BEST CORPORATE PRACTICES CODE

QUESTIONNAIRE TO EVALUATE THE DEGREE OF COMPLIANCE OF THE BEST CORPORATE PRACTICES CODE BY THE ISSUER

Introduction.

The Best Corporate Practices Code considers as Exhibit No. 1 this Questionnaire, in order to facilitate the measurement of the degree of implementation of its recommendations, which may be applicable to the management of the company, its directors and shareholders; by the authorities, specifically the ones that regulate the securities market; the stock exchange and the underwriters; the financial institutions and their analysts; institutional and venture capital investors; rating agencies; advisors on the matter and others interested.

It is desired to establish a questionnaire easy to answer and for general use, that allows to raise the questions over similar criteria and basis, and that such answers take those comparable results and facilitate their analysis.

It is also desired to promote that all civil and social assistance associations and corporations voluntarily incorporate to their culture the Principles of Corporate Governance included in the Code, as well as the Best Corporate Practices derived from such Principles.

Issuers with securities registered en the National Registry of Securities (Registro Nacional de Valores).

Corporations with securities registered in the NRS, when applying this questionnaire will be informing the degree of compliance with the Best Practices of Corporate Governance recommended in this Best Corporate Practices Code.

For purposes of the Annual Report to the National Banking and Securities Commission (Comisión Nacional Bancaria y de Valores), the Mexican Stock Exchange (Bolsa Mexicana de Valores) and the public investors, the disclosure of the degree of compliance to the Code is contemplated on the general provisions.

Purposes of its application.

The Principles of Corporate Governance are aimed to establish the Best Corporate Practices that contribute to improve the integration and operation of the Board of Directors and its support intermediate bodies, which are applicable to all types of public and private companies in general, regardless of its size, activity or share composition.

Even if the recommendations are of voluntary application, it is desired for the companies to incorporate them in their corporate governance; in order to achieve that, each will define, in accordance with their institutionalization needs, the step and measure of its implementation.

It is desired to know the degree of progress that all Mexican companies have in their institutionalization process when applying to their corporate governance the recommendations of the Best Corporate Practices Code; this will allow evaluating its development and placing Mexico in the world context of committed countries that promote and implement the Best Corporate Practices.
