Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc. is furnishing the following information:

On May 19, 2009, we issued a press release (the Press Release) and posted a presentation to our website (the Presentation) that disclose information regarding our results of operations for our fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2009. Copies of the Press Release and Presentation are being furnished and included herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and Exhibit 99.2, respectively.

The Press Release and Presentation contain non-GAAP financial measures (as that term is defined in Item 10(e) of the Commission's Regulation S-K). Statements providing a reconciliation from these non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable financial measure calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles are also included in the Press Release and Presentation. Management included the non-GAAP financial measures in the Press Release and Presentation because it believes such measures provide investors with a better understanding of the measures used by management to evaluate our performance.

2009 FIRST QUARTER RESULTS

First quarter sales of $401.8 million on lower global auto production

Reorganized to geographic operating structure

Net new business of $95.6 million in first quarter 2009

Novi, Mich., May 19, 2009 - Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc., the parent company of Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc., today announced sales and earnings for the first quarter of 2009.

Net sales for the first quarter were $401.8 million, down from $756.0 million for the same quarter of 2008. This decrease resulted primarily from significantly lower vehicle production volume in North America, Europe and Brazil, unfavorable changes in vehicle mix and the strengthening of the U.S. dollar.

The company reported a $55.0 million net loss for the first quarter, compared to net income of $15.7 million for the same period of 2008, due to significantly lower sales volume, increased restructuring and reorganization costs, and unfavorable foreign exchange. Net interest expense for the quarter totaled $21.1 million, a $3.1 million improvement over the prior year first quarter, due to lower interest rates and reduced term loan balances.

Severe economic conditions have kept demand for new vehicles at historically low levels and brought transformational changes to the global automotive industry, said Cooper-Standard Automotive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer James S. McElya. The numerous cost-containment actions taken by our management team, including a reorganization of our operating structure, have enabled us to partially offset lower industry volumes and position the company for success as the industry consolidates, while fully serving our global customers.

To better manage its operating costs and resources in severe industry conditions, on March 26, Cooper-Standard Automotive announced the implementation of a comprehensive reorganization plan that changed the company's operating structure and reporting segments. The new operating structure allows Cooper-Standard Automotive to maintain its full portfolio of global products and provide unified customer contact points. In addition, the reorganization will enable the company to realize substantial savings when fully implemented.

Net New Business Wins

During the first quarter of 2009, the company received $95.6 million in net new business awards, up $26.4 million versus prior year first quarter. This business is across the company's global customer portfolio with particular emphasis in Europe.

Key Launches

During the first quarter of 2009, the company successfully launched production with all three product lines on new customer vehicles, as well as next-generation models for existing platforms, including:

Daimler (Mercedes E-Class)

Ford (Lincoln MKS)

General Motors (Chevrolet Camaro)

Toyota (Lexus RS)

Adjusted EBITDA

Adjusted EBITDA, a measure of operating performance which excludes certain non-cash and non-recurring items, was $15.5 million in the first quarter of 2009, compared to $83.1 million in the first quarter of 2008. A table reconciling Adjusted EBITDA, a measure not recognized under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), can be found in this news release.

Adjusted EBITDA reconciliation for the first quarter of 2009 is presented in the table below.

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2008	2009
Net income (loss)	$ 15.7	$ (55.0)
Provision (benefit) for income tax expense	7.2	(3.8)
Interest expense, net of interest income	24.2	21.1
Depreciation and amortization	35.8	30.1
EBITDA	$ 82.9	$ (7.6)
Restructuring ⁽¹⁾	2.4	22.6
Gain on bond repurchase	(1.7)
Canadian voluntary retirement		1.0
Foreign exchange gain ⁽²⁾	(0.5)	(0.5)
Adjusted EBITDA	$ 83.1	$ 15.5

(1) Product line discontinuation and plant shutdown costs.

(2) Unrealized foreign exchange (gain) loss on acquisition-related indebtedness.

Management uses Adjusted EBITDA as a measure of the company's performance. Adjusted EBITDA varies from the amount used in calculating covenant compliance under the company's credit facilities due to the classification of joint venture equity earnings and certain pro forma adjustments. EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are not calculated according to GAAP and should not be construed as income from operations or net income, as determined by GAAP. Other companies may report EBITDA differently and therefore Cooper-Standard Automotive's results may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies.

Conference Call Details
