Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K, including its exhibits, contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements typically are identified by use of terms such as may, will, should, plan, expect, anticipate, intend, estimate and similar words, although some forward-looking statements are expressed differently. Forward-looking statements represent our management's judgment regarding future events. Although Schmitt believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, Schmitt can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. All statements other than statements of historical fact included on this Current Report on Form 8-K are forward-looking statements. Schmitt cannot guarantee the accuracy of the forward-looking statements, and you should be aware that Schmitt's actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, including the statements under Risk Factors contained in Schmitt's

Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
