NEWS RELEASE FROM HARMONY

1 November 2004

Harmony announces arrests in relation to pension fraud

Between the period of 25 June 2001 to 25 July 2002, twenty miners and artisans resigned from Harmony's Randfontein operations. Harmony and the Mine Pension Fund discovered that the employees had fraudulently claimed retrenchment benefits from the Fund.

Harmony immediately initiated an investigation with the full cooperation of the pension fund and the South African Police Service. Harmony takes a hard line against illegal or fraudulent activity and was pleased that the result of the investigation led to today's arrests of the gold miner's former employees.
