6. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In May 2014, the FASB issued a new standard on revenue recognition. The new standard outlines a single comprehensive model for entities to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers and supersedes most current revenue recognition guidance, including industry-specific guidance. The core principle of the revenue model is that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The standard is designed to create greater comparability for financial statement users across industries and jurisdictions and also requires enhanced disclosures. The guidance is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2016. Early adoption is not permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this standard on its consolidated financial statements.

8. LONG TERM DEBT

The Company has a financing agreement with a bank providing for an unsecured revolving line of credit of $12,000,000, which matures on September 1, 2017. There were no advances against this line of credit during fiscal 2015 and fiscal 2014 and no balance outstanding at February 28, 2015. Interest is at LIBOR plus 100 basis points (rate under the terms of the agreement was 1.17% at February 28, 2015). Financial covenants include maintaining specified levels of tangible net worth, debt service coverage, and funded debt to EBITDA, each of which the Company was in compliance with at February 28, 2015.

9. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company is involved in environmental remediation and monitoring activities at its Randolph, Wisconsin manufacturing facility and accrues for related costs when such costs are determined to be probable and estimable. The Company is currently expensing annual costs of remediation, which have ranged from $47,000 to $79,000 per year over the past five years. The Company's estimated liability for these costs of $916,000 at February 28, 2015 and May 31, 2014, measured on an undiscounted basis over an estimated period of 15 years, is recorded within other long-term liabilities in the consolidated balance sheet.

The Company is subject to certain legal and other proceedings in the normal course of business that, in the opinion of management, should not have a material effect on its future results of operations or financial position.

10. STOCK PURCHASE

In December 2008, the Company's Board of Directors authorized a program to purchase, subject to market conditions, up to 1,125,000 shares of the Company's common stock. As of February 28, 2015, 112,026 cumulative shares had been purchased in negotiated and open market transactions for a total price, including commissions, of approximately $923,000. Shares purchased under the program were retired. There have been no purchases in fiscal 2015 and there were none in fiscal 2014.

The information in this Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations contains both historical financial information and forward-looking statements. Neogen does not provide forecasts of future performance. While management is optimistic about the Company's long-term prospects, historical financial information may not be indicative of future financial performance.

Safe Harbor and Forward-Looking Statements

Forward-looking statements, within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, are made throughout this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. For this purpose, any statements contained herein that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed to be forward looking statements. Without limiting the foregoing, the words believes, anticipates, plans, expects, seeks, estimates, and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. There are a number of important factors, including competition, recruitment and dependence on key employees, impact of weather on agriculture and food production, identification and integration of acquisitions, research and development risks, patent and trade secret protection, government regulation and other risks detailed from time to time in the Company's reports on file at the Securities and Exchange Commission, that could cause Neogen Corporation's results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements, including those detailed in this Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

In addition, any forward-looking statements represent management's views only as of the day this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q was first filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and should not be relied upon as representing management's views as of any subsequent date. While management may elect to update forward-looking statements at some point in the future, it specifically disclaims any obligation to do so, even if its views change.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The discussion and analysis of the Company's financial condition and results of operations are based on the consolidated financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The preparation of these financial statements requires that management make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. On an ongoing basis, management evaluates the estimates, including those related to receivable allowances, inventories, accruals, goodwill and other intangible assets. These estimates are based on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

There were no significant changes to our contractual obligations or contingent liabilities and commitments disclosed in the Company's Annual Report or Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2014.

There have been no material changes to the critical accounting policies and estimates disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2014.

Table of ContentsExecutive Overview

Revenues for the Company for the third quarter ended February 28, 2015 were $68.4 million, an increase of $6.4 million, or 10.3%, compared to the same period in the prior year. For the year-to-date period ended February 28, 2015, revenues were $204.5 million, an increase of $24.4 million, or 13.5%, compared to the prior year. Food Safety revenues increased by 14.1% and 11.0%, respectively, for the comparative three and nine-month periods ended February 28, 2015. Animal Safety revenues rose by 7.3% and 15.8%, respectively, for the same comparative periods. Recent acquisitions contributed $2.3 million of revenue for the third quarter, and $15.3 million for the year-to-date period. Overall organic sales growth was 6.7% for the third quarter and 5.0% for the year to date, each compared to the same period in the prior year. Revenues and operating results were adversely impacted by the effects of currency movements in the quarter, as the U.S. dollar strengthened against the currencies in the countries we operate in (U.K. pound sterling, the euro, the Mexican peso, and the Brazilian real); revenues in these countries were reduced when translated into the dollar. On a constant currency basis, revenues would have been $1.5 million, or 2.4%, higher in the third quarter and $1.1 million higher, or 0.6%, for the year-to-date period.

International sales were $24.9 million, or 36.4% of total sales, in the third quarter, compared to $22.6 million, or 36.4% of total sales, in the prior year. For the nine months ended February 28, 2015, international sales were 37.9% of total sales compared to 39.2% of total sales for the same period in the prior year. Revenues at Neogen Europe increased 4.3% for the third quarter (11.8% in local currency) and 10.9% (9.6% in local currency) for the year-to-date period. Neogen do Brasil revenues increased 2.2% in the third quarter (16.4% in local currency). On a year-to-date basis, Neogen do Brasil sales declined 3.7% (increased 4.0% in local currency). Neogen Latinoamerica was up 114.6% for the third quarter, and 122.2% for the year to date, with revenues benefitting from the transfer of certain Animal Safety customers in Mexico and Central America, in an effort to better serve customers located in those countries. After adjusting for the impact of the revenue transfer from Animal Safety to Food Safety at Neogen Latinoamerica, overall organic sales growth would have been 4.0% for Food Safety and 8.9% for Animal Safety in the third quarter compared to the prior year. On a year-to-date basis, overall adjusted organic growth was 4.1% for Food Safety and 5.9% for Animal Safety.

Service revenue was $9.2 million in the third quarter, an increase of 25.3% compared to the prior year. For the nine-month period, service revenue was $25.3 million, or 20.6% higher than the comparable prior year period. The increase for both periods was due to increased sales of new genomic proprietary service offerings developed primarily for the beef and dairy cattle and pork industries for both domestic and international customers, particularly in Europe. The third quarter of fiscal 2015 also benefitted from new ongoing business with a large customer in the poultry industry.

Gross margin was 49.3% for the third quarter compared to 49.5% for the February 2014 quarter. The decrease in gross margin percentage for the comparative quarter was due to the negative impact of the currency movements during the quarter. On a year-to-date basis, gross margin was 49.9%, compared to 50.3% in the prior fiscal year. The decrease in gross margin on a year-to-date basis is due to a shift in the mix of total revenues towards Animal Safety products, and the negative impact of the currency movements during the period.

Sales and marketing expenses were $12.7 million for the quarter ended February 28, 2015, an increase of $0.7 million, or 5.6%, compared to the third quarter last year, and increased 12.2% for the year-to-date period. Increases in this category were primarily due to increased headcount, shipping, advertising and other marketing support costs. General and administrative costs were $6.5 million for the quarter, an increase of $0.2 million, or 3.2%, and were up 2.7% for the year-to-date period. Increases in amortization of certain intangible assets from recent acquisitions, higher compensation and stock option expenses were almost entirely offset by lower legal expenditures for the quarter and year-to-date periods resulting from the settlement of a lawsuit earlier in the year. Research and development expenses were $2.4 million for the third quarter of fiscal 2015, an increase of 12.4% over the same period a year ago. For the year-to-date period, research and development expenses were 11.5% higher than last year, primarily due to expenditures for numerous product development and improvement projects. Expressed as a percentage of sales, overall operating expenses were less than the prior year for the quarter and year-to-date periods, respectively.

Operating margin was 17.8% in the February 2015 quarter, compared to 16.6% in the February 2014 quarter. On a year-to-date basis, operating margin was 18.8% compared to 18.0% in the same period of the prior year. For each comparative period, the improvement in operating margin was due to the revenue increase and moderate growth in operating expenses, which offset the slight decline in gross margin percentage.

For the third quarter of 2015, other expense of $526,000 was largely the result of currency losses recorded at foreign subsidiaries as the U.S. dollar strengthened significantly against the pound sterling, euro, real and peso during the quarter. Included in other expense was an $84,000 charge for additional contingent consideration payment to the former owner of Chem-Tech as sales for that business during the earnout period were higher than the threshold level. For the quarter ended February 28, 2014, currency losses were minimal. For the year to date ended February 28, 2015, other expense of $728,000 primarily reflects $454,000 recorded during the second quarter for additional contingent consideration for the Prima Tech acquisition, $84,000 for Chem-Tech contingent consideration, and currency losses, offset by $241,000 of income recorded in the first quarter related to an overaccrual of contingent consideration for the SyrVet acquisition.

The effective income tax rate for the third quarter of fiscal 2015 was 36.3%, compared to 36.1% in the prior year third quarter. For the year to date, the effective tax rate was 36.1%, compared to 35.8% for the same period last year.

The Company's Food Safety segment revenues were $32.0 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2015, 14.1% higher than the same period in the prior year. On a year-to-date basis, Food Safety revenues were $95.9 million, 11.0% higher than the comparable period of the prior year. Natural Toxins, Allergens and Drug Residues increased 4.3% in the third quarter and 2.6% on a year-to-date basis, both compared to the same periods of the prior year. Allergen sales increased 15.2% and 12.4% for the quarter and year-to-date periods, respectively, as demand continues to increase due to higher consumer awareness and increased recalls due to inadvertent allergenic contamination. Included within this category and partially offsetting these gains are the sales of meat speciation kits, which are down 32.0% for the quarter and 41.9% for the year to date, due to a decline in testing and competitor entry into the market. Sales of natural toxin test kits increased 6.1% in the third quarter, as compared to the same period in the prior year, led by sales of DON kits due to minor outbreaks in eastern Europe and Canada. On a year-to-date basis, natural toxin revenues increased 3.7%. The lower growth for the year-to-date period is due to a difficult comparison in the first quarter of the prior year caused by high demand due to aflatoxin outbreaks, primarily in eastern Europe. Drug Residues sales were down 8.0% for the third quarter and 7.8% for the year-to-date period, both compared to the prior year. Currency translation and lower sales to customers in eastern Europe due to delays in the launch of a new product in that region contributed to the decline.

Bacteria and General Sanitation revenues increased 25.3% for the quarter and 16.0% for the year, both compared to the same period in the prior year. The BioLumix acquisition completed October 1, 2014 contributed significantly towards this growth; excluding this acquisition, the growth for these products was 3.6% and 3.8%, respectively, for the three and nine-month periods. The Soleris consumable product line had sales growth of 11.3% for the quarter and 11.7% for the year while the AccuPoint line increased 12.4% and 5.7% for the same periods. Sales of ampoule media and filters increased 10.3% and 15.1% as the Company continues to increase market share in the beverage industry. Partially offsetting these gains was a decrease in Soleris equipment sales of 45.9% for the quarter and 42.8% for the year-to-date periods, each due in part to difficult comparisons caused by a successful marketing program in the prior year and international placements which did not repeat in the current fiscal year.

The Dehydrated Culture Media and Other category increased 22.5% in the third quarter and 23.1% for the year-to-date period. Genomics sales to European customers, included in this product group, had strong growth, particularly in the first six months of the year, due to increased market share for services and the sale of new proprietary product offerings. Also within this category, Acumedia sales increased 2.9% for the third quarter of fiscal 2015, but decreased 0.6% for the year-to-date period, both compared to the same periods in the prior year. While sales of Acumedia products to food safety customers increased, this was offset by a decrease in sales to the traditional market due to continued credit issues with one large customer and lower volumes at another significant customer. Also included within this category were sales of Animal Safety products to customers in Mexico and Central America which were transferred to the Company's Neogen Latinoamerica subsidiary to better serve those customers.

The Company's Animal Safety segment revenues were $36.4 million, an increase of $2.5 million, or 7.3% for the quarter ended February 28, 2015, compared to the same period in the prior year. On a year-to-date basis, Animal Safety revenues were $108.6 million, 15.8% higher than the comparable period of the prior year. Life Sciences sales increased 11.3% for the quarter and 18.3% on a year-to-date basis, led by forensic kit sales to commercial testing labs to meet new testing requirements in Brazil for commercial drivers. Revenues of Veterinary Instruments and Disposables decreased 7.4% for the three month period but increased 21.6% for the nine month period, both ended February 28, 2015, as compared to the same periods in the prior year. All sales in the quarter for this product category were organic; for the year-to-date period, organic sales growth was 3.6%. Sales within this category declined in the third quarter due to a large amount of backordered product at the end of the quarter, the result of port slowdowns on the west coast of the U.S., which have since been resolved.

Animal Care and Other revenues decreased 12.6% in the third quarter and 7.1% on a year-to-date basis, each as compared to the same periods in the prior year. Within this category in the prior year, the Company recorded strong sales of a wound care product caused by a supply disruption in the market. This product was available for sale from all competitors in the current fiscal year. Additionally, a distributed antibiotic was discontinued by the manufacturer towards the end of fiscal 2014, so there are no comparable sales of this product in the current fiscal year. Sales of Rodenticides, Insecticides and Disinfectants increased 29.8% for the quarter and 34.9% for the year-to-date periods. Excluding the revenue contribution of the Chem-Tech acquisition (January 2014), the increase was 18.6% and 3.4% for the quarter and year to date, respectively. The quarter benefitted from vole infestations in the western US and the capture of new business.

DNA Testing Service revenue increased 29.2% in the third quarter and 17.0% for the year-to-date period, each compared to the same period in the prior year. For both periods, improvements to a number of proprietary service offerings, primarily targeted at dairy and beef cattle markets, has helped the Company increase sales to existing customers and gain market share.

Financial Condition and Liquidity

The overall cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities positions of the Company were $102.1 million at February 28, 2015 compared to $76.5 million at May 31, 2014. Approximately $33.5 million of cash was generated from operating activities during the first nine months of fiscal 2015. Net cash proceeds of $4.8 million were realized from the exercise of stock options and issuance of shares under the Company's Employee Stock Purchase Plan during the first nine months of fiscal 2015. The Company completed asset purchases totaling $6.6 million in the first nine months of the year for two acquisitions (see Note 7 in the notes to Interim Consolidated Financial Statements). The Company also spent $6.9 million for property, equipment and other non-current assets in the first nine months of 2015.

Accounts receivable increased by $1.0 million, or 1.9%, for the first nine months of the year, due primarily to the increase in revenues. Inventories increased by $3.9 million, or 7.7%, compared to May 31, 2014 levels, and were $1.6 million higher than November 30 levels, primarily the result of volume purchases made at calendar year end to meet purchase commitments and secure favorable pricing. The Company has programs in place at each operating unit which are focused on minimizing inventory levels and increasing inventory turns.

Inflation and changing prices are not expected to have a material effect on operations, as management believes it will continue to be successful in offsetting increased input costs with price increases and/or cost efficiencies.

Management believes that the Company's existing cash and marketable securities balances at February 28, 2015, along with available borrowings under its credit facility and cash expected to be generated from future operations, will be sufficient to fund activities for the foreseeable future. However, existing cash and borrowing capacity may not be sufficient to meet the Company's cash requirements to commercialize products currently under development or its plans to acquire other organizations, technologies or products that fit within the Company's mission statement. Accordingly, the Company may choose to issue equity securities or enter into other financing arrangements for a portion of its future financing needs.

PART I FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

The Company has interest rate and foreign exchange rate risk exposure. It has no long-term fixed rate investments or borrowings. Primary interest rate risk is due to potential fluctuations in interest rates for variable rate borrowings; currently, there are no short-term borrowings outstanding and there were none during the quarter.

Foreign exchange risk exposure arises because the Company markets and sells its products throughout the world. The Company also could be affected by weak economic conditions in foreign markets that could reduce demand for its products. Additionally, revenues in certain foreign countries as well as certain expenses related to those revenues are transacted in currencies other than the U.S. Dollar. The Company's operating results are primarily exposed to changes in exchange rates between the U.S. dollar, the British pound sterling, the euro, the Mexican peso, and the Brazilian real. When the U.S. dollar weakens against foreign currencies, the dollar value of revenues denominated in foreign currencies increases. When the U.S. dollar strengthens, the opposite situation occurs. Additionally, previously recognized revenues in the course of collection can be affected positively or negatively by changes in exchange rates. The Company uses derivative financial instruments to help manage the economic impact of fluctuations in certain currency exchange rates. These contracts are adjusted to fair value through earnings.

Neogen has assets, liabilities and operations outside of the United States, located in Scotland, Brazil, Mexico, and China, where the functional currency is the British pound sterling, Brazilian real, Mexican peso, and Chinese yuan, respectively, and also transacts business throughout Europe in the euro. The Company's investments in foreign subsidiaries are considered to be long-term.
