UNDERSTANDING YOUR FUND'S EXPENSES

SHAREHOLDER EXPENSES

Fund shareholders may incur ongoing costs, including management and advisory fees, distribution and service fees, and other fund expenses.

The following example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars and cents) of investing in the fund and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other funds.

The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at April 1, 2012, and held for the entire period until September 30, 2012.

ACTUAL EXPENSES

The information in the table under the heading Actual Expenses provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in these columns, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = $8.60), then multiply the result by the number in the appropriate column for your share class titled Expenses Paid During Period to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period. If your account is an IRA, your expenses could have included a $15 annual fee. The amount of any fee paid during the period can decrease your ending account value.

HYPOTHETICAL EXAMPLE FOR COMPARISON PURPOSES

The information in the table under the heading Hypothetical Expenses provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in your fund versus other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs. Therefore, the information under the heading Hypothetical Expenses is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transaction costs were included, your costs would have been higher. The expenses shown in the table do not reflect any fees that may be charged to you by brokers, financial intermediaries or other financial institutions.

Expense ratios may vary period to period because of various factors, such as an increase in expenses that are not a part of the advisory and administrative fees, such as fees and expenses of the directors and their counsel, extraordinary expenses and interest expense.

Fund Name	Actual Expenses			Hypothetical Expenses ^(A)			Annualized Expense Ratio
	Beginning Account Value	Ending Account Value	Expenses Paid During Period ^(B)	Beginning Account Value	Ending Account Value	Expenses Paid During Period ^(B)
Transamerica Income Shares, Inc.	$1,000.00	$1,056.80	$3.76	$1,021.41	$3.70	$3.70	0.73%

^(A) 5% return per year before expenses.

Edgar Filing: TRANSAMERICA INCOME SHARES, INC. - Form N-CSRS

^(B) Expenses are calculated using the Fund's annualized expense ratio (as disclosed in the table), multiplied by the average account value for the period, multiplied by the number of days in the period (183 days), and divided by the number of days in the year (365 days).

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1. ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Transamerica Income Shares, Inc. (the Fund) is a diversified closed-end management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act).

The Fund's primary investment objective is to seek as high a level of current income as is consistent with prudent investment, with capital appreciation as only a secondary objective.

In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations that provide general indemnifications. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against and/or its affiliates that have not yet occurred. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

In preparing the Fund's financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP), estimates or assumptions (which could differ from actual results) may be used that affect reported amounts and disclosures. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund.

Securities lending: Securities are lent to qualified financial institutions and brokers. The lending of Fund's securities exposes the Fund to risks such as the following: (i) the borrowers may fail to return the loaned securities; (ii) the borrowers may not be able to provide additional collateral; (iii) the Fund may experience delays in recovery of the loaned securities or delays in access to collateral; or (iv) the Fund may experience losses related to the investment collateral. To minimize certain risks, loan counterparties pledge cash collateral equal to at least the market value of the securities loaned. Cash collateral received is invested in the State Street Navigator Securities Lending Trust-Prime Portfolio, a money market mutual fund registered under the 1940 Act. By lending such securities, the Fund seeks to increase its net investment income through the receipt of interest and fees (after rebates and fees).

Such income is reflected separately in the Statement of Operations. The value of loaned securities and related collateral outstanding at September 30, 2012 are shown in the Schedule of Investments and Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

Income from loaned securities in the Statement of Operations is net of fees earned by the lending agent for its services.

Repurchase agreements: Securities purchased subject to a repurchase agreement are held at the Fund's custodian and, pursuant to the terms of the repurchase agreement, must be collateralized by securities with an aggregate market value greater than or equal to 100% of the resale price. The Fund will bear the risk of value fluctuations until the securities can be sold and may encounter delays and incur costs in liquidating the securities. In the event of bankruptcy or insolvency of the seller, delays and costs may be incurred.

Foreign currency denominated investments: The accounting records of the Fund are maintained in U.S. dollars. Securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars at the closing exchange rate each day. The cost of foreign securities is translated at the exchange rates in effect when the investment was acquired. The Fund combines fluctuations from currency exchange rates and fluctuations in value when computing net realized and unrealized gains or losses from investments.

Net foreign currency gains and losses resulting from changes in exchange rates include: 1) foreign currency fluctuations between trade date and settlement date of investment security transactions; 2) gains and losses on forward foreign currency contracts; and 3) the difference between the receivable amounts of interest and dividends recorded in the accounting records in U.S. dollars and the amounts actually received.

Edgar Filing: TRANSAMERICA INCOME SHARES, INC. - Form N-CSRS

Foreign currency denominated assets may involve risks not typically associated with domestic transactions. These risks include revaluation of currencies, adverse fluctuations in foreign currency values, and possible adverse political, social, and economic developments, including those particular to a specific industry, country or region.

Treasury inflation-protected securities (TIPS): The Fund invests in TIPS, specially structured bonds in which the principal amount is adjusted daily to keep pace with inflation as measured by the U.S. Consumer Price Index. The adjustments to principal due to inflation/deflation are reflected as increases/decreases to interest income with a corresponding adjustment to cost.

Payment in-kind securities (PIKs): PIKs give the issuer the option at each interest payment date of making interest payments in either cash or additional debt securities. Those additional debt securities usually have the same terms, including maturity dates and interest rates, and associated risks as the original bonds. The daily market quotations of the original bonds may include the accrued interest (referred to as a dirty price) and require a pro-rata adjustment from interest receivable to the unrealized appreciation or depreciation on investments in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

The PIKs at September 30, 2012 are listed in the Schedule of Investments.

Transamerica Income Shares, Inc.

At September 30, 2012

(all amounts in thousands)

Restricted and illiquid securities: The Fund may invest in unregulated or otherwise restricted securities. Restricted and illiquid securities are subject to legal or contractual restrictions on resale or are illiquid. Restricted securities generally may be resold in transactions exempt from registration. A security may be considered illiquid if it lacks a readily available market or if its valuation has not changed for a certain period of time. Disposal of these securities may involve time-consuming negotiations and expense, and prompt sale at the current valuation may be difficult.

The restricted and illiquid securities at September 30, 2012 are listed in the Schedule of Investments.

Security transactions and investment income: Security transactions are recorded on the trade date. Security gains and losses are calculated on the specific identification basis. Dividend income, if any, is recorded on the ex-dividend date or, in the case of foreign securities, as soon as the Fund is informed of the ex-dividend date, net of foreign taxes. Interest income, including accretion of discounts and amortization of premiums, is recorded on the accrual basis commencing on the settlement date.

Foreign taxes: The Fund may be subject to foreign taxes on income, gains on investments or currency repatriation, a portion of which may be recoverable. The Fund will accrue such taxes and recoveries as applicable, based upon the current interpretation of tax rules and regulations that exist in the markets in which the Fund invests.

Dividend distributions: Dividend distributions are declared monthly. Capital gains distributions are declared annually. Distributions are generally paid in the month following the ex-date, on or about the fifteenth calendar day. Distributions to shareholders are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations which may differ from GAAP. See Automatic Reinvestment Plan on page 16 for an opportunity to reinvest distributions in shares of the Fund's common stock.

NOTE 2. SECURITY VALUATIONS

All investments in securities are recorded at their estimated fair value. The Fund values its investments at the close of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), normally 4 p.m. Eastern Time, each day the NYSE is open for business. The Fund utilizes various methods to measure the fair value of its investments on a recurring basis. GAAP establishes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods. The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities. The three Levels of inputs of the fair value hierarchy are defined as follows:

Level 1 Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical securities.

Level 2 Inputs, other than quoted prices included in Level 1, that are observable, either directly or indirectly. These inputs may include quoted prices for the identical instrument on an inactive market, prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates and similar data.

Level 3 Unobservable inputs, which may include Transamerica Asset Management, Inc.'s (TAM) Valuation Committee's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments. Factors considered in making this determination may include, but are not limited to, information obtained by contacting the sub-advisor, issuer, analysts, or the appropriate stock exchange (for exchange-traded securities), analysis of the issuer's financial statements or other available documents and, if necessary, available information concerning other securities in similar circumstances.

The Fund's Board of Directors has delegated the responsibility for valuation functions on a day-to-day basis to TAM, subject to board oversight. TAM has formed an internal Valuation Committee (the Valuation Committee) to monitor and implement the fair valuation process. The Valuation Committee, among other tasks, monitors for when market quotations are not readily available or are unreliable and determines in good faith the fair value of portfolio investments. For instances in which daily market quotes are not readily available, securities may be valued, pursuant to procedures adopted by the Board of Directors, with reference to other instruments or indices. Depending on the relative significance of valuation inputs, these instruments may be classified in either Level 2 or Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. When the Portfolio uses fair value methods that rely on significant unobservable inputs to determine a security's value, the Valuation Committee will choose the method that is believed to accurately reflect fair market value. These securities are categorized as Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. The Valuation Committee reviews changes in fair value measurements from period to period and may, as deemed appropriate, update the fair valuation guidelines.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, but not limited to, the type of security, whether the security is new and not yet established in the marketplace, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is generally greatest for instruments categorized in Level 3. Due to the inherent uncertainty of valuation, TAM's Valuation Committee's determination of values may differ significantly from values that would have been realized had a ready market for investments existed and the differences could be material.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different Levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the Level in the fair value hierarchy that is assigned to the fair value measurement of a security is determined based on the lowest Level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

Fair value measurements: Descriptions of the valuation techniques applied to the Fund's major categories of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis are as follows:

Equity securities (common and preferred stock): Securities are stated at the last reported sales price or closing price on the day of valuation taken from the primary exchange where the security is principally traded. To the extent these securities are actively traded and valuation adjustments are not applied, they are categorized in Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

Foreign securities, in which the primary trading market closes at the same time or after the NYSE, are valued based on quotations from the primary market in which they are traded and are categorized in Level 1. Because many foreign securities markets and exchanges close prior to the close of the NYSE, closing prices for foreign securities in those markets or on those exchanges do not reflect the events that occur after that close. Certain foreign securities may be fair valued using a pricing service that considers the correlation of the trading patterns of the foreign security to the intraday trading in the U.S. markets for investments such as American Depositary Receipts, financial futures, Exchange Traded Funds, and the movement of the certain indices of securities based on a statistical analysis of their historical relationship; such valuations generally are categorized in Level 2.

Preferred stock, repurchase agreements, and other equities traded on inactive markets or valued by reference to similar instruments are also generally categorized in Level 2.

Securities lending collateral: Securities lending collateral is invested in a money market fund which is valued at the net asset value of the underlying securities and no valuation adjustments are applied. It is categorized in Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

Corporate bonds: The fair value of corporate bonds is estimated using various techniques, which consider recently executed transactions in securities of the issuer or comparable issuers, market price quotations (where observable), bond spreads, fundamental data relating to the issuer, and credit default swap spreads adjusted for any basis difference between cash and derivative instruments. While most corporate bonds are categorized in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, in instances where lower relative weight is placed on transaction prices, quotations, or similar observable inputs, they are categorized in Level 3.

Asset backed securities: The fair value of asset backed securities is estimated based on models that consider the estimated cash flows of each tranche of the entity, establish a benchmark yield, and develop an estimated tranche specific spread to the benchmark yield based on the unique attributes of the tranche. To the extent the inputs are observable and timely, the values would generally be categorized in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy; otherwise they would be categorized as Level 3.

Short-term notes: Short-term notes are valued using amortized cost, which approximates fair value. To the extent the inputs are observable and timely, the values would be generally categorized in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

Edgar Filing: TRANSAMERICA INCOME SHARES, INC. - Form N-CSRS

Government securities: Government securities are normally valued using a model that incorporates market observable data such as reported sales of similar securities, broker quotes, yields, bids, offers, and reference data. Certain securities are valued by principally using dealer quotations. Government securities generally are categorized in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

U.S. government agency securities: U.S. government agency securities are comprised of two main categories consisting of agency issued debt and mortgage pass-throughs. Generally, agency issued debt securities are valued in a manner similar to U.S. government securities. Mortgage pass-throughs include to be announced (TBA) securities and mortgage pass-through certificates. Generally, TBA securities and mortgage pass-throughs are valued using dealer quotations. Depending on market activity levels and whether quotations or other observable data are used, these securities are typically categorized in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

Restricted securities (equity and debt): Restricted securities for which quotations are not readily available are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by TAM's Valuation Committee under the supervision of the Funds' Board of Directors. Restricted securities issued by publicly traded companies are generally valued at a discount to similar publicly traded securities. Restricted securities issued by nonpublic entities may be valued by reference to comparable public entities and/or fundamental data relating to the issuer. Depending on the relative significance of valuation inputs, these instruments may be classified in either Level 2 or Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

The hierarchy classification of inputs used to value the Fund's investments, at September 30, 2012, is disclosed in the Valuation Summary of the Fund's Schedule of Investments.

NOTE 3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

TAM, the Fund's investment adviser, is directly owned by Western Reserve Life Assurance Co. of Ohio and AUSA Holding Company (AUSA), both of which are indirect, wholly owned subsidiaries of AEGON NV. AUSA is wholly owned by AEGON USA, LLC (AEGON USA), a financial services holding company whose primary emphasis is on life and health insurance, and annuity and investment products. AEGON USA is owned by AEGON US Holding Corporation, which is owned by Transamerica Corporation (DE). Transamerica Corporation (DE) is owned by The AEGON Trust, which is owned by AEGON International B.V., which is owned by AEGON NV, a Netherlands corporation, and a publicly traded international insurance group.

AEGON USA Investment Management (AUIM) is both an affiliate and sub-adviser of the Fund.

Transamerica Fund Services, Inc. (TFS) is the Fund's administrator. TAM, AUIM, and TFS are affiliates of AEGON, NV.

Certain officers and directors of the Fund are also officers and/or directors of TAM, AUIM, and TFS. No interested trustee receives compensation from the Fund.

Investment advisory fees: The Fund pays management fees to TAM based on average daily net assets (ANA) at the following rate:

0.50% of ANA

TAM has agreed to voluntarily waive its advisory fee and will reimburse the Fund to the extent that operating expenses exceed the following stated limits of ANA:

First $30 million	1.50%
Over $30 million	1.00%

There were no fees waived during the period ended September 30, 2012.

Administrative Services: The Fund has entered into an agreement with TFS for financial and legal fund administration services. The Fund pays TFS an annual fee of 0.025% of ANA. The Legal fees on the Statement of Operations are fees paid to external legal counsel.

NOTE 5. FEDERAL INCOME TAX MATTERS

The Fund has not made any provision for federal income or excise taxes due to its policy to distribute all of its taxable income and capital gains to its shareholders and otherwise qualify as a regulated investment company under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code. The Fund recognizes the tax benefits of uncertain tax positions only where the position is more likely than not to be sustained assuming examination by tax authorities. Management has evaluated the Fund's tax provisions taken for all open tax years (2009 - 2011), or expected to be taken in the Fund's 2012 tax return, and has concluded that no provision for income tax is required in the Fund's financial statements. If applicable, the Fund recognizes interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and penalties expense in Other on the Statement of Operations. The Fund identifies its major tax jurisdictions as U.S. Federal, the state of Florida, and foreign jurisdictions where the Fund makes significant investments; however, the Fund is not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will change materially in the next twelve months. Income and capital gain distributions are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from GAAP. These differences are primarily due to differing treatment for items including, but not limited to, foreign bonds, foreign currency transactions, capital loss carryforwards, post-October loss deferrals, paydowns, and bond premium amortization.

NOTE 6. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Management has evaluated subsequent events through the date of issuance of the financial statements, and determined that no other material events or transactions would require recognition or disclosure in the Fund's financial statements.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND SUB-ADVISORY AGREEMENTS CONTRACT RENEWAL

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of Transamerica Income Shares, Inc. (the Board) held on June 13-14, 2012, the Board reviewed and considered the renewal of the investment advisory agreement (the Investment Advisory Agreement) between Transamerica Income Shares, Inc. (the Fund) and Transamerica Asset Management, Inc. (TAM). The Board also reviewed and considered the renewal of the investment sub-advisory agreement (the Sub-Advisory Agreement) for the Fund between TAM and AEGON USA Investment Management, LLC (the Sub-Adviser).

Following their review and consideration, the Directors determined that the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement and Sub-Advisory Agreement are reasonable and that the renewal of each agreement is in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders. The Board, including the independent members of the Board (the Independent Directors), unanimously approved the renewal of the Investment Advisory Agreement and Sub-Advisory Agreement through June 30, 2013. In reaching their decision, the Directors requested and received from TAM and the Sub-Adviser such information as they deemed reasonably necessary to evaluate the agreements, including, to the extent applicable, information about fees and performance of comparable funds and/or accounts managed by the Sub-Adviser. The Directors also considered information they had previously received from TAM and the Sub-Adviser as part of their regular oversight of the Fund, as well as comparative fee, expense, and performance information prepared by Lipper Inc. (Lipper), an independent provider of mutual fund performance information, and fee and expense information and profitability data prepared by TAM.

In their deliberations, the Independent Directors had the opportunity to meet privately without representatives of TAM or the Sub-Adviser present and were represented throughout the process by independent legal counsel. In considering the proposed continuation of the Investment Advisory Agreement and Sub-Advisory Agreement, the Directors evaluated a number of considerations that they believed, in light of the legal advice furnished to them by independent legal counsel and their own business judgment, to be relevant. They based their decisions on the considerations discussed below, among others, although they did not identify any consideration or particular information that was controlling of their decisions and each Director may have attributed different weights to the various factors.

Nature, Extent and Quality of the Services Provided

The Board considered the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by TAM and the Sub-Adviser to the Fund in the past and the services anticipated to be provided in the future. The Board also considered the investment approach for the Fund; the experience, capability and integrity of TAM's senior management; the financial resources of TAM and the Sub-Adviser; TAM's management oversight process; and the professional qualifications of the portfolio management team of the Sub-Adviser.

The Board also considered the services provided by TAM for the portion of the management fee it retains after payment of the sub-advisory fee. The Board noted that these services include not only the services TAM provides to all Transamerica funds in the form of oversight of the services provided by the funds' administrator, custodian and transfer agent and supervision of the performance of recordkeeping, shareholder relations, regulatory reporting and compliance functions of the funds, but also the manager of managers' services TAM provides to sub-advised funds in the form of selection and oversight of the sub-adviser(s).

Based on these considerations, the Board determined that TAM and the Sub-Adviser can provide investment and related services that are appropriate in scope and extent in light of the Fund's operations, the competitive landscape of the investment company business and investor needs.

Investment Performance

The Board considered the short- and longer-term performance of the Fund in light of its investment objective, policies and strategies, including relative performance against (i) a peer universe of comparable mutual funds, as prepared by Lipper, and (ii) the Fund's benchmarks, in each case for various trailing periods ended December 31, 2011. The Board noted that the performance of the Fund was below the median for its peer universe for the past 1- and 10-year periods and above the median for the past 3- and 5-year periods. The Board also noted that the performance of the Fund was below its benchmark for the past 1-year period and above its benchmark for the past 3-, 5- and 10-year periods. The Directors discussed the reasons for the underperformance with TAM and agreed to continue to monitor the performance of the Fund. The Directors also noted that the performance of the Fund had improved during 2012.

Edgar Filing: TRANSAMERICA INCOME SHARES, INC. - Form N-CSRS

On the basis of this information and the Board's assessment of the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided or procured by TAM and the Sub-Adviser, the Board concluded that TAM and the Sub-Adviser are capable of generating a level of investment performance that is appropriate in light of the Fund's investment objectives, policies and strategies and competitive with other investment companies.

Transamerica Income Shares, Inc.

Management and Sub-Advisory Fees and Total Expense Ratio

The Board considered the management fee and total expense ratio of the Fund, including information provided by Lipper comparing the management fee and total expense ratio of the Fund to the management fees and total expense ratios of other investment companies in both a peer group and broader peer universe compiled by Lipper. The Board also considered the fees charged by the Sub-Adviser for sub-advisory services as well as the portion of the Fund's management fee retained by TAM following payment of the sub-advisory fee.

The Board noted that the Fund's contractual management fee was in line with the medians for its peer group and peer universe and that the actual total expenses (i.e., expenses reflecting any waivers and/or reimbursements) of the Fund were above the medians for its peer group and peer universe.

On the basis of these considerations, together with the other information it considered, the Board determined that the management and sub-advisory fees to be received by TAM and the Sub-Adviser under the Investment Advisory Agreement and Sub-Advisory Agreement are reasonable in light of the services provided.

Cost of Services Provided and Level of Profitability

The Board reviewed information provided by TAM about the cost of providing and/or procuring fund management services, as well as the costs of the provision of administration and other services, to the Fund by TAM and its affiliates. The Board considered the profitability of TAM and its affiliates in providing these services for the Fund, as well as the allocation methodology used for calculating profitability.

With respect to the Sub-Adviser, the Board noted that information about the Sub-Adviser's revenues and expenses was incorporated into TAM's profitability analysis for the Fund. As a result, the Board principally considered profitability information for TAM and the Sub-Adviser in the aggregate. Based on this information, the Board determined that the profitability of TAM and its affiliates from their relationships with the Fund was not excessive.

Economies of Scale

The Board considered economies of scale with respect to the management of the Fund, whether the Fund had appropriately benefited from any economies of scale, and whether there was the potential for realization of any further economies of scale. The Board also considered the existence of economies of scale with respect to management of the Transamerica funds overall and the extent to which the Fund benefited from these economies of scale. The Board considered the Fund's management fee schedule and the existence of breakpoints, if any, and also considered the extent to which TAM shared economies of scale with the Fund through investments in capabilities and services. The Directors concluded that the Fund's fee structure reflected economies of scale to date but noted that they will have the opportunity to periodically reexamine whether the Fund has achieved economies of scale, and the appropriateness of the management fee payable to TAM and the fee paid to the Sub-Adviser, in the future.

Benefits to TAM, its Affiliates, or the Sub-Adviser from their Relationships with the Fund

The Board considered any other benefits derived by TAM, its affiliates, and the Sub-Adviser from their relationships with the Fund. The Board noted that TAM does not realize soft dollar benefits from its relationship with the Fund and that TAM believes that any use of soft dollars by the Sub-Adviser is generally appropriate and in the best interests of the Fund.

Other Considerations

Edgar Filing: TRANSAMERICA INCOME SHARES, INC. - Form N-CSRS

The Board noted that TAM has made a substantial commitment to the recruitment and retention of high quality personnel, and maintains the financial, compliance and operational resources reasonably necessary to manage the Fund in a professional manner that is consistent with the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders. In this regard, the Board favorably considered the procedures and policies TAM has in place to enforce compliance with applicable laws and regulations and oversee the portfolio management activities of the Sub-Adviser. The Board also noted that TAM has made a significant entrepreneurial commitment to the management and success of the Fund.

Conclusion

After consideration of the factors described above, as well as other factors, the Directors, including all of the Independent Directors, concluded that the renewal of the Investment Advisory Agreement and the Sub-Advisory Agreement is in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders and voted to approve the renewal of the Investment Advisory Agreement and the Sub-Advisory Agreement.

AUTOMATIC REINVESTMENT PLAN

Holders of 50 shares or more of the Fund's common stock are offered the opportunity to reinvest dividends and other distributions in shares of the common stock of the Fund through participation in the Automatic Reinvestment Plan (the "Plan"). Under the Plan, Computershare, as Transfer Agent, automatically invests dividends and other distributions in shares of the Fund's common stock by making purchases in the open market. Plan participants may also deposit cash in amounts between $25 and $2,500 with Computershare for the purchase of additional shares. Dividends, distributions and cash deposits are invested in, and each participant's account credited with, full and fractional shares.

The price at which Computershare is deemed to have acquired shares for a participant's account is the average price (including brokerage commissions and any other costs of purchase) of all shares purchased by it for all participants in the Plan.

Your dividends and distributions, even though automatically reinvested, continue to be taxable as though received in cash.

Another feature of the Plan is the "Optional Cash Only" feature. You can make additional investments only, without reinvesting your monthly dividend. If you own 50 shares or more, registered in your name and currently in your Plan account, and desire to periodically send additional contributions between $25 and $2,500 for investment, you may do so. The shares you own and the new shares acquired through this feature will not participate in automatic reinvestment of dividends and distributions. Rather, the shares you acquire if you participate in the "Optional Cash Only" feature of the Plan will be held for safekeeping in your Plan account. Each investment will be made on or near the next dividend payment date. All other procedures for the purchase and sale of shares described above will apply.

Computershare charges a service fee of $1.75 for each investment, including both dividend reinvestment and optional cash investment.
