On November 15, 2011, the Board of Directors (the Board) of HollyFrontier Corporation (the Company) received notice from each of Mr. Paul B. Loyd, Jr. and Mr. Jack P. Reid that they will retire from the Board, effective December 31, 2011.

clarify matters related to the Board's authority to designate one or more committees of the Board;

adopt (i) a majority voting standard in uncontested elections of directors and require an incumbent director nominee who does not receive the required votes for re-election to tender his or her resignation to the Chairman of the Board or the Secretary following the certification of the stockholder vote for consideration by the Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, which shall make a recommendation to the Board with respect to the tendered resignation in order for the Board to act on the tendered resignation, and (ii) a plurality voting standard in contested elections of directors (previously, directors were elected by a plurality standard, whether or not the election was contested); require that resignations by any member of the Board be in writing and delivered to the Secretary of the Company (previously, there was no requirement for the resignation to be in writing); and make other immaterial changes.
