PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As reported in the Form 8-K filed on January 13, 2009, the Company has breached two of its financial covenants under its credit facility. Since January 7, 2009, the date the Company determined that these covenants had been violated, the Company has dedicated significant personnel, time and resources to negotiations with the lenders, which are currently ongoing, as the Company seeks purposeful resolution. The Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended November 30, 2008 could not be filed within the prescribed time period because the Company personnel who have been negotiating with the lenders need additional time to complete the discussions with the lenders, review all relevant information and to ensure adequate disclosure of information required to be included in the Form 10-Q. The delay could not be cured without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company expects to file the Form 10-Q no later than the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes  No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes  No
If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company expects to report a significant change in earnings for the three and nine month periods ended November 30, 2008 compared to the same periods in the prior year, primarily as a result of current global economic conditions, including reduced consumer spending and the continued deterioration of the residential and commercial building and improvement markets.
