NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 for SBA Communications Corporation (the Company). These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X and, therefore, omit or condense certain footnotes and other information normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. In the opinion of the Company's management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for fair financial statement presentation have been made. The results of operations for an interim period may not give a true indication of the results for the year.

All assets and liabilities of foreign subsidiaries that do not utilize the United States dollar as its functional currency are translated at period-end rates of exchange, while revenues and expenses are translated at monthly weighted average rates of exchange for the year. Unrealized translation gains or losses are reported as foreign currency translation adjustments through other comprehensive loss in shareholders' equity.

2. RESTATEMENT FOR ADOPTION OF NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENT

Effective January 1, 2009, the Company adopted new convertible debt accounting which requires the issuer of certain convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash (including partial cash settlement) on conversion to separately account for the liability (debt) and equity (conversion option) components of the instrument in a manner that reflects the issuer's non-convertible debt borrowing rate. It also requires companies to retroactively apply the requirements of the pronouncement to all periods presented. The Company's 0.375% Convertible Senior Notes due 2010 (0.375% Notes) and 1.875% Convertible Senior Notes due 2013 (1.875% Notes) and collectively with the 0.375% Notes, the Notes) are subject to the retroactive restatement required by the new convertible debt accounting. As a result of the adoption of the new convertible debt accounting, the Company recorded a debt discount and corresponding increase to additional paid in capital of approximately $74.4 million for the 0.375% Notes and approximately $163.0 million for the 1.875% Notes as of their dates of issuance (March 26, 2007 for the 0.375% Notes and May 16, 2008 for the 1.875% Notes). The Company's consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2008 has been retroactively adjusted to reduce the carrying value of the 0.375% Notes and 1.875% Notes and reflect the conversion option in equity. In addition, as of their respective issuance dates, the Company reclassified, as a reduction to equity, deferred financing fees of $1.8 million and $3.8 million for the 0.375% Notes and 1.875% Notes, respectively, relating to debt issuance costs of the equity component of the Notes. The Company's consolidated statements of operations for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2008 and consolidated statement of cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 have been retroactively adjusted to reflect the non-cash interest expense related to the accretion of the reduced carrying value of the Notes back to their full principal balance over the term of the Notes. In addition, the amortization of deferred financing fees has been restated to reflect the amortization of the fees related only to the liability component of the Notes. See Note 9 for further information on the Notes.

3. CURRENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued ASU No. 2009-01, Amendments Based on Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 168 The FASB Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (ASU 2009-01), which states that the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (Codification) will become the source of authoritative U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) recognized by the FASB. The codification does not change existing GAAP but instead is a major restructuring of accounting and reporting standards designed to simplify user access to all authoritative GAAP by providing the authoritative literature in a topically organized structure. On the effective date the Codification supersedes all then-existing non-SEC accounting and reporting standards. The FASB will no longer issue new standards in the form of statements, instead it will issue accounting standard updates. ASU 2009-01 became effective for financial statements issued for interim and annual reporting periods ending after September 15, 2009. ASU 2009-01 is not intended to change or alter existing GAAP and as such the adoption did not have any impact on the Company's financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

The FASB issued business combination accounting guidance which amends and clarifies the accounting for assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination that arise from contingencies. This accounting guidance is effective for assets or liabilities arising from contingencies in business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period beginning on or after December 15, 2008. The adoption of this accounting guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

The FASB also issued business combinations accounting guidance which requires the acquiring entity in a business combination to record all assets acquired and liabilities assumed at their respective acquisition-date fair values and changes other practices some of which could have a material impact on how the Company accounts for business combinations. These changes include, among other things, expensing acquisition costs as incurred as a component of operating expense. Effective January 1, 2009, these costs are reflected as acquisition related expenses in the Company's consolidated statement of operations. The Company historically capitalized these acquisition costs as part of the purchase price and then amortized these costs using the straight line method over the life of the associated acquired assets. This accounting guidance also requires additional disclosure of information surrounding a business combination, such that users of the entity's financial statements can fully understand the nature and financial impact of a business combination. This accounting guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008 and interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company adopted this accounting guidance effective January 1, 2009.

The FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2009-05, Measuring Liabilities at Fair Value (ASU 2009-05). ASU 2009-05 amends fair value accounting by providing additional guidance clarifying the measurement of liabilities at fair value. ASU 2009-05 addresses several key issues with respect to estimating the fair value of liabilities and clarifies how the price of a traded debt security should be considered in estimating the fair value of the issuer's liability. ASU 2009-05 became effective for financial statements issued for interim and annual reporting periods ending after its issuance (August 2009). The adoption of ASU 2009-05 did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

This accounting guidance was effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. However, in February 2008, FASB issued additional guidance which excludes from fair value accounting for leases and other accounting pronouncements that address fair value measurements for purposes of lease classification or measurement. In addition the additional guidance delayed the effective date to fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2008, or in fiscal 2009 for the Company, and interim periods within those fiscal years for fair value measurements for all nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities, except those that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis (at least annually). In October 2008, the FASB issued additional accounting guidance which clarifies the application of fair value measurements in an inactive market by providing an illustrative example to demonstrate how the fair value of a financial asset is determined when the market for the financial asset is inactive. Effective January 1, 2008, the guidelines of fair value measurement were applied in recording the Company's investments. Effective January 1, 2009, the guidelines of fair value measurements were applied to non-financial assets and non-financial liabilities. The adoption of the above fair value accounting guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

The FASB issued subsequent events accounting guidance which established principles and requirements for disclosing subsequent events. This accounting guidance is effective for interim or annual financial periods ending after June 15, 2009, and is applied prospectively. 4. RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of the following:

	As of September 30, 2009	As of December 31, 2008 (in thousands)	Included on Balance Sheet
CMBS Certificates	$ 25,358	$ 36,182	Restricted cash - current asset
Payment and performance bonds	1,176	2,417	Restricted cash - current asset
Surety bonds and workers compensation	11,065	16,660	Other assets - noncurrent
Total restricted cash	$ 37,599	$ 55,259

In connection with the issuance of the CMBS Certificates (as defined in Note 9), the Company is required to fund a restricted cash amount, which is held in escrow pursuant to the mortgage loan agreement underlying the CMBS Certificates. Pursuant to the terms of the mortgage loan agreement, all rents and other sums due on the towers that secure the CMBS Certificates are directly deposited into a controlled deposit account by the lessees and are held by the indenture trustee. The restricted cash amount is used to fund certain reserve accounts for the payment of debt service costs, ground rents, real estate and personal property taxes, insurance premiums related to tower sites, and trustee and servicing expenses, management fees and to reserve a portion of advance rents from tenants. The restricted cash held by the indenture trustee in excess of required reserve balances is subsequently released to the Borrowers monthly, provided that the Company is in compliance with its debt service coverage ratio and that no Event of Default has occurred. All monies held by the indenture trustee are classified as restricted cash on the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Payment and performance bonds relate primarily to collateral requirements for tower construction currently in process by the Company. Cash is pledged as collateral related to surety bonds issued for the benefit of the Company or its affiliates in the ordinary course of business and primarily related to the Company's tower removal obligations. As of September 30, 2009, the Company had $17.9 million in removal bonds for which it is only required to post $9.1 million in collateral. In addition, as of September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, the Company had pledged $2.4 million and $2.0 million, respectively, as collateral related to its workers compensation policy. 5. ACQUISITIONS

During the third quarter of 2009, the Company acquired 58 completed towers and related assets and liabilities from various sellers. The aggregate consideration paid for these towers and related assets was approximately $24.2 million (excluding working capital adjustments), which was paid in cash. The results of operations of the acquired assets are included with those of the Company from the dates of the respective acquisitions.

The Company accounted for the above tower acquisitions under the acquisition method of accounting. The acquisitions are recorded at fair market value at the date of each acquisition. The acquisitions consummated were not significant to the Company and accordingly, pro forma financial information has not been presented. In addition, in the third quarter of 2009 as part of the ground lease purchase program, the Company paid $1.1 million in cash for long-term lease extensions and $2.1 million for land and perpetual easement purchases, consisting of $1.9 million paid in cash and $0.2 million paid through the issuance of the Company's Class A common stock.

The Company continues to evaluate all acquisitions within one year after the applicable closing date of each transaction to determine whether any additional adjustments need to be made to the allocation of the purchase price paid for the assets acquired and liabilities assumed by major balance sheet caption, as well as the separate recognition of intangible assets apart from goodwill, if certain criteria are met. These intangible assets represent the value associated with current leases in place at the acquisition date (Current Contract Intangibles) and future tenant leases anticipated to be added to the acquired towers (Network Location Intangibles) and were calculated using the discounted values of the current or future expected cash flows. The intangible assets are estimated to have an economic useful life consistent with the economic useful life of the related tower assets, which is typically 15 years.

From time to time, the Company agrees to pay additional consideration in connection with its acquisitions if the towers or businesses that are acquired meet or exceed certain performance targets in the one to three years after they have been acquired. During the third quarter of 2009, certain earnings targets associated with previously acquired towers were achieved and therefore, the Company paid $0.4 million in cash. As of September 30, 2009, the Company had obligations to pay up to an additional $6.7 million in consideration if the performance targets contained in various acquisition agreements are met. In certain acquisitions, the additional consideration may be paid in cash or shares of Class A common stock at the Company's option. The Company accrues for contingent consideration in connection with acquisitions at fair value as of the date of the acquisition. Prior to January 1, 2009, the Company recorded such obligations as additional consideration when it became probable that the targets would be met.

The 4.0% Notes are convertible, at the holder's option, into shares of the Company's Class A common stock, at an initial conversion rate of 32.9164 shares of Class A common stock per $1,000 principal amount of 4.0% Notes (subject to certain customary adjustments), which is equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $30.38 per share or a 22.5% conversion premium based on the last reported sale price of $24.80 per share of the Company's Class A common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on April 20, 2009, the purchase agreement date. The 4.0% Notes are convertible only under the following circumstances: (1) during any calendar quarter commencing at any time after June 30, 2009 and only during such calendar quarter, if the last reported sale price of the Company's Class A common stock for at least 20 trading days in the 30 consecutive trading day period ending on the last trading day of the preceding calendar quarter is more than 130% of the applicable conversion price per share of Class A common stock on the last day of such preceding calendar quarter; (2) during the five business day period after any 10 consecutive trading day period (the "measurement period") in which the trading price per $1,000 principal amount of notes for each day in the measurement period was less than 95% of the product of the last reported sale price of the Company's Class A common stock and the applicable conversion rate; (3) if specified distributions to holders of the Company's Class A common stock are made or specified corporate transactions occur; or (4) at any time on or after July 22, 2014. Upon conversion, the Company has the right to settle its conversion obligation in cash, shares of Class A common stock or a combination of cash and shares of its Class A common stock. From time to time, upon notice to the holders of the 4.0% Notes, the Company may change its election regarding the form of consideration that the Company will use to settle its conversion obligation; provided, however, that the Company is not permitted to change its settlement election after July 21, 2014.

The net proceeds of this offering were approximately $488.2 million after deducting discounts, commissions and expenses. Contemporaneously with the closing of the sale of the 4.0% Notes, a portion of the net proceeds from the sale of the 4.0% Notes was used to repurchase 2.0 million shares of the Company's Class A common stock, valued at $50.0 million based on the closing stock price of $24.80 on April 20, 2009. These repurchased shares were immediately retired by the Company. The repurchased shares will be recorded as a reduction to Class A common stock for the par value of the Class A common stock as well as an increase to accumulated deficit.

Concurrently with the pricing of the 4.0% Notes, the Company entered into convertible note hedge transactions whereby the Company purchased from affiliates of certain of the initial purchasers of the 4.0% Notes an option covering 16,458,196 shares of its Class A common stock at an initial strike price of $30.38 per share (the same as the initial conversion price of the notes). Separately and concurrently with the pricing of the 4.0% Notes, the Company entered into warrant transactions whereby it sold to affiliates of certain of the initial purchasers of the 4.0% Notes warrants to acquire 16,458,196 shares of its Class A common stock at an initial price of $44.64 per share. The Company used approximately $61.6 million of the net proceeds from the 4.0% Notes offering plus the proceeds from the warrant transactions to fund the cost of the convertible note hedge transactions. The convertible note hedge transactions and the warrant transactions, taken as a whole, effectively increase the conversion price of the 4.0% Notes from $30.38 per share to $44.64 per share, reflecting a premium of 80% based on the closing stock price of $24.80 per share of the Company's Class A common stock on April 20, 2009. The remaining net proceeds of $376.6 million will be used for general corporate purposes, including repurchases or repayments of the Company's outstanding debt.

The Company is amortizing the debt discount on the 4.0% Notes utilizing the effective interest method over the life of the 4.0% Notes which increases the effective interest rate of the Notes from its coupon rate of 4.0% to 13.0%. The Company incurred cash interest expense of $5.0 million and $8.8 million for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and non-cash interest expense of $5.8 million and $9.9 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively. As of September 30, 2009, the carrying amount of the equity component related to the 4.0% Notes was $169.0 million. The estimated fair value of the 4.0% Notes as of September 30, 2009 was $560.6 million.

Senior Credit Facility

On January 18, 2008, SBA Senior Finance, Inc. (SBA Senior Finance), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a $285.0 million senior secured revolving credit facility (the Senior Credit Facility) with several banks and other financial institutions or entities from time to time parties to the credit agreement (the Lenders).

Effective April 14, 2009, SBA Senior Finance entered into a New Lender Supplement with Barclays Bank PLC (Barclays). The New Lender Supplement added Barclays as a lender under the Senior Credit Facility and increased the aggregate commitment under the Senior Credit Facility from $285.0 million to $320.0 million, the availability of which is based on compliance with certain financial ratios. All other terms of the Senior Credit Facility remain the same.

During the first nine months of 2009, SBA Senior Finance borrowed $8.5 million and repaid $239.1 million under its Senior Credit Facility, which is presented within Cash flows from financing activities on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. The Company used or designated such proceeds for construction and acquisition of towers and for ground lease buyouts. As of September 30, 2009, the Company did not have any amounts outstanding under this facility. The Company had approximately $0.1 million of letters of credit posted against the availability of this credit facility outstanding. The weighted average interest rate for amounts borrowed under the Senior Credit Facility for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009 was 2.31% and 2.46%, respectively. As of September 30, 2009, availability under the credit facility was approximately $319.9 million. As of September 30, 2009, SBA Senior Finance and the Company were in full compliance with the financial covenants contained in the Senior Credit Facility.

SBA Senior Finance entered into an Amendment and Restatement (the Restated Credit Agreement) of the Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement), which was effective July 31, 2009.

The Restated Credit Agreement mirrors the material terms of the Credit Agreement, except that the Restated Credit Agreement:

clarifies that the credit facility will terminate on January 18, 2011;

eliminates the ability of SBA Senior Finance and its subsidiaries to enter into additional securitization arrangements;

Optasite Credit Facility

On September 16, 2008, in connection with the acquisition of Optasite, the Company assumed Optasite's fully drawn $150 million senior credit facility (the Optasite Credit Facility). Interest on the Optasite Credit Facility accrued at the one month Eurodollar Rate plus 165 basis points and interest payments were due monthly. Commencing November 1, 2008, the Company began paying required installment payments on the Optasite Credit Facility. On July 31, 2009, the Company paid off the facility in full and the facility was subsequently terminated. The Company recorded a loss on the early extinguishment of debt of $1.9 million.

Senior Notes

On July 24, 2009, the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary Telecommunications issued $750 million of unsecured senior notes (Senior Notes), $375 million of which are due August 15, 2016 (2016 Notes) and $375 million of which are due August 15, 2019 (2019 Notes). The 2016 Notes have an interest rate of 8.00% and were issued at a price of 99.330% of their face value. Interest on the 2016 Notes and 2019 Notes are due semi-annually on February 15, and August 15 of each year beginning on February 15, 2010. Net proceeds of this offering were $728.7 million after deducting expenses and original issue discount.

Telecommunications used the net proceeds from this offering to repay the Initial CMBS Certificates issued by its subsidiary and the related prepayment consideration, repay the Senior Credit Facility and repay and terminate the Optasite Credit Facility. Telecommunications also intends to repurchase prior to maturity or repay at maturity SBA's outstanding 0.375% Notes. The remaining net proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

We are a leading independent owner and operator of wireless communications towers. Our principal operations are in the United States, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands and Canada. Our primary business line is our site leasing business, which contributed 97.8% of our segment operating profit for the three months ended September 30, 2009. In our site leasing business, we lease antenna space to wireless service providers on towers and other structures that we own, manage or lease from others. The towers that we own have been constructed by us at the request of a wireless service provider, constructed based on our own initiative or acquired. As of September 30, 2009, we owned 8,085 towers, the substantial majority of which have been built by us or built by other tower owners or operators who, like us, have built such towers to lease space to wireless service providers. We also own six distributed antenna system (DAS) networks and manage or lease approximately 5,200 actual or potential communications sites, approximately 550 of which were revenue producing as of September 30, 2009. Our other business line is our site development business, through which we assist wireless service providers with developing and maintaining their own wireless service networks.

Site Leasing Services

Our primary focus is the leasing of antenna space on our multi-tenant towers to a variety of wireless service providers under long-term lease contracts. Site leasing revenues are received primarily from wireless service provider tenants, including AT&T, Sprint, T-Mobile and Verizon Wireless. Wireless service providers enter into numerous different tenant leases with us, each of which relates to the lease or use of space at an individual tower site. Tenant leases are generally for an initial term of five years renewable for five five-year renewal periods at the option of the tenant. These tenant leases typically contain specific rent escalators, which average 3% - 4% per year, including the renewal option periods. Tenant leases are generally paid on a monthly basis and revenue from site leasing is recorded monthly on a straight-line basis over the current term of the related lease agreements. Rental amounts received in advance are recorded as deferred revenue.

Cost of site leasing revenue primarily consists of:

Rental payments on ground and other underlying property leases;

Straight-line rent adjustment for the difference between rental payments made and expense recorded as if the payments had been made evenly throughout the minimum lease term (which may include renewal terms) of the underlying property leases;

Property taxes;

Site maintenance and monitoring costs (exclusive of employee related costs);

Utilities;

Property insurance; and

Deferred lease origination cost amortization.

For any given tower, such costs are relatively fixed over a monthly or an annual time period. As such, operating costs for owned towers do not generally increase significantly as a result of adding additional customers to the tower. The amount of other direct costs associated with operating a tower varies from site to site depending on the taxing jurisdiction and the height and age of the tower, but typically do not make up a large percentage of total operating costs. The ongoing maintenance requirements are typically minimal and include replacing lighting systems, painting towers or upgrading or repairing access roads or fencing. Lastly, land leases generally have an initial term of five years with five or more additional automatic renewal periods of five years at our option and provide for rent escalators which typically average 3% - 4% annually or provide for term escalators of approximately 15%. Of the 8,085 towers in our portfolio, as of September 30, 2009, approximately 27.2% were located on parcels of land that we own, land subject to perpetual easements, or parcels of land that have a leasehold interest that extends beyond 50 years.

Our site leasing business generates substantially all of our total segment operating profit. As indicated in the table below, our site leasing business generated 86.5% and 86.1% of our total revenue during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2009, respectively. For information regarding our operating segments, please see Note 14 of our Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in this quarterly report.

⁽¹⁾ Site leasing segment operating profit and total segment operating profit are non-GAAP financial measures. We reconcile these measures and provide other Regulation G disclosures later in this quarterly report in the section entitled Non-GAAP Financial Measures. We believe that over the long-term, site leasing revenues will continue to grow as wireless service providers lease additional antenna space on our towers due to increasing minutes of network use, network expansion and network coverage requirements. We believe our site leasing business is characterized by stable and long-term recurring revenues, predictable operating costs and minimal capital expenditures. Due to the relatively young age and mix of our tower portfolio, we expect future expenditures required to maintain these towers to be minimal. Consequently, we expect to grow our cash flows by adding tenants to our towers at minimal incremental costs by using existing tower capacity or requiring wireless service providers to bear all or a portion of the cost of tower modifications. Furthermore, because our towers are strategically positioned and our customers typically do not relocate, we have historically experienced low customer churn as a percentage of revenue.

Table of Contents

The following rollforward summarizes the activity in our consolidated tower portfolio from December 31, 2008 to September 30, 2009:

	Number of Towers
Towers owned at December 31, 2008	7,854

Towers owned at September 30, 2009	8,085

Site Development Services

Our site development services business is complementary to our site leasing business and provides us the ability to keep in close contact with the wireless service providers who generate substantially all of our site leasing revenue and capture ancillary revenues that are generated by our site leasing activities, such as antenna installation and equipment installation at our tower locations. Our site development services business consists of two segments, site development consulting and site development construction, through which we provide wireless service providers a full range of end-to-end services. We principally perform services for third parties in our core, historical areas of wireless expertise, specifically site acquisition, zoning, technical services and construction.

Site development services revenues are received primarily from wireless service providers or companies providing development or project management services to wireless service providers. Our site development customers engage us on a project-by-project basis, and a customer can generally terminate an assignment at any time without penalty. Site development projects, both consulting and construction, include contracts on a time and materials basis or a fixed price basis. The majority of our site development services are billed on a fixed price basis. Time and materials based site development contracts are billed and revenue is recognized at contractual rates as the services are rendered. Our site development projects generally take from three to twelve months to complete. For those site development consulting contracts in which we perform work on a fixed price basis, we bill the client, and recognize revenue, based on the completion of agreed upon phases of the project on a per site basis. Upon the completion of each phase, we recognize the revenue related to that phase.

Our revenue from site development construction contracts is recognized on the percentage-of-completion method of accounting, determined by the percentage of cost incurred to date compared to management's estimated total cost for each contract. This method is used because management considers total cost to be the best available measure of progress on the contracts. These amounts are based on estimates, and the uncertainty inherent in the estimates initially is reduced as work on the contracts nears completion. Revenue from our site development construction business may fluctuate from period to period depending on construction activities, which are a function of the timing and amount of our clients' capital expenditures, the number and significance of active customer engagements during a period, weather and other factors.

Cost of site development consulting revenue and construction revenue include all costs of materials, salaries and labor, including payroll taxes, subcontract labor, vehicle expense and other costs directly and indirectly related to the projects. All costs related to site development consulting contracts and construction contracts are recognized as incurred.

The table below provides the percentage of total company revenues contributed by site development consulting services and site development construction services for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008. Information regarding the total assets used in our site development services businesses is included in Note 14 of our Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in this quarterly report.

KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORSSegment Operating Profit:

We believe that Segment Operating Profit is an indicator of the operating performance of our site leasing and site development segments and provides management with the ability to monitor the operating results and margin of each segment, while excluding the impact of depreciation, accretion and amortization, which is largely fixed. We reconcile this measure and provide other Regulation G disclosures later in this quarterly report in the section entitled Non-GAAP Financial Measures.

The increase in site leasing segment operating profit related primarily to additional profit generated by the 610 towers acquired and constructed after September 30, 2008 and the 528 towers acquired in late September 2008 in the Optasite acquisition and additional revenue from the new leases and lease modifications for new tenant equipment installed in the first three months and nine months of 2009 compared to the first three months and nine months of 2008, control of our site leasing cost of revenue and the positive impact of our ground lease purchase program.

Adjusted EBITDA:

We believe that Adjusted EBITDA is an indicator of the performance of our core operations and reflects the changes in our operating results. Adjusted EBITDA is not intended to be an alternative measure of operating income or gross profit margin as determined in accordance with GAAP. We reconcile this measure and provide other Regulation G disclosures later in this quarterly report in the section entitled "Non-GAAP Financial Measures."

Adjusted EBITDA increased $18.1 million to $85.0 million for the three months ended September 30, 2009 from $66.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2008 primarily due to increased site leasing segment operating profit.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

We have identified the policies and significant estimation processes below as critical to our business operations and the understanding of our results of operations. The listing is not intended to be a comprehensive list. In many cases, the accounting treatment of a particular transaction is specifically dictated by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, with no need for management's judgment in their application. In other cases, management is required to exercise judgment in the application of accounting principles with respect to particular transactions. The impact and any associated risks related to these policies on our business operations is discussed throughout "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" where such policies affect reported and expected financial results. For a detailed discussion on the application of these and other accounting policies, see Note 2 in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2008, included in the Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 27, 2009. Our preparation of our financial statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of our financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Management bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. There can be no assurance that actual results will not differ from those estimates and such differences could be significant.

Construction Revenue

Revenue from construction contracts is recognized on the percentage-of-completion method of accounting, determined by the percentage of cost incurred to date compared to management's estimated total cost for each contract. This method is used because we consider total cost to be the best available measure of progress on each contract. These amounts are based on estimates, and the uncertainty inherent in the estimates initially is reduced as work on each contract nears completion. The asset "Costs and estimated earnings in excess of billings on uncompleted contracts" represents expenses incurred and revenues recognized in excess of amounts billed. The liability "Billings in excess of costs and estimated earnings on uncompleted contracts" represents billings in excess of revenues recognized.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

We perform periodic credit evaluations of our customers. We continuously monitor collections and payments from our customers and maintain an allowance for estimated credit losses based upon our historical experience and any specific customer collection issues that we have identified. Establishing reserves against specific accounts receivable and the overall adequacy of our allowance is a matter of judgment.

Asset Impairment

We evaluate the potential impairment of individual long-lived assets, principally the tower sites, on an annual basis or when an indicator of impairment exists. We record an impairment charge when we believe an investment in towers or the related intangible assets has been impaired, such that future undiscounted cash flows would not recover the then current carrying value of the investment in the tower site. We consider many factors and make certain assumptions when making this assessment, including, but not limited to: general market and economic conditions, historical operating results, geographic location, lease-up potential and expected timing of lease-up. In addition, we make certain assumptions in determining an asset's fair value less costs to sell for purposes of calculating the amount of an impairment charge. Changes in those assumptions or market conditions may result in a fair value less costs to sell which is different from management's estimates. Future adverse changes in market conditions could result in losses or an inability to recover the carrying value, thereby possibly requiring an impairment charge in the future. In addition, if our assumptions regarding future undiscounted cash flows and related assumptions are incorrect, a future impairment charge may be required.

Property Tax Expense

We typically receive notifications and invoices in arrears for property taxes associated with the tangible personal property and real property used in our site leasing business. As a result, we recognize property tax expense, which is reflected as a component of site leasing cost of revenue, based on our best estimate of anticipated property tax payments related to the current period. We consider several factors in establishing this estimate, including our historical level of incurred property taxes, the location of the property, our awareness of jurisdictional property value assessment methods and industry related property tax information. If our estimates regarding anticipated property tax expenses are incorrect, a future increase or decrease in site leasing cost of revenue may be required.

RESTATEMENT FOR ADOPTION OF NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENT

Effective January 1, 2009, we adopted new convertible debt accounting which requires the issuer of certain convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash (including partial cash settlement) on conversion to separately account for the liability (debt) and equity (conversion option) components of the instrument in a manner that reflects the issuer's non-convertible debt borrowing rate. It also requires companies to retroactively apply the requirements of the pronouncement to all periods presented. Our 0.375% Convertible Senior Notes due 2010 (the "0.375% Notes") and 1.875% Convertible Senior Notes due 2013 (the "1.875% Notes") are subject to the retroactive restatement requirements required by the new convertible debt accounting. Our consolidated statements of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008 and our condensed consolidated statements of cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 have been retroactively adjusted to reflect the impact of adopting the new convertible debt accounting. See Note 2 and Note 9 to the consolidated financial statements for a summary of the effects on our consolidated statement of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2008 and consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2008. The accompanying Management's Discussion and Analysis reflects the changes due to the implementation.

Revenues:

Edgar Filing: SBA COMMUNICATIONS CORP - Form 10-Q

Site leasing revenues increased $20.0 million during the third quarter of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year due largely to (i) revenues from the towers that we acquired in the 2008 acquisitions of Optasite and Light Tower and the other towers that we acquired or constructed subsequent to September 30, 2008 and (ii) organic site leasing growth from new leases and contractual rent escalators and lease amendments with current tenants which increased the related rent to reflect additional equipment added to our towers. Average rents per tenant increased in the third quarter of 2009 due primarily to rent escalators, lease amendments and higher rents associated with new leases.

Table of Contents

Site development consulting revenues increased slightly and site development construction revenues remained relatively stable during the third quarter of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year.

Operating Expenses:

Site leasing cost of revenues increased $3.9 million during the third quarter of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year primarily as a result of the growth in the number of towers owned by us (8,085 at September 30, 2009 compared to 7,484 at September 30, 2008) offset by the positive impact of our ground lease purchase program.

Site development consulting cost of revenues remained relatively stable and site development construction cost of revenues decreased slightly during the third quarter of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased $0.8 million during the third quarter of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year primarily as a result of an increase in salaries, benefits and other employee related expenses resulting primarily from an increased number of employees.

Acquisition related expenses of $0.9 million are costs associated with acquisitions which effective January 1, 2009, are required to be expensed and included within operating expenses. We had historically capitalized the majority of these expenses.

Depreciation, accretion and amortization expense increased $12.2 million to $64.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2009 from $52.7 million for the three months ended September 30, 2008 due to an increase in the number of towers and associated intangible assets owned at September 30, 2009 compared to those owned at September 30, 2008.

Operating Income:

Operating income increased $3.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2009 from the three months ended September 30, 2008 primarily due to the result of higher segment operating profit in the site leasing segment offset by increases in depreciation, accretion and amortization expense, acquisition related expenses and selling, general and administrative expenses.

Other Income (Expense):

Interest income decreased $1.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2009 from the three months ended September 30, 2008. This decrease was primarily the result of lower weighted average interest rates offset by higher average invested funds in the third quarter of 2009 compared to third quarter of 2008.

Interest expense for the three months ended September 30, 2009 increased $9.7 million from the three months ended September 30, 2008. This increase was primarily due to the higher interest rates on the mix of our outstanding debt and higher weighted average amount of cash-interest bearing debt outstanding for the three months ended September 30, 2009 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2008.

Non-cash interest expense for the three months ended September 30, 2009 increased $4.2 million from the three months ended September 30, 2008. This increase primarily reflects the accretion of debt discounts on the Senior Notes which were issued in July 2009 and the 4.0% Notes which were issued in April 2009 and the Optasite Credit Facility acquired in September 2008, offset by the impact of the repurchase of an aggregate of $319.6 million in principal of the 0.375% Notes in the fourth quarter of 2008 and first nine months of 2009.

Table of Contents

The loss from extinguishment of debt and write-off of deferred financing fees of $12.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2009 includes a loss of $9.3 million related to the payoff of our Initial CMBS Certificates in July 2009, $1.9 million related to the payoff of our Optasite Credit Facility in July 2009, $1.4 million associated with the repurchase of $105.6 million in principal of our Additional CMBS Certificates offset slightly by a gain of $0.1 million associated with the repurchases of an aggregate of $4.0 million in principal of our 0.375% Notes. See discussion in Note 9 in the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more information. The loss from extinguishment of debt and write-off of deferred financing fees of $0.4 million for the three months ended September 30, 2008 was due to the write-off of deferred financing fees related to the reduction in the aggregate commitment of the lenders under the Senior Credit Facility as a result of Lehman Commercial Paper Inc.'s default of its funding obligation under our Senior Credit Facility.

Other income (expense) for the three months ended September 30, 2009 includes a $0.1 million gain on disposition of assets. Other income (expense) for the three months ended September 30, 2008 includes a $0.5 million other-than-temporary impairment charge on our investments in auction rate securities.

Net Loss

Net loss increased $22.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2009 from the three months ended September 30, 2008 primarily due to losses from extinguishment of debt and write-off of deferred financing fees and increases in interest expense and non-cash interest expense offset primarily by an increase in site leasing segment operating profit.

Site leasing revenues increased $69.8 million during the first nine months of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year due largely to (i) revenue from the towers that we acquired in the 2008 acquisitions of TowerCo, Optasite and Light Tower and the other towers that we acquired or constructed subsequent to September 30, 2008 and (ii) organic growth from new leases and lease amendments with current tenants which increased the related rent to reflect additional equipment added to our historical towers, and contractual rent escalators. Average rents per tenant increased during the nine months of 2009 due primarily to rent escalators, lease amendments and higher rents associated with new leases.

Site development consulting revenues decreased $1.3 million during the first nine months of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year as the volume of work done during the period decreased as a result of the completion of major projects in 2008. Site development construction revenues increased $1.6 million during the first nine months of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year primarily as a result of higher margin work on similar cost volumes.

Operating Expenses:

Site leasing cost of revenues increased $14.4 million during the first nine months of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year primarily as a result of the growth in the number of towers owned by us, which was 8,085 at September 30, 2009 up from 7,484 at September 30, 2008 offset by the positive impact of our ground lease purchase program.

Site development consulting cost of revenues decreased $1.9 million as a result of a pullback in site development by one of our largest customers. Site development construction cost of revenues decreased slightly during the first nine months of 2009 compared to the same period in the prior year.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased $3.0 million during the first nine months of 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year primarily as a result of an increase in salaries, benefits and other employee related expenses resulting primarily from a higher number of employees.

Acquisition related expenses of $2.6 million are costs associated with acquisitions which effective January 1, 2009, are required to be expensed and included within operating expenses. The Company has historically capitalized the majority of these expenses.

Depreciation, accretion and amortization expense increased $43.5 million to $192.9 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 from $149.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 due to an increase in the number of towers and associated intangible assets owned at September 30, 2009 compared to those owned at September 30, 2008.

Operating Income:

Operating income increased $8.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 as compared to the same period in the prior year primarily due to higher segment operating profit in the site leasing segment offset by increases in depreciation, accretion and amortization expense, acquisition related expenses and selling, general and administrative expenses.

Other Income (Expense):

Interest income decreased $4.7 million to $0.9 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 from $5.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2008. This decrease was primarily the result of lower weighted average interest rates offset by higher average invested funds during the first nine months of 2009 compared to the first nine months of 2008.

Interest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 increased $17.5 million from the nine months ended September 30, 2008. Initial CMBS Certificates, $1.9 million related to the payoff of our Optasite Credit Facility, $1.2 million associated with the repurchases of an aggregate of $116.8 million of our Additional CMBS Certificates offset by a gain of $6.1 million associated with the repurchases of an aggregate of $107.7 million of our 0.375% Notes. See discussion in Note 9 in the Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for more information.

Other income (expense) for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 includes a $5.5 million other-than-temporary impairment charge on our investments in auction rate securities.

Net loss

Net loss increased $24.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 from the nine months ended September 30, 2008 primarily due to losses from the extinguishment of debt and write-off of deferred financing fees and increases in interest expense and non-cash interest expense offset by an increase in site leasing segment operating profit.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

SBA Communications Corporation is a holding company with no business operations of its own. SBA Communications' only significant asset is the outstanding capital stock of SBA Telecommunications, Inc. which is also a holding company that owns equity interests in (1) SBA Infrastructure I, Inc. (the entity that indirectly owns all of the towers and other assets acquired in the Optasite acquisition), (2) SBA Senior Finance, Inc. (the entity that indirectly owns all of our other domestic towers and assets) and (3) our international entities. We conduct all of our business operations through Telecommunications' subsidiaries. Accordingly, our only source of cash to pay our obligations, other than financings, is distributions with respect to our ownership interest in our subsidiaries from the net earnings and cash flow generated by these subsidiaries.

A summary of our cash flows is as follows:

	For the nine months ended September 30, 2009	For the nine months ended September 30, 2008 (as restated)

Sources of Liquidity

We fund our growth, including our tower portfolio growth, through cash flows from operations, long-term indebtedness and equity issuances. With respect to our debt financing, we have utilized secured and unsecured financings and issuances at various levels of our organizational structure to minimize our financing costs while maximizing our operational flexibility.

Cash provided by operating activities was $169.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 as compared to $134.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2008. This increase was primarily the result of an increase in the segment operating profit from the site leasing segment.

On July 24, 2009, Telecommunications issued $750 million of unsecured senior notes, which we refer to as the Senior Notes, $375 million of which are due 2016 (the 2016 Notes) and $375 million of which are due 2019 (the 2019 Notes). The 2016 Notes have an interest rate of 8.00% and were issued at a price of 99.330% of their face value. The 2019 Notes have an interest rate of 8.25% and were issued at a price of 99.152% of their face value. Net proceeds of this offering were $728.7 million after deducting expenses and original issue discount. Telecommunications used the net proceeds to repay the Initial CMBS Certificates issued by its subsidiary and the related prepayment consideration and repay the principal amounts outstanding under the Optasite Credit Facility and the Senior Credit Facility. Telecommunications also intends to use the net proceeds from this offering to repurchase prior to maturity or repay at maturity our outstanding 0.375% Notes. The remaining net proceeds are being used for general corporate purposes.

On April 24, 2009, SBA Communications issued $500.0 million of our 4.0% Notes in a private placement. The net proceeds of this offering were approximately $488.2 million after deducting discounts, commissions and expenses. Contemporaneously with the closing of the sale of the 4.0% Notes, a portion of the net proceeds from the sale of the 4.0% Notes was used to repurchase and subsequently retire 2.0 million shares of our Class A common stock, valued at approximately $50.0 million based on the closing stock price of $24.80 on April 20, 2009. Concurrently with the pricing of the 4.0% Notes, the Company entered into convertible note hedge and warrant transactions. A portion of the net proceeds from the sale of the 4.0% Notes and the warrants were used to pay for the cost of the convertible note hedge transactions. The remaining net proceeds of $376.6 million were used for general corporate purposes, including repurchases or repayments of our outstanding debt.

Effective April 14, 2009, SBA Senior Finance entered into a New Lender Supplement to the Senior Credit Agreement with Barclays Bank PLC. The New Lender Supplement added Barclays as a lender under the Senior Credit Facility and increased the aggregate commitment under the Senior Credit Facility from $285.0 million to $320.0 million, availability of which is based on compliance with certain financial ratios. Availability under the Senior Credit Facility was $319.9 million as of September 30, 2009.

Registration Statements

We have on file with the Commission a shelf registration statement on Form S-4 registering shares of Class A common stock that we may issue in connection with the acquisition of wireless communications towers or antenna sites and related assets or companies that own wireless communications towers, antenna sites or related assets. During the three months ended September 30, 2009, we issued approximately 7,000 shares of Class A common stock under this registration statement. As of September 30, 2009, we had approximately 1.7 million shares of Class A common stock remaining under this shelf registration statement.

On March 3, 2009, we filed with the Commission an automatic shelf registration statement for well-known seasoned issuers on Form S-3ASR. This registration statement enables us to issue shares of our Class A common stock, preferred stock or debt securities either separately or represented by warrants, or depositary shares as well as units that include any of these securities. Under the rules governing automatic shelf registration statements, we will file a prospectus supplement and advise the Commission of the amount and type of securities each time we issue securities under this registration statement.

Uses of Liquidity

Traditionally, our principal use of liquidity has been cash capital expenditures associated with the growth of our tower portfolio. During the recent market disruptions that occurred from October 2008 through the second quarter of 2009, we utilized our liquidity to take advantage of certain market opportunities and repurchase our outstanding debt. However, based on the normalization of the capital markets and our recent financing activity, we currently believe that our principal use of liquidity will be to fund tower growth and, secondarily, our recently announced stock repurchase program. However, in the future, we may, from time to time, repurchase, for cash or equity, our outstanding indebtedness in privately-negotiated or open market transactions in order to optimize our liquidity and leverage and take advantage of market opportunities.

Our cash capital expenditures, including cash used for acquisitions, for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 were $88.7 million. The $88.7 million primarily consists of cash capital expenditures of $48.4 million that we incurred primarily in connection with the acquisition of 160 completed towers, net of related working capital adjustments, and earnouts paid in connection with previous acquisitions and $22.3 million for construction and related costs associated with the completion of 75 new towers during the nine months ended September 30, 2009 and on sites currently in process. The $88.7 million also includes $5.1 million for tower maintenance capital expenditures, $5.8 million for augmentations and tower upgrades, $0.9 million for general corporate expenditures and $6.2 million for ground lease purchases.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2009, we repurchased, in privately negotiated or open market transactions an aggregate of $107.7 million of our 0.375% Notes, $18.6 million in principal of our Initial CMBS Certificates and $116.8 million in principal of our Additional CMBS Certificates for aggregate consideration of 618,000 shares of our Class A common stock and $223.4 million in cash. In addition, in July 2009 we used the proceeds from the issuance of our Senior Notes to repay the remaining outstanding balances of our Initial CMBS Certificates and our Senior Credit Facility and repay and terminate the Optasite Credit Facility.

Subsequent to September 30, 2009, we have repurchased an aggregate of $0.6 million of our Additional CMBS Certificates for $0.6 million in cash.

During 2009, we expect to incur non-discretionary cash capital expenditures associated with tower maintenance and general corporate expenditures of $8 million to $9 million and discretionary cash capital expenditures based on current obligations of $141.7 million to $151.7 million primarily associated with the approximately 100 towers we intend to build in 2009, tower acquisitions, tower augmentations and ground lease purchases.

During 2010, we expect to incur non-discretionary cash capital expenditures associated with tower maintenance and general corporate expenditures of $7 million to $11 million and discretionary cash capital expenditures, based on current obligations, of $90 million to $110 million primarily associated with the 100 to 110 towers we intend to build in 2010, tower acquisitions currently under contract, tower augmentations and ground lease purchases. We intend to spend additional capital in 2010 on acquiring revenue producing assets not yet identified and under contract.

We estimate that we will incur approximately $1,000 per tower per year for capital improvements or modifications to our towers. All of these planned cash capital expenditures are expected to be funded by cash on hand, cash flow from operations and borrowings under the Senior Credit Facility. The exact amount of our future capital expenditures will depend on a number of factors including amounts necessary to support our tower portfolio, our new tower build and tower acquisition program, and our ground lease purchase program.

Debt Instruments and Debt Service Requirements

As of September 30, 2009, we believe that our cash on hand and our cash flows from operations for the next twelve months will be sufficient to service our outstanding debt during the next twelve months.

CMBS Certificates

In November 2005, an indirect subsidiary of SBA Senior Finance (the Trust), issued $405 million of CMBS Certificates (the Initial CMBS Certificates). In November 2006, the Trust subsequently issued $1.15 billion of CMBS Certificates (the Additional CMBS Certificates and collectively with the Initial CMBS Certificates, the CMBS Certificates).

The Initial CMBS Certificates consisted of five classes with annual pass-through interest rates ranging from 5.369% to 6.706%. The Initial CMBS Certificates had an anticipated repayment date of November 2010 with a final repayment date in 2035. On July 28, 2009, we paid $390.3 million in cash to pay off the remaining outstanding balance on the Initial CMBS Certificates including the $10.1 million prepayment consideration.

The Additional CMBS Certificates consist of nine classes with annual pass-through interest rates ranging from 5.314% to 7.825%. The weighted average annual fixed coupon interest rate of the Additional CMBS Certificates at September 30, 2009 was 5.9%, payable monthly, and the effective weighted average annual fixed interest rate was 6.2% after giving effect to the settlement of the nine interest rate swap agreements entered into in contemplation of the transaction. The Additional CMBS Certificates have an anticipated repayment date of November 2011 with a final repayment date in 2036. However, to the extent that the full amount of the mortgage loan component corresponding to the Additional CMBS Certificates are not fully repaid by their anticipated repayment dates, the interest rate of each component would increase by the greater of (i) 5% or (ii) the amount, if any, by which the sum of (x) the ten-year U.S. treasury rate plus (y) the credit-based spread for such component (as set forth in the mortgage loan agreement) plus (z) 5%, exceeds the original interest rate for such component. As of September 30, 2009, we had $973.9 million of CMBS Certificates outstanding. Based on the amounts outstanding and a weighted average annual fixed coupon interest rate of 5.9% at September 30, 2009, annual debt service for the next twelve months on the Additional CMBS Certificates would be $57.5 million.

The CMBS Certificates are repayable with the proceeds of a non-recourse mortgage loan, the sole asset of the Trust, made in favor of certain operating subsidiaries of SBA Senior Finance (the CMBS Borrowers). The CMBS Borrowers are special purpose vehicles which exist solely to hold the towers which are subject to the securitization. Each of the CMBS Borrowers, who are jointly and severally liable under the mortgage loan, have pledged the cash flows from towers owned by the entity as security under the mortgage loan. In connection with the repayment of the Initial CMBS Certificates, certain of the CMBS Borrowers were released from their obligations under the mortgage loan and the towers owned by such entities released from their pledge. As of September 30, 2009, the remaining CMBS Borrowers owned an aggregate 3,747 towers.

Pursuant to the terms of the CMBS Certificates, all rental cash receipts received by the CMBS Borrowers are initially placed in a reserve account to fund the payment of debt service costs, ground rents, real estate and personal property taxes, insurance premiums related to tower sites, trustee and service expenses, management fees and to reserve a portion of advance rents from tenants. Amounts received into the reserve account in excess of the required reserve balances (the excess cash flows) are released to the CMBS Borrowers monthly, unless the CMBS Borrowers are not in compliance with the required Debt Service Coverage Ratio (as defined in the mortgage loan agreement). If the Debt Service Coverage Ratio is less than (1) 1.30x, the excess cash flows will be held in the reserve account until the CMBS Borrowers are in compliance with the Debt Service Coverage Ratio for two consecutive quarters or (2) 1.15x, then an amortization period will commence and all funds on deposit in the reserve account will be applied to prepay the mortgage loan until such time as the Debt Service Coverage Ratio exceeds 1.15x for a calendar quarter. As of September 30, 2009, we met the required Debt Service Coverage Ratio.

Subsequent to September 30, 2009, we repurchased an aggregate of $0.6 million in principal amount of Additional CMBS Certificates for $0.6 million in cash. Our outstanding balance on the Additional CMBS Certificates was $973.3 million as of the date of this filing.

0.375% Convertible Senior Notes due 2010

At September 30, 2009, we had $30.4 million outstanding of 0.375% Notes (which was recorded at its discounted carrying value of $28.2 million). The maturity date of the 0.375% Notes is December 1, 2010. Interest on the 0.375% Notes is payable semi-annually each June 1 and December 1. Based on the amounts outstanding at September 30, 2009, debt service for the next twelve months on the 0.375% Notes will be $0.1 million. We intend to use a portion of the net proceeds from the Senior Notes issued in July 2009 to repurchase prior to maturity or repay at maturity our remaining 0.375% Notes outstanding.

1.875% Convertible Senior Notes due 2013

At September 30, 2009, we had $550.0 million outstanding of 1.875% Notes (which was recorded at its discounted carrying value of $425.0 million). The maturity date of the 1.875% Notes is May 1, 2013. Interest on the 1.875% Notes is payable semi-annually each May 1 and November 1. Based on the amounts outstanding at September 30, 2009, debt service for the next twelve months on the 1.875% Notes would be $10.3 million.

4.0% Convertible Senior Notes due 2014

As of September 30, 2009, we had outstanding $500.0 million of our 4.0% Notes (which was recorded at its discounted carrying value of $336.9 million). The maturity date of the 4.0% Notes is October 1, 2014. Interest on the 4.0% Notes is payable semi-annually on April 1 and October 1. We incurred deferred financing fees of $11.7 million with the issuance of the 4.0% Notes. Based on the amounts outstanding at September 30, 2009, debt service for the next twelve months on the 4.0% Notes would be $20.0 million.

The 4.0% Notes are convertible, at the holder's option, into shares of our Class A common stock, at an initial conversion rate of 32.9164 shares of our Class A common stock per $1,000 principal amount of 4.0% Notes (subject to certain customary adjustments), which is equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $30.38 per share or a 22.5% conversion premium based on the last reported sale price of $24.80 per share of our Class A common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on April 20, 2009, the purchase agreement date. Concurrently with the pricing of the 4.0% Notes, we entered into convertible note hedge transactions whereby we purchased from affiliates of the initial purchasers of the 4.0% Notes an option covering 16,458,196 shares of our Class A common stock at an initial price of $30.38 per share (the same as the initial conversion price of the notes). Separately and concurrently with the pricing of the 4.0% Notes, we entered into warrant transactions whereby we sold to affiliates of the initial purchasers of the 4.0% Notes warrants to acquire 16,458,196 shares of our Class A common stock at an initial exercise price of $44.64 per share. The convertible note hedge transactions and the warrant transactions, taken as a whole, effectively increase the conversion price of the 4.0% Notes from $30.38 per share to $44.64 per share, reflecting a premium of 80% based on the closing stock price of $24.80 per share of our Class A common stock on April 20, 2009.

The 4.0% Notes are convertible only under the following circumstances:

during any calendar quarter commencing at any time after June 30, 2009 and only during such calendar quarter, if the last reported sale price of our Class A common stock for at least 20 trading days in the 30 consecutive trading day period ending on the last trading day of the preceding calendar quarter is more than 130% of the applicable conversion price per share of Class A common stock on the last day of such preceding calendar quarter;

during the five business day period after any 10 consecutive trading day period (the measurement period) in which the trading price per $1,000 principal amount of notes for each day in the measurement period was less than 95% of the product of the last reported sale price of our Class A common stock and the applicable conversion rate;

if specified distributions to holders of our Class A common stock are made or specified corporate transactions occur; or at any time on or after July 22, 2014.

Upon conversion, we will have the right to settle our conversion obligation in cash, shares of Class A common stock or a combination of cash and shares of our Class A common stock. From time to time, upon notice to the holders of the 4.0% Notes, we may change our election regarding the form of consideration that we will use to settle our conversion obligation; provided, however, that we are not permitted to change our settlement election after July 21, 2014.

Senior Credit Facility

As of September 30, 2009, we did not have any amounts outstanding under our Senior Credit Facility and had approximately $0.1 million of letters of credit posted against the availability of the Senior Credit Facility outstanding. Amounts borrowed under the facility accrue interest at the Eurodollar rate plus a margin that ranges from 150 to 300 basis points or at a Base Rate (as defined in the Senior Credit Agreement) plus a margin that ranges from 50 basis points to 200 basis points. As of September 30, 2009, availability under this facility was $319.9 million. The Senior Credit Facility matures on January 18, 2011.

Effective as of July 31, 2009, we entered into an Amendment and Restatement of the Senior Credit Agreement. The material amendments to the Senior Credit Agreement, included, (1) eliminating the ability of SBA Senior Finance and its subsidiaries to enter into additional securitization arrangements, (2) amending the definition of Excluded Subsidiaries such that only subsidiaries of SBA Senior Finance, rather than all subsidiaries of Telecommunications, are required to guarantee SBA Senior Finance's obligations under the Senior Credit Facility, (3) modifying the provision relating to the limitation of asset sales and when the net proceeds of asset sales are required to be used to permanently reduce the credit facility commitments and repay outstanding revolving loans, and (4) expanding the approved use of proceeds for borrowings under the credit facility to general corporate purposes, including distributions to Telecommunications.

As amended, the Senior Credit Agreement requires SBA Senior Finance and SBA Communications to maintain specific financial ratios, including, at the SBA Senior Finance level, a Consolidated Total Debt to Annualized Borrower EBITDA ratio (as defined in the Senior Credit Agreement) that does not exceed 5.0 times for any fiscal quarter and an Annualized Borrower EBITDA to Annualized Cash Interest Expense ratio (as defined in the Senior Credit Agreement) of not less than 2.0 times for any fiscal quarter. In addition, SBA Communications' ratio of Consolidated Total Net Debt to Consolidated Adjusted

EBITDA (as defined in the Senior Credit Agreement) for any fiscal quarter cannot exceed 9.9 times. The Senior Credit Agreement also contains customary affirmative and negative covenants that, among other things, limit SBA Senior Finance's ability to incur indebtedness, grant certain liens, make certain investments, enter into sale leaseback transactions or merge or consolidate, or engage in certain asset dispositions, including a sale of all or substantially all of its assets. As of September 30, 2009, the CMBS Borrowers were in compliance with all of our covenants under the Senior Credit Agreement.

Optasite Credit Facility

In July 2009, we paid off the full amount outstanding under the Optasite Credit Facility and the facility was subsequently terminated.

Senior Notes

On July 24, 2009, Telecommunications issued $750 million of unsecured senior notes, $375 million of which are due in 2016 and $375 million of which are due in 2019. The 2016 Notes and the 2019 Notes are guaranteed by SBA Communications.

The 2016 Notes have an interest rate of 8.00% and were issued at a price of 99.330% of their face value. The 2019 Notes have an interest rate of 8.25% and were issued at a price of 99.152% of their face value. Interest on the 2016 Notes and 2019 Notes are due semi-annually on February 15, and August 15 of each year beginning on February 15, 2010. Based on the amounts outstanding at September 30, 2009, debt service for the next twelve months on the 2016 Senior Notes and the 2019 Senior Notes would be $30.0 million and $30.9 million, respectively.

The 2016 Notes and the 2019 Notes are subject to redemption in whole or in part on or after August 15, 2012 and on or after August 15, 2014, respectively, at the redemption prices set forth in the indenture agreement plus accrued and unpaid interest. Prior to August 15, 2012 for the 2016 Notes and August 15, 2014 for the 2019 Notes, we may at our option redeem all or a portion of the 2016 Notes or 2019 Notes at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof plus a make whole premium, using a discount rate of Treasuries plus 0.5%. In addition, we may redeem up to 35% of the originally issued aggregate principal amount of each of the 2016 Notes and 2019 Notes with the net proceeds of certain equity offerings at a redemption price of 108.000% and 108.250%, respectively, of the principal amount of the redeemed notes plus accrued and unpaid interest.

The Indenture governing the 2016 Notes and the 2019 Notes contains customary covenants, subject to a number of exceptions and qualifications, including restrictions on Telecommunications' ability to (1) incur additional indebtedness unless its Consolidated Indebtedness to Annualized Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA Ratio (as defined in the Indenture), pro forma for the additional indebtedness, does not exceed 7.0 times for the fiscal quarter, (2) merge, consolidate or sell assets, (3) make restricted payments, including dividends or other distributions, (4) enter into transactions with affiliates, and (5) enter into sale and leaseback transactions and restrictions on the ability of Telecommunications' Restricted Subsidiaries (as defined in the Indenture) to incur liens securing indebtedness.

Inflation

The impact of inflation on our operations has not been significant to date. However, we cannot assure you that a high rate of inflation in the future will not adversely affect our operating results particularly in light of the fact that our site leasing revenues are governed by long-term contracts with pre-determined pricing that we will not be able to increase in response to increases in inflation.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

We are exposed to certain market risks that are inherent in our financial instruments.

The following table presents the future principal payment obligations and interest rates associated with our debt instruments assuming our actual level of indebtedness as of September 30, 2009:

2019 Senior Notes	$ -	$ -	$ -	$ -	$ -	$ 375,000	$ 375,000	$ 386,250

Our current primary market risk exposure is interest rate risk relating to (1) the impact of interest rate movements on our ability to refinance the Additional CMBS Certificates on its anticipated repayment date or at maturity at market rates, (2) our ability to meet financial covenants and (3) the impact of interest rate movements on any borrowings that we may incur under our Senior Credit Facility, which are all floating rate. We manage the interest rate risk on our outstanding debt through our large percentage of fixed rate debt. While we cannot predict our ability to refinance existing debt or the impact interest rate movements will have on our existing debt, we continue to evaluate our financial position on an ongoing basis.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This report contains certain non-GAAP measures, including Adjusted EBITDA and Segment Operating Profit information. We have provided below a description of such non-GAAP measures, a reconciliation of such non-GAAP measures to their most directly comparable GAAP measures, an explanation as to why management utilizes these measures, their respective limitations and how management compensates for such limitations.

Adjusted EBITDA

We define Adjusted EBITDA as net loss attributable to SBA Communications Corporation less the impact of net interest expenses (including amortization of deferred financing fees), provision for taxes, depreciation, accretion and amortization, asset impairment and other charges, non-cash compensation, loss from extinguishment of debt and write off of deferred financing fees, other income and expenses, non-recurring acquisition related integration costs, non-cash straight-line leasing revenue and non-cash straight-line ground lease expense. In addition, Adjusted EBITDA excludes acquisition related costs which were previously capitalized but, commencing January 1, 2009, are required to be expensed and included within operating expenses pursuant to the adoption of SFAS 141(R). We have included this non-GAAP financial measure because we believe this item is an indicator of the performance of our core operations and reflects the changes in our operating results. In addition, Adjusted EBITDA is a component of the calculation that has been used by our lenders to determine compliance with certain covenants under our Senior Credit Facility and Senior Notes. Adjusted EBITDA is not intended to be an alternative measure of operating income or gross profit margin as determined in accordance with GAAP.

The non-GAAP measurement of Adjusted EBITDA has certain material limitations, including:

it does not include interest expense. Because we have borrowed money in order to finance our operations, interest expense is a necessary element of our costs and ability to generate profits and cash flows. Therefore, any measure that excludes interest expense has material limitations;

it does not include depreciation, accretion and amortization expense. Because we use capital assets, depreciation, accretion and amortization expense is a necessary element of our costs and ability to generate profits. Therefore, any measure that excludes depreciation, accretion and amortization expense has material limitations;

it does not include provision for taxes. Because the payment of taxes is a necessary element of our costs, particularly in the future, any measure that excludes tax expense has material limitations;

it does not include non-cash expenses such as asset impairment and other charges, non-cash compensation, other expenses/income, non-cash straight-line leasing revenue and non-cash straight-line ground lease expense. Because these non-cash items are a necessary element of our costs and our ability to generate profits, any measure that excludes these non-cash items has material limitations; and it does not include acquisition related costs. Because acquisition related costs are a necessary element of our costs to grow the business, any measure that excludes these costs has material limitations.

We compensate for these limitations by using Adjusted EBITDA as only one of several comparative tools, together with GAAP measurements, to assist in the evaluation of our profitability and operating results.

Table of Contents

The reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA is as follows:

	For the three months ended September 30, 2009 2008 (as restated) (in thousands)

⁽²⁾ This amount includes $548 and $260 of franchise taxes reflected in the Consolidated Statement of Operations in selling, general and administrative expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

⁽³⁾ The three months ended September 30, 2008 reflect acquisition integration costs that were previously reflected on the Statement of Operations in selling, general and administrative expenses.

Segment Operating Profit

Each respective Segment Operating Profit is defined as segment revenues less segment cost of revenues (excluding depreciation, accretion and amortization). Total Segment Operating Profit is the total of the operating profits of the three segments. Segment Operating Profit is, in our opinion, an indicator of the operating performance of our site leasing and site development segments and is used to provide management with the ability to monitor the operating results and margin of each segment, while excluding the impact of depreciation, accretion and amortization, which is largely fixed and non-cash in nature. Segment Operating Profit is not intended to be an alternative measure of revenue or segment gross profit as determined in accordance with GAAP.

Table of Contents

The non-GAAP measurement of Segment Operating Profit has certain material limitations. Specifically this measurement does not include depreciation, accretion and amortization expense. As we use capital assets in our business, depreciation, accretion and amortization expense is a necessary element of our costs and ability to generate profit. Therefore, any measure that excludes depreciation, accretion and amortization expense has material limitations. We compensate for these limitations by using Segment Operating Profit as only one of several comparative tools, together with GAAP measurements, to assist in the evaluation of the operating performance of our segments.
