ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On August 3, 2011, Republic Bank & Trust Company (the “Bank”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Republic Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”), amended and restated its Program Agreement, dated September 19, 2007, as previously amended on December 2, 2008, November 23, 2009, December 29, 2009, June 30, 2010, September 20, 2010, December 14, 2010 and June 29, 2011 (the “Program Agreement”) with Jackson Hewitt, Inc. (“JHI”).

The parties amended and restated the Program Agreement to, among other things:

- (1) add Jackson Hewitt Technology Services LLC (“JHTSL”) as a party to the Program Agreement whereby JHTSL agreed to provide certain technology services, including personnel to the Bank, in connection with the services provided for under the Program Agreement;
- (2) set the term of the Program Agreement to expire on October 14, 2014;
- (3) remove the Bank’s annual option to unilaterally terminate the Program Agreement;
- (4) amend the termination provisions of the Program Agreement to provide the Bank an additional termination right due to regulatory direction relative to its tax products; and
- (5) amend the provisions of the Program Agreement to modify, in part, the method of designation of Jackson Hewitt tax preparation locations that will offer the Bank’s tax products in 2012, 2013 and 2014 and provide that the Bank shall be the exclusive tax product provider in those locations.

As a result of this amendment, the total number of Jackson Hewitt tax preparation offices that will offer the Bank’s tax products in 2012 is not expected to differ materially from the number of Jackson Hewitt tax preparation offices that offered the Bank’s products in 2011.

The Company will seek confidential treatment from the Securities and Exchange Commission for certain portions of the Program Agreement in connection with filing such agreement as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The forward-looking statements in the preceding paragraphs are based on our current expectations and assumptions regarding our business, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Our actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements. We caution you therefore against relying on any of these forward-looking statements. They are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include consumer demand for tax related products, consumer demand for Jackson Hewitt’s tax services and tax services generally, the ability to replace revenue in the event Jackson Hewitt is not able to perform due to its bankruptcy status, losses on Refund Anticipation Loans (“RALs”), regulatory pressure to curtail or exit the RAL business, overall product mix and overhead cost to the Bank, and other factors set forth as “Risk Factors” at Part I, Item 1A in the Company’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 and in the Company’s other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Any forward-looking statement made by us in this Form 8-K speaks only as of the date on which it is made. Factors or events that could cause our actual results to differ may emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for us to predict all of them. We undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, except as may be required by law.
