Notes:

- (a) Operating loss and net (loss) income of the three months and twelve months ended December 31, 2011 included $2.7 million and $3.0 million lay-off costs in relation to employee severance benefits in the Company's Shenzhen operation and $3.0 million impairment loss on goodwill for both periods.
- (b) Net loss for the three months and net income for the twelve months ended December 31, 2011 included interest income of $0.6 million and $2.7 million, respectively, and exchange gain of $4.8 million and $8.2 million, respectively.
- (c) Net loss for the three months and net income for the twelve months ended December 31, 2011 included a deferred tax expense of $1.7 million and a deferred tax credit of $0.4 million arising from the tax losses of Wuxi operation, whereas the actual utilization of such deferred tax asset depends on future profit streams of that business.

In addition to the results in the table above determined in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (US GAAP), management utilizes a measure of operating income / (loss), net income / (loss) and earnings (loss) per share on a non-GAAP basis that excludes certain income and expenses to better assess operating performance. Those non-GAAP financial measures exclude certain items, such information to analyze the Company's performance, core results and underlying trends. Non-GAAP information is not determined using US GAAP; therefore, the information is not necessarily comparable to other companies and should not be used to compare the Company's performance over different periods. Non-GAAP information should not be viewed as a substitute for, or superior to, net income/(loss) or other financial data prepared in accordance with US GAAP as measures of our operating results or liquidity. Users of this non-GAAP information should consider the types of events and transactions for which adjustments have been made. The table below provides a reconciliation of non-GAAP amounts to amounts reported under US GAAP.

- (b) The expense represents employee benefit and severance arrangements in accordance with the PRC statutory severance requirements.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION (UNAUDITED) IN THE FOURTH QUARTER OF 2011

1. Quarterly Sales Breakdown

(In thousands of US Dollars, except percentage information)

Quarter	2011	2010	YoY(%) (Quarterly)	YoY(%) (Quarterly accumulated)
1 st Quarter	$ 161,896	$ 79,266	104.2	104.2

2. Breakdown of Net Sales by Product Segment (as a percentage of Total Net Sales)

Segments	2011		2010
	Q4 (%)	YTD (%)	Q4 (%)	YTD (%)
Key Components Assembly Telecommunications (TCA)	94	88	79	75
Consumer Electronic and Communication Products (CECP)	6	12	21	25
	100	100	100	100

Prior to fiscal year 2010, the Company operated in three reportable segments telecommunication components assembly (TCA), consumer electronics and communication products (CECP), and LCD products (LCDP). In 2010 we consolidated our business into two segments, TCA and CECP, following the merger of the Company's LCDP and TCA segments. Our management reviews the segment results of TCA and CECP when allocating resources and assessing performance. The change in segment reporting was due to the following:

Most of the LCDP business has been LCD module assembly for telecommunication products since 2010, which is similar to the business operated by TCA; and

Since the merger, the combined segments can now be run by a single management team.

In view of the similarity of the products, the Company has merged the LCDP segment into the TCA segment. The segment information for 2010 time periods have been restated in order to conform to the change in presentation of segment reporting in 2011 in accordance with Financial Accounting Standard Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 280-10-50-34. The results of the former LCDP segment were included in the TCA segment in 2010. We continue to evaluate our segmentation on an ongoing basis. In reviewing our segmentation, we note that the Company discontinued CECP production for bluetooth headsets and calculators with two major box-built customers in the fourth quarter of 2010. Since the CECP segment has fallen below the threshold prescribed under FASB ASC 280-10-50-12, our management has decided to combine this segment with our TCA segment and we will not disclose separate CECP segment information starting in the first quarter of 2012. In addition, the Company's Flexible Printed Circuit Board (FPCB) business is too small to be designated as a separate business segment.

3. Key Highlights of Financial Position

	As at December 31,
	2011	2010
Cash on hand*	$118.5 million	$228.1 million
Ratio of cash to current liabilities	1.14	1.98
Current ratio	2.12	2.93
Ratio of total assets to total liabilities	3.38	3.86
Return on equity	0.2%	4.5%
Ratio of total liabilities to total equity	0.42	0.35
Debtors turnover	45 days	51 days
Inventory turnover	20 days	22 days
Average payable period	53 days	64 days

Note:

* The Company's cash position decreased significantly in 2011 due to increased investment of $65 million in LCM module assemblies, increased fixed deposits maturing over three months of $34.8 million and cash dividend paid of $9 million.

OPERATING RESULTS

Net sales in the fourth quarter of 2011 were $145.3 million, down 12.7% from net sales of $166.5 million in the same quarter of 2010. Gross profit of $2.3 million in the fourth quarter of 2011 decreased by 83.8% from $14.2 million in the same quarter last year. Gross profit margin in the fourth quarter of 2011 decreased to 1.6%, down from 8.5% in the fourth quarter of 2010. The gross profit margin decrease was mainly due to three factors. First, changes in our product mix. We have discontinued production of box-built products with higher gross margin, such as Bluetooth headset and calculators. Consistent with our long-term business strategy, the Company is narrowing its focus to higher-growth, lower-margin business opportunities, such as key component assembly for telecommunication products, which leverage the Company's core strengths. Second, labor costs continues to increase due to year on year wage inflation in China. Currently the monthly labor cost package for 2012 is approximately $1,200, 23% increase from 2011. Furthermore, the depreciation on US dollars against Renminbi also affects our bottom line, as a major portion of the Company's income is denominated in US dollars. Conversely, our operating costs are mainly denominated in Renminbi. Recent appreciation in Renminbi has increased the cost of sales and operating expenses, and negatively impacted net profits. In addition, in early December 2011, we experienced a labor strike of approximately 1,200 employees due to dissatisfaction with the 23% increase in our wage package for 2012. Accordingly, the Company paid out $2.7 million in lay-off costs for employee severance benefits. Third, startup costs and operating losses at the Company's facility in Wuxi continued to accrue although our Wuxi facility was completed in 2009 and began manufacturing and assembling flexible printed circuit boards in 2010. We anticipate that LCM project startup cost and operating losses will continue, as we prepare to commence mass production, which we currently anticipate beginning as early as March 2012. Additionally, our FPC business is not yet breakeven and continues to incur losses.

Lower gross margins resulted in an operating loss of $12.5 million in the fourth quarter of 2011, down from operating income of $4.3 million in the fourth quarter of 2010, which includes lay-off costs of $2.7 million and goodwill impairment loss of $3.0 million. Net loss of $5.6 million in the fourth quarter of 2011 compares with net income of $5.3 million in the fourth quarter of 2010, and includes a currency exchange gain of $4.8 million.

For the year ended December 31, 2011, our net sales were $602.3 million, an increase of 12.7% as compared to $534.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2010. The Company's gross profit margin was 4.7% as compared to 9.6% for 2010. Gross profit was $28.1 million, down 45.2% as compared to $51.3 million last year. Operating loss for 2011 was $11.5 million, compared to operating income of $14.8 million last year. Our net income for 2011 was $0.5 million, or $0.01 per share (diluted), as compared to net income of $15.0 million, or $0.33 per share (diluted), last year.

EXPANSION PROJECTS

The Company has two separate site-expansion projects in progress, one in Shenzhen and one in Wuxi. Both projects are critical to the Company's future growth and both depend upon the prompt action and cooperation of the local PRC government.

As of the date of this release, the raw land in Guangming Hi-Tech Industrial Park, Shenzhen, PRC, has not yet been delivered to the Company. This facility is located approximately 30 minutes driving distance from existing facilities in Gushu, Shenzhen and one hour driving distance from Hong Kong. Although the Company fully paid for the land use rights for this land five years ago and additionally compensated farmers occupying the land, the local Government has not yet indicated when the land will be released. In the fourth quarter of 2011, the Company held a meeting with local government officials and they apologized for the delay. However they also indicated that the delivery may be further delayed to allow more time to resolve the dispute with the local farmers who originally owned the land. The Company is actively working with local government officials to resolve this matter.

The other expansion project involves the acquisition of land use rights for approximately 500,000 square feet of raw land adjacent to the Company's operational manufacturing facility in Wuxi in order to construct structures, such as dormitories, canteens, labor activity centers, research laboratories, testing and training centers and additional production facilities, to support operations at the Wuxi manufacturing facility. The local Wuxi government has indicated that it strongly supports the Company's planned expansion and development. However, the project was delayed in the fourth quarter of 2011 while revisions were made to the Company's expansion plans to conform with recently identified zoning and environmental regulations restricting usage of the land originally under consideration. We will continue to follow up with Wuxi government in this regard.

Non-GAAP Financial Information

Non-GAAP operating loss for the fourth quarter of 2011 was $6.8 million, or a negative $0.15 per share (diluted), compared to Non-GAAP operating income of $4.4 million, or $0.10 per share (diluted) in the fourth quarter of 2010. Non-GAAP net loss for the fourth quarter of 2011 was $0.5 million or a negative $0.01 per share (diluted), compared to Non-GAAP net income of $5.4 million, or $0.12 per share (diluted), in the fourth quarter of 2010.

COMPANY OUTLOOK

The Company sustained a year-over-year revenue growth of 12.7% for 2011 when compared with 2010. The Company has identified significant revenue growth opportunities assembling telecommunication product LCD modules for Japanese multinational corporations (MNCs) that supply global customers. The Company is well-positioned to benefit from this expected trend and plans to increase manufacturing capacity for telecommunications subassemblies in Wuxi and in Shenzhen in our two capital investment projects.

In the fourth quarter of 2011, the Company almost completed its first project which involved investing about $70 million in LCD module manufacturing equipment and facilities in the Wuxi site.

The capacity expansion resulting from the Company's investment program in this project is expected to be completed by the end of the first quarter 2012. Mass production of this project had been delayed until March 2012, subject to verification and validation that product designs and all components meeting end- customer specifications.

The Company's second major project, an additional investment in LCD module manufacturing equipment and facilities in the Shenzhen site of about $60 million, is expected to commence in February 2012 and expected to be completed within 5 months, with sample testing starting in March 2012 and mass production scheduled to start in July 2012. According to customer forecast information currently available, the Company remains confident in its goal to achieve close to double the level of revenue in 2012 that was achieved in 2011. The success of both projects, however, remains subject to a number of contingencies out of our control. It is important to note that customers do not guarantee the utilization of the invested capacity and may stop any prior orders at anytime. The Company will continue to discuss how to receive compensation from customers if the aforesaid event happens.

The LCD module assembly business is expected to be highly competitive. The increase in sales revenue may not relieve the pressure on profit margins completely. Continuing inflation in China and appreciation of the PRC Renminbi are expected to further increase overhead and cost pressure on margins, necessitating ongoing cost control measures to sustain profitability. The issue of labor shortages in China is also a critical risk for the Company to recruit adequate workers and experienced management staff.

PAYMENT OF QUARTERLY DIVIDENDS FOR 2011 AND 2012

As announced on November 1, 2010, the Company set payment of quarterly dividends for 2011. All quarterly dividends scheduled for payment in 2011 were paid as scheduled. The following table repeats and updates the previously announced schedule for declaration and payment of quarterly dividends in 2011.

Quarterly			Dividend (per share)	Status
Payment	Record Date	Payment Date
Q1 2011	December 31, 2010	January 20, 2011	$ 0.05	PAID
Q2 2011	March 31, 2011	April 20, 2011	$ 0.05	PAID
Q3 2011	June 30, 2011	July 20, 2011	$ 0.05	PAID
Q4 2011	September 30, 2011	October 20, 2011	$ 0.05	PAID
Total for Full Year 2011			$ 0.20

As announced on October 31, 2011, the Company set payment of quarterly dividends for 2012. The dividends for Q1 2012 were paid on January 20, 2012. The following table repeats and updates the previously announced schedule for declaration and payment of quarterly dividends in 2012.

Quarterly			Dividend (per share)	Status
Payment	Record Date	Payment Date
Q1 2012	December 31, 2011	January 20, 2012	$ 0.07	PAID
Q2 2012	March 31, 2012	April 20, 2012	$ 0.07
Q3 2012	June 30, 2012	July 20, 2012	$ 0.07
Q4 2012	September 30, 2012	October 20, 2012	$ 0.07
Total for Full Year 2012			$ 0.28

The Company's decision to continue dividend payments in 2012 does not necessarily mean that dividend payments will continue thereafter. Whether future dividends will be declared will depend upon the Company's future growth and earnings, of which there can be no assurance, and the Company's cash flow needs for future expansion. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that cash dividends on the Company's common shares will be declared beyond those declared for 2012, what the amounts of such dividends will be or whether such dividends, once declared for a specific period, will continue for any future period, or at all.
