PART I

ITEM 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Business Development

Touchstone Mining Limited (“Touchstone” or the “Company”) was incorporated in the State of Nevada on September 12, 2005. The Company has never declared bankruptcy, it has never been in receivership, and it has never been involved in any legal action or proceedings.

Business of Issuer

Exploration Stage Company

We are an exploration stage corporation that engages primarily in the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral deposits and reserves. We have the right to conduct exploration work on ten mineral mining claims on the Boulder Group property in Humboldt County, Nevada. Prior to this, our activities have been limited to formation and the raising of capital.

We have not realized any revenue from our business operations, have achieved losses since inception, and have relied upon the sale of our securities and loans from our officers and directors to fund operations.

Our auditors have issued a going concern opinion. This means that our auditors believe there is substantial doubt that we can continue as an on-going business for the next 12 months.

Our management is presently searching for ventures of merit for corporate participation to enhance shareholder value. These ventures may involve sales of our debt or equity securities in merger or acquisition transactions.

Our principal offices are located at 808 Nelson Street, Suite 2103, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6Z 2H2, and our telephone number is (604) 684-7619. Douglas Scheving, our sole officer and director, supplies this office space on a rent free basis.

Boulder Group Property

On November 23, 2005, we entered into the Mineral Claim Purchase Agreement with Mineral Exploration Services, Ltd. (“MES”) pursuant to which we acquired an option to acquire certain unpatented mineral mining claims. The property comprises of 10 lode mining claims on 200 acres located in Humboldt County, Nevada. Under the terms of the agreement, we agreed to pay MES an aggregate sum of $50,000 as follows: (i) $3,500 upon signing, (ii) $3,500 one year from signing, which was paid September 25, 2006, (iii) $8,000 two years from signing, (iv) $10,000 three years after signing, (v) $10,000 four years after signing, and (v) a final payment of $15,000 five years after signing.

In addition to the payments to MES, we agreed to make exploration expenditures in the amount of $50,000 on the property over a 5-year period and to pay to MES a 3% royalty on all mineral commodities sold from the claims. This royalty can be reduced to 1.5% at any time through the payment of $1,000,000 to MES.

The fee simple title to the property is owned by the United States of America, and the property is subject to the rules and regulations of the Bureau of Land Management (“BLM”). MES staked the land and obtained a lease from the BLM. Pursuant to the agreement, MES leased these claims and the rights that go with them to us. The lease grants us the right to enter on the property with our employees, representatives and agents, and to prospect, explore, test, develop, work and mine the property. We became responsible for payment of any taxes and maintenance fees due to the BLM for 2006 and every year thereafter.

We retained William Utterback, a consulting geologist, of Gold Property Services in Winnemucca, Nevada to do a work program based upon the recommendations in his report, “Gold Exploration Proposal for the Boulder Claim Group, Humboldt County, Nevada,” dated October 26, 2005. Mr. Utterback recommended a program of geological mapping and trenching. The exposed material in the trenches was to be metal detected with a Minelab GP Extreme Metal detector. The estimated cost of the program, consisting of supervision, trenching, grid mapping, metal detecting, sample analysis, assays, labor and supplies, was $18,619, which amount was paid to Mr. Utterback on October 12, 2006.

The trenching program started on October 17, 2006 and was terminated October 27, 2006 after which reclamation of the trenches was initiated.

No commercial quantities of gold were found during the exploration program. Fifteen samples were taken and submitted to ALS Chemex of Sparks, Nevada for assay. The samples contained only trace amounts of gold and would not be economical for even the largest low cost heap leach operation.

We have ceased exploration work on the property. All of the trenches have been filled in and the surface disturbance has been restored to its original contours.

On August 16, 2007, we notified MES of our intention to return the property via a quit claim due to the poor results from the exploration program. MES informed us that it no longer wanted to retain the claims on the property and subsequently allowed its claims on the property to lapse. Our agreement with MES was terminated as of September 16, 2007.

In October 2007, we re-staked the claims in the Boulder Group Property and paid the necessary fees to the BLM. The lease to the property is currently in our name. We do not claim to have any minerals or reserves whatsoever at this time on any of the property. Our management has no current plan for the property at this time, and all our exploration operations have been discontinued.

Claims

The Boulder Group property consists of 10 lode claims. The claims have been legally located and filed with the Humboldt County Recorder in Winnemucca, Nevada. For 2007, annual fees to the BLM are $125 per claim for a total of $1,250 and annual county taxes (including the notary charge) total $89.

The following is a list of claim numbers, location and date of recording of our claims:

Location and Access

The property is located near the extreme northern edge of the Eugene Mountains, approximately 29 miles west of Winnemucca via Jungo Road, near the southern boundary of Humboldt County. Section 14, in which the claims are located, lies partly in the Gaskell (east-central border) and the Pronto (west-central border) USGS Topographic 7.5 Minute Series map sheets. The claim block straddles an east-west ridge, with access roads on both sides of the ridge. The main ridge summit is steep and rugged with no easy access except on foot.

History

No record has been found of previous exploration activity. On the ground, two short adits and a few widely scattered prospect pits probably date between 1910 and 1940. There is no evidence that any material was stockpiled or removed from the property. Although two short adits and several prospect pits are located on the property, no written record of past production has yet been located. A reconnaissance survey of the adits and waste rock dumps revealed no indication that ore was encountered or removed from the property. The existing access road does not reach either of the adits.

Geology

Host rocks in the central part of the claim block are exposed on the slopes of the east-west ridge (known locally as Big Easy Ridge). The ridge is flanked on the north and south with alluvial fans that only partly cover an eroded bedrock surface. It was within the alluvial fans that the spectacular gold specimens were found. The bedrock units of ALS Formation strike north 60 to 70 degrees east and dip northwest at 25 to 35 degrees. The two adits were driven into a small intrusion of diorite which is crosscut by several of the gold bearing quartz veins. These quartz veins vary in thickness from a few millimeters up to about one meter. They generally strike northwest (Azimuth 310 to 330 degrees) and dip northeast 25 to 35 degrees, but several other orientations were noted. Spectacular gold specimens were recovered from the alluvial fans inside the claim block on both sides of Big Easy Ridge. The 4.5 ounce specimen was recovered on the south side below the largest outcropping quartz vein and the two adits.

During the Pleistocene period this part of northern Nevada was covered by a large lake called Lake Lahontan. It probably never was deep enough to cover Big Easy Ridge. Terraces developed on the flanking alluvial fans indicate that its upper level was about 1,400 meters (4,593 feet) elevation. Most of the gold specimens recovered with the use of metal detectors were between 1,340 and 1,380 meters (4,395 and 4,527 feet) elevation. Their locations probably correspond to different strand lines along the fluctuating lake shore line.

Overburden on the ridge slopes is thin and discontinuous. Even the alluvial fan cover is thin, with frequent exposures of the underlying bedrock surface beveled by the wave action of Lake Lahontan. Some strategically located trenches would help complete a detailed geologic map of the claims and test portions of the gold veins that remain concealed.

Other

Other than our interest in the Boulder Group property, we own no plans or other property.

Competitive Factors

The gold mining industry is fragmented, that is there are many, many gold prospectors and producers, small and large. We do not compete with anyone. That is because there is no competition for the exploration or removal of minerals from the property. We are one of the smallest exploration companies in existence. We are an infinitely small participant in the gold mining market. Readily available gold markets exist in the United States and around the world for the sale of gold. Therefore, we will be able to sell any gold that we are able to recover.

Regulations

Our mineral exploration program is subject to the regulations of the Bureau of Land Management.

The prospecting on the property is provided under the existing 1872 Mining Law and all permits for exploration and testing must be obtained through the local BLM office of the Department of Interior. Obtaining permits for minimal disturbance as envisioned by this exploration program will require making the appropriate application and filing of the bond to cover the reclamation of the test areas. From time to time, an archeological clearance may need to be contracted to allow the testing program to proceed.

Rental Fee Requirement

The federal government’s Continuing Act of 2002 extends the requirement of rental or maintenance fees in place of assessment work for filing and holding mining claims with the BLM. All claimants must pay a yearly maintenance fee of $125 per claim for all or part of the mining claim assessment year. The fee must be paid at the State Office of the Bureau of Land Management by August 31 of each year. We have paid this fee through 2008. The assessment year ends on noon of September 1 of each year. The initial maintenance fee is paid at the time the Notice of Location is filed with the BLM and covers the remainder of the assessment year in which the claim was located. There are no exemptions from the initial fee. Some claim holders may qualify for a Small Miner Exemption waiver of the maintenance fee for assessment years after the year in which the claim was located. We do not qualify for a Small Miner Exemption. The following sets forth the BLM fee schedule:

Fee Schedule* (per claim)

Location Fee	$ 30.00
Maintenance Fee.	$ 125.00
Service Charges	$ 10.00
Transfer Fee	$ 5.00
Proof of Labor	$ 5.00
Notice of Intent to Hold	$ 5.00
Transfer of Interest	$ 5.00
Amendment	$ 5.00
Petition for Deferment of Assessment Work	$ 25.00
Notice of Intent to Locate on Stock Raising Homestead land	$ 25.00

* Fee schedule reflects increases of July 2004 and July 2005.

The BLM regulations provide for three types of operations on public lands: (i) Casual Use level, (ii) Notice level and (iii) Plan of Operation level.

1. Casual Use means activities ordinarily resulting in no or negligible disturbance of the public lands or resources. Casual Use operations involve simple prospecting with hand tools such as picks, shovels and metal detectors. Small-scale mining devices such as dry washers having engines with less than 10 brake-horsepower are allowed, provided they are fed using only hand tools. Casual Use level operations are not required to file an application to conduct activities or post a financial guarantee.
2. Notice level operations include only exploration activities in which five or less acres of disturbance are proposed. Presently, all Notice Level operations require a written notice and must be bonded for all activities other than reclamation.
3. Plans of Operation activities include all mining and processing (regardless of the size of the proposed disturbance), plus all other activities exceeding five acres of proposed public land disturbance.

Operators are encouraged to conduct a thorough inventory of the claim to determine the full extent of any existing disturbance and to meet with field office personnel at the site before developing an estimate. The inventory should include photographs taken “before” and “after” any mining activity.

If an operator constructs access or uses an existing access way for an operation and would object to BLM blocking, removing or claiming that access, then the operator must post a financial guarantee that covers the reclamation of the access.

Concurrence by the BLM for occupancy is required whenever residential occupancy is proposed or when fences, gates or signs will be used to restrict public access or when structures that could be used for shelter are placed on a claim. It is the claimant’s responsibility to prepare a complete notice or plan of operators.

Mining Claims on State Land

The Nevada law authorizing location of claims on State Lands was repealed in 1998. Acquisition of mineral rights on Nevada trust land can only be accomplished by application for a prospecting permit, mineral lease or lease of common variety materials.

We are in compliance with all laws and will continue to comply with the laws in the future. We believe that compliance with the laws will not adversely affect our business operations.

We are responsible to provide a safe working environment, not disrupt archaeological sites, and conduct our activities to prevent unnecessary damage to the property.

We will secure all necessary permits for exploration and, if development is warranted on the property, will file final plans of operation before we start any mining operations. At this point, a permit from the BLM would be required. Also, we would be required to comply with the laws of the state of Nevada and federal regulations. We anticipate no discharge of water into active stream, creek, river, lake or any other body of water regulated by environmental law or regulation. No endangered species will be disturbed. Restoration of the disturbed land will be completed according to law. All holes, pits and shafts will be sealed upon abandonment of the property. It is difficult to estimate the cost of compliance with the environmental law since the full nature and extent of our proposed activities cannot be determined until we start our operations and know what that will involve from an environmental standpoint.

We submitted a plan of operations to the BLM and estimated that the maximum cost of reclamation of the claims held by us would be $4,330. The BLM required that this amount be posted as a bond before work could begin on the property. A cash bond was paid to the BLM on August 29, 2006. This bond is refundable after the reclamation work has been inspected and approved by the BLM. The BLM will inspect the property two years after the work is completed to determine if the reclamation work was successful and if they approve of the reclamation they will refund the bond to us.

Exploration stage companies have no need to discuss environmental matters, except as they relate to exploration activities. The only "cost and effect" of compliance with environmental regulations in the State of Nevada is returning the surface to its previous condition upon abandonment of the property.

Patents, Trademarks and Licenses, Franchises, Concessions, Royalty Agreements or Labor Contracts

We presently utilize no patents, licenses, franchises, concessions, royalty agreements or labor contracts in connection with our business.

Employees and Employment Agreements

At present, we have no full-time employees. Our sole officer and director, Douglas Scheving, is a part-time employee and will devote about 10% of his time or four hours per work week to our operation. Mr. Scheving does not have an employment agreement with us. We presently do not have pension, health, annuity, insurance, stock options, profit sharing or similar benefit plans.

Risks associated with Touchstone Mining Limited

1 Our plan of operation is limited to finding an ore body. As such we have no plans for revenue generation. Accordingly, you should not expect any revenues from operations.

Our plan of operation is for exploration of the property to determine if there is an ore body beneath the surface. Exploration does not contemplate removal of the ore. We have no plans or funds for ore removal. Accordingly, we will not generate any revenues from our current plan of operation.

2. Because the probability of an individual prospect ever having reserves is extremely remote any funds spent on exploration will probably be lost.

The probability of an individual prospect ever having reserves is extremely remote. In all probability the property does not contain any reserves. As such, any funds spent on exploration will probably be lost.

3. We lack an operating history and have losses which we expect to continue into the future. As a result, we may have to suspend or cease operations.

We were incorporated on September 12, 2005 and we have not started our proposed business operations or realized any revenues. We have no operating history upon which an evaluation of our future success or failure can be made. Our net loss since inception is $93,355. To achieve and maintain profitability and positive cash flow we are dependent upon:

- * our ability to locate mineralized material
- * our ability to generate revenues
- * our ability to reduce exploration costs.

Based upon current plans, we expect to incur operating losses in future periods. This will happen because there are expenses associated with the research and exploration of our mineral properties. As a result, we may not generate revenues in the future. Failure to generate revenues will cause us to suspend or cease operations.

4. Because our management does not have technical training or experience in exploring for, starting, and operating an exploration program, we will have to hire qualified personnel. If we cannot locate qualified personnel, we may have to suspend or cease operations.

Our management has no direct training or experience in exploring for, starting, and operating an exploration program and as a result may not be fully aware of many of the specific requirements related to working within the industry. Management's decisions and choices may not take into account standard engineering or managerial approaches, mineral exploration companies commonly use. Consequently our operations, earnings and ultimate financial success could suffer irreparable harm due to management's lack of experience in this industry. As a result we may have to suspend or cease operations.

5. Because we are small and do not have much capital, we may have to limit our exploration activity.

Because we are small and do not have much capital, we may not be able to complete an exploration program that is as thorough as we would like. In that event, an existing ore body may go undiscovered. Without an ore body, we cannot generate revenues.

6. Because Mr. Scheving has other outside business activities, our operations may be sporadic which may result in periodic interruptions or suspensions of exploration.

Mr. Scheving, our sole officer and director, has other outside business activities and he will only be devoting 10% of his time or four hours per work week to our operations. Hence, our operations may occur at times which are convenient to Mr. Scheving. As a result, exploration of the property may be periodically interrupted or suspended.

7. If our officers and directors resign or die without having found replacements our operations will be suspended or cease.

We have only one officer and director. We are entirely dependent upon him to conduct our operations. If Mr. Scheving should resign or die there will be no one to run the company. Further, we do not have key man insurance. If that should occur, until we find other persons to run us, our operations will be suspended or cease entirely.

8. NASD sales practice requirements may limit a stockholder's ability to buy and sell our stock.

The NASD has adopted rules that require that in recommending an investment to a customer, a broker-dealer must have reasonable grounds for believing that the investment is suitable for that customer. Prior to recommending speculative low priced securities to their non-institutional customers, broker-dealers must make reasonable efforts to obtain information about the customer's financial status, tax status, investment objectives and other information. Under interpretations of these rules, the NASD believes that there is a high probability that speculative low priced securities will not be suitable for at least some customers. The NASD requirements make it more difficult for broker-dealers to recommend that their customers buy our common stock, which may have the effect of reducing the level of liquidity of our common stock. Further, many brokers charge higher transactional fees for penny stock transactions. As a result, fewer broker-dealers may be willing to make a market in our common stock, reducing a stockholder's ability to resell shares of our common stock.

REPORTS TO SECURITY HOLDERS

The Company is not required to provide annual reports to security holders.

We are subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and will file reports including, but not limited to, Annual Reports of Form 10-KSB, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-QSB, Current Reports on Form 8-K, and Proxy Statements on Schedule 14.

The public may read and copy any materials we file with the SEC at the SEC's Public Reference Room at 100 F Street N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549. The public may obtain information on the operation of the Public Reference Room by calling the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330. The SEC maintains an Internet site that contains reports, proxy and information statements, and other information regarding issuers that file electronically with the SEC and the address of that site is www.sec.gov.

ITEM 2. DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

Since September 12, 2005, our principal place of business and corporate offices have been located at 808 Nelson Street, Suite 2103, Vancouver, B.C., V6Z 2H2, Canada. There is no formal lease agreement and no rental fees were charged to us.

We do not have any investments or interests in any real estate. We do not invest in real estate mortgages, nor do we invest in securities of, or interests in, persons primarily engaged in real estate activities.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

We are not a party to any pending or, to our knowledge, threatened legal proceedings.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

No matter was submitted during the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007, to a vote of security holders, through the solicitation of proxies or otherwise.

PART II

ITEM 5. MARKET FOR COMMON EQUITY AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

Market Information

Our common stock is quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbol "THSM.OB". However, our common stock has not been traded since our inception. Accordingly, there is no present market for our securities. Following the successful completion of an acquisition or business combination, if any, we intend to file an application for the purpose of commencing trading of our stock.

Any quotations on the OTC Bulletin Board would reflect inter-dealer prices, without retail mark-up, mark-down or commission and may not represent actual transactions.

As of September 30, 2007, there were 46 record holders of our common stock.

Dividends

We have never declared any cash dividends with respect to our common stock. Future payment of dividends is within the discretion of our board of directors and will depend on our earnings, capital requirements, financial condition and other relevant factors. Although there are no material restrictions limiting, or that are likely to limit, our ability to pay dividends on our common stock, we presently intend to retain future earnings, if any, for use in our business and have no present intention to pay cash dividends on our common stock.

There are no restrictions in our articles of incorporation or bylaws that prevent us from declaring dividends. The Nevada Revised Statutes, however, do prohibit us from declaring dividends where, after giving effect to the distribution of the dividend:

1. We would not be able to pay our debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
2. Our total assets would be less than the sum of our total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy the rights of shareholders who have preferential rights superior to those receiving the distribution.

Securities Authorized for Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans

We have no authorized equity compensation plans and no outstanding options, warrants or similar rights.

Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities

In September 2007, we issued 3,000,000 shares of restricted common stock to Douglas Scheving, our sole officer and director, in exchange for the forgiveness of $34,502 that we owed to him. The shares were issued pursuant to the exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

ITEM 6. PLAN OF OPERATION

Results of Operations

We are an exploration stage corporation. We have generated no revenues from our business operations since inception and have incurred $93,355 in expenses through September 30, 2007.

The following table provides selected financial data about our company for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Balance Sheet Data	September 30, 2007	September 30, 2006
Cash	$ 42	$ 28,120
Total assets	$ 4,372	$ 32,450
Total liabilities	$ 1,225	$ 34,133
Stockholders' equity (deficit)	$ 3,147	$ (1,683)

Our cash in the bank at September 30, 2007 was $42. Net cash provided by financing activities since inception through September 30, 2007 was $96,502, raised from the sale of our common stock.

Our auditors have issued an opinion that there is a substantial doubt that we can continue as an on-going business for the next 12 months.

Plan of Operation

The following plan of operation should be read in conjunction with our financial statements and the notes thereto included elsewhere in this report. Statements contained herein which are not historical facts are forward-looking statements, as that term is defined by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements relating to our plans, objectives, expectations and intentions. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ from those projected. We caution investors that any forward-looking statements made by us are not guarantees of future performance and that actual results may differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, without limitation: established competitors who have substantially greater financial resources and operating histories, regulatory delays or denials, ability to compete as a start-up company in a highly competitive market, and access to sources of capital.

We were incorporated in the State of Nevada on September 12, 2005. We intended to engage in the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral deposits and reserves, but we have been unsuccessful in this area. The only operations we have engaged in are exploration work on the Boulder Group property in Humboldt County, Nevada. In August 2007, we determined to discontinue our exploration efforts at this property and to look at other ventures of interest. These ventures may involve sales of our debt or equity securities in merger, acquisition or similar transactions.

In its report on our September 30, 2007 audited financial statements, our auditors expressed an opinion that there is substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. See Note 7. Our financial statements do not include any adjustments that may result from the outcome of this uncertainty. We have been in the development stage and have had no revenues since inception. For the period from September 12, 2005 (inception) to September 30, 2007, we recorded a net loss of $93,355. Our continuation as a going concern is dependent on future events, including our ability to raise additional capital and to generate positive cash flows.

At the present time, we have minimal operating costs and expenses due to our limited business activities. Accordingly, absent changed circumstances, we will not be required to raise additional capital over the next twelve months, although we may do so in connection with or in anticipation of possible acquisition transactions. We do not currently engage in any product research and development, other than maintaining the mineral mining claims we acquired in October 2007. We have no present plans to purchase or sell any plant or significant equipment. We also have no present plans to add employees, although we may do so in the future if we engage in any merger or acquisition transactions.

If we cannot generate sufficient revenues to continue operations, we will suspend or cease operations. By virtue of our inability to generate revenues over the preceding year, we will begin to seek out other sources of cash, including new investors, joint venture and strategic partners or loans from our officers or directors. If we cease operations, we do not know what we would do subsequently and we have no plans to do anything in such event. We have no plans to dissolve statutorily at this time, under any circumstances, nor do we have plans to enter into any merger or acquisition.

Limited Operating History; Need for Additional Capital

There is no historical financial information about us upon which to base an evaluation of our performance. We are an exploration stage corporation and have not generated any revenues from business operations. We cannot guarantee we will be successful in our business operations. Our business is subject to risks inherent in the establishment of a new business enterprise, including limited capital resources, possible delays in the exploration of our properties, and possible cost overruns due to price and cost increases in services.

We have no assurance that future financing will be available to us on acceptable terms. If financing is not available on satisfactory terms, we may be unable to continue, develop or expand our operations. Equity financing could result in additional dilution to existing shareholders.

Currently, we have no financing plans.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of the date of this report, we have yet to generate any revenues from our business operations.

Since inception, our main source for cash has been the sale of our equity securities. Upon inception, we issued 600,000 shares of common stock to two directors for $12,000. In June 2006, we completed an offering of 2,500,000 shares of common stock to 44 persons in consideration of $50,000. The offering was made pursuant to the exemption from registration contained in Rule 506 of Regulation D under the Securities Act. In September 2007, we issued 3,000,000 shares of common stock to our sole officer and director in exchange for forgiveness of $34,502 owed to him. The shares were issued pursuant to the exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act. We have exhausted the proceeds from these sales of our stock.

We used most of the proceeds to finance the exploration program on the resource property located in Humboldt County, Nevada. See a description of our exploration operations in the business section this report. Due to the poor results from the program, we have discontinued all exploration work on that property. We continue to hold a lease on the ten mineral mining claims.

As of September 30, 2007, our total assets were $4,372 and our total liabilities were $1,225.

We have experienced difficulties in obtaining financing for our business; during this past quarter, we have shifted some of our focus to investigating other business opportunities. These opportunities include possible acquisitions or joint venture arrangements in this and other industries. We can provide no assurance that these efforts in exploring possible acquisitions or joint venture arrangements will come to fruition. Additionally, if any new ventures are successfully negotiated, we can provide no assurance that such new venture will have enough financial resources to fully develop the new venture.

To The Board of Directors and Stockholders of
Touchstone Mining Limited
Vancouver, British Columbia

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Touchstone Mining Limited (an exploration stage company) (the "Company") as of September 30, 2007, and the related statement of operations, stockholders' equity (deficit), and cash flows for the year ended September 30, 2007. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States of America). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 7 to the financial statements, the Company has incurred significant net losses since inception. This raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to meet its obligations and to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to this matter are described in Note 7. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Stockholders of Touchstone Mining Limited:

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of Touchstone Mining Limited (the “Company”) as at September 30, 2006 and 2005 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders’ equity, and cash flows for each of the year ended September 30, 2006 and 2005. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company’s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at September 30, 2006 and 2005, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Company is dependent upon financing to continue operations, had suffered recurring losses from operations and has total liabilities that exceed total assets. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regards to these matters are discussed in Note 1. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Touchstone Mining Limited
(An Exploration Stage Company)

Notes to Audited Financial Statements
September 30, 2007 and 2006

1. Organization

Touchstone Mining Limited (the “Company”) was incorporated on September 12, 2005 in the State of Nevada, USA. It is based in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. The accounting and reporting policies of the Company conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and the Company’s fiscal year end is September 30.

The Company is an exploration stage company that engages primarily in the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral resource properties. The Company has the right to conduct exploration work on ten mineral mining claims in Humboldt County, Nevada, USA. Prior to this, the Company’s activities have been limited to its formation and the raising of equity capital.

Exploration Stage Company

The Company is considered to be in the exploration stage as defined in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 7, “Accounting and Reporting by Development Stage Enterprises,” and interpreted by the Securities and Exchange Commission for mining companies in Industry Guide 7. The Company is devoting substantially all of its efforts to development of business plans and the acquisition of mineral properties.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the Company’s financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Company’s periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission include, where applicable, disclosures of estimates, assumptions, uncertainties and markets that could affect the financial statements and future operations of the Company.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in banks, money market funds, and certificates of term deposits with maturities of less than three months, which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which, in the opinion of management, are subject to an insignificant risk of loss in value. The Company had $42 and $28,120 in cash and cash equivalents at September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Touchstone Mining Limited
(An Exploration Stage Company)

Notes to Audited Financial Statements
September 30, 2007 and 2006

Mineral Acquisition and Exploration Costs

The Company has been in the exploration stage since its formation on September 12, 2005 and has not yet realized any revenue from its planned operations. It is primarily engaged in the acquisition, exploration and development of mining properties. Mineral property acquisition and exploration costs are expensed as incurred. When it has been determined that a mineral property can be economically developed as a result of establishing proven and probable reserves, the costs incurred to develop such property are capitalized. Such costs will be amortized using the units-of-production method over the estimated life of the probable reserves.

Start-Up Costs

In accordance with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountant's Statement of Position 98-5, "Reporting on the Costs of Start-up Activities", the Company expenses all costs incurred in connection with the start-up and organization of the Company.

Net Income or (Loss) Per Share of Common Stock

The Company has adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Statement Number 128, "Earnings per Share," ("EPS") which requires presentation of basic and diluted EPS on the face of the statements of operations for all entities with complex capital structures and requires a reconciliation of the numerator and denominator of the basic EPS computation to the numerator and denominator of the diluted EPS computation. In the accompanying financial statements, basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income/loss by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period.

F-9

Touchstone Mining Limited
(An Exploration Stage Company)

Notes to Audited Financial Statements
September 30, 2007 and 2006

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings per share:

	Year Ended September 30,
	2007	2006
Net loss	$ (29,672)	$ (59,786)
Weighted average common shares outstanding (Basic)	3,132,967	847,253
Options	-	-
Warrants	-	-
Weighted average common shares outstanding (Diluted)	3,132,967	847,253
Net loss per share (Basic and Diluted)	$ (0.01)	$ (0.07)

The Company has no potentially dilutive securities, such as options or warrants, currently issued and outstanding.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company's financial instruments that are exposed to concentrations of credit risk primarily consist of its cash and cash equivalents and related party payables it will likely incur in the near future. The Company places its cash and cash equivalents with financial institutions of high credit worthiness. At times, its cash and cash equivalents with a particular financial institution may exceed any applicable government insurance limits. The Company's management plans to assess the financial strength and credit worthiness of any parties to which it extends funds, and as such, it believes that any associated credit risk exposures are limited.

Foreign Currency Translations

The Company's functional currency is the Canadian dollar. The Company's reporting currency is the U.S. dollar. All transactions initiated in Canadian dollars are translated into U.S. dollars in accordance with SFAS No. 52 "Foreign Currency Translation" as follows:

- (i) Monetary assets and liabilities at the rate of exchange in effect at the balance sheet date.
- (ii) Equity at historical rates.
- (iii) Revenue and expense items at the average rate of exchange prevailing during the period.

Adjustments arising from such translations are deferred until realization and are included as a separate component of stockholders' equity as a component of comprehensive income or loss. Therefore, translation adjustments are not included in determining net income (loss) but reported as other comprehensive income.

Touchstone Mining Limited
(An Exploration Stage Company)

Notes to Audited Financial Statements
September 30, 2007 and 2006

For foreign currency transactions, the Company translates these amounts to the Company's functional currency at the exchange rate effective on the invoice date. If the exchange rate changes between the time of purchase and the time actual payment is made, a foreign exchange transaction gain or loss results which is included in determining net income for the period. No significant realized exchange gains or losses were recorded since September 12, 2005 (inception) to September 30, 2007.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company operates in the resource exploration industry that is subject to significant risks and uncertainties, including financial, operational, technological and other risks associated with operating a resource exploration business, including the potential risk of business failure.

Environmental Expenditures

The operations of the Company have been, and may in the future be, affected from time to time in varying degree by changes in environmental regulations, including those for future reclamation and site restoration costs. Both the likelihood of new regulations and their overall effect upon the company vary greatly and are not predictable. The Company's policy is to meet or, if possible, surpass standards set by relevant legislation by application of technically proven and economically feasible measures.

Environmental expenditures that relate to ongoing environmental and reclamation programs are charged against earnings as incurred or capitalized and amortized depending on their future economic benefits. All of these types of expenditures incurred since inception have been charged against earnings due to the uncertainty of their future recoverability. Estimated future reclamation and site restoration costs, when the ultimate liability is reasonably determinable, are charged against earnings over the estimated remaining life of the related business operation, net of expected recoveries.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2006, FASB issued Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements." This Statement defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. This Statement applies under other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements, the Board having previously concluded in those accounting pronouncements that fair value is the relevant measurement attribute. Accordingly, this Statement does not require any new fair value measurements. However, for some entities, the application of this Statement will change current practice. SFAS 157 is effective in the first fiscal year that begins after November 15, 2007.

Touchstone Mining Limited
(An Exploration Stage Company)

Notes to Audited Financial Statements
September 30, 2007 and 2006

In February 2007, FASB issued Financial Accounting Standards No. 159, "The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities—Including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115." This Statement permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The objective is to improve financial reporting by providing entities with the opportunity to mitigate volatility in reported earnings caused by measuring related assets and liabilities differently without having to apply complex hedge accounting provisions. This Statement is expected to expand the use of fair value measurement, which is consistent with the Board's long-term measurement objectives for accounting for financial instruments. SFAS 159 is effective as of the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after November 15, 2007.

None of the above new pronouncements has current application to the Company, but will be implemented in the Company's future financial reporting when applicable.

3. Stockholders' Equity

Authorized Stock

The Company has authorized 100,000,000 common shares with a par value of $0.00001 per share. Each common share entitles the holder to one vote, in person or proxy, on any matter on which action of the stockholders of the corporation is sought.

Share Issuances

Since inception (September 12, 2005), the Company has issued 3,100,000 common shares at $0.02 per share and 3,000,000 common shares in forgiveness for debt of $34,502, resulting in total proceeds of $96,502. There were 6,100,000 common shares issued and outstanding at September 30, 2007. Of these shares, 3,300,000 were issued to our director and officer of the Company, 300,000 were issued to a former officer and director, and 2,500,000 were issued to independent investors.

4. Provision for Income Taxes

The Company recognizes the tax effects of transactions in the year in which such transactions enter into the determination of net income, regardless of when reported for tax purposes. Deferred taxes are provided in the financial statements under SFAS No. 109 to give effect to the resulting temporary differences which may arise from differences in the bases of fixed assets, depreciation methods, allowances, and start-up costs based on the income taxes expected to be payable in future years. Minimal exploration stage deferred tax assets arising as a result of net operating loss carryforwards have been offset completely by a valuation allowance due to the uncertainty of their utilization in future periods. Operating loss carryforwards generated during the period from September 12, 2005 (date of inception) through September 30, 2007 of approximately $93,355 will begin to expire in 2025. Accordingly, deferred tax assets of approximately $33,000 were offset by the valuation allowance that increased by approximately $10,400 and $20,800 during the years ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

5. Mineral Property Costs

By agreement dated November 23, 2005 with Mineral Exploration Services Ltd. (“MES”), the Company acquired an option to earn a 100% interest in certain properties consisting of 10 unpatented mineral claims, known as the Boulder Claims, (the Property) located in Humboldt County, Nevada, USA.

Upon execution of the agreement, MES transferred 100% interest in the mineral claims to the Company for $50,000 to be paid, at the Company’s option, as follows:

	Cash Payments
Upon signing of the agreement and transfer of title (paid)	$ 3,500
On or before November 23, 2006 (paid)	3,500
On or before November 23, 2007	8,000
On or before November 23, 2008	10,000
On or before November 23, 2009	10,000
On or before November 23, 2010	15,000
	$ 50,000

All payments shall be made within 30 days of the due date or the Property and all rights will revert back to MES.

In addition, the Company must incur exploration expenditures of $50,000 on the Property over five years. A professional geologist recommended a work program of $18,619 consisting of trenching, sampling and geological mapping to determine the source of certain high-grade gold specimens found on the Property. The funds were advanced during October 2006 and the work program was completed during the year ended September 30, 2007. During the year ended September 30, 2007, the Company spent the recommended $18,619 on property option payments and exploration work performed on the Property.

In August 2007, the Company reached an agreement with MES, whereby MES relinquished their rights to the Property. Subsequent to September 30, 2007, the Company proceeded to stake the claims in its own name. The Company is now only responsible for maintaining the mineral claims in good standing by paying all the necessary rents, taxes, and filing fees associated with the Property. As of October 31, 2007, the Company met these obligations.

Touchstone Mining Limited
(An Exploration Stage Company)

Notes to Audited Financial Statements
September 30, 2007 and 2006

A $4,330 reclamation bond has been paid to the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) in the State of Nevada. This bond will be held by the BLM until such time as they determine that the mineral property has been properly reclaimed and indigenous species of plants have been planted and are growing. Given the uncertainty of any future exploration and/or additional work on the property, that the Company will perform and the additional time needed before a BLM inspector can view the property, this bond has been accounted for as a non-current asset.

6. Due to Related Party

At September 30, 2006, the Company was obligated to a director, who is also an officer and a shareholder, for a non-interest bearing demand loan with a balance of $29,033. During the year ended September 30, 2007, the outstanding loan in the amount of $34,502 to this director was satisfied by issuance of 3,000,000 shares of common stock.

7. Going Concern and Liquidity Considerations

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern, which contemplates, among other things, the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. As at September 30, 2007, the Company has negative working capital of $1,183 and an accumulated deficit of $93,355. The Company intends to fund operations through equity financing arrangements, which may be insufficient to fund its capital expenditures, working capital and other cash requirements for the next twelve months.

The ability of the Company to emerge from the exploration stage is dependent upon, among other things, obtaining additional financing to continue operations, explore and develop the mineral properties and the discovery, development and sale of ore reserves.

In response to these problems, management intends to raise additional funds through public or private placement offerings.

These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

ITEM 8. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

On January 23, 2007, we received a letter from our auditors, Staley, Okada & Partners, advising that Staley, Okada & Partners had been acquired by PricewaterhouseCoopers and that they were resigning as our auditors effective immediately.

Staley, Okada & Partners' reported on our financial statements for the past two years and did not issue an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and that opinion was not modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. In connection with its audit for the most recent fiscal year, or the subsequent interim periods through January 23, 2007, there were no disagreements with Staley, Okada & Partners on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure.

During the year ended September 30, 2006, through the date of resignation, and through the date of our acceptance of Staley, Okada & Partners resignation, there were no disagreements with Staley, Okada & Partners on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Staley, Okada & Partners, would have caused Staley, Okada & Partners to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in its reports on our consolidated financial statements for such periods.

On January 25, 2007, we delivered a copy of our report on Form 8-K disclosing the resignation to Staley, Okada & Partners. Staley, Okada & Partners issued a response that it agreed with the foregoing disclosure. A copy of their response is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.1.

On January 23, 2007, we engaged Child, Van Wagoner & Bradshaw, PLLC an independent registered firm of Certified Public Accountants, as our independent accountants with the approval of our board of directors.

ITEM 8A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Douglas Scheving, our principal executive and financial officer, conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, as of the end of the period covered by this report (the "Evaluation Date"). Based on this evaluation, he concluded that, as of the Evaluation Date, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective to provide a reasonable level of assurance that information relating to us required to be disclosed in our SEC reports (i) is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC rules and forms and (ii) is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our chief executive officer and financial officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the last fiscal quarter of the period covered by this report that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within our Company have been detected. Because of the inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

Board of Directors

None of our directors receive any remuneration for acting as such. Directors may however be reimbursed their expenses, if any, for attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors. Our Board of Directors may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees. No such committees have been appointed to date. Accordingly, we do not have an audit committee or an audit committee financial expert. We have not implemented procedures by which our security holders may recommend board nominees to us but expect to do so in the future, when and if we engage in material business operations.

We are not presently required to have independent directors. Our sole director, Douglas Scheving is not independent. If we ever become a listed issuer whose securities are listed on a national securities exchange or on an automated inter-dealer quotation system of a national securities association, which has independent director requirements, we intend to comply with all applicable requirements relating to director independence.

We have adopted a corporate code of ethics. We believe our code of ethics is reasonably designed to deter wrongdoing and promote honest and ethical conduct; provide full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in public reports; comply with applicable laws; ensure prompt internal reporting of code violations; and provide accountability for adherence to the code. A copy of the code of ethics is attached hereto as Exhibit 14.1. We will also provide to any person, without charge and upon request, a copy of the code of ethics. We have no plans in place and have never maintained any plans that provide for the payment of retirement benefits or benefits that will be paid primarily following retirement including, but not limited to, tax qualified deferred benefit plans, supplemental executive retirement plans, tax-qualified deferred contribution plans and nonqualified deferred contribution plans. Similarly, we have no contracts, agreements, plans or arrangements, whether written or unwritten, that provide for payments to the named executive officers or any other persons following, or in connection with the resignation, retirement or other termination of a named executive officer, or a change in control of us or a change in a named executive officer's responsibilities following a change in control.

As of the date hereof, we have not entered into employment contracts with any of our officers and do not intend to enter into any employment contracts until such time as it is profitable to do so.

None of our directors receive any compensation for serving as such, for serving on committees of the Board of Directors or for special assignments. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007, there were no other arrangements between us and our directors that resulted in our making payments to any of our directors for any services provided to us by them as directors.

Indemnification

Under our bylaws, the Company will indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Company) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgment, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonable believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, will not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and with respect to any criminal action proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that such person's conduct was unlawful.

Regarding indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act, which may be permitted to directors or officers under Nevada law, we are informed that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, indemnification is against public policy, as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.
