(e) On August 9, 2007, the Compensation Committee of Serena Software, Inc. (Serena) approved certain modifications to compensatory plans applicable to Serena s executive officers. The FY 2008 Executive Annual Incentive Plans will be amended to replace the existing EBITA performance metric with both a license revenue performance metric and an EBITA performance metric, with the license revenue performance metric weighted at 60% and the EBITA performance metric weighted at 40% of the target bonus applicable to the original EBITA performance metric. The applicable license revenue targets and EBITA targets for these performance-based metrics will be aligned with Serena s current FY 2008 operating plan. The other terms of these compensatory plans, including target bonus amounts, have not been modified. In addition, the lower bound and upper bound EBITA targets for FY 2008 under performance-based stock option agreements that were previously granted to executive officers and other management personnel pursuant to Serena s 2006 Stock Incentive Plan will be modified to align the targets with Serena s current FY 2008 operating plan.
