Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 30, 2004, AmNet Mortgage, Inc. ("Company") entered into an executive employment agreement with each of its executive officers. The following is a summary description of the executive employment agreements. The full agreements are provided as exhibits to this Form 8-K.

The employment agreement with John Robbins, the Company's CEO, dated September 30, 2004 provides for the payment to Mr. Robbins of a $485,000 minimum base annual salary. The agreement also provides for the following severance benefits if Mr. Robbins' employment terminates involuntarily without "Cause" or if Mr. Robbins terminates his employment voluntarily for "Good Reason," each as defined in the agreement: (a) a lump sum payment equal to 24 months' of Mr. Robbins' then effective base salary, (b) plus 200% of Mr. Robbins' target bonus for the year in which termination occurs, and (c) the continuation of the Company's paid benefits for two years. The agreement further provides that if Mr. Robbins is terminated within 12 months of a change of control, he will receive the severance package stated above and he will receive a tax gross-up payment to mitigate the effect of any excise tax imposed under the "golden parachute" provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. In the event of termination due to death or disability, Mr. Robbins will receive his base salary and target bonus, each prorated for the year of termination.

The employment agreements dated September 30, 2004 with each of Jay Fuller, Judith Berry and Lisa Faulk (the "Executives") provide for the payments to Mr. Fuller, Ms. Berry and Ms. Faulk of a $325,000, $265,000 and $225,000, respectively, minimum base annual salary. The agreements also provide for the following severance benefits if the Executive's employment terminates involuntarily without "Cause" or if the Executive terminates his or her employment with us voluntarily for "Good Reason," each as defined in the agreements: (a) a lump sum payment equal to 12 months' of the Executive's then effective base salary, (b) plus an amount equal to any bonus amounts earned in the fiscal year prior to termination, and (c) the continuation of the Company's paid benefits for one year. The agreements further provide that if the Executive is terminated within 12 months of a change of control, he or she will receive a severance package equal to (a) a lump sum payment equal to 18 months of the Executive's then effective base salary, (b) plus 150% of the Executive's target bonus for the year in which termination occurs, (c) the continuation of the Company's paid benefits for 18 months, and (d) a tax gross-up payment to mitigate the effect of any excise tax imposed under the "golden parachute" provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. In the event of termination due to death or disability, the Executive will receive his or her base salary and target bonus, each prorated for the year of termination.

The term for each agreement is three years and may be subject to automatic extension of up to two years for Mr. Robbins and 18 months for the other Executives following a change of control.
