BANCOLOMBIA S.A. (NYSE: CIB; BVC: BCOLOMBIA, PFBCOLOM) REPORTS CONSOLIDATED NET INCOME OF 733 BILLION FOR THE SECOND QUARTER OF 2016, WHICH REPRESENTS AN INCREASE OF 84% COMPARED TO THE PREVIOUS QUARTER AND AN INCREASE OF 6% COMPARED TO THE SECOND QUARTER OF 2015.

Net interest income grew 37.2% compared to 2Q15. This strong growth is explained by higher volumes in the loan portfolio and by an expansion of the net interest margin, which increased 70 basis points in the last year.

The net interest margin was 6.1% for the quarter. This result is supported by the balance sheet's sensibility to hikes in the interest rates, the successive increases in the reference rate by the central bank, higher rates commanded on new loans, as well as, good performance in investments that ultimately improved the margin from 5.6% to 6.1% in the quarter.

Net fees increased by 12.4% compared to 2Q15. This solid growth was mainly driven by an increase in fees related to banking services, credit and debit cards, and distribution of insurance products through the bank's network. This growth is mainly explained by a higher number of transactions.

Tier 1 increased during the quarter to 8.5%. The capital adequacy ratio was 13.16%, which indicates that Bancolombia has enough reserves and capital to maintain its operation and develop its business plan.

Efficiency for 2Q16 was 48.2%, improving compared to 1Q16. Higher net interest income as well as a tighter control on the growth of expenses led to an improvement in efficiency for the quarter.

1. BALANCE SHEET

1.1. Assets

As of June 30, 2016, Bancolombia's assets totaled COP 188,399 billion, which represents a decrease of 1.6% compared to 1Q16 and an increase of 19.0% compared to 2Q15. The consolidation of BAM at the end of 2015 contributes with 7.0% of the total asset's annual growth (37% of marginal growth).

During the quarter, the COP appreciated 2.7% versus the USD and depreciated 12.3% over the past 12 months. The decrease in total assets is largely explained by the reduced value of loans denominated in dollars that represent fewer pesos when converted and a reduction in the position of investment and derivatives.

1.2. Loan Portfolio

The following table shows the composition of Bancolombia's investments and loans by type and currency:

(COP Million)	Amounts in COP		Amounts in USD converted to COP		Amounts in USD (thousands)		Total

The quarter 2Q16 shows an increase in gross loans of 0.7%. In the quarter the consumer, mortgage and small business segments increased while the commercial segment slightly decreased. In addition, in comparison with a year ago, total gross loans grew 20.3%. Of this annual growth, 6.3% (31% of marginal variation) is explained by the incorporation of BAM.

Gross loans denominated in currencies different from COP product of our operation in El Salvador, Panama and Guatemala accounted for 37.8% at the end of 2Q16.

Edgar Filing: BANCOLOMBIA SA - Form 6-K

Total reserves (allowances in the balance sheet) for loan losses increased by 6.9% during 2Q16 and totaled COP 5,776 billion, equivalent to 4.0% of gross loans at the end of the quarter.

For further explanation regarding coverage of the loan portfolio and credit quality trends, (see section 2.4. Asset Quality, Provision Charges and Balance Sheet Strength).

The following table summarizes Bancolombia's total loan portfolio:

1.3. Investment Portfolio

As of June 30, 2016, Bancolombia's net investment portfolio totaled COP 12,701 billion, decreasing 15.6% compared to the figure reported in 1Q16 and 0.6% compared to 2Q15. The investment portfolio consists primarily of debt securities, which represent 67.1% of Bancolombia's total investments and 4.5% of assets at the end of 2Q16. The decrease in the portfolio, during the quarter, is due to a decision to reduce the impact of interest rate hikes and aims to keep the duration at historically low levels.

At the end of 2Q16, the investments in debt securities had a duration of 18.5 months and a yield to maturity of 7.32%.

1.4. Goodwill and intangibles

As of 2Q16, Bancolombia's goodwill and intangibles totaled COP 6,524 billion, decreasing 2.3% compared to 1Q16. This variation is explained by the appreciation of the COP against the USD during the quarter.

1.5. Funding

As of June 30, 2016, Bancolombia's liabilities totaled COP 167,954 billion, decreasing 2.1% with respect to 1Q16 and increasing 20.3% compared to 2Q15. Of this annual growth, 7.1% (35% of marginal variation) is explained by the incorporation of BAM.

Deposits by customers totaled COP 114,586 billion (or 68.2% of liabilities) at the end of 2Q16, decreasing 1.9% during the quarter and increasing 17.9% over the last 12 months. The net loans to deposits ratio (including borrowings from domestic development banks) was 116% at the end of 2Q16, which marks an increase in comparison to the 113% reported in 1Q16.

Bancolombia's funding strategy during the last months has been to extend the average life of time deposits and promote saving accounts in the consumer segment in order to keep the funding cost to the minimum. The objective is to build and maintain ample liquidity and increase the sensibility in the balance sheet to hikes in the interest rates, which has been reflected in higher net interest margin. This strategy, added to the Central Bank's rate hikes, increased the cost of deposits during the quarter.

Bancolombia's capital adequacy ratio was 13.16% in 2Q16. This figure highlights the company's solid capital position.

Bancolombia's capital adequacy ratio was 416 basis points above the minimum 9% required by the Colombian regulator, while the basic capital ratio (Tier 1) to risk weighted assets was 8.46%, 396 basis points above the regulatory minimum of 4.5%. The tangible capital ratio, defined as shareholders' equity minus goodwill and intangible assets divided by tangible assets, was 6.91% at the end of 2Q16.

2. INCOME STATEMENT

Net income totaled COP 733 billion in 2Q16, or COP 751.4 per share - USD 1.03 per ADR (excluding discontinued operations). This net income represents an increase of 84.5% compared to 1Q16 and 6.3% compared to 2Q15. This increase in net income, in the quarter, is explained by an increase in the net interest income, as well as, the normalization of tax on wealth. Bancolombia's annualized ROE for 2Q16 was 15.2%.

2.1. Net Interest Income

Net interest income totaled COP 2,432 billion in 2Q16, 5.8% more than that reported in 1Q16, and 37.2% higher than the figure for 2Q15. Higher volumes in loans and interest margins drove the positive annual performance of this line. Of this annual increase in revenue, BAM contributes 6.0% (16% of marginal variation). The quarterly performance is explained by an improvement in the net interest margin.

During 2Q16, the investment, interest rate derivatives and repos portfolio generated COP 182 billion.

Net Interest Margin

The annualized net interest margin increased to 6.1% in 2Q16. The annualized net interest margin for investments was 2.8%, lower than the 3.0% of 1Q16 and the annualized net interest margin of the loan portfolio was 6.4%, growing 50bp compared to 1Q16.

The re-pricing of existing loans and the origination of new loans at higher rates were the factors that drove the net interest margin expansion during the quarter.

Loans' Interest margin	6.0 %	5.9 %	6.4 %
Debt investments' margin	-0.5 %	3.0 %	2.8 %

The funding cost increased during 2Q16 due to the increase in the reference rate of the Colombian Central Bank. Savings and checking accounts remained the same as a proportion of the total cost of funding presented last quarter, and the annualized average weighted cost of deposits was 3.15% in 2Q16, increasing 36 basis points compared to

Fees and Income from Services

During 2Q16, net fees and income from services totaled COP 572 billion, increasing 1.1% with respect to 1Q16 and 12.4% with respect to 2Q15. The positive performance in fees is due to higher volumes of transactions and the outstanding performance of banking services, credit and debit cards and bancassurance.

Fees from credit and debit cards increased 0.4% compared to 1Q16 and 7.0% compared to 2Q15. Fees from asset management and trust services increased 1.0% compared to 1Q16 and 9.7% compared to 2Q15. Fees from our bancassurance business increased 26.2% compared to 1Q16, due largely to seasonal variations, and 32.3% with respect to 2Q15, thanks to the successful cross-selling initiatives led by our sales teams.
