Subject Company: Entergy Corporation

Commission File No. 001-11299

The following information was included in Entergy Corporation's Investor Release, dated July 30, 2013, regarding Entergy Corporation's pending transaction with ITC Holdings Corp.

A. Spin-Merge of Transmission Business

In December 2011, the Entergy and ITC boards of directors approved a definitive agreement under which Entergy will spin off and then merge its electric transmission business with a subsidiary of ITC. The transaction is targeted to close in 2013 and is subject to the satisfaction of certain closing conditions including retail regulatory approvals. Key transaction approvals from ITC shareholders, FERC and the NRC, as well as a private letter ruling from the IRS confirming the tax-free nature of the transaction structure were received in second quarter 2013. Approvals by the Utility operating companies' retail regulators and the Missouri PSC remain pending. After careful consideration of the input from parties in the retail regulatory proceedings, the Utility operating companies and ITC have proposed a rate mitigation plan.

Appendix A provides a summary of certain pending activities and events.

Retail Regulators

Pending Activities / Events

Recent Activity: To address concerns raised by stakeholders in the retail regulatory proceedings regarding increased customer costs, the Utility operating companies and ITC proposed a rate mitigation plan. Under the plan, the Utility operating companies and ITC have offered an initial five-year period of wholesale rate discounts and retail bill credits as follows:

EAI customers: $127.5 million

EGSL and ELL customers: $101.8 million

EMI customers: $70.8 million

ENOI customer: $20.0 million

ETI customers: $67.0 million

Following the first five years after closing of the transaction, the economic and performance benefits of ITC's ownership will be measured and verified by an independent auditor to determine if they offset the ownership cost increase resulting from ITC's weighted average cost of capital. If the benefits do exceed such costs, rate mitigation will cease. If they do not, wholesale rate discounts and retail bill credits will continue until they do.

Edgar Filing: ENTERGY CORP /DE/ - Form 425

In addition, the Utility operating companies have offered additional retail bill credits to address the effects of moving to a forward test year:

EAI customers: $6.9 million

EGSL and ELL customers: $12.6 million

EMI customers: $6.7 million

ENOI customer: $0.4 million

ETI customers: $13.1 million

Lastly, ETI customers will also experience net avoided costs of $10.0 million due to the effects of eliminating transmission cost allocation under the Entergy System Agreement. EGSL and ELL customers will also experience net avoided costs of $16.3 million due to the effects of both eliminating transmission cost allocation under the Entergy System Agreement and moving to MISO's transmission pricing zone structure.

The total rate mitigation funds for existing Utility operating companies' customers, wholesale and retail, is $413.4 million plus $39.7 million to address the effects of moving to a forward test year.

Hearings were completed in the PUCT, Missouri PSC and LPSC proceedings in May, June and July, respectively. The ALJs in the PUCT proceeding issued a proposal for decision on July 9, 2013 recommending against approval of the proposed transaction, but noting that if the PUCT approves the transaction, certain conditions should be imposed on ITC and ETI. The proposal for decision did not consider the revised rate mitigation plan proposal outlined above.

Next Steps: An interlocutory appeal is pending at the LPSC with respect to the ALJ's ruling regarding excluding from evidence the rate mitigation plan proposal outlined above. At the conclusion of the LPSC hearing, the ALJ established a post-hearing procedural schedule that indicates LPSC consideration at the Oct. 16, 2013 B&E meeting instead of the Sept. 18, 2013 meeting in the original schedule. ELL, EGSL and ITC plan to request at the July 31, 2013 B&E meeting that the original consideration date be preserved.

The PUCT is expected to consider ETI's and ITC's application at the Aug. 9, 2013 Open Meeting. The jurisdictional deadline for a decision in Texas is Aug. 18, 2013.

The APSC revised the procedural schedule and established additional testimony deadlines. Staff and intervenor supplemental testimony is due Aug. 15, 2013. EAI's and ITC's supplemental rebuttal testimony is due Aug. 23, 2013. The deadline for settlement is Aug. 28, 2013. A hearing is scheduled to begin Sept. 4, 2013.

In the MPSC proceeding, a paper hearing is scheduled in August 2013. Rejoinder testimony is due Aug. 12, 2013 in the CCNO proceeding and a hearing is scheduled to commence on Aug. 27, 2013. A decision from the Missouri PSC is pending.
