Item 5.04. Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

On June 22, 2005, Alabama National BanCorporation (the Company) filed a Current Report on Form 8-K regarding a temporary suspension of trading (the Blackout Period) under the Alabama National BanCorporation Employee Capital Accumulation Plan (the Plan), a 401(k) plan sponsored by the Company. The reason for the Blackout Period was to transition, on or about August 1, 2005, the investment and recordkeeping services associated with the Plan to Fidelity Investments and the trustee services associated with the Plan to Fidelity Management Trust Company.

The Company originally communicated to its directors and executive officers that the end of the Blackout Period would be August 31, 2005; however, Fidelity Investments and Fidelity Management Trust Company accomplished the transition earlier than expected, and the blackout period ended on August 24, 2005. The Company notified its directors and executive officers of the change in the ending date of the Blackout Period on August 26, 2005. Attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein is a copy of the notice provided to the Company's directors and executive officers.

Other than the earlier ending date for the Blackout Period, there are no material changes to the information contained in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed on June 22, 2005.

Inquiries concerning the Blackout Period should be directed to Kimberly Moore, Senior Vice President of the Company and Plan Administrator of the Plan, by telephone at (205) 583-3738 or by mail at Alabama National BanCorporation, 1927 First Avenue North, Birmingham, Alabama 35205.
