Item
4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 of Schedule 13D is also amended by adding the following as the eleventh paragraph thereof:

By a letter dated January 25, 2011, Discovery Equity Partners has submitted to the Company a shareholder proposal under Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 14a-8 for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for the Company's 2011 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The text of the proposal is as follows:

Proposal

RESOLVED, that the stockholders of TESSCO Technologies Incorporated ("TESSCO") request that the Board of Directors amend TESSCO's by-laws to provide that director nominees shall be elected by the affirmative vote of the majority of votes cast at an annual meeting of stockholders.

Supporting Statement

Discovery Group is a long-term investor in TESSCO. We realized several years ago that TESSCO greatly needed improvements to its corporate governance. We have worked diligently to bring about governance changes, for the benefit of all stockholders, despite the objections and obstacles presented by management and the Board of Directors.

With the support of fellow stockholders, our efforts have resulted in 1) the dismantling of TESSCO's poison pill anti-takeover mechanism, 2) a reduction in the threshold percentage of outstanding shares required to call a special meeting of stockholders, and 3) the formation of a new Risk and Strategy Committee of the Board to respond to takeover offers for TESSCO. Most recently, we were also able to get the Board to act on the shareholder proposal we submitted last year, which won majority support of the stockholders, to declassify the Board, and thereby submit all directors for election on an annual basis. It is worth noting, however, that the Board structured the declassification so that it does not go into full effect until 2013.

We are submitting this proposal so that TESSCO's stockholders may be empowered to change the composition of the Board of Directors, without the requirement of running an alternate slate of nominees. The TESSCO bylaws allow directors to be elected with only the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares present or represented by proxy at an annual meeting. This means that in an uncontested election, stockholder votes for directors have no real meaning. Each of the Board's nominees are elected so long as the nominee receives at least one affirmative vote, even if a majority of the stockholder votes are cast negatively or withheld. Under our proposal, a nominee must receive a majority of the votes cast, which gives negative or withheld votes real meaning.

In two of the past three years ISS, the leading proxy advisory service, has advised clients to WITHHOLD votes for TESSCO's director nominees. However, plurality voting for directors essentially silenced those investors. Not only is plurality voting a disservice to TESSCO's stockholders but it is inconsistent with good governance standards among U.S. public companies. Over 70% of the companies in the S&P 500 have adopted majority voting provisions and that percentage continues to rise. Most companies also adopt a director resignation policy for any director nominee who does not garner a majority vote.

ISS guidelines recommend that investors vote FOR majority voting proposals. By voting FOR this proposal you remind the Board that TESSCO stockholders want to be heard when it comes to potential concerns about the Board's failure to address management's long track record of poor performance, governance procedures that shield directors and management from accountability, and the resulting deterioration in stockholder value.
