BUSINESS REPORT

(From April 1, 2004, to March 31, 2005)

1. The Business Environment

(1) Progress and Results of Operations of the Makita Group

Regarding economic trends overseas during the year under review, the U.S. showed a moderate expansionary trend supported by firmness in private consumption and private capital investment. In Europe, although the U.K. economy was strong, boosted by demand for construction, the economies of Germany and other major countries saw a weakening of export growth because of the appreciation of the euro. Asian economies outside Japan, especially China, continued to sustain high rates of economic growth.

In Japan, firm expansion in private capital investment continued, but as a result of sharp increases in raw materials prices and other factors, the performance of the economy as whole lost robustness in the second half of the year, thus bringing only relatively weak recovery.

Under these conditions, the Makita Group worked to expand its production in China and proceeded with initiatives to develop high value-added products that accurately meet user needs. In its sales activities, Makita continued to implement a global marketing strategy founded on after sales service that is closely integrated into local areas.

In addition, Makita made the decision to withdraw from golf course operations, and on September 8, 2004, petitioned the Nagoya District Court for the commencement of civil rehabilitation proceedings for its wholly owned subsidiary Joyama Kaihatsu, Ltd. On April 11, 2005, the court decided to approve the plan for rehabilitation. Going forward, after making final confirmation of the rehabilitation plan, Makita plans to settle obligations related to the rehabilitation and then plans to transfer management rights of the company to a third party, Tokyo Tatemono Co., Ltd., towards the end of May 2005.

Regarding consolidated results for the year under review, net sales totaled 194,737 million yen, up 5.8% from the previous year, the highest level in the Company's history. Sales in Japan rose 0.6%, to 39,379 million yen despite relatively weak sales of the existing lineup of products because of the strong performance of new products, including impact drivers. Overseas sales climbed 7.2%, to 155,358 million yen, reflecting increases in sales in Europe and Asia outside Japan as well as other factors. As a consequence, overseas sales accounted for 79.8% of net sales for the year.

Examining overseas sales by individual region, sales in Europe were up 13.4%, to 75,263 million yen, while sales in North America declined 8.0%, to 38,490 million yen. Sales in Asia outside Japan rose 14.7%, to 16,341 million yen, and sales in other regions increased 12.2%, to 25,264 million yen.

Regarding earnings, the Company's cost to sales ratio improved because of expansion in production at plants in Japan and China. Moreover, during the previous year, Makita reported an impairment loss of approximately 6.0 billion yen related to its golf course subsidiary. The absence of this loss in the year under review and other special factors, including the reporting of a gain of 4.4 billion yen in connection with the return of the substitutional portion of the Company's Employee Pension Fund to the government resulted in an increase in operating income of 2.1 times, to 31,398 million yen. Similarly, income before income taxes rose 2.0 times, to 32,618 million yen, and net income climbed 2.9 times, to 22,136 million yen.

Please note that on a non-consolidated basis, Makita reported an extraordinary loss of approximately 7.0 billion yen in connection with the civil rehabilitation proceedings for its subsidiary engaged in golf course operations. However, for purposes of consolidated accounting, the Company recognized the full amount of impairment losses related to this subsidiary in the previous year and it had no impact on the results for the year under review.

Edgar Filing: MAKITA CORP - Form 6-K

(2) Future Tasks of the Makita Group

Despite expectations for a global trend toward modest economic recovery, sharply higher oil prices and increased prices of other basic materials continue to make the corporate operating environment uncertain.

Duly noting these circumstances, Makita intends to further strengthen its subsidiaries and affiliates in all overseas markets and will work to expand production overseas, in China and other countries, to substantially enhance its cost competitiveness. Also, by increasing its capabilities for developing new products that satisfy professional users and maintaining its brand image, Makita is striving to be what it refers to as a Strong Company, or, in other words, a company that can earn and maintain worldwide market leadership in markets for professional-use power tools. In this way, Makita is striving to be such a Strong Company and achieve improved performance.

Regarding the previously announced plan to acquire the nailer business of Kanematsu-NNK Corp. on April 1, 2005, at the request of Kanematsu-NNK Corp., Makita announced a postponement of the acquisition on February 22, 2005. Makita is scheduled to announce further details related to this acquisition when they have been decided.

In closing, we would like to thank you for your ongoing support and ask for your continued backing.

(3) Investment in Plant and Equipment of the Makita Group

During the fiscal year, the Company allocated 6,655 million yen for its capital expenditures. These funds were used primarily for production of metal molds for new products manufactured by the Company, construction of the manufacturing equipment at Makita (China) Co., Ltd., construction of the new building of the head office of Makita (Australia) Pty. Ltd. and production of metal molds for new products manufactured by Dolmar GmbH (Germany).

(4) Capital Procurement of the Makita Group

During the fiscal year, the Company did not procure capital by issuing new shares or bonds.

Shareholders' equity (in millions of yen)	189,939	182,400	193,348	219,640

Notes: 1. Consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. From the 91st term, sales promotion expenses and other costs which deemed as discount to sales were excluded from net sales and such change was applied for the 90th term retroactively.

2. Net income per share is computed based on the average number of common stock outstanding during the fiscal year.

3. Amounts of less than 1 million yen have been rounded.

The 90th term:

Net sales increased 6.5% from the previous fiscal year to 166,169 million yen, owing to the depreciation of the yen. Net income amounted to 133 million yen, decreased 93.8% from the previous fiscal year, due to a rise in selling, general and administrative expenses in oversea subsidiaries, increased losses in U.S. manufacturing subsidiary due to inventory reduction and the losses on marketable and investment securities.

The 91st term:

Net sales amounted to 175,603 million yen, up 5.7% from the previous fiscal year due to sales increases in all regions but North America, the effects of the depreciation of the yen, and other factors. Net income amounted to 6,723 million yen, because of such developments as the restoration of U.S. operations' profitability owing to the adoption of a lower-cost business structure and the shift of a greater share of the Makita Group's manufacturing operations to China-based subsidiaries.

The 92nd term:

Net sales amounted to 184,117 million yen, up 4.8% from the previous fiscal year as a result of sales increases in all regions except North America and Central/South America. Despite the recording of a loss at approximately 6 billion yen on the impairment on the assets of a golf course subsidiary, net income amounted to 7,691 million yen, up 14.4% from the previous fiscal year because of such developments as an improvement in the cost-of-sales ratio, owing to such factors as a rise in the share of manufacturing operations carried out in China and the appreciation of the euro.

The 93rd term:

A review of the period is provided in (1) Progress and Results of Operations of the Makita Group.

Shareholders' equity (in millions of yen)	189,997	185,222	192,356	197,891

Notes: 1. Net income per share is computed based on the average number of common stock outstanding during the fiscal year.

2. Effective April 1, 2002, the Company adopted the new accounting standard for earnings per share and related guidance (Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 2, Accounting Standard for Earnings Per Share and Financial Standards Implementation Guidance No. 4, Implementation Guidance for Accounting Standard for Earnings Per Share).

3. As a result of the reform of Commercial Code Enforcement Regulation, from the 92nd term, amounts of less than 1 million yen have been rounded. Before 91st term, amounts of less than 1 million yen had been eliminated.

The 90th term:

Net sales amounted to 89,424 million yen, down 8.0% from the previous fiscal year, owing to such factors as a shift of manufacturing operations to a China-based subsidiary and moves taken by Japanese retailers to reduce inventory levels that had risen amid the protracted recession. Just as in the previous year, the Company recorded an amortization of the pension liabilities (net of the fair market value of plan assets) that existed at the beginning of the period during which the new accounting standard was implemented, and it also recorded unrealized losses on investment securities. These and other factors depressed net income 47.5%, to 2,100 million yen.

The 91st term:

Net sales amounted to 86,132 million yen, down 3.7% from the previous fiscal year, because of stagnation in power tool demand in Japan, decrease in export sales as a shift of manufacturing operations to a China-based subsidiary, and other factors. The Company recorded an amortization of the pension liabilities (net of the fair market value of plan assets) that existed at the beginning of the period during which the new accounting standard was implemented, and it also recorded unrealized losses on investment securities. These and other factors depressed net income 28.8%, to 1,494 million yen.

The 92nd term:

Net sales rose 2.6% from the previous fiscal year to 88,335 million yen, primarily due to sales growth in new products related to home remodeling and sales increases in Asia and Europe. Net income increased around 3.8 times from the previous fiscal year to 5,668 million yen, with a gain on the sale of the Company's No. 3 factory and a large drop in devaluation losses on investment securities.

The 93rd term:

Net sales rose 10.8% from the previous fiscal year to 97,873 million yen, primarily due to sales growth of new products such as impact drivers and strong sales increases in Asia and Europe. Net income increased 61.4% from the previous fiscal year to 9,149 million yen, primarily due to a gain resulted from the return to the Government of the substitutional portion of the Company's Employee Pension Fund and an increase of dividends paid by our consolidated subsidiaries.

Retirement and termination allowances:

In accordance with SFAS No.87, Employers Accounting for Pensions , pension and severance cost is accrued based on the projected benefit obligations and the fair value of plan assets at the balance sheet date. If the accumulated benefit obligation (i.e., obligations deducting an effect of future compensation levels from projected benefit obligations) exceeds the fair value of plan assets, a minimum pension liability equal to this difference is reflected in the consolidated balance sheets by recognizing an additional minimum pension liability. Unrecognized prior service cost is amortized by the straight-line method over the average remaining service period of employees. Unrecognized actuarial loss is recognized by amortizing a portion in excess of 10% of the greater of the projected benefit obligations or the fair value of plan assets by the straight-line method over the average remaining service period of employees.

Changes in Accounting Policies

(Change in Accounting for Forward Foreign Exchange Contracts)

Previously, when forward foreign exchange contracts met the conditions for application of the allocation method, the Company applied the allocation method. However, following the implementation of improvements in the Company's business process systems, beginning with the fiscal year under review, the Company has, in principle, applied the Accounting Standards for Financial Instruments. Specifically, the Company now states forward foreign exchange contracts, which are a form of financial hedge, at market value and applies the principles of the revised foreign currency standards for foreign currency assets and liabilities that are subject to hedging, and values such assets at the foreign currency rates prevailing on the balance sheet date. This change is, in principle, a change in accounting treatment from the allocation method to a method permitted as a special exception. The Company adopted this new method to achieve consistency in profitability with the hedge accounting standards applied in the financial statements of the parent company and the Company's consolidated financial statements and to present the Company's financial position more accurately. Please note that this change in accounting treatment does not have a material impact on the financial statements.
