PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

A) General

Crown Equity Holdings Inc. formerly known as Micro Bio-Medical Waste Systems, Inc. (the “Company”) was incorporated on August 31, 1995 as “Visioneering Corporation” under the laws of the State of Nevada, to engage in any lawful corporate undertaking, including, but not limited to, selected mergers and acquisitions. None of the proposed business activities for which the Company’s name was changed produced any revenues or created any appreciable business activities for the Company.

In 2007, the Company, through a wholly-owned subsidiary, Crown Trading Systems, Inc. (“CTS”), a Nevada corporation, began to develop, sell and produce computer systems which are capable of running multiple monitors from one computer. CTS is able to run 16 monitors off one CPU. In late 2007, CTS began to attend trade shows and starting selling these systems. However, due to the economic downturn in the economy at the time, the demand for these multiple monitor systems did not materialize and the Company has shelved its plans to sell and market these multiple monitor systems for the present time.

In 2009, Crown Trading Systems was dissolved as a corporation and its business was absorbed into the Company. The Company still uses the trade name "Crown Trading Systems." CTS has reseller and distribution agreements with many wholesale and retail computer and components companies but is not presently engaged in this business due to the lack of demand at the present time. The Company may re-enter this field once the economy rebounds.

At the present time, the Company is offering its services to domestic and global companies seeking to become public entities in the United States. It has launched a website, www.crownequityholdings.com, which offers its services in a wide range of fields. The Company provides various consulting services to companies and individuals dealing with corporate structure and operations globally. The Company also provides public relations and news dissemination for publicly and privately held companies.

In 2009, the Company re-focused its primary vision to using its network of websites to provide advertising and marketing services, as a worldwide online media advertising publisher, dedicated to the distribution of quality branding information. The Company offers Internet media-driven advertising services, which cover and connect a wide range of marketing specialties, as well as search engine optimization for clients interested in online media awareness. As part of its operations, the Company has utilized the services of software and hardware technicians in developing its websites and adding additional websites. This allows the Company to disseminate news and press releases for its customers as well as general news and financial information on a much bigger scale than it did previously. The Company markets its services to companies seeking market awareness of them and the services or goods that they offer. The Company then publishes information concerning these companies on its many websites. The Company is paid in cash and/or stock of the customer companies. The Company has numerous consulting and service customers and is therefore not dependent on any particular customer for a majority of its revenue.

In July, 2009, the Company granted a non-exclusive license to Velvet International, Inc. allowing Velvet to use the Company's system and method of rendering public financial relations over the Internet. The Company was paid a one-time licensing fee of $250,000 for the license but will not receive any future royalty or license payments from Velvet. Revenue from this sale allowed the Company to expand its efforts in developing its normal course of business as describe above.

The Company's office is located at 5440 West Sahara, Suite 205, Las Vegas NV 89146.

As of December 31, 2009, the Company had no employees but was utilizing the services of independent contractors and consultants.

Item 2. Properties.

The Company has sub-leased office space from an affiliate of the Company at a cost of $2,400 per month for a period of twelve months, expiring in December, 2010. The Company believes that this office space is sufficient for its needs for the period of the lease.

Item 3 Legal Proceedings.

The Company has pending litigation in Arizona small claims court - Strojnik v. Crown Equity Holdings, Inc. and Crown Partners, Inc which was filed September 25, 2008. The Company has assessed the outcome of a loss as remote and furthermore the maximum liability in small claims court is $2,500. The Company has not accrued any amounts related to this contingency nor has there been any activity related to this matter.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

In August, 2009, the Board of Directors proposed to decrease the Company's authorized capital as well as authorizing a class of preferred stock and making certain other changes to the Company's articles of incorporation. At a meeting held on October 15, 2009, the Company's majority shareholder approved an amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation decreasing the number of authorized shares of common stock from 5,000,000,000 from 490,000,000 and approving the creation of a class of preferred stock, consisting of 10,000,000 shares, par value $.001, The Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation also included the following changes to the original Articles of Incorporation and the many amendments filed thereto through the years:

- o added provisions governing the Board of Directors;
- o added a provision limiting the liability of directors;
- o permitting the votes of interested directors to be counted in certain transactions;
- o added a provision for the indemnification of officers and directors; and
- o added a provision permitting the Board of Directors to approve future stock splits without a vote of the stockholders without affecting the authorized capital stock.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS MAY NOT PROVE ACCURATE

When used in this Form 10-K, the words “anticipated”, “estimate”, “expect”, and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions including the possibility that the Company will fail to generate projected revenues. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, estimated or projected.

OVERVIEW

The following discussion of the financial condition, changes in financial condition and results of operations of the Company for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 should be read in conjunction with the financial statements of the Company and related notes included therein.

The Company was incorporated on August 31, 1995 as Visioneering Corporation. On January 12, 1996, the Company amended its Articles of Incorporation to change its name to Asiamerica Energy Corporation, to Care Financial Corporation in April 29, 1996 and to Trump Oil Corporation on May 15, 1997. In 1999, the Company acquired 20/20 Web Design, Inc., a Colorado corporation wholly owned by Crown Partners, Inc. As part of that transaction, the Company issued 8,620,000 shares of its common stock to Crown Partners with the result that Crown Partners owned 80% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company. The Company also approved a ten-for-one reverse stock split as part of that transaction. In August, 2009, Crown Partners transferred its shares of the Company to Crown

Marketing Corporation ("Crown Marketing") in exchange for marketing and public relation services to be provided by Crown Marketing.

Since the agreements described above, the Company has financed its activities through the distribution of equity capital, including private placements of its common stock resulting in the Company raising capital of $853,494 from 1995 to the present. The Company used the proceeds from these offerings to fund its proposed operations, to pay salaries, to pay general and administrative expenses and any necessary expenses.

The Company entered into an agreement to acquire Sanitec™ Services of Hawaii, Inc. ("SSH") from its majority shareholder, Crown Partners, in November, 2003. The Company was unable to secure the funding necessary to complete this transaction and SSH ceased operations in May, 2005. The Company paid a non-refundable deposit to Crown Partners of $45,520, of which $20,000 was advanced to SSH and Crown allowed the Company to retain the remaining $25,520 to pay the Company's obligations. The Company issued shares of its common stock in restricted form to Crown in December 2007, which cancelled this debt.

In July, 2009, the Company received a one-time licensing fee of $250,000 which it has utilized in funding its current operations. The Company also anticipates that as it proceeds with its planned advertising and marketing services, the revenues generated will be used to finance its operations in the short-term. However, since this is a new venture for the Company, it is not certain whether the revenues generated will be sufficient to sustain the Company in the long-term. The Company continues to search for additional areas in which it can generate revenue so that the Company will become profitable but there can be no guarantee that profitability will be achieved in the near- or long-term.

The Company's sales and revenues are projected to continue to increase during the future. The long term impact on the financial position and liquidity from this growth of operation should be positive. However, during the interim development of the web sites and marketing services may have negative impact on the financial position of the Company

The Company will attempt to carry out its business plan as discussed below. The Company cannot predict to what extent its lack of liquidity and capital resources will hinder its business plan prior to the consummation of a business combination.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Since inception, the Company's most significant change in liquidity or capital resources or stockholders' equity has been receipts of proceeds from offerings of its capital stock and from a license fee. The Company's balance sheet as of December 31, 2009 reflects expanded assets and reduced liabilities from the previous year due to a significant increase in revenue over any previous years. The increase in revenue has had a positive impact on the Company's liquidity; however, it may not reflect the ability of the Company to fund itself without outside sources in the future. Further, there exist no agreements or understandings with regard to loan agreements by or with the Officers, Directors, principals, affiliates or shareholders of the Company. In the past, officers and directors of the Company have lent or advanced monies to the Company to fund operations, there are no formal agreements or arrangements for them to continue to do so. As of December 31, 2009, the Company had converted outstanding advances of $71,184 due to Montse Zaman, an officer and director, to a three year unsecured note due on November 19, 2012, with interest accruing at 12% per annum.

The Company anticipates expanding its business in 2010 through the planned expansion of the Company's marketing and advertising services on a global basis. The Company hopes to begin hiring or retaining persons in other countries to translate the Company's websites, news releases and marketing efforts into various foreign languages such that the Company will become an international provider of news, public relations and press releases for its customers. The Company's plans will be limited, however, by its ability to finance such a proposed expansion of its business. If the revenues generated are not sufficient to finance these proposed operations, then the Company will have to scale back its proposed operations. The Company's ultimate success will be based upon whether or not there continues to be a demand for the services that the Company anticipates providing, which is also very dependent on the economy. There can be no assurance that there will be a demand for the Company's services in the future or that the Company will become profitable in providing these services. As the Company's expands its operations, the revenues received, in addition to paying current expenses, will also be utilized to fund its proposed global expansion making it unlikely that the Company will be profitable in the near future, if ever.

At December 31, 2009, the Company had working capital of $164,392 which consisted of current assets of approximately $257,714 and current liabilities of $93,322. The current liabilities of the Company at December 31, 2009 are composed primarily deferred revenue of $62,000, income tax accrual of $16,990 and accounts payable and accrued expenses of $14,332.

Cash flow provided by operating activities during the year ending December 31, 2009 was $243,123 compared to a negative amount of $127,394 for the same period in 2008. This represents a positive change of $361,817. The primary factor to the positive change include a net profit of $93,927 for the year ending December 31, 2009 compared to a net loss of $316,131 during the same period in 2008.

Cash flow provided by financing was $3,591 for the period ending December 31, 2009 compared to $ 81,340 for the same period in 2008. The reduced level in 2009 was due to the reduction of advances and notes payable by related parties made compared to previous years offset by the sale of common stock totaling $25,000 in 2009.

As of December 31, 2009, the Company had assets of $480,207 and liabilities of $180,531. Shareholders' Equity as of December 31, 2009 was $299,676 compared to a shareholders' deficit of $242,665 at December 31, 2008. Liabilities decreased in 2009 through the reduction of debt due related parties and decreased accounts payable. In addition short term debt of $97,209 was converted to long term debt maturing November 19, 2012. The Company will attempt to carry out its plan of business as discussed above. The Company cannot predict to what extent its lack of liquidity and capital resources will hinder its business plan. The Company will need additional capital to fund that proposed operation.

NEED FOR ADDITIONAL FINANCING

The Company's existing capital may not be sufficient to meet the Company's cash needs, including the costs of compliance with the continuing reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

No commitments to provide additional funds have been made by management or other stockholders. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that any funds will be available to the Company to allow it to cover its expenses.

The Company might seek to compensate providers of services by issuances of stock in lieu of cash.

The Company is active in its business and since inception has experienced significant change in liquidity or capital resources or stockholders' equity through increased sales and business activity. The Company's balance sheet as of December 31, 2009 reflects assets of $480,207 and liabilities of $189,253. There exist no agreements or understandings with regard to future loan agreements by or with the Officers, Directors, principals, affiliates or shareholders of the Company.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

During the period from August 31, 1995 (inception) through December 31, 2008, the Company engaged in limited operations and attempted to commence operations in a number of different fields, none of which was ultimately successful or resulted in any appreciable revenues for the Company. For the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company had revenues of $659,907 compared to $23,190 revenues for the year ended December 31, 2008. For the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company had operating expenses of $594,023 and net income of $93,927. For the year ended December 31, 2008, the Company had operating expenses of $313,204 resulting in a net loss of $316,131. The difference in expenses between the two periods resulted from the Company's increased expenses in operations during 2009. The net income per share was $0.00 for year ended December 31, 2009 and net loss per share of $0.00, for the year ended December 31, 2008.

The difference in revenues from 2008 to 2009 resulted from a modification to the Company's operations. In 2008, the Company was focused on developing and marketing its multiple monitor computer systems as well as becoming an Internet sales site for the sale of computers and computer components. In 2009, the Company, while still interested in both these sectors of business, had to refocus its efforts due to the economic downturn, both domestically and internationally. The Company focused its efforts in building its website network as well as concentrating its efforts on creating a brand for itself. In 2009, the Company began to provide marketing, advertising and public relations for small and medium sized companies, through disseminating information through its network of websites. In addition, the Company received a one-time royalty payment of $250,000 as revenue during the 2009 fiscal year. The balance of its revenues in 2009 came from its marketing, advertising and public relations services. The cost of revenue was $2,805 due to the Company providing services and does not have inventory or product costs. The Company's expenses in 2009 were significantly higher than 2008 due to the expenses of compensating its contractors for its services totaling approximately $408,000 which enabled the Company to produce the revenues for the year. The Company's professional services for the year were approximately $81,000, depreciation was approximately $25,000, computer costs were approximately $12,000 and advertising expenses totaled $10,187.

Item 8. Financial Statements.

Financial statements are audited and included herein beginning on Exhibit 1, page 1 and are incorporated herein by this reference.

Item 9. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

There were no disagreements with accountants on accounting and financial disclosure during the relevant period.

Item 9a. Controls & Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

For purposes of this section, the term disclosure controls and procedures means controls and other procedures of an issuer that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act") (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.) is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Act is accumulated and communicated to the issuer's management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. It should be noted that the design of any system of controls is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions, regardless of how remote. As of the end of the period covered by this Annual Report, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures. Based on this evaluation, our CEO and CFO has concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are not effective because of the identification of a material weakness in our internal control over financial reporting which is identified below, which we view as an integral part of our disclosure controls and procedures.

Changes in Internal Controls over Financial Reporting

We have not yet made any changes in our internal controls over financial reporting that occurred during the period covered by this report on Form 10-K that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Management's Annual Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as such term is defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act. Our internal control system was designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Because of inherent limitations, a system of internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate due to change in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Our management conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting using the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) in Internal Control—Integrated Framework. Based on its evaluation, our management concluded that there is a material weakness in our internal control over financial reporting. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of control deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Company's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

The material weakness relates to the lack of segregation of duties in financial reporting, as our financial reporting and all accounting functions are performed by an external consultant with no oversight by a professional with accounting expertise. Our President does not possess accounting expertise and our company does not have an audit committee. This weakness is due to the company's lack of working capital to hire additional staff. To remedy this material weakness, we intend to engage another accountant to assist with financial reporting as soon as our finances will allow.

This annual report does not include an attestation report of the Company's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to the attestation by the Company's registered public accounting firm pursuant to temporary rules of the SEC that permit the Company to provide only management's report in this annual report.

The Company's management carried out an assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009. The Company's management based its evaluation on criteria set forth in the framework in Internal Control—Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission. Based on that assessment, management has concluded that the Company's internal control over financial reporting was not effective as of December 31, 2009

Ms. Zaman has an extensive background in journalism and has a degree in Communications from Instituto Superior De Ciencia Y Tecnologia A.C. in Mexico. Mrs. Zaman possesses strong administrative credentials which have proven invaluable in handling the daily operations of the Company and reporting and working directly with the Company's CFO in ensuring that all financial transactions are accurately and properly reported.

LOWELL HOLDEN. Lowell Holden is CFO and Chief Accounting Officer of the Company as well as a director. Since 1983, Mr. Holden has owned and operating his own consulting firm, LS Enterprises, Inc., which provides business consulting, accounting and other services to businesses. Mr. Holden has a broad range of business experience including managing, securing financing, structuring of transactions, and is experienced and knowledgeable in managing relationships with customers, financing institutions and stockholders. Mr. Holden also has a background in assisting companies in fulfilling their financial auditing and SEC reporting requirements. Mr. Lowell Holden has a Bachelor's of Science degree from Iowa State University.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Officers and Directors of the Company will devote only a small portion of their time to the affairs of the Company, estimated to be no more than approximately 15 hours per month. There will be occasions when the time requirements of the Company's business conflict with the demands of their other business and investment activities. Such conflicts may require that the Company attempt to employ additional personnel. There is no assurance that the services of such persons will be available or that they can be obtained upon terms favorable to the Company.

There is no procedure in place which would allow the Officers and Directors to resolve potential conflicts in an arms-length fashion. Accordingly, they will be required to use their discretion to resolve them in a manner which they consider appropriate.

The Company's Officers and Directors may actively negotiate or otherwise consent to the purchase of a portion of their common stock as a condition to, or in connection with, a proposed merger or acquisition transaction. It is anticipated that a substantial premium over the initial cost of such shares may be paid by the purchaser in conjunction with any sale of shares by the Company's Officers and Directors which is made as a condition to, or in connection with, a proposed merger or acquisition transaction. The fact that a substantial premium may be paid to the Company's Officers and Directors to acquire their shares creates a potential conflict of interest for them in satisfying their fiduciary duties to the Company and its other shareholders. Even though such a sale could result in a substantial profit to them, they would be legally required to make the decision based upon the best interests of the Company and the Company's other shareholders, rather than their own personal pecuniary benefit.

The Company previously adopted a Code of Ethics in 2004. The Company has revised the Code of Ethics and is adopting a new Code of Ethics which applies to its directors as well as to its officers including its principal executive officer, principal financial officer, and principal accounting officer. A copy of the Code of Ethics is attached as an Exhibit to this Report and is also available on the Company's website, www.crownequityholdings.com. A copy of the Code of Ethics is also available at no charge to anyone who may send a request in writing to the Company, addressed to its CEO, at 5440 West Sahara Avenue, Suite 205, Las Vegas, NV 89146.

Identification of Certain Significant Employees. The Company does not employ any persons who make or are expected to make significant contributions to the business of the Company.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors
Crown Equity Holdings Inc.
Las Vegas, Nevada

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Crown Equity Holdings Inc. (“the Company”) as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related statements of operations, shareholders’ equity (deficit), and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Crown Equity Holdings Inc.’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company’s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Crown Equity Holdings Inc. as of December 31, 2009 and 2008 and the results of operations and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that Crown Equity Holdings Inc. will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, Crown Equity Holdings Inc. has historically suffered losses from operations which raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management’s plans regarding those matters also are described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Crown Equity considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Stock Based Compensation

The company adopted the provisions of ASC 718 requiring employee equity awards to be accounted for under the fair value method. Accordingly, share-based compensation is measured at grant date, based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as expense over the requisite employee service period. The Company estimates the fair value of share-based payments using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model for common stock options and the closing price of the company's common stock for common share issuances.

Revenue recognition

Crown Equity's revenue is recognized pursuant to ASC 605 "Revenue Recognition." The Company recognizes its revenue from services as those services are performed. Revenue recognition is limited to the amount that is not contingent upon delivery of any future service or meeting other specified performance conditions.

Services are normally completed as described on the sales invoice issued for the service provided. In most cases the services is a one-time completion and recognized when the service is completed. If a service is provided over a time period that exceeds 30 days the revenue is recognized on a monthly basis at the end of the month in which it is completed.

Contract revenues include royalties under license. Contract revenue related to technology licenses is fully recognized only after the license period has commenced, the technology has been delivered and no further involvement of Crown Equity is required.

Crown Equity receives payment for its services in both cash and equity instruments issued by the customer. The equity instruments are accounted for in accordance with the provisions of ASC 718 "Compensation – Stock Compensation" and is based on the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instrument issued, whichever is more reliably measurable. The measurement date of the fair value of the equity instrument issued is the date on which the equity instruments are received or the date on which the contract is issued for the services to be performed related to the payments received by Crown Equity. During the year ended December 31, 2009 the Company received equity securities valued at $216,685 for payment of services to the Company.

Amounts received for revenue not earned as of period end are accounted for as deferred revenues.

Marketable Securities

In accordance with Accounting Standards Codification 825 an entity is permitted to irrevocably elect fair value on a contract-by-contract basis for new assets or liabilities within the scope of ASC 825 as the initial and subsequent measurement attribute for those financial assets and liabilities and certain other items including property and casualty insurance contracts. Entities electing the fair value option are required to (i) recognize changes in fair value in earnings and (ii) expense any upfront costs and fees associated with the item for which the fair value option is elected. Entities electing the fair value option are required to distinguish, on the face of the statement of financial position, the fair value of assets and liabilities for which it has elected the fair value option, and similar assets and liabilities measured using another measurement attribute. An entity can accomplish this either by reporting the fair value and non-fair-value carrying amounts as separate line items or by aggregating those amounts and disclosing parenthetically the amount of fair value included in the aggregate amount.

Crown Equity adopted ASC 825 in the third quarter and elected the fair value option for all their marketable securities. Securities classified as long term or are not freely marketable are classified as restricted securities.

Management has elected the fair value option as management believes it best reflects the true market value of the securities at the date of valuation.

The Company reports the change in value of the securities as realized or unrealized gains or losses on a quarterly basis. The gain or loss is calculated as the difference between the acquiring value and the closing market value at the end of the reporting period. As of December 31, 2009 the Company reported realized gains of $9,515 and unrealized gains of $26,387.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are carried at the cost of acquisition or construction and depreciated over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Costs associated with repair and maintenance are expensed as incurred. Costs associated with improvements which extend the life, increase the capacity or improve the efficiency of our property and equipment are capitalized and depreciated over the remaining life of the related asset. Gains and losses on dispositions of equipment are reflected in operations. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which are 3 to 5 years.

Impairment of long-lived assets

The Company reviews the carrying value of its long-lived assets annually or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the historical-cost carrying value of an asset may no longer be appropriate. The Company assesses recoverability of the asset by comparing the undiscounted future net cash flows expected to result from the asset to its carrying value. If the carrying value exceeds the undiscounted future net cash flows of the asset, an impairment loss is measured and recognized. An impairment loss is measured as the difference between the net book value and the fair value of the long-lived asset. Fair value is estimated based upon either discounted cash flow analysis or estimated salvage value. No impairment charge was recorded in 2009 or 2008.

Basic and diluted net income (loss) per share

Basic and diluted net income (loss) per share calculations are calculated on the basis of the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. They include the dilutive effect of common stock equivalents in years with net income. Basic and diluted net income (loss) per share are the same due to the absence of common stock equivalents.

Income Taxes

Crown Equity recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities based on differences between the financial reporting and tax basis of assets and liabilities using the enacted tax rates and laws that are expected to be in effect when the differences are expected to be recovered. Crown Equity provides a valuation allowance for deferred tax assets for which it does not consider realization of such assets to be more likely than not.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, marketable securities and debt. The carrying amount of these financial instruments approximates fair value due either to length of maturity or interest rates that approximate prevailing market rates unless otherwise disclosed in these consolidated financial statements.

Crown Equity does not expect the adoption of any recently issued accounting pronouncements to have a significant impact on their financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN

As shown in the accompanying financial statements, Crown Equity has an accumulated deficit of December 31, 2009. Crown Equity had an increase in equity of $542,341 from the prior year. Although the equity increased substantially in year 2009 compared to year 2008 the Company has had an accumulated deficit and losses for numerous years prior to 2009. Unless profitability and increase in shareholders equity continues, these conditions raises doubt as to Crown Equity's ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if Crown Equity is unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 4 – INCOME TAXES

The Company follows Accounting Standards Codification 740, Accounting for Income Taxes. During 2009 there was a change in control of the Company.

Under section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code such a change in control negates much of the tax loss carry forward and deferred income tax. Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of (a) temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax reporting purposes, and (b) net operating loss carry forwards. For federal income tax purposes, the Company uses the accrual basis of accounting, the same that is used for financial reporting purposes.
