The matters discussed in this Current Report on Form 8-K include forward looking statements, which are subject to various risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results anticipated in such forward looking statements. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors include the uncertainties inherent in oil and gas development and production activities, the effect of actions by third parties including government officials, fluctuations in world oil prices and other risks detailed in the Company's Reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The forward-looking statements are intended to help shareholders and others assess the Company's business prospects and should be considered together with all information available. They are made in reliance upon the safe harbor provisions of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company cannot give assurance that the results will be attained.

Section 7 Regulation FD

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

December 20, 2007 Guernsey, Channel Islands CanArgo Energy Corporation (CanArgo or the Company) (OSE: CNR, AMEX: CNR) today announced that it had received confirmation from Schlumberger that mobilisation of the equipment for the planned acid fracturing stimulation program of the Manavi 12 well in Georgia commenced on December 19, 2007 as planned.

The acid for the stimulation work is already on site at M12 and the well is fully prepared and ready for the arrival of the fracturing equipment which is expected to arrive on location during the first or second week of January 2008. Once the equipment has been rigged up and tested, the acid fracturing operation will be performed and the well will be flow tested.
