Forward-looking Statements

Statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K that are not historical facts, including statements (i) that include the words expects, plans, targets, estimates, believes, anticipates, or similar words that reference Snap-on or its management; (ii) specifically identified as forward-looking; or (iii) describing Snap-on's or management's future outlook, plans, estimates, objectives or goals, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Snap-on cautions the reader that any statements that are forward-looking in nature and were developed by management in good faith and, accordingly, are subject to risks and uncertainties regarding Snap-on's expected results that could cause (and in some cases have caused) actual results to differ materially from those described in any such statement. The Company's actual results may differ materially from those described or contemplated in the forward-looking statements. In particular, the changes in management inherently may impact Snap-on's business and operations which could affect Snap-on's results of operations and prospects. Other factors that may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements include those found in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the information under the Safe Harbor and Risk Factors headings in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 2, 2010. Snap-on disclaims any responsibility to update any forward-looking statement provided in this Current Report on Form 8-K, except as required by law.
