NOTE 3 -

OIL AND GAS PROPERTIES

The full cost method is used in accounting for oil and gas properties. Accordingly, all costs associated with acquisition, exploration, and development of oil and gas reserves, including directly related overhead costs, are capitalized. In addition, depreciation on property and equipment used in oil and gas exploration and interest costs incurred with respect to financing oil and gas acquisition, exploration and development activities are capitalized in accordance with full cost accounting. Capitalized interest for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 was $0. All capitalized costs of proved oil and gas properties subject to amortization are being amortized on the unit-of-production method using estimates of proved reserves. Investments in unproved properties and major development projects not subject to amortization are not amortized until proved reserves associated with the projects can be determined or until impairment occurs. If the results of an assessment indicate that the properties are impaired, the amount of the impairment is added to the capitalized costs to be amortized. As of September 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006, proved oil and gas reserves had been identified on certain of the Company's oil and gas properties. During the nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, the Company recorded depletion of $127,910 and $119,363 on its producing properties. All other wells are incomplete as of September 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006.

Edgar Filing: POWDER RIVER BASIN GAS CORP - Form 10QSB

In May 2007, the Company extended the maturity date on 2,000,000 common stock warrants, exercisable at prices ranging from $0.12 to $0.16 per share. The extension of these warrants resulted in an additional expense of $201,399 for the nine months ended September 30, 2007.

The Company uses the Black-Scholes model to value stock options. The Black-Scholes model requires the use of employee exercise behavior data and the use of a number of assumptions, including volatility of the Company's stock price, the weighted average risk-free rate, and the weighted average expected life of the options. Because the Company does not pay dividends, the dividend rate variable in the Black-Scholes model is zero. The Company estimated the fair value of the stock options at the grant date based on the following weighted average assumptions:

	For the nine month period ended Sep. 30, 2007	For the nine month period ended Sep. 30, 2006
Risk free interest rate	4.93%	N/A
Expected life	1.25 years	N/A
Expected volatility	58.10%	N/A

Since the Company is in the business of buying and selling working interests in producing oil and gas properties, the sale of working interests is being recorded as revenue in the accompanying statements of operations for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006.

Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: (a) projections of revenues, capital expenditures, growth, prospects, dividends, capital structure and other financial matters; (b) statements of plans and objectives of our management or Board of Directors; (c) statements of our future economic performance; (d) statements of assumptions underlying other statements and statements about us and our business relating to the future; and (e) any statements using the words "anticipate," "expect," "may," "project," "intend" or similar expressions.

General. The Company is in the business of acquiring and developing working interests in oil and gas properties with the intent of reselling a portion of the working interests acquired. The Company reviews and evaluates geological and other applicable technical data in order to determine the likely viability and possible profitability of commencing and completing multiple well drilling programs on the properties covered by the leases. If the Company determines such programs to be viable, it engages third party contractors to explore for, drill, re-work and further develop the properties in order to maximize economically justified oil and gas production from the leases in a cost effective manner.

During 2006, the Company acquired a 95% working interest in the Brookshire Salt Dome project in Waller County, Texas, containing approximately 647 acres. Two wells are currently in production. During the three months ended September 30, 2007, the Company sold 2.5% of its working interest in this property for a total of $1,600,000, net of selling cost. The receivable balance on this transaction at September 30, 2007 was $8,000. Since the Company is in the business of buying and selling working interest in producing oil and gas properties, the sale of working interests is being recorded as revenue in the accompanying statements of operations for the three months and nine ended September 30, 2007.

During May 2007, the Company acquired a 95% working interest in the Biamante project in Goliad County, Texas, containing approximately 489 acres. One well is currently in production. During the three months ended September 30, 2007, the Company sold approximately 10% of their working interest in this property for a total of $2,824,000, net of selling cost. The receivable balance on this transaction at September 30, 2007 was $1,668,000. Since the Company is in the business of buying and selling working interest in producing oil and gas properties, the sale of working interests is being recorded as revenue in the accompanying statements of operations for the three months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006.

Employment Agreements

On May 10, 2007 the Company entered into an employment agreement with its Chief Executive Officer (CEO), effective January 1, 2007. Per the terms of the agreement the Company is to pay the CEO a salary of $600,000 per year, payable semi-monthly. In addition, the Company will also pay a cash bonus of 10% of the Company's net income before taxes to the Company that exceeds $750,000 per quarter. For the three months ended September 30, 2007 the amount of bonus related to this agreement was $9,246.

Effective August 15, 2007 the Company entered into an employment agreement with its Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Per the terms of the agreement the Company is to pay the CFO a salary of $180,000 per year, payable semi-monthly. In addition, the Company will also pay a cash bonus of 3% of the Company's net income before taxes as determined at the end of each fiscal quarter, on net income before taxes to the Company that exceeds $750,000 per quarter. For the three months ended September 30, 2007, the amount of bonus related to this agreement was $2,774.

Results of Operations for the Three and Nine Months Ended September 30, 2007 compared with 2006

Revenues: Total revenues decreased to $2,181,971 in the three months ended September 30, 2007 from $4,197,973 in the prior year period. During the three months ended September 30, 2007, the Company had revenues from oil and gas sales of $546,211, an increase of $320,383 or approximately 142% compared to $225,828 for the three months ended September 30, 2006. The Company also had revenues from property and working interest sales of $2,181,971, a decrease of $1,790,174 or approximately 45% compared to $3,972,145 for the three months ended September 30, 2006. The decrease in revenues from property and working interest sales for the three months ended September 30, 2007 is due primarily to the transition between the Brookshire Salt Dome project and the new Biamante project that started during the period. The Company anticipates that the revenue from property and working interest sales will increase during the next period. Based on the increased number of lease acquisitions and the continued effort to produce oil and gas from these leases, the Company anticipates that oil and gas sales in the balance fiscal 2007 will increase but expects that sales of property and working interests will continue to produce the majority of the Company's revenues.

Revenues: Total revenues decreased to $13,635,858 in the nine months ended September 30, 2007 from $14,208,770 in the prior year period. During the nine months ended September 30, 2007, the Company had revenues from oil and gas sales of $1,913,044, an increase of $891,419 or approximately 87.3% compared to $1,021,625 for the nine months ended September 30, 2006. The Company also had revenues from property and working interest sales of $11,722,814, a decrease of $1,464,331 or approximately 11.1% compared to $13,187,145 for the nine months ended September 30, 2006. Overall, sales from working interest have increased when compared to the prior year period, with the exception of the three month period ended September 30, 2007, which is explained above.

Expenses: Total expenses increased significantly for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007. Total expenses related to the three months ended September 30, 2007 increased to $1,915,012 from $742,067 in the prior year period and total expenses related to the nine months ended September 30, 2007 increased to $6,035,437 from $2,550,401 in the prior year period. The increase is attributable primarily to large increases in general and administrative expenses, lease operating costs, bonuses, marketing administration and legal and professional fees. Some of these increases are in expenses directly associated with the increase in business activities over the prior year period. In addition, the Company entered into employment agreements with its Chief Executive Officer as well as its Chief Financial Officer, as described above. The agreements include the payment of a salaries and bonuses based on the Company's net income before taxes. The Company has also incurred additional expenses for marketing its property and working interests. The Company anticipates that these expenses will continue to increase as the Company continues to pursue its acquisition strategy.

Net Income: Due to the significant increases in expenses, as well as the decrease in revenues which are both outlined above net income for the three months ended September 30, 2007 decreased to $545,310 from $2,180,980 in the prior year period and net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 decreased to $5,729,027 from $7,389,654 in the prior year period. Management believes that the increased expenses are necessary to support operations staff and services such that the Company can continue to achieve sales of oil and gas properties and working interests, as well as to continue to acquire, develop and operate additional oil and gas properties. Management plans to continue to aggressively pursue its strategic objectives in the balance of fiscal 2007.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's need for new capital is directly related to the acquisition of new oil and gas properties and to associated drilling and operating expenses. The Company expects to be able to finance new and existing drilling activities primarily out of cash flow, however the Company has entered into exclusive Investment Banking Agreement with Sunrise Securities Corporation (Sunrise) wherein Sunrise will act as the Company's exclusive financial advisor and investment banker to render financial and other general advice to the Company including without limitation advice relating to capital structure, enhancing shareholder value and allocation of corporate assets, as well as advice with respect to any financings or transactions. Sunrise will assist the Company in identifying, analyzing, structuring, negotiating and financing suitable business opportunities. The term of the agreement is five years.. The Company expects to primarily continue to identify and acquire oil and gas properties for future development where the cost of acquiring a working interest in identified reserves that can be exploited for cost-efficient future production can be financed by selling a portion of the working interest to be acquired.

Cash and cash equivalents on hand at September 30, 2007, was $3,225,993 as compared to $2,733,437 at December 31, 2006. At September 30, 2007, accounts receivable from related parties totaled a net of $613,297. The related party is a company that is owned by the Company's President. Accounts receivable totaled $2,759,511, consisting of amounts received primarily from the sale of approximately 10% of the Company's working interest in a property in Texas to an unrelated party for a total of $3,388,800, less a commission of $564,800.

Net property and equipment at September 30, 2007 was $53,822. Property and equipment consists primarily of vehicles and computer equipment associated with operations.

At September 30, 2007, net oil and gas properties totaled $22,226,362 compared to $16,614,718 at December 31, 2006. The increase in oil and gas properties occurred due to management's acquisition of additional oil and gas properties during the nine months ended September 30, 2007.

Edgar Filing: POWDER RIVER BASIN GAS CORP - Form 10QSB

At September 30, 2007, total assets were $32,237,459 compared to $24,895,055 at December 31, 2006, due to the acquisition of additional oil and gas properties. Total liabilities increased to $11,396,626 at September 30, 2007 from $11,209,788 at December 31, 2006 due primarily to increases in income taxes payable, accrued expenses and accounts payable, offset by a decrease in stock deposits and notes payable.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, cash flows from operations totaled $7,048,154 compared to $5,798,935 for the prior year period. Cash for operations was generated primarily from sales of properties and working interests.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, cash used by investing activities totaled $5,782,453, primarily for expenditures for the development of oil and gas properties. In the prior year, cash used by investing activities totaled $2,735,697, for expenditures for the development of properties. The increase in cash used investing activities reflects management's intention to continue to pursue its acquisition strategy.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, cash used by financing activities was $773,145, including payments on notes payable and long-term liabilities offset by proceeds from the issuance of common stock for the exercise of outstanding warrants. In the prior year, proceeds from financing activities was $1,102,227, including proceeds from the issuance of common stock offset by payments on notes payable and long-term liabilities.

Plans for continuing operations. Management believes its business and marketing strategy is proving to be a successful strategy for operations. The Company plans to continue to identify, evaluate, acquire working interests in oil and gas leases; sell a portion of the working interests so acquired; and to explore for, develop and market production from those operations. The Company expects to continue to be able to finance acquisitions primarily through the sale of working interests. Management believes that revenues from operations of developed properties will increase in the balance of fiscal 2007.

Impact of Inflation

At this time, we do not anticipate that inflation will have a material impact on our current or future operations.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

Except with regard to the estimated future cash flows of the capitalized oil and gas properties, the Company does not employ any critical accounting policies or estimates that are either selected from among available alternatives or require the exercise of significant management judgment to apply or that if changed are likely to materially affect future periods. Management reviews the carrying value of the capitalized oil and gas properties annually for evidence of impairment and considers, based on its current marketing activities, plans and expectations, and the perceived effects of competitive factors, whether any write-downs should be taken or whether the estimated reserves should be changed.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) 155, Accounting for Certain Hybrid Financial Instruments, which amends SFAS 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, and SFAS 140, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities a replacement of FASB Statement No. 125. SFAS 155 will be effective for all financial instruments issued or acquired after the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after September 15, 2006. Management has no present expectation of issuing or acquiring any financial instruments likely to be affected by SFAS 155 in the foreseeable future.

In July 2006, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48), Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an Interpretation of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 109. FIN 48 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken in a tax return. We must determine whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination based on the technical merits of the position. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. Management is currently evaluating the likely impact of adopting FIN 48 on its financial statements.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS 157, Fair Value Measurements, which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 will be effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Management does not believe that the application of SFAS 157 will have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In September 2006, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) No. 108 (SAB 108) which provides interpretive guidance on how the effects of the carryover or reversal of prior year misstatements should be considered in quantifying a current year misstatement. SAB 108 is effective for us as of January 1, 2007. We do not expect SAB 108 to have a material impact on our results of operations, financial position, or cash flows.

In September 2006, SFAS No. 158, Employers Accounting for Defined Benefit Pension and Other Postretirement Plans an amendment of FASB Statements No. 87, 88, 106, and 132(R) (SFAS 158), improves financial reporting by requiring an employer to recognize the over-funded or under-funded status of a defined benefit postretirement plan as an asset or liability in its statement of financial position and to recognize changes in that funded status in the year in which the changes occur through comprehensive income. SFAS 158 will not have an impact on our results of operations, financial position, or cash flow.

In February 2007, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities, including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115 (SFAS 159), which allows an entity the irrevocable option to elect fair value for the initial and subsequent measurement for certain financial assets and liabilities under an instrument-by-instrument election. Subsequent measurements for the financial assets and liabilities an entity elects to fair value will be recognized in earnings. SFAS 159 also establishes additional disclosure requirements. SFAS 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, with early adoption permitted provided that the entity also adopts SFAS 157. We have not yet determined the impact this standard will have on our financial statements.
