(e) Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida (“Seacoast” or the “Company”) entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release (the “Agreement”) with Jean Strickland on August 31, 2012. Under the Agreement, the Company will pay Ms. Strickland a lump sum of $214,750, less tax-related deductions and withholdings and she will provide transition services for a period of six (6) months. Additionally, the Company will reimburse Ms. Strickland for reasonable legal expenses she actually incurs with a maximum amount of $20,000, and will pay health insurance premiums for a period of up to 6 months after her termination; provided Ms. Strickland remains eligible for COBRA health insurance continuation. Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company agreed that Ms. Strickland, as of the date of the termination of her employment, will no longer be bound by the section of her employment agreement relating to noncompetition. However, the Separation Agreement requires Ms. Strickland be subject to certain restrictive covenants, which include non-recruitment of Company’s employees and affiliates, non-interference in Company’s business relationships, and non-disclosure of Company’s confidential information. In addition, Ms. Strickland will provide the Company with a waiver and general release of the Company.
