On May 12, 2017, the stockholders of American Public Education, Inc. (the “Company”) approved the American Public Education, Inc. 2017 Omnibus Incentive Plan (the “2017 Plan”) at the Company’s 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the “Annual Meeting”). A description of the 2017 Plan is set forth in the Company’s Definitive Proxy Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 31, 2017 (the “Proxy Statement”), in the section entitled “Proposal No. 4 – Approval of the American Public Education, Inc. 2017 Omnibus Incentive Plan,” which description is incorporated herein by reference. The description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copy of the 2017 Plan that is attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 10.1.

On May 12, 2017, the Board of Directors of the Company, acting upon the recommendation of its Compensation Committee (the “Committee”), adopted the American Public Education, Inc. Executive Severance Plan (the “Severance Plan”). The Severance Plan is effective as of May 12, 2017 and shall continue until it is terminated, provided that any termination of the Severance Plan will not become effective until 12 months after the date of the Committee’s or the Board’s action to terminate the Severance Plan. The Severance Plan is intended to provide severance benefits to Senior Vice Presidents of the Company that are designated by the Committee, including the Company’s named executive officers who do not have employment agreements, Tom Beckett, our Senior Vice President and General Counsel, and Amy Panzarella, our Senior Vice President, Human Resources and Community Affairs. The Severance Plan will be administered by the Committee and is subject to amendment by the Committee or the Board.

In order to participate in and receive any severance benefits under the Severance Plan, each participant must comply with covenants not to compete with the Company and its affiliates and not to solicit employees of the Company or its affiliates, in each case during the term of employment and for a period of 12 months thereafter. In addition, in order to receive any of the severance benefits described above, a participant must agree to release all claims against the Company and its affiliates and their respective officers and directors

Pursuant to the Severance Plan, a participant whose employment is terminated by the Company without Cause (as defined in the Severance Plan) or by the participant for Good Reason (as defined in the Severance Plan) (and not as a result of disability or death) would be entitled, in addition to any unpaid amounts already owed to the participant, to receive: an amount equal to the sum of the participant’s base salary in effect immediately prior to the termination date, payable for a 12-month period; an amount equivalent to 12 months of health care benefits; and an amount equal to the product of (a) the annual cash bonus, if any, that the participant would have earned for the entire calendar year in which the termination date occurs based on the actual level of achievement of any Company performance goals for such year and the higher of the actual or target level of achievement of any individual performance goals for such year, and (b) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days the participant was employed by the Company during the calendar year in which the termination date occurs and the denominator of which is the number of days in such year.

A participant whose employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by the participant for good reason (and not as a result of disability or death) within six months following a Change in Control (as defined in the Severance Plan) would be entitled, in addition to any unpaid amounts already owed to the participant, to receive: an amount equal to the 1.5 times the sum of the participant's base salary in effect immediately prior to the termination date, plus the participant's target annual bonus for the year in which the termination date occurs; and 18 months of healthcare benefits.

The Severance Plan does not affect the terms of any outstanding equity awards. The treatment of any outstanding equity awards will be determined in accordance with the terms of the Company equity plan or plans under which they were granted and any applicable award agreements.

The foregoing description of the Severance Plan is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copy of the Severance Plan that is attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 10.2.
