2. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This summary includes a brief description of the most relevant aspects of the Transaction and it is not intended to contain all the information about it that may be relevant, therefore, it shall be complemented with the most detailed information and the financial information included in other sections of this Information Statement, as well as the Annual Report and the Quarterly Report, which are available in the following websites: www.femsa.com and www.bmv.com.mx

FEMSA is the leading beverage company in Latin America. FEMSA controls a platform consisting of (i) Coca-Cola FEMSA, the largest Coca-Cola bottler in Latin America; (ii) FEMSA Cerveza, one of the leading brewers in Mexico, with presence in Brazil and an important exporter of beer to the USA and other countries in the world; and (iii) OXXO, the largest and fastest growing convenience store chain in Mexico with more than 7,000 stores and which also has a presence in Colombia. For a complete description of FEMSA's business and operations, see the Annual Report and the Quarterly Report.

Heineken is one of the world's leading brewers with more than 170 international brands. Heineken has a presence in more than 65 countries through its network of distributors and 115 breweries.

On January 11, 2010, FEMSA and certain of its subsidiaries executed an agreement with Heineken Holding and Heineken, of Dutch origin, to exchange 100% of its beer operations in Mexico and Brazil owned through its subsidiary EMPREX Cerveza for a 20% economic interest in the Heineken Group, by executing the required agreements and documentation, which specify conditions that are customary in transactions of this nature.

Under the proposed terms of the Transaction, at Closing, Heineken will deliver to the FEMSA Parties 86,028,019 of new shares with a commitment to deliver an additional 29,172,504 Heineken shares to FEMSA over a period of not more than five years. If Heineken is unable to fulfill its obligations to deliver the Allotted Shares, these obligations may be settled in cash with a significant penalty. Simultaneously with the Closing, Heineken Holding will exchange 43,018,320 of the new Heineken shares with the FEMSA Parties for an equal number of newly issued shares in Heineken Holding. Following delivery of all such Heineken and Heineken Holding shares, FEMSA will hold a 20% economic interest in the Heineken Group. In exchange, FEMSA will deliver 100% of the shares of EMPREX Cerveza.

The Transaction is part of FEMSA's strategy to capitalize the significant value achieved by FEMSA, through its beer operations, over the last decade, strengthening its competitive position, brand portfolio and operation capability; extend FEMSA's potential value creation in the long term, allowing its shareholders access to solid prospects in the international brewing industry, as well as better market diversification; achieve corporate and financial flexibility in order to seek growth opportunities in its other lines of business (other than beer); and substantially contribute, in its capacity as a significant shareholder, to Heineken's global success, and particularly in Mexico.

3. DETAILED INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO THE TRANSACTION

3.1 Detailed Description of the Transaction

On January 11, 2010, FEMSA and certain of its subsidiaries, entered into a Share Exchange Agreement with Heineken Holding and Heineken, pursuant to which FEMSA agreed to exchange 100% of the shares of EMPREX Cerveza's capital stock for 20% of the economic interest in the Heineken Group.

3.1.1 Share Exchange Agreement

The Share Exchange Agreement requires Heineken, in consideration for 100% of the shares of EMPREX Cerveza, to deliver at Closing 86,028,019 new Heineken Shares to FEMSA with a commitment to deliver 29,172,504 additional Heineken Shares over a period of not more than five years from the date of Closing. If Heineken is unable to fulfill its obligations to deliver the Allotted Shares, these obligations may be settled in cash with a significant penalty. The Allotted Shares will be delivered to the FEMSA Parties pursuant to the Allotted Shares Delivery Instrument, which is described below.

Simultaneously with Closing, Heineken Holding will swap 43,018,320 Heineken Shares with the FEMSA Parties for an equal number of newly issued Heineken Holding Shares. Upon Closing, FEMSA will own 7.5% of Heineken Shares, which will increase to 12.5% upon full delivery of the Allotted Shares, and an additional 14.9% in Heineken Holding, which will represent an aggregate 20% economic interest in the Heineken Group.

In exchange for such economic interest in the Heineken Group, FEMSA will deliver 100% of the shares representing the capital stock of EMPREX Cerveza. EMPREX Cerveza will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Heineken.

The principal provisions of the Share Exchange Agreements are as follows:

- Delivery to Heineken, by FEMSA, of 100% of the outstanding share capital of EMPREX Cerveza, which together with its subsidiaries, constitutes the entire beer business and operations of FEMSA in Mexico and Brazil (including the USA and other export business);
 - Delivery to the FEMSA Parties by Heineken of 86,028,019 new Heineken Shares;
- Simultaneously with the Closing, a swap between Heineken Holding and the FEMSA Parties of 43,018,320 Heineken shares for an equal number of newly issued shares in Heineken Holding;
- The commitment by Heineken to assume indebtedness of EMPREX Cerveza and subsidiaries amounting to approximately US$2.1 billion Dollars;
- The provision by FEMSA to the Heineken Group of indemnities customary in transactions of this nature concerning FEMSA and FEMSA Cerveza and its subsidiaries and their businesses;
- FEMSA's covenants to operate the EMPREX Cerveza business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice until Closing, subject to customary exceptions, with the economic risks and benefits of the EMPREX Cerveza business transferring to Heineken as of January 1, 2010;
- The provision by Heineken and Heineken Holding to FEMSA of indemnities customary in transactions of this nature concerning the Heineken Group; and

- FEMSA's covenants, subject to certain limitations detailed below, to not engage in the production, manufacture, packaging, distribution, marketing or sale of beer and similar beverages in Latin America, USA, Canada and the Caribbean.

The effectiveness of the Share Exchange Agreement is subject to certain conditions, which are comprised principally of (i) the approval by the antitrust regulatory authority in Mexico, USA and other countries, (ii) the approval by the Foreign Investment authorities of the Ministry of Economy in Mexico, (iii) the FEMSA Shareholders Approval, (iv) the Heineken Shareholders Approval, (v) the Heineken Holding Shareholders Approval, (vi) the entrance into certain agreements related to the Transaction, and (vii) the lack of an applicable provision or decree from any authority prohibiting the Closing.

Based on the Heineken closing share price of €32.92, and the Heineken Holding closing share price of €29.38 as of January 8, 2010 (the last trading day prior to entering into the Transaction), the delivery of 115,200,523 Heineken Shares (including the Allotted Shares) was valued the Transaction at US$7,355 million Dollars, including net debt and pension obligations to be assumed by Heineken of Ps. 27,424 million (approximately US$2.1 billion Dollars).

The following graphic illustrates the ownership structure resulting from the Transaction, once the Allotted Shares have been delivered:

3.1.1.1 Termination

The Share Exchange Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to Closing by:

- (A) the mutual consent of Heineken and FEMSA to terminate the Share Exchange Agreement;

- (B) either Heineken or FEMSA, if any governmental entity or authority in Mexico, The Netherlands or the USA issues or files an order or takes any other action permanently restraining or otherwise prohibiting the Closing (such order or ruling shall have become final and non-appealable);
 - (C) either Heineken or FEMSA, if the Closing has not occurred on or prior to October 8, 2010;
- (D) either FEMSA or Heineken, if certain conditions to Closing, such as receipt of governmental approvals, are impossible to fulfill;
- (E) FEMSA, if the Heineken Shareholders Approval or Heineken Holding Shareholders Approval are not obtained at the Heineken Meeting and Heineken Holding Meeting;
 - (F) Heineken, if the FEMSA Shareholders Approval is not obtained at the FEMSA Meeting;
- (G) Heineken, if the FEMSA Board withdraws or modifies its recommendation to the FEMSA shareholders to approve the Transaction or if the FEMSA Board announces an intention to modify or withdraw its recommendation or has endorsed or announces an intention to endorse an alternative acquisition proposal; or
- (H) either Heineken or FEMSA, in the event that any authorization of an antitrust regulatory authority contains conditions or requires modifications that materially change the economic value contemplated in the Transaction and the parties to the Share Exchange Agreement are unable to agree on amendments within sixty (60) days that satisfy such conditions.

Heineken and FEMSA have agreed to a termination fee for the Share Exchange Agreement of US$200 million Dollars.

The Termination Fee will be payable in the following events:

- a) by Heineken to FEMSA, if FEMSA terminates the Share Exchange Agreement because Heineken and/or Heineken Holding fail to obtain the Heineken Shareholders Approval and the Heineken Holding Shareholders Approval of the Transaction at their respective shareholders meetings.
- b) by FEMSA to Heineken, if Heineken terminates the Share Exchange Agreement because the Transaction is not approved by the FEMSA shareholders, or the FEMSA Board withdraws or modifies its recommendation to the FEMSA shareholders to approve the Transaction, or announces an intention to do so or if the FEMSA Board endorses or announces an intention to endorse an alternative acquisition proposal.

3.1.1.2 Non-Competition Arrangements

As part of FEMSA's undertaken obligations, the Share Exchange Agreement contains certain non-compete obligations described below:

- (i) Parties Subject to the Obligation – FEMSA and its subsidiaries (which, excluding the beer business subsidiaries and those that are subject to the Transaction, are mainly active in the production, distribution and marketing of soft drinks in Latin America and the operation of retail stores);
- (ii) Scope of the Obligation – Limited to the production, manufacture, packaging, distribution, marketing or sale of beer, non-alcoholic beer and beverages derived from beer and the beer brewing and fermentation process, malted beverages, wort-based beverages and ciders and cider-based beverages, provided the latter contain alcohol;

- (iii) Term of the Obligation – For as long as FEMSA has the right to appoint a member of the Heineken Holding Board or the Heineken Supervisory Board, and for an additional period of two (2) years from the moment FEMSA ceases to have such right;
- (iv) Territory – South America, Central America, Mexico, USA, Canada and the Caribbean (including Cuba);
- (v) Exceptions – The non-compete arrangements previously described do not apply to small operations in the USA related to convenience store operations by FEMSA in such country, nor to the sale, marketing and distribution of the products specified in paragraph (ii) above, in stores owned or operated by FEMSA or any of its subsidiaries.

3.1.1.3 Allotted Shares Delivery Instrument

The Allotted Shares Delivery Instrument sets forth the terms pursuant to which Heineken will deliver the Allotted Shares to FEMSA. Heineken's commitment is to deliver these shares in up to ten installments over a period of not more than five years. While Heineken's intention is to satisfy its obligation pursuant to the ASDI through the delivery of existing Heineken shares acquired in the market, Heineken may instead elect to deliver newly issued shares to FEMSA. If Heineken is unable, for any reason, to fulfill its obligations to deliver the Allotted Shares, these obligations may be settled in cash with a significant penalty. Heineken has the option to accelerate the delivery of the Allotted Shares at its discretion.

For as long as it has not made delivery of the Allotted Shares, Heineken will pay amounts on each Allotted Share not delivered pursuant to the Allotted Share Delivery Instrument, such that FEMSA will be compensated, on an after tax basis, for dividends FEMSA would have received had all such Allotted Shares been delivered to FEMSA at Closing.

The Allotted Shares represent 5.1% of the share capital of Heineken (taking into account the 86,028,019 newly issued Heineken Shares issued in connection with the Transaction). Based upon the Heineken Share price of €32.925, as of January 8, 2010, the value of the Allotted Shares was €1.0 billion.

3.1.2 Corporate Governance Agreement

At Closing, FEMSA, Heineken, Heineken Holding and L'Arche Green N.V., as majority shareholder of Heineken Holding, will enter into the Corporate Governance Agreement which will establish the terms of the relationship between Heineken and FEMSA after Closing.

The Corporate Governance Agreement covers, among other things, the following topics:

- FEMSA's representation on the Heineken Holding Board and the Heineken Supervisory Board and the creation of an Americas Committee, also with FEMSA's representation;
- FEMSA's representation on the Selection and Appointment Committee and the Audit Committee of the Heineken Supervisory Board;
- FEMSA's commitment to not increase its holding in Heineken Holding above 20% and to not increase its holding in the Heineken Group above a maximum 20% economic interest (subject to certain exceptions); and
- FEMSA's agreement to not transfer any shares in Heineken or Heineken Holding for a five-year period, subject to certain exceptions, including among others; (i) beginning in the third anniversary, the right to sell up to 1% of all outstanding shares of each of Heineken and Heineken Holding in any calendar quarter; (ii) beginning in the third anniversary, the right to dividend or distribute to its shareholders each of Heineken and Heineken Holding shares.

Under the Corporate Governance Agreement, FEMSA will be entitled to nominate two (2) representatives to the Heineken Supervisory Board, one of whom will be appointed as Vice Chairman of Heineken and will also serve as a representative of FEMSA on the Heineken Holding Board. FEMSA's nominees for appointment to the Heineken Supervisory Board are José Antonio Fernández Carbajal, FEMSA's Chief Executive Officer, and Javier Astaburuaga Sanjines, FEMSA's Chief Financial Officer. Once the approval of the Heineken Holding Shareholders is obtained, José Antonio Fernández Carbajal will also be nominated to the Heineken Holding Board.

In addition, the Heineken Supervisory Board will create an Americas Committee to oversee the strategic direction of the business in the American continent and assess new business opportunities in that region. The Americas Committee will consist of two existing members of the Heineken Supervisory Board and one FEMSA representative, who will act as the Chairman. The Chairman of the Americas Committee will be José Antonio Fernández Carbajal.

The Corporate Governance Agreement has no fixed term, but certain provisions cease to apply if FEMSA ceases to have the right to nominate a representative to the Heineken Holding Board and the Heineken Supervisory Board. For example, in certain circumstances, FEMSA would be entitled to only one representative on the Heineken Supervisory Board, including in the event that FEMSA's economic interest in the Heineken Group were to fall below 14%, the current FEMSA control structure were to change or FEMSA were to be subject to a change of control. In the event that FEMSA's economic interest in Heineken falls below 7% or a beer producer acquires control of FEMSA, all of FEMSA's corporate governance rights would end pursuant to the Corporate Governance Agreement.

3.2 Purpose of the Transaction

For FEMSA, the Transaction has several purposes, among which are the transformation of its beer operations into an economic interest equal to 20% in Heineken and, as a result:

- capitalize the significant value achieved by FEMSA, through its beer operations, over the last decade, strengthening its competitive position, brand portfolio and operational capability;
- extend FEMSA's potential creation of value in the long term, allowing its shareholders access to solid prospects in the international brewing industry, as well as better market diversification;
- achieve corporate and financial flexibility in order to search for growth opportunities in its other lines of business (other than beer); and
- substantially contribute, as a significant shareholder, to Heineken's global success, and particularly in Mexico.

3.3 Expenses related to the Transaction

FEMSA expects that the expenses related to the Transaction amount approximately to US$40 million Dollars.

3.4 Transaction Approval

The Transaction was approved by the FEMSA Board on December 21, 2009, with the prior approval and recommendation of FEMSA's Audit Committee. The FEMSA Board considered various options and after analyzing the Transaction, recommended to FEMSA's shareholders the approval of the Transaction at the FEMSA Meeting.

The approval of the Transaction will be submitted to a vote pursuant to the terms of Article 47 of the Mexican Securities Market Law (Ley del Mercado de Valores) and FEMSA's bylaws, at the FEMSA Meeting, which will be held at 12:00pm on April 26, 2010 at the Auditorio Cervecería Cuauhtémoc Moctezuma, S.A. de C.V., located at Ave.

Alfonso Reyes #2202 Norte, in the city of Monterrey, N.L., Mexico.

The Voting Trust, which holds approximately 39% of FEMSA's shares with voting rights in the shareholders meeting that will resolve on the Transaction, has agreed to vote in favor of the Transaction at the FEMSA Meeting.

The Heineken Supervisory Board has unanimously and unconditionally approved the Transaction and recommended that Heineken shareholders vote in favor of the resolution that will be proposed at the Heineken Meeting to approve the Transaction.

The Transaction is also conditioned on the Heineken Holding Shareholders Approval. Heineken Holding, as majority shareholder of Heineken, and L'Arche Green N.V., as majority shareholder of Heineken Holding, have issued irrevocable undertakings to FEMSA to vote in favor of the Transaction to be proposed at the Heineken and Heineken Holding Meeting.

It is expected that the Closing of the Transaction, once all the conditions have been met, including obtaining the corresponding governmental authorizations, will take place during the second quarter of 2010.

3.5 Accounting Treatment of the Transaction

For accounting purposes, at the Closing of the Transaction, FEMSA will lose its control over the financial and operative policies of FEMSA Cerveza, although it will have a material influence in the Heineken Group.

Pursuant to the NIF B-8 "Consolidated or Combined Financial Statements", due to the loss of control over the financial and operative policies of FEMSA Cerveza, FEMSA will be prevented from consolidating the numbers of such business.

Likewise, pursuant to NIF C-7 "Investments in Affiliates and Other Permanent Investments", FEMSA will recognize the results of the year and the variations of other accounts in the comprehensive income of the year through the recognition of the equity method in the Heineken Group.

FEMSA will exchange 100% of its beer operations in Mexico and Brazil for a 20% interest in the Heineken Group. The difference between the fair market value of the Allotted Shares, Heineken and Heineken Holding Shares and the book value of the FEMSA Cerveza, will generate an accounting profit, which will be recorded net of taxes, at the Closing of the Transaction.

With these records and disclosures, FEMSA will be in compliance with the terms of NIF B-8 and NIF C-7 which are the applicable Financial Reporting Standards.

Under the section of "Selected Financial Information" relevant entries are shown with respect to the Consolidated Financial Statements of FEMSA and its subsidiaries, before and after the effects due to the loss of control of EMPREX Cerveza. Likewise, under the section of "Management Discussion and Analysis with Respect to the Results of Operation and the Financial Situation of the Issuer" the most relevant issues that contribute to the understanding of the base and pro-forma Consolidated Financial Statements with respect to the Transaction are discussed.

3.6 Tax Effects of the Transaction

At the Closing of the Transaction, FEMSA will register on its accounting the correspondent current and deferred taxes that will result from the difference between the fair market value of the Allotted Shares, Heineken and Heineken Holding Shares and the tax and accounting values of the Emprex Cerveza shares respectively.

5. RISK FACTORS

5.1 Risk Factors Relating to FEMSA

For further information related to the risk factors inherent to FEMSA, see the Annual Report, which is available on the following websites: www.femsa.com and www.bmv.com.mx.

FEMSA will not control Heineken's decisions

As a consequence of the Transaction, FEMSA will participate in the Heineken Holding Board and in the Heineken Supervisory Board, however it will not be a majority or controlling shareholder of Heineken, nor control or materially influence the decisions of the Heineken Holding Board or the Heineken Supervisory Board. Therefore, the decisions made by the majority or controlling shareholders of Heineken or the Heineken Holding Board or the Heineken Supervisory Board, may not be consistent with or may not consider the interests of the FEMSA shareholders or be adverse to the interest of FEMSA shareholders.

Heineken is present in several markets at the global level

With respect to the beer industry, FEMSA is currently present only in the Mexican and Brazilian markets, while Heineken is present in several markets at the global level. As a consequence of the Transaction, FEMSA shareholders will be indirectly exposed to the political, economical and social circumstances affecting the different markets in which Heineken is present, which might adversely affect the value of FEMSA's interest in Heineken, and, consequently, the value of FEMSA shares.

The Mexican Peso may strengthen

From the share exchange, FEMSA will exchange an investment in shares in a Mexican company whose operating currency is the same as the consolidated entity, for an investment in share of a Dutch company whose operating currency is the euro, and therefore, in the event of a strengthening of the Mexican Peso with respect to the euro, the share investment value will be adversely affected.

Furthermore, the cash flow expected to be received through dividends of this company will be in euros, and therefore, in the event of a strengthening of the Mexican Peso with respect to the euro, the amount of expected cash flow once the dividends are converted into Pesos (the operating currency of FEMSA) will be adversely affected.

Heineken's share price may fall

Heineken is a listed company whose stock trades publicly and is subject to market movements. A reduction in the price of Heineken shares would result in a reduction in the economic value of FEMSA's participation in Heineken.

5.2 Risk Factors Relating to the Transaction.

The competent authorities may not authorize the closing of the Transaction.

The Closing is subject to the approval of the antitrust and other authorities in Mexico the USA and other countries. The Transaction has been already approved by the antitrust authorities in Mexico, USA, Spain and Italy, however, there are some other approvals still pending and FEMSA cannot assure that it will obtain such authorizations or the date in which they will be obtained. If such governmental authorizations are not obtained or are obtained under terms unacceptable to FEMSA, FEMSA may not conclude the Transaction, which would have an adverse and material effect with respect to FEMSA's business and operations.

If FEMSA does not complete the Transaction due to any of Heineken's Termination Events, FEMSA shall pay Heineken a material termination fee.

The Share Exchange Agreement documenting the Transaction includes provisions under which FEMSA shall pay Heineken a termination fee of US$200 million Dollars, in the event that Heineken terminates the Share Exchange Agreement due to the fact that the Transaction is not approved by FEMSA's shareholders, the FEMSA Board withdraws or modifies its recommendation to FEMSA's shareholders to approve the Transaction or if the FEMSA Board announces its intention of withdrawing or modifying its recommendation or approves or announces its intention to approve an alternate acquisition proposal. Payment of such fee may have an adverse and material effect on FEMSA's financial situation and results.

In compliance with NIF C-7 "Investments in Affiliates and Other Permanent Investments" on the Income Statement the figures corresponding to the beer business are presented in a single line title "FEMSA Cerveza Equity Method", likewise on the Balance Sheet the figures of the beer business were unconsolidated for each line and its now presented on a netted basis in the line under title "Investment in Shares".

An important clarification is that on the Pro Forma adjustments we are not including any favorable or adverse effect that may arise from the Transaction or from efficiencies in the use of cash, reduction of debt, or operative synergies that may be accomplished.

7. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS WITH RESPECT TO THE RESULTS OF OPERATION AND THE FINANCIAL SITUATION OF THE ISSUER

Discussion and Analysis of Results

FEMSA ORIGINAL BASE AND PRO FORMA FINANCIAL RESULTS FOR THE TWELVE MONTHS ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2009 COMPARED TO DECEMBER 31, 2008.

Set forth below is certain financial information for FEMSA. The information includes base financial information, which was originally reported by FEMSA, as well as pro forma financial information, which reflects the financial performance of FEMSA without consolidating FEMSA Cerveza. In said pro-forma information, FEMSA Cerveza's results are recorded under the equity method.

The base information consists of the main activities divided among the following consolidated subsidiaries: Coca-Cola FEMSA, S.A.B de C.V. ("Coca-Cola FEMSA" or "KOF"), which engages in the production, distribution and marketing of soft drinks; FEMSA Cerveza, which engages in the production, distribution and marketing of beer and alcoholic beverages; and FEMSA Comercio, S.A. de C.V. ("FEMSA Comercio" or "Oxxo"), which operates convenience stores.

Pro forma financial information consists of the main activities, divided among the following consolidated subsidiaries: Coca-Cola FEMSA, which engages in the production, distribution and marketing of soft drinks; and FEMSA Comercio, which operates convenience stores. As mentioned above, FEMSA Cerveza's results are recorded under the equity method.

All of the numbers in this report were prepared in accordance with the NIF. The results for 2008 and 2009 are stated in nominal Mexican Pesos. The conversion from Mexican Pesos into U.S. Dollars is included solely for the convenience of the reader and is determined using the noon buying rate published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, which was 13.0576 Pesos per Dollar on December 31, 2009.

This report may contain certain forward-looking statements concerning FEMSA's future performance that should be regarded as good faith estimates made by FEMSA. These forward-looking statements reflect FEMSA's management's opinions based on currently available data. Actual results are subject to future events and uncertainties, which could materially impact FEMSA's actual performance.

7.1 Operation Results

Total Revenues

FEMSA's pro forma consolidated total revenues increased 19.8% to Ps. 160,090 million in 2009 compared to Ps. 133,628 million in 2008. Double-digit growth in soft drinks and retail operations contributed favorably to this increase. The increase in Coca-Cola FEMSA's total revenues was driven by a higher average price per unit case and by sales volume growth of 8.3% in 2009. FEMSA Comercio's increase in total revenues was mainly driven by the opening of 960 new stores during 2009, combined with the positive performance of average same-store sales.

2009 Growth compared to 2008	Original Base	Pro Forma

Income from Operations

FEMSA's pro forma consolidated Income from Operations increased 22.1% to Ps. 22,118 million in 2009, driven by the results of Coca-Cola FEMSA and FEMSA Comercio. Consolidated operating margin increased 0.3 percentage points from 2008 levels, to 13.2%. The increases in total revenues and gross margin at FEMSA Comercio offset the pressure related to raw materials in Coca-Cola FEMSA's operation.

Net Income

FEMSA's pro forma net income increased 50.2% compared to Ps. 14,296 million in 2009, which includes equity income of Ps. 2,708 million resulting from the economic interest of 100% of EMPREX Cerveza. Such consolidated results were driven by (i) operating income growth throughout the year at Coca-Cola FEMSA and FEMSA Comercio, and (ii) a significant improvement in the integral result of financing due to the low comparison base of 2008, due to the depreciation of local currencies against the US Dollar and a shift to gains in certain derivative instruments during the year. For the year of 2009, FEMSA's net majority income per Unit¹ was Ps. 2.77 (US$ 2.12 Dollars per each American Depositary Share "ADS").

7.2 Financial Situation, Liquidity and Capital Resources

Consolidated Net Debt

FEMSA's pro forma financial statements show a cash balance of Ps. 16,407 million (US$ 1,257 million Dollars) as of December 31, 2009, reflecting strong cash generation at Coca-Cola FEMSA. Short-term debt was Ps. 8,539 million (US$ 654 million Dollars) and long-term debt was Ps. 21,260 million (US$ 1,628 million Dollars) resulting in a net debt of Ps. 13,392 million (US$ 1,026 million Dollars).

¹ FEMSA Units consist of FEMSA BD Units and FEMSA B Units. Each FEMSA BD Unit is comprised of one Series B Share, two Series D-B Shares and two Series D-L Shares. Each FEMSA B Unit is comprised of five Series B Shares. The number of FEMSA Units outstanding as of December 31, 2009 was 3,578,226,270 equivalent to the total number of FEMSA Shares outstanding as of the same date, divided by 5.

Independent Auditors' Report with respect to the review of the Proforma Financial Information to the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Fomento Económico Mexicano, S.A.B. de C.V. and Subsidiaries

We have reviewed the proforma adjustments presented in the operation described in Note 3 and the application of such adjustments to the basic numbers that are presented in the proforma consolidated balance sheet of Fomento Económico Mexicano, S.A.B. de C.V. and Subsidiaries ("FEMSA") as of the 31st day of December, 2009 and the proforma consolidated income statements for the years ended on the 31st day of December of 2009 and 2008, respectively. Such financial statements result from the consolidated financial statements of FEMSA, which were previously audited by us as of the 31st day of December, 2009 and for the years ended in the 31st day of December, 2009 and 2008, respectively. The proforma adjustments are based on the assumptions made by the management which are described in Note 4. The proforma financial information is responsibility of the management of the Company.

Our review was performed pursuant to the standards for attesting established by the Mexican Institute of Public Accountants (Instituto Mexicano de Contadores Públicos). The scope of a review is substantially less than the scope for an examination. The purpose of an examination is the expression of an opinion regarding the management assumptions, proforma adjustments and the application of said adjustments to the basic financial information and in consequence, we do not issue an opinion to that effect.

The purpose of this proforma consolidated financial information is to show which would have been the important effects on the basic consolidated financial information of the operation described in Note 3, if such had occurred as of the date of the consolidated balance sheet containing the basic consolidated financial information. However, the proforma consolidated financial statements described in the first paragraph, are not necessarily indicative of the operation results nor of the corresponding effect in the consolidated financial position that would have been determined if said operation, would have actually occurred as of the date of the consolidated balance sheet containing the basic consolidated financial information.

The adjustments applied to such proforma financial statements reflect the 100% interest in FEMSA Cerveza instead of the 20% interest in the enhance Heineken bussines (including FEMSA Cerveza). Likewise, the adjustments were prepared under the assumption that a significant influence will be achieved over the Heineken operations. The estimated adjustments may require important modifications in order to reflect the actual operation described in Note 3.

In our review, we did not find any situation that might makes us believe that any of the management' assumptions do not provide reasonable basis in order to present the important effects attributable to the aforementioned operation which is described Note 3, neither find evidence that the proforma adjustments do not reflect the adequate effects of such assumptions or that the column of proforma figures does not reflect the appropriate application of such adjustments to the figures presented in the proforma consolidated balance sheet as of the 31st day of December, 2009 and the proforma consolidated income statements for the years ended as of the 31st day of December, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

The purpose of the proforma Consolidated Financial Statements is to reflect the operations of FEMSA Cerveza through the equity method and not on a consolidated basis, as it has been presented historically.

The Financial Information shown in the column Audited, represents the audited historical figures of the Company in compliance with Mexican FRS and is being used as the base to the application of the proforma adjustments explained as follows.

The figures of the FEMSA Cerveza Balance Sheet were substracted from each line and are being presented in a netted basis in the line of Investment in shares pursuant to accounting standards, as the valuation of this investment through the application of the equity method for non consolidated subsidiaries.

In the same way, the figures of the FEMSA Cerveza Income Statement were substracted from each line and are presented in a netted basis in a separate line titled "FEMSA Cerveza's equity method."

These pro-forma financial statements show how FEMSA's figures will be presented in the future, following the approval of the transaction, with the exception of the impact resulting from the difference between the current 100% ownership in FEMSA Cerveza and the 20% ownership in the Heineken Group already including 100% of the operations of FEMSA Cerveza and assuming FEMSA will have significant influence in the Heineken Group.
