PART II

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference.

The Commission allows the Company to "incorporate by reference" the information the Company files with or submits to it, which means that the Company can disclose important information by referring to those documents. The information incorporated by reference is considered to be part of this Registration Statement, and later information filed with or submitted to the Commission will update and supersede this information. The following documents are incorporated herein by reference:

- (i) The Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2012, filed with the Commission on April 22, 2013;
- (ii) All reports filed or submitted pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), since December 31, 2012, to the extent that such reports identify information therein as being incorporated by reference into previously filed registration statements; and
- (iii) The description of the Ordinary Shares, contained in the Company's Registration Statement on Form F-1 (File No. 333-05022), filed with the Commission on June 12, 1996, and any amendment thereto or report filed for the purpose of amending such description.

All documents subsequently filed by the Company pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 and 15(d) of the Exchange Act, prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment which indicates that all securities offered have been sold or which deregisters all securities then remaining unsold, and any reports on Form 6-K subsequently submitted by the Company to the Commission during such period (or portions thereof) that are identified in such forms as being incorporated into this Registration Statement, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference herein and to be a part hereof from the date of filing of such documents.

Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this Registration Statement to the extent that a statement contained herein, (or in any other subsequently filed document which also is incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein), modifies or supersedes such statement. Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this Registration Statement.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Exculpation of Office Holders

Under the Israeli Companies Law 5759-1999 (the "Companies Law"), an Israeli company may not exculpate an office holder from liability with respect to a breach of his duty of loyalty, but may exculpate in advance an office holder from his liability to the company, in whole or in part, with respect to a breach of his duty of care (except in connection with distributions), provided that the articles of association of the company permit it to do so. The Company's articles of association allow it, subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, to prospectively exculpate an office holder from all or some of the office holder's responsibility for damage resulting from the office holder's breach of the office holder's duty of care to the Company.

Insurance of Office Holders

The Company's articles of association further provide that, subject to the provisions of the Companies Law, the Company may enter into a contract for the insurance of the liability of any of its office holders with respect to an act performed by such individual in his or her capacity as an office holder, in respect of each of the following:

- a breach of an office holder's duty of care to the Company or to another person;
- a breach of an office holder's duty of loyalty to the Company, provided that the office holder acted in good faith and had reasonable cause to assume that his or her act would not prejudice the Company's interests;
- financial obligation imposed on him in favor of another person; or
- reasonable litigation expenses, including attorney fees, incurred by the office holder as a result of an administrative enforcement proceeding instituted against him. Without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, such expenses will include a payment imposed on the office holder in favor of an injured party as set forth in Section 52(54)(a)(1)(a) of the Israeli Securities Law, 5728-1968, as amended (the "Securities Law") and expenses that the office holder incurred in connection with a proceeding under Chapters H'3, H'4 or I'1 of the Securities Law, including reasonable legal expenses, which term includes attorney fees.

Indemnification of Office Holders

The Company's articles of association also provide that the Company may indemnify an office holder in respect of an obligation or expense imposed on the office holder in respect of an act performed in his or her capacity as an office holder, as follows:

- a financial obligation imposed on him in favor of another person by a court judgment, including a compromise judgment or an arbitrator's award approved by court;
- reasonable litigation expenses, including attorneys' fees, expended by the office holder as a result of an investigation or proceeding instituted against him by a competent authority, provided that such investigation or proceeding was concluded without the filing of an indictment against him and either (A) concluded without the imposition of any financial liability in lieu of criminal proceedings or (B) concluded with the imposition of a financial liability in lieu of criminal proceedings but relates to a criminal offense that does not require proof of criminal intent; or in connection with an administrative enforcement proceeding or a financial sanction. Without derogating from the generality of the foregoing, such expenses will include a payment imposed on the office holder in favor of an injured party as set forth in Section 52(54)(a)(1)(a) of the Securities Law, and expenses that the office holder incurred in connection with a proceeding under Chapters H'3, H'4 or I'1 of the Securities Law, including reasonable legal expenses, which term includes attorney fees; and

- reasonable litigation expenses, including attorneys' fees, expended by an office holder or charged to the office holder by a court, in a proceeding instituted against the office holder by the Company or on its behalf or by another person, or in a criminal charge from which the office holder was acquitted, or in a criminal proceeding in which the office holder was convicted of an offense that does not require proof of criminal intent.

The Company's articles of association also include provisions allowing it to undertake to indemnify an office holder as aforesaid:

- in advance, provided that in respect of bullet number 1 above, the undertaking is restricted to events which our Board of Directors deems to be foreseeable in light of the Company's actual operations at the time of the undertaking and limited to an amount or criteria determined by the Company's Board of Directors to be reasonable under the circumstances, and further provided that such events and amounts or criteria are set forth in the undertaking to indemnify; and
- retroactively.

Limitations on Exculpation, Indemnification and Insurance

The Companies Law provides that a company may not exempt or indemnify an office holder, or enter into an insurance contract, which would provide coverage for any monetary liability incurred as a result of any of the following:

- a breach by the office holder of his duty of loyalty unless, with respect to insurance coverage or indemnification, the office holder acted in good faith and had a reasonable basis to believe that the act would not prejudice the company;
- a breach by the office holder of his duty of care if the breach was done intentionally or recklessly (other than if solely done in negligence);
- any act or omission done with the intent to derive an illegal personal benefit; and
- a fine, civil fine or ransom levied on an office holder, or a financial sanction imposed upon an office holder under Israeli Law.

Required Approvals

In addition, the Company indemnifies and exculpates the Company's office holders by providing them with indemnification agreements and approving the purchase of a directors and officers liability insurance policy. The Company currently maintains directors and officers liability insurance policy limited to US$10 million, at an annual premium of approximately US$52,000.
