclosed, in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, two putative class action lawsuits were filed on behalf of Company stockholders in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida and the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, respectively. The lawsuits are captioned Stephen Bushansky v. FCB Financial Holdings, Inc. et al., Case 1:18-cv-62399-BB (filed October 9, 2018) and Paul Parshall v. FCB Financial Holdings, Inc. et al., Case 1:18-cv-01570-LPS (filed October 11, 2018). In general, the complaints assert claims against the Company and the Company’s board of directors, alleging, among other things, that the defendants failed to make adequate disclosures in the joint proxy statement/prospectus relating to the Merger (in its definitive form, the “Proxy Statement”) forming a part of the Form S-4 Registration Statement filed by Synovus in connection with the Merger. The Company believes that the allegations in the complaints are without merit.

While the Company believes that the disclosures set forth in the Proxy Statement comply fully with applicable law, to moot plaintiffs’ disclosure claims, to avoid nuisance, potential expense and delay and to provide additional information to the Company’s stockholders, the Company has determined to voluntarily supplement the Proxy Statement with the below disclosures. Nothing in the below supplemental disclosure shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable law of any of the disclosure set forth herein or in the Proxy Statement. To the contrary, the Company denies all allegations in the litigations that any additional disclosure was or is required.

SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURES

The following information supplements the Proxy Statement, and should be read in conjunction with the Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety, including the annexes thereto. All page references in the information below are to pages in the Proxy Statement, and terms used below have the meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement.

The following disclosure replaces the fifth paragraph of the section captioned “Background” starting on page 50 of the Proxy Statement.

“Between March 29, 2018 and April 16, 2018, FCB entered into confidentiality agreements with each of these eight larger regional banks, including with Synovus on April 9, 2018. Six of the seven confidentiality agreements entered into with the parties other than Synovus contained “standstill” provisions with a term of 12 months. Each standstill provision that remains in effect prohibits the counterparty from asking for a waiver of the standstill restrictions. FCB granted to each of such parties access to an electronic data room containing certain business, financial, legal and other information of FCB.”

The following disclosure is added after the third sentence of the first paragraph of the subsection captioned “FCB Net Present Value Analysis” starting on page 76 of the Proxy Statement.

“The range of discount rates of 9.0% to 14.0% used in the analysis was selected taking into account a capital asset pricing model implied cost of equity calculation.”

The following disclosure is added after the third sentence of the first paragraph of the subsection captioned “Synovus Net Present Value Analysis” starting on page 77 of the Proxy Statement.

The following disclosure replaces the last two sentences of the first paragraph of the subsection captioned “Pro Forma Merger Analysis” starting on page 78 of the Proxy Statement.

“The analysis indicated that, in a scenario where holders of FCB options and warrants receive shares of Synovus common stock in the merger, the merger could be accretive to Synovus’ estimated earnings per share (excluding one-time transaction costs and expenses) in the years ending December 31, 2019, December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021 by approximately 2.3%, 6.3% and 8.1%, respectively, dilutive to Synovus’ estimated tangible book value per share at close by approximately 4.7% and at December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2020 by approximately 2.6% and 0.6%, respectively, and accretive to Synovus’ estimated tangible book value per share at December 31, 2021 by approximately 1.9%. The analysis indicated that, in a scenario where holders of FCB options and warrants are rolled into Synovus options and warrants in the merger, the merger could be accretive to Synovus’ estimated earnings per share (excluding one-time transaction costs and expenses) in the years ending December 31, 2019, December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021 by approximately 2.3%, 6.4% and 8.2%, respectively, dilutive to Synovus’ estimated tangible book value per share at close by approximately 3.4% and at December 31, 2019 by approximately 1.1%, and accretive to Synovus’ estimated tangible book value per share at December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021 by approximately 0.9% and 3.6%, respectively.”
