Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 21, 2006, Dynegy Inc. (Dynegy) entered into a purchase agreement with Duke Power Company LLC d/b/a Duke Energy Carolinas, LLC (Duke Energy) pursuant to which a subsidiary of Dynegy and Dynegy Holdings Inc. will sell its Rockingham power generation facility to Duke Energy for $195 million in cash (the Rockingham Sale Agreement). The Rockingham Sale Agreement contains customary representations and warranties on the part of Dynegy and Duke Energy as well as customary indemnification provisions. The consummation of the Rockingham Sale Agreement is subject to the expiration or termination of the Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period, approval by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and the North Carolina Utilities Commission and customary closing conditions. The Rockingham Sale Agreement is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2006. A copy of the Rockingham Sale Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

On May 22, 2006, Dynegy entered into a preferred stock redemption agreement (the Redemption Agreement) with Chevron U.S.A. Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Chevron Corporation (CUSA), pursuant to which Dynegy has agreed to purchase from CUSA all 8 million shares of its outstanding Series C convertible preferred stock for a cash purchase price of $400 million, plus accrued and unpaid dividends. The Redemption Agreement contains customary representations and warranties on the part of Dynegy and CUSA. The consummation of the Redemption Agreement is subject to customary closing conditions as well as the consummation of Dynegy s pending public offering of its Class A common stock. The Redemption Agreement is expected to close on or about May 26, 2006. A copy of the Redemption Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

On May 23, 2006, Dynegy entered into an underwriting agreement (the Underwriting Agreement) with J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Lehman Brothers Inc., as representatives for the underwriters (collectively, the Underwriters), in connection with Dynegy s pending public offering of its Class A common stock. The Underwriting Agreement provides for, among other things, the sale by Dynegy of an aggregate 35 million shares of its Class A common stock to the Underwriters for, in turn, sale to the public. The offering price to the public is $4.60 per share. Pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement, the Underwriters have a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 5,250,000 shares. Assuming no exercise of the Underwriters option to purchase additional shares, the net proceeds to Dynegy from the Underwriting Agreement, after payment of underwriting discounts and other expenses of the offering, will be approximately $153 million.

The Underwriting Agreement contains customary representations and warranties on Dynegy s part. The Underwriting Agreement also contains customary indemnification and contribution provisions whereby Dynegy and the Underwriters have agreed to indemnify each other against certain liabilities. The Underwriting Agreement is expected to close on or about May 26, 2006. The foregoing description of the Underwriting Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Underwriting Agreement, which Dynegy intends to file as an exhibit to its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2006.
