NOAH HOLDINGS LIMITED ANNOUNCES UNAUDITED FINANCIAL RESULTS FOR THE FOURTH QUARTER AND FULL YEAR 2014

SHANGHAI, CHINA March 16, 2015 Noah Holdings Limited (Noah or the Company) (NYSE: NOAH), a leading wealth management service provider with a focus on global wealth investment and asset allocation services for high net worth individuals and enterprises in China, today announced its unaudited financial results for the fourth quarter of 2014 and the full year ended December 31, 2014.

During the past two years, the Company has gradually transitioned from a wealth management consulting services provider to an integrated financial group with capabilities in wealth management, asset management and internet finance. In addition, in order to better reflect such transition, the Company has adjusted its internal organizational and corporate structures in the fourth quarter of 2014. In line with current business operations and corporate strategy, starting from the fourth quarter of 2014, the Company will present breakdowns of its financial results into three business segments: wealth management, asset management and internet finance. Financial results for the corresponding periods in 2013 are also broken down according to the three business segments, in order to provide clearer comparison against the 2014 numbers.

FOURTH QUARTER 2014 FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Net revenues in the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$63.3 million, a 39.2% increase from the corresponding period in 2013.

We are pleased to deliver robust growth in the fourth quarter and exceed our guidance with non-GAAP net income of US$77.7 million for the full year, said Ms. Jingbo Wang, Co-founder, Chairwoman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer. In 2014, we continued to diversify our offerings in three core business lines and across asset classes. We also remained committed to developing proprietary products and services to meet our clients' evolving needs as we expanded into overseas asset management and internet finance. With our leading network of relationship managers, diversified product portfolio, and loyal and rapidly growing client base, we are confident that Noah is well-positioned to benefit from the huge potential of the wealth and asset management sectors in China, Ms. Wang added.

Mr. Kenny Lam, President of Noah, said, Looking to 2015, with the continued strength from our established wealth management and asset management businesses as well as rapid growth from our internet finance business, we are establishing a world class platform to provide our clients with integrated financial products and services. We believe our strategic focus on enhancing our operational efficiency and capabilities, developing new growth drivers and strengthening our talent pool and brand positioning will support our sustainable development over the long term.

FOURTH QUARTER 2014 FINANCIAL RESULTS

Net Revenues

Net revenues for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$63.3 million, a 39.2% increase from the corresponding period in 2013, due to increases in both one-time commission revenues and recurring service fees for the fourth quarter of 2014.

For the wealth management business, net revenues from one-time commissions for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$26.3 million, a 45.9% increase from the corresponding period in 2013, primarily due to an increase in transaction value and average commission rate. Net revenues from recurring service fees for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$22.4 million, a 28.5% increase from the corresponding period in 2013, mainly due to the cumulative effect of private equity funds previously distributed by the Company.

For the asset management business, net revenues from one-time commissions for the fourth quarter of 2014 were nil compare to US$0.6 million in the corresponding period in 2013. Net revenues from recurring service fees for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$11.0 million, a 38.1% increase from the corresponding period in 2013, mainly due to the increase in assets under management by the Company since the second half of 2012. Net revenues from other service fees for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$0.5 million, which mainly include performance-based income. We received and recognized performance-based income for the first time in 2014.

Net revenues from the internet finance business for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$1.2 million, presented as other service fees.

Operating cost and expenses

Operating cost and expenses for the fourth quarter of 2014, including compensation and benefits, selling expenses, G&A expenses, other operating expenses and government subsidies, were US$45.4 million, a 41.3% increase from the corresponding period in 2013.

Operating cost and expenses of the wealth management business for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$30.2 million, a 12.5% increase from the corresponding period in 2013. As part of the new segmentation, compensation and benefits are reclassified from each line items of operating cost and expenses to be presented as a separate line item. Comparable data of prior periods have also been adjusted accordingly. For the wealth management business:

Compensation and benefits, which mainly include compensation of relationship managers and back-office employees, were US$23.7 million, a 45.5% increase from the corresponding period in 2013. In the fourth quarter of 2014, relationship manager compensation increased by 49.3% year-over-year, which is in line with the net increase in one-time commission income compared with the same period in the prior year. The increase in other compensation was mainly due to the expansion of the Company's back-office departments.

Selling expenses for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$7.8 million, a 47.4% increase from the corresponding period in 2013, primarily due to increased expenses in general marketing activities and professional consulting fees.

G&A expenses for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$4.5 million, an 11.5% decrease from the corresponding period in 2013, resulting from decreases in consulting fees related to the wealth management business.

Other operating expenses mainly included costs incurred directly in relation to our revenues. Other operating expenses for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$1.4 million, representing an increase of US$1.3 million year-over-year. The increase was mainly due to the expansion of our other businesses including insurance and education, as well as the increase in bank charges in connection with the increased transaction volume through our mutual fund distribution channel.

Government subsidies represent cash subsidies received in the PRC from local governments for general corporate purposes. Government subsidies for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$7.2 million, a significant increase from the corresponding period in 2013.

Operating cost and expenses of the asset management business for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$9.4 million, a 75.6% increase from the corresponding period in 2013. For the asset management business:

Compensation and benefits mainly include compensation of fund managers and back-office employees. Compensation and benefits for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$4.9 million, a 66.7% increase from the corresponding period in 2013, in line with the increase in headcount to manage an increased volume of funds.

Selling expenses for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$0.5 million, US$0.3 million less compared with the corresponding period in 2013.

G&A expenses for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$4.6 million, a 177.0% increase from the corresponding period in 2013, mainly driven by increased consultant expenses incurred in relation to the corporate strategy of segmentation and costs associated with the newly rented office building for our asset management business.

Operating cost and expenses of the internet finance business for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$5.9 million, which mainly included compensation and benefits of US$3.9 million, selling expenses of US$0.3 million, G&A expenses of US$1.2 million and other operating expenses of US$0.4 million. These represent our expenses in human resources, marketing, internet infrastructures and other expenses incurred in promoting our internet finance business.

Operating Margin

Operating margin for the fourth quarter of 2014 was 28.2%, as compared to 29.2% for the corresponding period in 2013.

Operating margin of the wealth management business for the fourth quarter of 2014 was 40.4%, compared to 27.8% for the corresponding period in 2013. The increase was mainly due to higher level of government subsidies the Company received in the fourth quarter of 2014 compared with the corresponding period in 2013.

Operating margin of the asset management business for the fourth quarter of 2014 was 17.8%, compared to 35.5% for the corresponding period in 2013. The decrease in operating margin year-over-year for the fourth quarter of 2014 was mainly attributable to increased consultant expenses incurred in relation to the corporate strategy of segmentation and the costs associated with the newly rented office building for our asset management business.

Operating loss of the internet finance business for the fourth quarter of 2014 was US$4.5 million. The Company began to operate its internet finance business in the second quarter of 2014.

Income Tax Expenses

Income tax expenses for the fourth quarter of 2014 were US$5.4 million, a 169.8% increase from the corresponding period in 2013. The year-over-year increase for the fourth quarter of 2014 was primarily attributable to the lower income tax expenses in the fourth quarter of 2013 due to the utilization of net operating loss carried over from prior years.

Net Income

Net income attributable to Noah shareholders for the fourth quarter of 2014 was US$14.8 million, a 10.2% increase from the corresponding period in 2013. Net margin for the fourth quarter of 2014 was 23.6%, as compared to 30.7% for the corresponding period in 2013. Net income per basic and diluted ADS for the fourth quarter of 2014 were both US$0.26, as compared to US$0.24 for the corresponding period in 2013.

Non-GAAP net income attributable to Noah shareholders for the fourth quarter of 2014 was US$15.5 million, a 6.5% increase from the corresponding period in 2013. Non-GAAP net margin for the fourth quarter of 2014 was 24.5%, as compared to 32.0% for the corresponding period in 2013. Non-GAAP net income per diluted ADS for the fourth quarter of 2014 was US$0.27, as compared to US$0.26 for the corresponding period in 2013.

FULL YEAR 2014 FINANCIAL RESULTS

Net Revenues

Net revenues for the full year 2014 were US$247.9 million, a 51.3% increase from 2013, due to increases in both one-time commission revenues and recurring service fees for the full year 2014.

For the wealth management business, net revenues from one-time commissions for the full year 2014 were US$92.8 million, a 25.4% increase from 2013, primarily due to an increase in transaction value and average commission rate. Net revenues from recurring service fees for the full year 2014 were US$89.7 million, a 44.0% increase from 2013, mainly due to the cumulative effect of private equity funds previously distributed by the Company.

For the asset management business, net revenues from one-time commissions for the full year 2014 were nil compare to US$0.6 million in 2013. Net revenues from recurring service fees for the full year 2014 were US$45.3 million, a 112.7% increase from 2013. The year-over-year increase for the full year 2014 was mainly due to the increase in assets under management by the Company since the second half of 2012. Net revenues from other service fees for the full year 2014 were US$14.0 million, which mainly include performance-based income. We received and recognized performance-based income for the first time in 2014.

Net revenues from the internet finance business for the full year 2014 were US$2.7 million compared with nil in 2013, as the Company launched its internet finance business in the second quarter of 2014.

Operating cost and expenses for the full year 2014 were US$158.2 million, a 53.3% increase from 2013.

Operating cost and expenses of the wealth management business for the full year 2014 were US$113.7 million, a 27.3% increase from 2013. For the wealth management business:

Compensation and benefits in the full year 2014 were US$86.7 million, including compensation of relationship managers of US$51.8 million and compensation of back-office employees of US$34.9 million. Total compensation and benefits increased by 34.5% year-over-year, which is in line with the increase in revenues from the wealth management business.

Selling expenses for the full year 2014 were US$22.0 million, a 45.2% increase from 2013, primarily due to increased expenses in general marketing activities, rental expenses and client related service fees.

G&A expenses for the full year 2014 were US$12.1million, a 13.7% decrease from the corresponding period in 2013, resulting from decreases in consulting fees related to the wealth management business.

Other operating expenses for the full year 2014 were US$3.8 million, representing an increase of US$3.1 million year-over-year. The significant increase was mainly due to the expansion of our other businesses, including insurance and education, as well as the increase in bank charges in connection with the increased transaction volume through our mutual fund distribution channel.

Government subsidies for the full year 2014 were US$10.9 million, a 119.0% increase from 2013, due to the subsidies received from certain local governments in the PRC in relation to the increased amount of investments the Company made and taxable income it generated in certain local districts.

Operating cost and expenses of the asset management business for the full year 2014 were US$31.6 million, a 127.4% increase from 2013. For the asset management business:

Compensation and benefits for the full year 2014 were US$23.9 million, a 177.3% increase from the corresponding period in 2013, driven by the increased volume of funds under management.

Selling expenses for the full year 2014 were US$1.6 million, a 2.7% increase from 2013.

G&A expenses for the full year 2014 were US$9.8 million, a 140.9% increase from 2013, mainly driven by increased expenses incurred to build back-office departments, consultant expenses incurred related the corporate strategy of segmentation and costs of the newly rented office building for our asset management business.

DISCUSSION OF NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES:

In addition to disclosing financial results prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP, the Company's earnings release contains non-GAAP financial measures that exclude the effects of all forms of share-based compensation. The reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measures to the nearest GAAP measures is set forth in the table captioned Reconciliation of GAAP to Non-GAAP Results below.

Edgar Filing: Noah Holdings Ltd - Form 6-K

The non-GAAP financial measures disclosed by the Company should not be considered a substitute for financial measures prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The financial results reported in accordance with U.S. GAAP and reconciliation of GAAP to non-GAAP results should be carefully evaluated. The non-GAAP financial measure used by the Company may be prepared differently from and, therefore, may not be comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies.

When evaluating the Company's operating performance in the periods presented, management reviewed non-GAAP net income results reflecting adjustments to exclude the impacts of share-based compensation to supplement U.S. GAAP financial data. As such, the Company believes that the presentation of the non-GAAP net income, non-GAAP income per diluted ADS and non-GAAP net margin provides important supplemental information to investors regarding financial and business trends relating to the Company's financial condition and results of operations in a manner consistent with that used by management. Pursuant to U.S. GAAP, the Company recognized significant amounts of expenses for the restricted shares and share options in the periods presented. To make financial results comparable period by period, the Company utilized the non-GAAP financial results to better understand its historical business operations.

NOAH HOLDINGS LIMITED APPOINTS KENNY LAM AS GROUP PRESIDENT

SHANGHAI, CHINA March 17, 2015 Noah Holdings Limited (Noah or the Company) (NYSE: NOAH), China's leading wealth and asset management service provider, focusing on global wealth investment and asset allocation services for high net worth individuals and enterprises in China, today announced the appointment of Kenny Lam to be Group President effective immediately. He will oversee Noah's operational and management functions and key strategic initiatives. He will report directly to Ms. Jingbo Wang, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Noah.

I am excited to have Kenny join Noah's executive leadership team as he brings a wealth of experience and knowledge of the financial services sector," said Ms. Jingbo Wang, Founder, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Chief Executive Officer. Kenny's professional expertise in strategic planning, new management and operational approaches, and his deep familiarity with our business and strategy make him the ideal candidate to help our businesses grow and achieve our long term goals. He has shown a longstanding and tireless commitment to Noah through his leadership of the McKinsey team serving Noah for multiple years. I will partner with Kenny and will focus on driving new business development and key strategic initiatives. We believe, together with the entire team, we will bring Noah to new levels of success.

Mr. Lam brings 14 years of experience in strategic, operational and management transformations in the financial industry. He was a Global Senior Partner at McKinsey and a co-leader of its Asia Financial Service Practice, covering 13 markets across Asia. He was the fastest rising Partner in McKinsey Asia when elected as a Global Partner within six years from his entry to McKinsey. Under his leadership, McKinsey's private, retail and digital banking practices have more than tripled their client activities. He has led transformational programs for leading financial institutions across China, India, Taiwan, Singapore, Hong Kong, Korea and Japan on a wide range of strategic, financial and operational topics and is McKinsey's expert on private banking and wealth management. He has worked with governments and regulators on private banking strategy in the key offshore hubs of Asia. At McKinsey, he was also the Chairman of its people performance review committees, overseeing the review of Greater China's more than 200 professionals.

Before McKinsey, he was with American law firm Shearman & Sterling in New York and Hong Kong, counseling multinational corporations in various M&A transactions and NYSE/Nasdaq public offerings.

Mr. Lam graduated with a MA (Honours) in Law from Oxford University and magna cum laude with a BS in Finance from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was a Joseph Wharton Scholar and a Benjamin Franklin Scholar.
