Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 9, 2010, Harman International Industries, Incorporated ( Harman ) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Harman Holding GmbH & Co. KG ( GmbH and, together with Harman, the Sellers ), entered into a Share Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement ), with Research In Motion Corporation and 2236008 Ontario Inc. (collectively, the Buyers ) and Research In Motion Limited (the Guarantor ). Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, the Sellers have agreed to sell to the Buyers, and the Buyers have agreed to purchase from the Sellers, all of the issued and outstanding shares of QNX Software Systems Co., QNX Software (Wavemakers) Inc. and QNX Software Systems, Inc. (collectively, the QNX Entities ), for $200 million in cash. The purchase price is subject to adjustment based on the working capital of the QNX Entities as of the closing of the transaction contemplated by the Purchase Agreement (the Closing ). The Closing is subject to certain regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions.

The Sellers and the Buyers have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Purchase Agreement, including, among others, covenants by the Sellers to (i) cause the QNX Entities to operate in the ordinary course of business between the execution of the Purchase Agreement and the Closing and not to engage in certain kinds of transactions or take certain actions during such period and (ii) not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals relating to the QNX Entities. The parties have also agreed to enter into an agreement at Closing providing that they will not, subject to certain customary exceptions, hire or solicit for hire any employees of the other party for 36 months following the Closing. The Purchase Agreement also contains certain termination rights for the Buyers and the Sellers and provides that each party will be indemnified for breaches of representations and warranties and non-performance of covenants, and that Buyers will be indemnified for certain copyright infringement claims, in each case subject to specified limitations set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

The Guarantor has agreed in the Purchase Agreement to unconditionally and irrevocably guarantee the full and punctual performance by the Buyers of their covenants and agreements set forth in the Purchase Agreement, including the payment of the purchase price.

In connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Sellers have agreed to provide certain support services to the QNX Entities for a limited period of time following the Closing.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement is only a summary and does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. The Purchase Agreement and the summary above have been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms of the Purchase Agreement. They are not intended to provide any other factual information about the Sellers, the QNX Entities, the Buyers or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The Purchase Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants of the Sellers, on the one hand, and the Buyers, on the other hand, made solely for the benefit of the other. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties and the obligations embodied in those covenants are subject to contractual standards of knowledge and materiality and/or are modified or qualified by information in the confidential disclosure schedules delivered to the Buyers. Moreover, the representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement are made as of a specified date and are a tool for allocating risk between the parties. Business and operational information regarding Harman and its affiliates is available in the reports, statements and other filings Harman makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
