Section 8 Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On February 4, 2009, legal counsel for NRG Energy, Inc. (NRG) submitted a letter to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) challenging the sufficiency of the application Exelon Corporation (Exelon) submitted to the NRC on January 29, 2009. In its letter, NRG asked the NRC to find that Exelon's application is deficient because Exelon lacks the consent of the existing licensee to submit the application. NRG also asserted that Exelon's application raises significant policy issues. On February 10, 2009, legal counsel for Exelon submitted a letter to the NRC in rebuttal to NRG's February 4 letter. In its letter, Exelon noted, among other things, that NRC regulations very clearly do not require the licensee's consent for Exelon to submit the application or for the NRC to review the application. Exelon also addressed the policy issues raised by NRG by pointing out that Federal policy, dating from passage of the Williams Act in 1968, favors neither bidders nor incumbent management in unsolicited tender offers and evidences a broad policy that shareholders should be given the opportunity to make decisions on tender offers. Copies of NRG's February 4, 2009 letter and Exelon's February 10, 2009 letter are attached as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2, respectively.
