5. Trade accounts receivable (continued):

The factoring agreement allows the Company to borrow up to $15,000,000 limited by certain percentages of outstanding accounts receivable and finished goods inventory owned by the Company. At May 31, 2002, the net available under this agreement was approximately $2,400,000. The Company's Chairman has provided a $1,000,000 personal guarantee in connection with the factoring arrangement.

6. Dividends:

On March 29, 2002, the company issued a stock dividend of 10% to shareholders of record as of March 22, 2002. The company issued 106,489 additional shares of common stock, increasing the total number of shares outstanding to 1,171,169.

On May 10, 2002, the Company paid a dividend of $.10 (ten cents) per share for a total of approximately $117,000 to the shareholders of record as of April 26, 2002. On February 8, 2002, the Company paid a dividend of $.15 (fifteen cents) per share for a total of approximately $159,000 to the shareholders of record as of January 25, 2002. Additionally, on December 7, 2001 the Company paid a dividend of $.15 (fifteen cents) per share for a total of approximately $159,000 to the shareholders of record as of November 23, 2001. During fiscal 2001, the Company declared and paid dividends of $1.35 per share.

7. Significant Customers:

Sales to two separate customers (Mervyn's and Kohl's) accounted for 33.0% and 14.3% respectively of the Company's net sales in the three months ended May 31, 2002. Sales to two separate customers accounted for 40.1% and 19.3% of the Company's net sales in the three months ended May 31, 2001. Two customers (Mervyn's and Kohl's) accounted for 44.8% and 18.6% of the Company's net sales for the nine months ended May 31, 2002.

Three customers (Mervyn's, Sears and Kohl's) accounted for 45.6%, 14.0% and 13.4% respectively of the Company's trade receivable balance at May 31, 2002. Two customers (Mervyn's and Costco) accounted for 31.2% and 27.3% of the Company's trade receivable balance at May 31, 2001.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Results of Operations

Nine Months Ended May 31, 2002 Compared to the Nine Months Ended May 31, 2001

Net sales for the nine months ended May 31, 2002 decreased approximately $3.8 million or 14.1% as compared to the nine months ended May 31, 2001. This decline was attributable to a decrease in unit sales in the Company's sleepwear and western wear product lines, due primarily to the general U.S. economic slowdown.

Cost of sales as a percent of net sales increased 3.0% generating a lower gross profit margin of 24.3% for the nine months ended May 31, 2002 as compared to 27.3% for the year earlier period. The decrease came as the result of the proportionally larger decline in sales of higher margin western wear product. The Company's product mix constantly changes to reflect customer mix, fashion trends and changing seasons. Consequently, gross margin is likely to vary on a quarter-to-quarter basis and in comparison to gross margins generated in the same period of prior fiscal years.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the nine months ended May 31, 2002 declined $344,000 as compared to a year ago, due primarily to a decrease in sales commissions in line with the reduced sales volume noted above. Expenses increased as a percent of net sales to 23.5% from 21.5% in the year earlier period, due to the decrease in net sales from the earlier period.

Three Months Ended May 31, 2002 Compared to the Three Months Ended May 31, 2001

Net sales for the three months ended May 31, 2002 decreased approximately $1.3 million (15.5%) as compared to the three months ended May 31, 2001. This decline was attributable to a decrease in unit sales in the Company's sleepwear and western wear product lines, due primarily to the general U.S. economic slowdown.

Cost of sales as a percent of net sales decreased 0.5%, generating a higher gross profit margin of 29.0% for the three months ended May 31, 2002 as compared to 28.5% for the year earlier period. The increase in gross margin came as the result of the proportionally larger decline in sales of lower gross margin sleepwear during the period. The Company's product mix constantly changes to reflect customer mix, fashion trends and changing seasons. Consequently, gross margin is likely to vary on a quarter-to-quarter basis and in comparison to gross margins generated in the same period of prior fiscal years.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the third quarter of fiscal 2002 were approximately equal to the year ago period. Expenses increased as a percent of net sales to 27.3% from 23.1% in the year earlier period, due to the decrease in net sales from the earlier period.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Working capital declined to $6.1 million at May 31, 2002 from $6.5 million at August 31, 2001. However, the current ratio increased to 5.33:1 at May 31, 2002 from 3.41:1 at August 31, 2001.

On May 10, 2002, the Company paid a dividend of $.10 (ten cents) per share for a total of approximately $117,000 to the shareholders of record as of April 26, 2002. The Company paid a dividend of $.15 (fifteen cents) per share on February 8, 2002, for a total of approximately $159,000. The Company also paid a dividend of $.15 (fifteen cents) per share on December 7, 2001, for a total of approximately $159,000.

The Company sells substantially all of its trade receivables to a factor (CIT) on a pre-approved, non-recourse basis. The Company attempts to make any recourse shipments on a COD basis or ensure that the customers' payments are backed by a commercial or standby letter of credit issued by the customers' bank. The amount of the Company's receivables that were recourse and were not made on a COD basis or supported by commercial or standby letters of credit at May 31, 2002 was approximately $436,000 of which approximately $188,000 had been collected through June 30, 2002.

Payment for non-recourse factored receivables is made at the time customers make payment to CIT or, if a customer is financially unable to make payment, within approximately 180 days of the invoice due date. Under the factoring agreement, the Company can request advances in anticipation of customer collections at CIT's prime rate (currently 4.75%) less one-half percent, and open letters of credit through CIT. The amount of borrowings by the Company, including a portion of outstanding letters of credit, are limited to certain percentages of outstanding accounts receivable and finished goods inventory owned by the Company. Borrowings are collateralized by all of the assets of the Company as well as a $1 million guaranty of the Company's Chairman. At May 31, 2002, the Company had outstanding letters of credit of approximately $2.7 million for the purchase of finished goods, which had been opened through CIT. The agreement can be terminated by CIT on 60-days written notice.

The factoring agreement allows the Company to borrow up to $15 million limited by certain percentages of outstanding accounts receivable and finished goods inventory owned by the Company. At May 31, 2002, the net available under this agreement was approximately $2.4 million. The Company believes the agreement with CIT, along with expected cash flow from operating activities and current levels of working capital, are adequate to fulfill the Company's liquidity needs for the foreseeable future.

Inventory

In its ordinary course of operations, the Company generally makes some sales below its normal selling prices or below cost. Based on prior experience, management believes this will be true for some inventory held on or acquired after May 31, 2002. The amount of such sales depends on several factors, including general economic conditions, market conditions within the apparel industry, the desirability of the styles held in inventory and competitive pressures from other garment suppliers.

The Company's inventory decreased from $5.4 million at August 31, 2001, to $2.8 million at May 31, 2002. The Company has established an inventory markdown reserve as of May 31, 2002, which management believes will be sufficient for current inventory that is expected to sell below cost in the future. There can be no assurance that the Company will realize its expected selling prices, or that the inventory markdown reserve will be adequate, for items in inventory as of May 31, 2002 for which customer sales orders have not yet been received. The inventory markdown reserve is calculated based on specific identification of aged goods and styles that are slow-moving or selling off-price.

Backlog

The Company had unfilled customer orders of $12.3 million at May 31, 2002, compared to $12.8 million at May 31, 2001, with such orders generally scheduled for delivery by November 2002 and November 2001, respectively. Reduced orders in both the sleepwear and western wear product lines contributed to the decrease in backlog of $0.5 million. These amounts include both confirmed and unconfirmed orders that the Company believes, based on industry practice and past experience, will be confirmed. While cancellations, rejections and returns have generally not been material in the past, there can be no assurance that cancellations, rejections and returns will not reduce the amount of sales realized from the backlog of orders at May 31, 2002. Because of the Company's reliance upon a few major accounts, any adverse impact of the current economic downturn on one or more of these customers could lead to the cancellation of existing orders and/or an inability to secure future orders, which would have a material adverse financial effect on the Company.

Impact of Exchange Rates

While the Company purchases over 90% of its products from foreign manufacturers, all of its purchases are denominated in United States dollars. Because the Company's products are sold primarily in the United States, in dollar denominated transactions, the Company does not engage in hedging or other arbitrage to reduce currency risk. An increase in the value of the dollar versus foreign currencies could enhance the Company's purchasing power for new purchase orders and reduce its cost of goods sold. Conversely, a decrease in the value of the dollar relative to foreign currencies could result in an increase in the Company's cost of manufacturing for new purchase orders and costs of goods sold.

Impact of Inflation and Deflation

Management does not believe that inflation has had any material impact upon the Company's revenues or income from operations to date. Management believes that the apparel sector in which the Company operates has been in a period of deflation, contrary to the modest inflation experienced in the economy in general. The persistence of the consumer to buy on sale merchandise has put pressure on retail gross margins, which in turn has led to downward pressure from retailers on wholesale gross margins. Without a corresponding decrease in fabric and labor prices, this has led to a decline in wholesale gross margins. Management believes these modest deflationary pressures will continue into the foreseeable future.

Cautionary Statement Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

Statements in the quarterly report on Form 10-Q under the caption "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations", as well as oral statements that may be made by the Company or by officers, directors or employees of the Company acting on the Company's behalf, that are not historical fact constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may cause the Company's actual results in future periods to differ materially from forecasted results. Those risks include a softening of retailer or consumer acceptance of the Company's products, pricing pressures and other competitive forces, or unanticipated loss of a major customer. In addition, the Company's business, operations and financial condition are subject to reports and statements filed from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
