Basic Energy, Inc. (A Development Stage Company) Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE #1 - Organization

The Company was organized on June 4, 1926 under the laws of the state of Utah using the name of M.M. Lead Company. On February 22, 1980 a Certificate of Amendment was filed with the state of Utah changing the name to Basic Energy, Inc. The Company has been dormant for many years and is considered to be a development stage company.

NOTE #2 - Significant Accounting Policies

- A. The Company uses the accrual method of accounting.
- B. Revenues and directly related expenses are recognized in the period when the goods are shipped to the customer.
- C. The Company considers all short term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible, within three months, to known amounts as cash equivalents. The Company currently has no cash equivalents.
- D. Primary Earnings Per Share amounts are based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding at the dates of the financial statements. Fully Diluted Earnings Per Shares shall be shown on stock options and other convertible issues that may be exercised within ten years of the financial statement dates.
- E. Estimates: The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE #3 - Stockholders' Equity

During the nine months ended March 31, 2002, the Company issued 613,413 shares of common stock at $.10 per share for services and out of pocket expense to its officers and directors.

NOTE #4 - Going Concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company has had recurring operating losses for the past several years and is dependent upon financing to continue operations. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. It is management's plan to find an operating company to merge with, thus creating necessary operating revenue.

Edgar Filing: BASIC ENERGY INC - Form 10QSB

ITEM 2. PLAN OF OPERATIONS

Safe Harbor Statement

This Form 10-QSB contains certain forward-looking statements. For this purpose any statements contained in this Form 10-QSB that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. Without limiting the foregoing, words such as "may," "will," "expect," "believe," "anticipate," "estimate" or "continue" or comparable terminology are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements by their nature involve substantial risks and uncertainties, and actual results may differ materially depending on a variety of factors.

Plan of Operations

The Company has little cash and has experienced losses. As of March 31, 2002, the Company had $ 894 cash on hand. As of that date the Company had $49,224 in outstanding liabilities. The Company has no material commitments for capital expenditures for the next twelve months.

As of the date of this report, the Company has yet to generate positive cash flow. The Company has financed its operations primarily through the sale of common stock.

The Company believes that its current cash needs can be met either through the sale of additional stock or through loans. Should the Company obtain a business opportunity, however, it may be necessary to raise additional capital. This may be accomplished by selling common stock of the Company.

Management of the Company intends to actively seek business opportunities for the Company during the next twelve months.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

None.

Item 2. Changes in Securities

No instruments defining the rights of the holders of any class of registered securities have been materially modified, limited or qualified.

On January 23, 2002, the Company issued 198,178 shares of its restricted common stock to its officers and directors for services rendered to the Company during the quarter ended December 31, 2001. The number of shares received by each such individual was based on a compensation rate of $40.00 per hour for services rendered and $0.31 per mile as compensation for mileage. The shares issued were valued at $.10 per share. Shares issued were issued as follows:

	Number of Shares	Value of Services
